SECTION IV
JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS
SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
FIRST DAY - SUNDAY EVENING
JUNE 2, 1991

The Memorial Service and the celebration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper opened the 1991 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference on Sunday Evening, June 2, 1991, in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center at Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina. The preacher for the service was the Reverend Phil C. Lavender; Liturgist was Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. Special music was provided by the Spartanburg District Choir, the Covenant Winds Brass Ensemble from the United Methodist Church of the Covenant, and the Pioneer Choir from Walnut Grove United Methodist Church. An offering was received for the benefit of the United Methodist Committee on Relief.

REMEMBERING
Reverend Phil C. Lavender

I remember as if it was yesterday. In those pre-school years and those hot summers my mother, after, lunch would open up Herbut's Story Book of The Bible. She would read story after story. When she had finished I had heard stories of giants and kings, of evil and good, of the powerful and the weak. I had heard stories of betrayal, stories of faith, stories of hope. I had heard the stories of God. I remember.

I remember the smell of the gas heater in a small room on the second level of the small church in which I grew. The ventilation was poor but the teaching and the care was good. I was eleven years old as Mrs. Morgan told us the stories, the stories of giants and kings, of evil and good, of the powerful and the weak. I heard the stories, the stories of betrayal, the stories of faith, the stories of hope. I heard the stories of God. I remember.

The Apostle Paul writes to the Corinthians. He had established the congregation but had great concern as he received news of divisions and problems. Corinth did not have two factions, they had many. Members were lining up behind church leaders. Some were claiming to follow Paul, while others pledged alliance to Peter and Apollos. Some claimed to be the 'true' Christians since 'they' were the only ones following Christ.

The divisions manifested themselves in various other ways. There were socioeconomic divisions of the haves and have nots at the Lord's Supper. Some brought their 'steaks' to the 'fellowship meal' while others could only afford 'Spam'. They ate separately.

There were economic divisions between Jewish and Gentile Christians. Thus there was disagreement over what could be eaten (i.e. meat) and the participation of women in the service. Some Jewish Christians wanted the practice of the synagogue continued where only males could speak.

There were morality problems. There were lawsuits. There was heresy concerning the resurrection of Jesus. If we as clergypersons had been sent to Corinth we would have asked for 'reconsideration'...even though the Church was said to have "great possibilities".

Paul in dealing with these multiple problems tells the Corinthians to remember. "Now I would remind you brothers and sisters," he says. He wants them to remember. He wants them to remember what was preached and believed in the very beginning. After this 'reminder' Paul calls to their mind the content of his original preaching and teaching. That content is the death, resurrection and appearance of Jesus Christ. He reminds them how that 'memory' has shaped his own life and caused him to be an active recipient of God's grace.

What Paul does in this passage is a microcosm of scripture and the faith itself. Scripture and faith operates on the basis of memory. But, it is not memory that is tied to the past but memory that calls one to respond in the present and look with hope to the future.

Nils Alstrup Dahl, Emeritus professor of New Testament at Yale Divinity School, in his marvelous essay entitled "Jesus in the Memory of The Church" writes of this unique place of memory. In the writings of Aristotle, Dahl says, the word "Mnemeuein", "to remember" could be applied only to something past but not to something present or future. To remember in the New Testament means that one "recalls something or thinks about it in such a way that it is expressed in speech and is formative for attitude and action". In the Old Testament when God is said to remember, he remembers the covenant and he acts in conformity with it. When he no longer remembers, he no longer remembers Israel's inequities. In other words he pardons them.

This understanding is much like our parents words to us in our youth. Whether it was dating or an outing with friends our parents would tell us to "remember who we are". It was a reminder that who we were in the past should govern present and future actions.

This evening we gather to remember. We remember as we celebrate the Lord's Supper, the Eucharist. It is not simply a past event but it defines who we are in the present.

We also are gathered to remember those who have gone before. Those who have gone before who were the tellers of the story. They have proclaimed just as Paul said he did... "let me remind you, brothers and sister... let me remind you of what we proclaimed and what you received." And they like Paul could say, "God's grace was not given to me in vain." We remember these faithful tellers of the story of the Good News of Jesus Christ.

In light of the Eucharist drama played out before us, in light of the drama of the lives of the tellers of the Gospel story how does this past, how does this story serve to direct us now? Where are we now because of our past? We might ask it this way, what are good memories and what are bad memories?

All of us have good and bad memories. Sometimes those bad memories become better over the years. If we participated in sports in high school or college those bad plays that we remember get better and better with time. We realize how good we really 'were'.

The kind of memories that I am speaking of here, however, are different than our usual ideas of what is good and bad. I am talking about memories that either cause you to respond now, in the present or hinder us from responding. Good memories are not necessarily pleasant memories but they help us to live faithfully now. They define who we are in a redemptive sense, now.

The memory that I have of my parents are good in that they not only laid the basis for my Bible content understanding but they stressed that life was to be lived ethically and morally in light of my faith. That memory defines to a great degree who I am now.

This definition of memory was kindled recently as I sat with my confirmation class as we worshiped with the Beth Shalom Synagogue in Columbia. I wanted my youth to get a sense of the context out of which their own story had come. During the homily Rabbi Silverstein read from his diary. His diary recounted the events of he and his family in the early forties. How they fled from their home to France. He recounted hearing planes flying overhead and bombs falling. The memory that he has is not a pleasant one but it is a good one. It helps define who he is in his life and faith now. It calls him to certain attitudes and actions. It is a good memory.

Bad memories are those memories that not only live in the past but destroy the ability to fully live in the present and look to the future. Bad memories are memories characterized by nostalgia and sentimentality. Nostalgia and sentimentality are killers for the Christian faith. They are shallow emotions without present commitment.

I am reminded of this shallow and destructive kind of sentimentality when I think of the Nazis regime. The Nazis would kill Jews by day and at night listen to Wagner and weep.

Nostalgia and sentimentality are present where churches live in the past. They become entombed. Nostalgia and sentimentality are seen in the view of Jesus as a "sweet Savior" who is unable to identify with or be involved with us in the real world. Nostalgia and sentimentality define a commercial for a church I saw recently. The point of the commercial was that seeing your child in the choir would bring a tear to your eye. Nostalgia and sentimentality is being moved, like the book of James says, to say "be filled and be clothed" but nothing is done to bring that about.

These are bad memories. They are shallow and will not equip us for our Christian ministry.

If the Lord's Supper and those faithful servants who have gone before are reminders, how might these good memories give us direction now? Where do they further point us?

This reminder, this memory first of all calls us to be true to the faith of Jesus Christ and the content of that faith. Paul is concerned the Corinthians have forgotten what he preached and taught. Some either denied the resurrection or felt it had already passed so they could live as they wanted.

Diogenes Allen, professor of philosophy at Princeton Theological Seminary has written a marvelous book entitled Christian Belief In A Postmodern World. He says that the church is like a barge. Like the barge, as it approached the shallow waters of scientific doubt the church has either veered to the far bank to totally avoid the difficulties of critical thought and hidden themselves in dogma or they have lightened the barge by throwing over some of the content (i.e. Christian claims) so the barge will pass safely over.

We are truly a diverse church, and I am thankful for it. But, we have to remind ourselves that our faith has content. Warm fuzzies are not enough.

Secondly, we are reminded, we remember that as Christians, lay and clergy that one of the vital ingredients of our Christian life is integrity. This is true in our every day business dealing and it is especially vital in our life as clergypersons. Being trustworthy, caring, not taking advantage of people in vulnerable situations must characterize our life and ministry.

Paul's placed great emphasis on integrity. Some had questioned his integrity due to changes in his travel plans. He had a great concern for that and responds in the very beginning of II Corinthians, in chapter one to that charge. He knows that if he is viewed as having no integrity the message he speaks will not be heard.

We remember who we are in Christ. Our life and ministry is characterized by integrity.

Thirdly, we are reminded, we remember that there is perhaps no greater time for the churches response in this world as now. There is no greater need for the Church to be who she is than now.

There is a vacuum in our society. As Diogenes Allen, quoted earlier, says we are living in a postmodern world. Our society and the modern mentality that were outgrowths of The Enlightenment are crumbling. What has been taken for granted is being called into question. We have facts (and fax) and information but we do not have knowledge. We have data but we do not have wisdom. People climb social-economic ladders but their souls are starving. Morality is crumbling, Allen says, for we thought that there could be a secular basis for morality and society. It's like admiring a beautiful flower. One cuts the flower just above the roots so it can be admired. One wonders later why the flower soon dies. We have forgotten the "roots" of justice and morality. We have forgotten the story out of which it came. It's the story Paul tells. It's the story that we tell... in the Supper and in the lives of those who have gone before.

So, we gather here this evening. We gather again to remind each other of the story. It is the story of giants and kings, of evil and good, of the powerful and the weak. They are the stories of betrayal, the stories of faith, the stories of hope. They are the stories of God... and the story of Jesus Christ. And we remember.

SECOND DAY - MONDAY MORNING JUNE 3, 1991

The second day of the Annual Conference session began with Holy Communion celebrated in Leonard Auditorium at 7:30 a.m. The Reverend Dora Gafford was the preacher. The Reverend James Stevenson was the Liturgist. Mr. Neil Shepherd was the Lay Reader.

The Ministerial Executive Session was called to order by Bishop Bethea at 8:15 a.m. in Leonard auditorium. Prayer was offered by the Reverend Washington C. Kearns. The following amendments to the Policy Guidelines of the Board of the Ordained Ministry was presented by the Reverend Ted H. Walter, chairperson of the Board of the Ordained Ministry:

I. Amend POLICY GUIDELINE Section VIII.C (page 12) by inserting the end of VIII.C:

If the person requesting transfer is a PROBATIONARY MEMBER in The United Methodist Church at the time of requesting transfer and approved for service under par. 426.1 of THE DISCIPLINE by the Cabinet/Board Committee, these two years service in SC Conference under appointment, with satisfactory reports from the assigned Counseling Elder and DS, may be accepted by the Board as meeting the minimum two years service requirement of par. 424.1 for Full Member candidate

II. Amend POLICY GUIDELINES Section VIII by inserting NEW item VIII.F and changing current F to G; G to H; and H to I. New VIII.F relates to persons seeking readmission or reinstatement to Conference membership only for the purpose of pension credit and reads:

Requests for readmission to full membership or reinstatement to local pastor status from a voluntary or involuntary terminated relationship for the sole purpose to immediately retire in order to receive pension benefits is considered unnecessary and shall not be granted. Such persons shall be referred to the Annual Conference Board of Pensions for action as provided in par. 1606.13 of THE DISCIPLINE.

Both amendments were approved as presented.

The Reverend Sinclair E. Lewis, Chairperson of the Board's Committee on Continuing Education presented a progress report on the Continuing Education Endowment Fund. He stated that there have been only eighty-five commitments thus far to the Fund representing approximately $27,000 in pledges with some $8,000 received to date in contributions and payments on pledges. The purpose of the Fund is to provide financial assistance for ordained ministers to pursue programs of extended study leave. Mr. Lewis encouraged greater participation in support of the Fund and began by handing a commitment card to Bishop Bethea.

The Minute questions were presented by the Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery, Board Registrar, assisted by the Associate Registrars. Following the presentation of question No. 25.a), a concern was raised by the Reverend Ralph Lowmore that ministers from other denominations being approved for service in the South Carolina Annual Conference should be required to complete courses in Methodist polity prior to being allowed to serve. An attempt to offer a motion to this extent was ruled out of order at this point.

A motion was offered by the Reverend Julian R. Ford that persons seeking appointment within the South Carolina Annual Conference, while maintaining their denominational affiliation must declare in writing their intent to become members of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, prior to receiving appointment within the South Carolina Annual Conference. Satisfactory evidence of declared intent must be shown within a reasonable length of time as determined by the South Carolina Board of the Ordained Ministry. This motion was approved as presented.

The Reverend Edgar H. Ellis moved that the Board of the Ordained Ministry in future sessions reserve a section of seats at the front of the auditorium for the seating of persons being recommended for deacons and elders; associate, probationary, and full membership; and readmissions. The motion was accepted by the Board as presented.

The Reverend Ralph T. Lowmore moved that the Board of the Ordained Ministry be instructed to institute a policy that persons from other denominations seeking to serve in the South Carolina United Methodist Conference be required to complete a course in Methodist doctrine, discipline and polity prior to or during the first year of a appointment in this Conference. A question was raised concerning the order of the motion. The Bishop replied that while an Annual Conference may not take away disciplinary requirements, it may add to them and ruled the motion in order. The previous question was called. The Lowmore motion was approved as presented.

A motion was presented by the Reverend John L. Warren that the Board of Ordained Ministry make a copy of its report available in the Conference office and in each district office no later than May 10th prior to the session of the Annual Conference. The Board asked if Mr. Warren would accept the date of May 25th, and he agreed to do so. A substitute motion was made by the Reverend Willie S. Teague that the Board of the Ordained Ministry be required to have printed copies of its report available for distribution at the Ministerial Executive Session, beginning in 1992. A count vote was requested and approved. The substitute motion was approved by a vote of 226 to 100 and became the main motion. An amendment to the main motion was then offered by the Reverend G. Scott Middleton adding that a copy be available for examination in the Conference and district offices by May 25th. A count vote was requested also on the amendment and approved. The amendment was approved by a vote of 220 to 103. The Teague motion as amended was adopted.

The Ministerial Executive Session returned to consideration of the Minute Questions. Under Minute Question No. 43, the name of Robert F. McKeown was presented for Honorable Location. The Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe moved that action on the name of Robert F. McKeown be deferred until the question concerning Personal Notations be read. The session requested to know the purpose of the motion and Ms. Henry-Crowe was asked to speak to the matter at this time. She stated that it was her intention to move approval of a beyond the local church category "d" appointment which Mr. McKeown had requested but for which recommendation had been denied by the Board of the Ordained Ministry. Reference was made by Ms. Henry-Crowe and others to Mr. McKeown's service to the Annual Conference. Mr. McKeown described briefly the position for which he had requested approval under the provisions of Par. 443.1(d). It included Instructor in Methodist Studies at the Lutheran Southern Seminary, Assistant Research Professor in the School of Public Health at the University of South Carolina, and Consultant at Richland Memorial Hospital. A question was raised about what other provisions had been approved. The Registrar reported on several other positions. The question was called, and the motion to defer action was approved. The Ministerial Executive Session was recessed due to hour.

The Orientation Session for lay members and those not involved in the Ministerial Executive Session was held at 8:30 a.m. in Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center.

FULL SESSION

The 19th Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and the 206th annual gathering of Methodists in South Carolina was called to order at 10:20 a.m., Monday, June 3, 1991, in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center, Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. The Session was led in the singing of "And Are We Yet Alive" by Mr. and Mrs. John Hills. An invocation was offered by the Reverend C. J. Lupo, Jr. The Reverend Talmadge Skinner, Chaplain of Wofford College and Conference Coordinator, brought greetings and words of welcome on behalf of the Wofford Community. Bishop Bethea responded on behalf of the Conference expressing its gratitude for the splendid hospitality extended to the Conference by the staff of Wofford College. The following organizational motions were made by the Secretary:

- Bar of the Conference. That the sections on the main floor of Johnson Arena and the green sections on each side of the Arena be recognized as the "bar of the conference;" and that the first two rows on the left section of the Arena floor section be reserved for guests of the Annual Conference. The motion was adopted as presented.
- Agenda of the Conference. That the printed program that has been distributed by mail as part of the pre-conference reports be adopted as the Official Agenda for the Conference Session with the provision that the presiding bishop shall have the authority to make necessary adjustments in the various business items of the conference in order to accomplish the work before us in the most efficient manner. A question was raised by the Reverend Robert E. Stillwell if approval of the agenda constituted approval of the process and thus set actions by the Conference automatically in place. Bishop Bethea replied that adoption of the agenda placed the consideration of the various reports in place, not the substance of the report of itself. The Secretary's motion concerning the Agenda of the Conference was adopted as presented.
- Record of Attendance. That the registration cards signed at the registration desks be declared the official attendance of this annual conference and that the signed registration cards be used as the Official Roll for both the clerical and lay members of the 1991 session. The motion was approved as presented.
- Tellers. In accordance with the Standing Rules, the following persons shall be the tellers at the 1991 session of this annual conference.

The Secretary moved that the list of tellers be put to record; the motion was approved.

Changes to Standing Rule No. 41.e were adopted as presented. During consideration of changes to Standing Rule No. 60, an amendment to the proposed change was offered by the Reverend G. Scott Middleton to add that the Committee on Nominations may nominate up to four additional clergy to serve on the Committee. The amendment was approved. The proposed changes to Rule No. 60 as amended were adopted. The changes as presented: No. 132, No. 103, No. 102, No. 90, and No. 113. In addition to printed changes proposed in Standing Rule No. 31, the phrase "one of whom shall be president" following "two (2) representatives of the Conference United Methodist Women." The line in the proposed rule change beginning "there shall be one (1) representative..." was amended to read in the listing of the committees: Career Planning and Counseling, Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee, and Pastoral Care and Counseling. In the following line the title "Director" of Pastoral Care and Counseling was changed to "Chairperson" of Pastoral Care and Counseling. Changes to Rule No. 31 were adopted. Changes to Standing Rule No. 120 were approved as were the deletion of the last sentence of Rule No. 95 to bring it into conformity with Rule No. 120. In addition to these changes, Standing Rule No. 122 was amended to delete "Asbury Hill" and Sewee Coastal Retreat "Center" and in their places add "Camps and Retreats." With this change, the Report of the Committee on Standing Rules was approved as whole as presented.

The Report of the Committee on the Annual Conference, found on pages 58, 59 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Secretary, the Reverend Delos D. Corderman. The report was received with the recommendation that the site of the 1992 and 1993 sessions of the Annual Conference be held again at Wofford College which recommendation was approved. The Reverend John Hipp suggested that the Committee study the amount of time allotted for the Ministerial Executive Session with the suggestion that more time be allotted for that session. The Reverend Delos D. Corderman moved that the recommendation contained in the Committee's Report outlining the procedure for a straw ballot on candidates for the episcopacy, p. 58, be adopted. Bishop Bethea ruled the motion out of order.

The Reverend Charles L. Johnson was recognized to present the Report of the Committee on Election of Delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences found on pages 63-64 of the pre-conference material. Mr. Johnson moved adoption of the report as presented. A question was raised by the Reverend Willie S. Teague as to what claim, if any, would the results of a "straw ballot" have upon the Conference or the Delegation for support as the candidate. Mr. Johnson replied that a straw ballot would only show a preference and would involve no support unless the person chosen through the straw ballot became the choice of the Delegation. The Reverend Willie S. Teague offered the following motion as a substitute for the method proposed in the Committee's Report: That a straw vote of one ballot and one ballot only and that the results be reported with the names and the number of votes received to the Annual Conference and the Delegation for their information only. The following motion was offered by the Reverend Gene Norris as a substitute for the Teague substitute: 1. To delete last paragraph on p. 58 of the Committee on Annual Conference. 2. To delete the last two paragraphs on p. 64 of the Committee on the Elections of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference.

Substitute: In compliance with par. 506 of the 1988 DISCIPLINE, the S. C. Annual Conference assumes its prerogative to elect a nominee for the office of Bishop at the 1992 Jurisdictional Conference. The process for the election will be as follows:

1. The election of the nominee will follow the election of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference delegates.
2. There will be nomination speeches for each candidate to last no longer than 3 minutes each.
3. There will be seconding speeches after the nominating speeches. Each candidate can have 4 persons speaking on his/her behalf for 2 minutes each.
4. After nominations are complete, each candidate will present his/her theological visionary statement about the church. Each statement will be no longer than 5 minutes.
5. There will be a question and answer session by the Annual Conference members to the candidates. This will last for 45 minutes or until the Bishop or conference indicates that no more time is needed.
6. The nominee will be elected by majority vote.
7. The candidate elected will be the nominee of the S. C. Annual Conference. There will be no other nominee. The Annual Conference will give this nominee their backing and support.
8. The Committee to Elect Delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conference shall direct the campaign to elect a Bishop from the S. C. Conference and shall report to the General and Jurisdictional Delegates.

Bishop Bethea first ruled the Norris Substitute to be a substitute for the original proposed in the Committee Report rather than a substitute for the Teague substitute and suggested that the Teague substitute be dealt with first, then the body should deal with the Norris motion in order to perfect the original proposal. The position of the Chair was changed and it was stated that the Norris motion would now be considered as an amendment to the original and that the body would proceed in perfecting it. An amendment was offered by Mr. Richard F. Murphy that the ballot be done as a "plurality vote" instead of a simple majority and that the nominee with the most votes be named as the winner. In response to a question by Mr. Norris, Bishop Bethea ruled that the Murphy amendment was in order. A motion was made by the Reverend W. Harvey Floyd, Jr. to table all before the body until after the election of the Delegation. Points of order were raised by the Reverend Eldrige B. Rowell and the Reverend David E. Lupo concerning the inclusion of reference to a specific amount of time in a motion to table. Mr. Floyd accepted a change of the word "table" in his motion to "postpone". The question was called. A standing vote was taken and the 2/3 vote required to adopt a motion to postpone was not achieved. The Murphy Amendment was voted on and was defeated. A point of order was raised by Mr. Harry Kent in connection with Par. 506 which would permit a straw vote but not an election of a nominee. A vote was taken on the Norris Amendment, and it was defeated.

The body returned to consideration of the Teague Substitute.

The Reverend A. McKay Brabham offered an amendment to the Teague Substitute that when the vote is taken the House be divided and that the clergy take into consideration the preference of the laity insofar as in good conscience they can. This amendment was defeated. The Reverend Franklin E. Copeland moved that the "straw poll" election for Bishop be postponed until at least 12 hours after the declared candidates make a theological vision statement of the direction they would work toward if elected Bishop; the said theological vision statement shall not exceed five minutes and shall be made before a determined session of the South Carolina Annual Conference and that unmarked ballots during the "straw poll" for Bishop be tallied and counted in the total with no-votes to carry equal weight as a candidate vote. The Chair suspended the discussion in order to proceed with an Order of the Day, the Mid-Day Preaching Service, scheduled for 11:45 a.m., Retired Bishop Leontine T. C. Kelly, Conference Preacher, was introduced and presented by Bishop Bethea.

Monday June 3, 1991 Midday Preaching Service Bishop Kelly

I cannot tell you what an honor it is for me to be asked to be conference preacher for this body. It has been my privilege to be as a teacher in pastor school in the South Carolina Conference some years ago and to have been within the vicinity within your conference for other assignments. But to be chosen for this spot, to be free to say whatever God wants me to say, and then to leave, is a great privilege. I cannot tell you what your Bishop and his wife have meant to me as brothers and sisters in Christ. Those bishop's who are so much younger than I am I used to call sons in the ministry. But now they're getting too old, so they're now brothers in the ministry. As I think in terms of holding Josepha, when she was three months old, and the kinds of sharing that we had when they were on the district in the Old Virginia Washington District of the Baltimore Conference — and to have been close to them through the years, and know the kind of support they gave when 22 years ago David Kelly moved for healing on the other side of the river — there's a very deep emotional experience for me to sit next to Josepha as a lovely young woman, to have been at Bennett College for their graduation the other Sunday where she now serves as Director of Admissions, and to admit the fact that preacher's children do good. As one of them, I have to say that.

We listen for the word of the Lord as it is recorded in one of the lectionary readings for the coming Sunday. It is the 57th Psalm. Listen for what God is saying to us through this personal cry of help from a needy believer. "Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for in Thee my soul takes refuge. In the shadow of Thy wings I will take refuge 'til the storms of destruction pass by. I cry to God most high, to God who fulfills the purposes of God for me. God will send from heaven and save me. God will put to shame those who trample upon me. God will send forth the steadfast love of God and the faithfulness of God. I lie in the midst of lions that grievously devour the children of humankind, their teeth are spears and arrows, their tongues sharp swords. Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. Let Thy glory be over all the earth. They set a net for my steps, my soul was bowed down, they dug a pit in my way, but they have fallen into it themselves. My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast. I will sing and make melody. Awake my soul. Awake, harp and lyre. I will awake the dawn. I will give thanks to Thee, O Lord, among the peoples. I will sing praises to Thee among the nations. For Thy steadfast love is straight to the heavens, the faithfulness to the clouds. Be exalted, O God, above the heavens. Let Thy glory be over all the earth." And I know a day when South Carolina — white, black, yellow, and brown — said, "Amen!" Thank you, I just don't want you to forget the way from which you've come. There are hungry people out there who want to feel that you believe in what you say.

I want to talk to you about "covered by glory" because this is what came to me as I listened to this cry of help from the ancient Psalmist. And as I greet you here in the South Carolina Conference, 1,070 churches representing 245,000 United Methodists, using as your theme the Bishop's initiative, Celebrate and Witness Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples, I hope that just your numbers, history, heritage, and ability to look toward the future will govern all that you do and say here today. Your being here is no small part of a large witness of a challenge that we as United Methodists around the world with which to face for we are neither conference oriented nor church oriented. We are part of God's work in the total world, and all that we do, say and think is placed within that context, or should be.

The Psalmist not only cries for help, but the Psalmist knows to whom he cries for help. There's an expression of trust there. He speaks of a God who fulfills the purposes of God. The Psalmist speaks of a God who will save, a God who will put those who trample on the Psalmist to shame. A God who will send for the steadfast love and faithfulness that are characteristic of a gracious and sovereign God. There isn't the response to this understanding of God — a vow of thanksgiving — because even before it happens, the Psalmist anticipates that this God will deliver. It's like the old gospel song that says I can trust God for the future because God's already done what He said would be done. You trust God for the future because you know the way by which God has brought you. Even in the midst of the circumstances of trouble, the Psalmist with steadfast heart sings a melody of song and praise to Almighty God.

This reminds us of the words of Isaiah to a captive people, Israel in Babylonian captivity, when they wonder if God even remembers where they are or who they are. What does it mean to be in covenant relationship with a sovereign God who at the distance from the temple they thought that God had forgotten them and it was Isaiah who reminded them, "Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God. The creator of the ends of the earth. God does not faint or grow weary. God's understanding is unsearchable. God gives power to the faint and to whoever has no might. God increases strength. Even you shall faint and grow weary and the young shall fall exhausted, but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength! They shall mount upon wings as eagles. They shall walk and not get weary. They shall run and not faint. If we believe this, then what you do here is of too great an importance to play with. We are talking about a sovereign God who is above all leadership, all presidents, all kings, all governments, who calls us to risk in this day and age to truly be powerful witnesses, no matter what the circumstances are. We are covered by glory this morning, because, as I think of your conference and our prayers for you and our gifts across the church as you survived Hurricane Hugo. Someone said to me yesterday, "Last year's conference was very sad." The faith of a true believer is not thwarted by litigating circumstance. It is the faith of a scripture, the biblical understanding, that no matter what the circumstances of either our individual or corporate lives may be, there is that faith that says, "Anyhow, even so, yet, never the less, and no matter what." It is the faith of a steadfast heart with an ability to rejoice because of the steadfast love of an almighty God. This is why although the Psalmist begins the lament, and all of the sorrow and trouble and care, the Psalmist can end the lament singing, "I will sing and make melody. Awake my soul. Awake harp and lyre. I will awake the dawn." It hasn't happened yet. But there's the knowledge that it will happen because God is God. Even before there was any understanding that they would be freed as they accepted Christianity in their own lives and in their own hearts, there began to be a massive movement of black people feeling that Methodism was a way by which they could witness. Even these people sang, "Before I'll be a slave, I'll be buried in my grave." It makes no sense to be singing, "Before I'll be a slave," when you are a slave. Except that if God is God and Christ is Christ and the Spirit is moving in the world, then you can already celebrate what has no business being.

And it has been true wherever the gospel has gone. All around the world. If you don't want people free, then you better stop teaching them the Bible. Because somehow the Bible must be read differently from the bottom up than what it is from the top down. Because from the bottom up, the message is very clear — of liberation, of a God who loves, of an understanding that all people are children of God whether they know it or not. And some of us take responsibility of helping them to understand they're God's children and therefore brothers and sisters to every human being all around the world. It's a clear message. It is the good news of the gospel. It is why you see the word of God to the Psalmist which was so steadfast became enfleshed in a Jesus Christ and came to live out and model what it means to be human in this world. And what it means to believe in a divine God. This is why my forbearers could sing "Before I'll be a slave, I'll be buried in my grave" because God cannot recognize human incapability to accept one another. When we are covered by the glory, a sovereign God demands more than passive praise. We don't have any problem praising God, and especially those of us of black tradition. We can praise God, we can praise God until the building moves. But somehow a covenant God demands more of us than just praise. It feels good to say Amen. It feels good to sing the songs of Zion. It feels good to have great energies in the church. It feels good to read the Methodist hymnal, even reading it through makes you feel good. But there is more that is required of us.

At Pacific School of Religion, in Berkeley, I had the opportunity to share with one of the great Asian Theologians of our day. It is Dr. C. S. Song. There is a sense in which the mission feel has come home to us. The mission feel has enabled us to begin to look theologically at what God is saying to the world today in new ways because our journey shaped our understanding of who God is. Dr. Song has written a new book; it has just come out. It is called Jesus: The Crucified People. In this he speaks of a play that is written by a Korean Christian, a poet by the name of Kim Ki Ha. The play is entitled "The Gold-Crowned Jesus". When the curtain rises, there is a figure, a statue of Christ with a gold crown. It begins with another lament, not exactly like the Psalm that's lamented, it's a modern lament. As the guitar music plays in the background, the reader reads, "That frozen sky. That frozen field. Even the sun has lost its light. Oh, that poor, dark, dark street. Where did you come from, people with emaciated faces? Running around in search of what? Those eyes, those emaciated hands, there is no native earth. There is no place to rest your tired bodies. There is no place even for a grave. In the heart of winter I have been abandoned. Where can it be? Where is the heavenly kingdom? Over on the other side of death? Green forests of the four seasons. Can it be there? Endless winter, darkness of the abyss, that I cannot bear this tragic time and tie this endless, endless poverty. This empty, cold world. I cannot bear it any longer. Where can He be? Where can He be? Where is Jesus? That frozen sky. That frozen field. Even the sun has lost its light. That dark, dark, poor street. Where can He be? Where can He be? He could have saved us. Where can He be?"

The question that Dr. Song works with is not only, "Who is Jesus for today?" But also, "Where is Jesus?" As two characters in the play, one called Leper, and one called Badger, begin to talk to one another in conversation and dialogue on the subject of "Where is Jesus today for us?" Leper says, "When your house gets tom down, stay silent, don't fight. Turn the other cheek. Obey the masters, the gentlemen, the police. Obey them for these are the true believers. This is what the people who wear luxurious clothes, eat rich food, and prove their high station by displaying their wealth like to say to us. They manipulate and sweet talk us, deny us of our souls, tame us into dull, unquestioning dull-heads — well trained pups — while they enjoy their glory and their power. Isn't it true, Jesus," he says to the statue, "tell me if I lie. Tell me if I say this because I'm stupid, or because I know no better." But in the play, Jesus does not reply.

The Jesus statue is encased in cement with a gold crown on his head. This Jesus looks rigid and stiff. This Jesus cannot move, He is not a bit like Mary's son who walked the length of Palestine. This Jesus is silent. This Jesus cannot talk. However, there is a very dramatic moment in the play when the cement Jesus at long last opens His mouth and speaks to the Leper. And these are the words of Jesus, "I have been closed up in this stone for a long, long time. Entombed in this dark and lonely suffocating prison. I have longed to talk to you — the kind and poor people like yourself — and share your suffering. I can't begin to tell you how long I've waited for this day when I would be freed from my prison. This day of liberation when I would live and burn again as a flame inside you, inside the very depths of your misery, but now you have finally come. And because you have come close to me, I can speak now. You are my rescuer."

It isn't theology that goes back to the understanding of the prayer of Jesus before going to the cross, when on behalf of the disciples in John 17 Jesus says the words, "Lord, bind them to one another as I am bound to you and you in me, so that the world may know who I am." It scares me that the credibility of a Jesus Christ in this world is linked to how you and I relate to one another. But that is the risk of God. And it is the chosen risk of God. If Jesus is encased in stone, it is because we're more comfortable with stone Jesus'.

Finally, the witness of the writer is that God is the story of Jesus, and Jesus is the story of people. "Who is the real Jesus?" Badger asked Leper. The real Jesus is not that cement Jesus statue with a gold crown, the ready made Jesus encased in a statue, enshrined in a cathedral, dictated by church traditions, or crystallized in doctrines, is not the real Jesus. The real Jesus is the love of God that creates miracles of life in the world. He is the pain of God mingled with the pain of humanity. He is the hope of God. The people manifest in the midst of despair. He is the eternal life of God that people live in spite of death. Jesus is, lives, and becomes real when people, with unflagging faith in God engage each other to bring about a new world out of the ruins of an old world. The real Jesus is the light of God's salvation that men, women, and children kindle in the darkness of hell. The real Jesus is that power of God's truth that people manifest in the face of the power, of lives wielded by the powers and principalities of this world. Jesus is the story of such people. And being the story of such people, Jesus is the story of God.

I had to use Dr. Song's words because I couldn't find words that would say it so clearly. We are called to awake the dawn, not to look at the past. The past is gone; there are no good old days. We can depend on being covered by the glory if we are willing to launch into the risky reality of being vital congregations, releasing Jesus through our lives as faithful disciples even unto death. Let me tell you, we've been saying the right things all these years, we have just been too fearful to do them. I understand what Dr. Song meant when he said, "We serve such a bold God to be such timid people." So when we talk about celebrating vital congregations and faithful disciples, we're going to have to risk doing it if our children and our children's children are going to believe in this Jesus Christ. We, who are a minority religion in the world, had best understand that if we have a witness to give we had best do it. Jesus was not crucified because of what He said, He was crucified because He dared to do it. And that is the risk we must be willing to take.

As we sing together the great hymn of the church, we need to listen to it, feel it as we deliberate here and across the church. And as we move from this papal place and people say, "Methodists are crazy." Then we ought to be! When they say, "Those Methodists really are too idealistic." Christianity is an idealistic religion. When they say, "Methodists are revolutionary." Christianity is a revolutionary religion. Nobody can say that Christianity is a comfortable, conforming, safe religion. We have tried to make it that, but if we're going to follow Jesus Christ, then we're going to have to transform the world.

The words of Isaiah that we sing over and over again without thinking sometimes move me over as I think about it, as a black woman, and a mother of four, and grandmother of four; I find things going backwards instead of forwards. I want us to say if we believe in this God then we're willing to take whatever risk it takes to make the vitality of a Jesus alive. The words are, "How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, is laid by your faith in God's excellent word." What more can God say than to you God has said? To you, who for refuge to Jesus have fled. "Fear not, I am with you. Be not afraid, for I am your God. I will still give you aid. I'll strengthen you, help you, cause you to stand upheld by My righteous hand. And through the deep waters I call you to go? The rivers of low shall not you overflow, for I will be with you. Your troubles to bless and sanctify to you your deepest distress when through fiery trials your pathway shall lie My grace. My grace. All sufficient shall by a supply. The flame will not hurt you. I only design your goal to refine. The soul that on Jesus still leans to its foes. I will not desert to it's foes. That soul in hell shall endeavor to shake. I'll never, no never, no never forsake." What more do we need? Who cares what people say about us? Let them say that we are united to be followers of Jesus Christ by the power of God's spirit that seeks us to do God's will. Amen.

SECOND DAY - MONDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 3, 1991

The session reconvened at 2:00 p.m. with the singing of "To God Be The Glory." The Invocation was given by the Reverend Thomas J. Bowman. The Conference Treasurer reported that the offering from the Monday evening service designated for UMCOR amounted to $2,590.51. Participants in this year's Summer Investment Program were recognized and introduced themselves and their place of service. The Conference was amused by their rendition of "Bishop, Bishop, Please Let the Sippers Go." The recognition concluded as Bishop Bethea led in the "Litany of Sending" for the SIP participants.

The Reverend Joe N. Long was recognized for a presentation on the Conference's Salkahatchie Summer Service Program. Mr. Long shared information about several persons who have been or will be helped through the program. A total of 970 workers have been registered for this summer's program working out of 13 camps and on 87 projects across the state. Eighty church groups have been enlisted to feed the volunteers. Eighty-seven church vans and eighty-seven pickup trucks have been volunteered for use in transporting people and supplies to the various work sites.

The Conference returned to consideration of motions related to a proposed "straw ballot" for candidates for the episcopacy. Consideration of the Copeland amendment was before the Session. The Reverend J. Taylor Campbell moved to call the previous question on all that is before the body related to the matter of a straw vote. The motion was approved and the question called. The Copeland motion was put to a vote and was defeated. The Teague substitute was put to a vote and was defeated. The Report of the Committee, found on pages 63-64 of the pre-conference material, was put to a vote and was approved. The Reverend Franklin E. Copeland raised the question of the legality of a straw ballot. Bishop Bethea responded that the Conference had voted for it and such a ballot would now be taken as outlined in the Report of the Committee. A motion was then made to adopt the Report of the Committee on the Annual Conference as a whole and was approved.

The Conference proceeded to take a straw ballot. It was noted that a list of nominees can be found in the Registration Packet. The Reverend David E. Lupo reviewed how to vote using the computer cards, including how to cast a none-vote. The Reverend Albert Cox moved to extend the "Bar of the Conference" six rows behind the green seats on either side of the auditorium. The purpose of the motion was to provide needed space for persons having to be within the Bar of the Conference in order to vote. The motion was approved. Balloting was completed at 2:55 p.m.

The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals was presented for reference by the Reverend James C. Adams. Attention was directed to those resolutions which are printed in the registration materials. The following resolution was presented by the Reverend Norman A. Brown and Mr. Adams indicated that the Committee would meet at 5:30 p.m. to review it. Copies were distributed.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: Recent studies have stated statistical facts that the plight of the Black Male in America in general and within the State of South Carolina in particular is on the decline to the point of extinction;

WHEREAS: History has documented proof of the harsh treatment of the black American male within the social, political, economical and educational fabrics of society, which suggests an intentional destruction of the Black American male, while weeding out if not removing them completely from the social structure;

WHEREAS: Within the State of South Carolina, evidence of this extinction of the Black American male presents itself in the school systems, i.e. K-12, technical schools and colleges, and colleges and universities;

WHEREAS: "Black American children are 17 percent of the nation's public school population, but make up 41 percent of the EMR (Educable Mentally Retarded) students, and if a Black American child is labeled EMR or BD (Behavioral Disorder), 85 percent of the time it will be a Black American male";

WHEREAS: The total number of college degrees in 1989 for the State of South Carolina among Black American males versus White American males were 373 to 1577 Associate degrees, 708 to 4908 Bachelors degrees, 86 to 1425 Masters degrees and 7 to 140 Doctorates degrees;

WHEREAS: Between the ages of 18 - 23 there are more Black American males in our nation's prisons and jails than students in all the colleges and universities in America;

WHEREAS: Within the State of South Carolina, with new prisons being created at a rate of one per year with a population of 18,000, with the Black American male ratio being 9 to 1;

WHEREAS: There appears to be a deliberate effort to miseducate, undereducate, unemployment, underemployment, and imprison the Black American male.

WHEREAS: If closer attention is not given to the State's school systems on all levels, the employment practices, and the court systems as it addresses the Black American male, "Genocide" is evident;

BE IT RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference in its annual session, June 2 - 6, at Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC, shall direct the Conference Council on Ministries (CCOM) to plan, fund, and implement over the next quadrennium through appropriate boards or agencies, a program or programs to address if not eliminate the downward decline of the plight of the Black American male within the State of South Carolina;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference encourage other United Methodist Annual Conferences to follow suit in implementing programs for the survival of the Black male in America.

Norman A. Brown, Pastor
West Camden Charge
Hartsville District

The Secretary called the Conference's attention to those items in the registration materials which are Petitions to the General Conference.

The following resolution on Soil and Water Stewardship was presented to the Conference by Mr. Bob Bailey and copies distributed.

PROCLAMATION
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH CAROLINA

WHEREAS, God gave man dominion over the earth, commanding him to sow and reap, to work diligently, harvest wisely, keep the earth fertile and to nourish the needs of all; and

WHEREAS, the protection of South Carolina's soil, water and air quality are essential to the production of food and fiber and vital to the future of our state's economic growth and development; and

WHEREAS, as Christians we are committed to heed God's command to be good stewards of His creation by protecting and improving the quality of our environment through wise use and management of our land and related natural resources; and

WHEREAS, our Planet Earth, God's own creation, is in danger of being doomed by human crimes of neglect, indifference, waste and careless consumption; and

WHEREAS, not only are we all dependent upon air, soil, water and plants for our existence, but also we have an obligation to protect these resources for the sake of the generations to follow; and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church seeks to meet the spiritual and physical needs of the people; and

WHEREAS, in South Carolina the month of May is observed as "Soil and Water Stewardship Month" in conjunction with the national observance of "Soil and Water Stewardship Week", April 26-May 3, 1992.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the United Methodist Church of South Carolina, that the Church through its membership observe the Month of May as Soil and Water Stewardship Month, and that one Sunday between April 26 and May 3, be designated as

"SOIL AND WATER STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY"

In South Carolina, and we urge all of our members to join in this observance along with our 46 soil and water conservation districts, the Land Resources Commission and other local, state and federal agencies and organizations committed to the conservation of our state's land and water resources, in recognizing and fulfilling our responsibility to be faithful stewards of our land and water resources.

Bob Bailey

The Report of the Committee on Nominations was presented. It was announced that nominations from the Cabinet for various district boards and committees could be found on pages 211-213 of the registration materials. Action on these nominations would be taken on Wednesday. Other nominations were presented by Mr. Jack Griffeth, chairperson of the Committee. Mr. Griffeth reported that nominations from other bodies but which must be reported through the Committee on Nominations can be found on pages 132-

133, and pages 135 and 138 of the pre-conference material. The following changes and corrections were announced: on page 133 under Furman University Wesley Foundation, Class of 1994, replace Michael H. Gillum with Laura A. Bryan, 328 Judson, P O Box 27628, Furman University, Greenville, SC 29613. Concerning the report which appears on page 200 of the registration materials: Under the Board of Health and Welfare replace the Reverend James A. Merchant with the Reverend Robert Rowell instead of with the Reverend Clark Jenkins. Under the Board of Education, replace Mrs. June Willson with Laura Gerber. Under the Advocate add the name Mary J. Jones. Additional changes distributed were: Under Board of Missions elect Dr. Michael Watson as Chairperson of the Board. Under Group Insurance replace James G. Stewart with Ms. Frankie Smith. Under Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns replace Virginia C. Hammack with Randy Berry. Other changes reported by the Committee were: Belin Trustees Class of 1991 to become the Class of 1995. Spartanburg Methodist College Trustees Class of 1991 were Norman Suttles, Alexander James and Myrtle McDaniel; Class of 1992 were Melvin Fludd, A.V. Huff, Patricia Parrish, Phyllis Delapp, William S. Moore, Horace C. Smith, Norman Suttles, and Fletcher Thompson; Class of 1993 were Quay Adams, Lee Bines, James L. Correll, Jr., Paula Baker, Dr. Floride Calvert, Jane B. May, and Jerome McCray. Student Advisory Trustees included: Christopher Jones and Neal Shepard. A motion was made by the Reverend John M. Stapleton that the name of Bill Canaday nominated to continue as a Trustee of the Belin Property be referred back to the Board of Missions as Mr. Canaday is now a member of another denomination. The motion was approved.

The Report of the Council on Finance and Administration, which begins on page 4 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend M. L. Meadors, Jr. Mr. Meadors explained that line items 2, 15, 16, 17, and 18 are General Conference apportioned items over which the Annual Conference has no control. Also, 58.1% of line item 1 comes from the General Conference. Line item 7, the Administration Fund, includes costs set by the General Conference and Jurisdiction Conference as well as administrative costs of the Annual Conference. These items are detailed in Report No. 2. The budget recommended by CF and A represents a 2.8% increase over the current budget, or $416,444. Section B of Report No. 2 details line item 1 from Report No. 1. Under Report No. 3, page 7, Mr. Meadors stated no increase is proposed in the total salaries for district superintendents and that the amount previously listed as Social Security has been deleted as a separate listing to reinforce the Church's position that clergy are self-employed. Section B under Report No. 3 was corrected by deletion of the phrase "to be adjusted when actual social security figure is available" so that B would read: The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($7,324.50) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 1992 as allocated for parsonage, utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district. Mr. Meadors recommended that local churches take similar steps to delete references to Social Security adjustments and provisions.

In connection with Report No. 6, page 9 of the pre-conference material, Mrs. Sara Shingler asked which boards and agencies would be affected by this report if adopted. Mr. Meadors responded that CF and A does not have authority to set all salaries but can make a recommendation which the various bodies would have to act on. It was stated that the recommendation of CF and A would be advisory but would not be binding. The Reverend Fred M. Reese and Miss Carolyn Briscoe raised similar questions about the authority of CF and A in connection with the salaries of professional and support staff.

Mr. Meadors reported that under the provisions of Report No. 4 beginning in 1992, funds received on the apportionment for the Senior College Fund would be equally divided between Claflin, Columbia, and Wofford Colleges. Another recommendation of CF and A is that the long-standing practice of the receiving church paying the moving expenses of the pastor be continued.

A motion was made by Mr. W. G. Smith that no increase in monies be made in the budget of the Conference Council on Ministries for programs or operations. Bishop Bethea ruled that this motion was not properly before the body at this time.

The chair reported that the results of the straw ballot were available to be read at this time. A motion was made by the Reverend Charles L. Johnson that only the top five names of the straw ballot be read and without the number of votes received. This motion was approved. The ballot was reported as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	1,050
-------------------------	-------

Number of valid ballots: 1,010

Top five: M. L. Meadors, Jr.
James E. Hunter, III
Theodore H. Walter no one
William C. Reid

Instructions were given by the Secretary for the taking of the second straw ballot, and the ballot was taken. A brief recess followed.

The Session reconvened at 4:15 p.m. with the singing of "He Lives." The Report of the Cabinet was presented by the Reverend Harlan E. Wilson, Jr.

CABINET REPORT

Is there any good news today?

When Moses followed God's instruction and sent spies - one from each of the twelve tribes - into Canaan, he told them to check out the land and the people. "See what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many, and whether the land they live in is good or bad, and whether the towns that they live in are unwalled or fortified, and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there are trees in or not. Be bold, and bring some of the fruit of the land."

The spies returned with some good news and some bad news. "The land flows with milk and honey, yet the people who live in the land are strong, and the towns are fortified and very large, and besides, we saw the descendents of Anak there."

If the Baptist and Presbyterians and Nazarenes and Lutherans and Romans and Episcopalians and a half dozen other denominations sent their spies into South Carolina to check out the United Methodist Church, what would they report? They, too, would probably say, "We've got some good news and some bad news."

They would say the people called United Methodist are strong; they are the descendents of Wesley. The land we live in is good. The churches we worship in are walled, but I pray not to keep others out. The spiritual environment is rich for the Holy Spirit is in our midst. There are not as many trees as there were before Hugo, but the recovery has been better because of the caring people called Methodists.

It is true that, from our own perspective, there are some conditions we would like to change for the better. But there are many things we can celebrate.

We are not as strong in evangelistic efforts as we should be, for the number of residents in South Carolina has increased at a much greater rate than the number of United Methodists. But we have been blessed with a net gain of 256 persons last year, much better than the gain of nine in 1989.

We have not yet reached 100% in apportionment payments, but the churches paid two and one-half percent more in 1990 than in 1989, and that on a larger budget. Fifty-seven more churches paid 100% in 1990 than in 1989. The giving is up for this year compared to the same period of 1990.

A greater emphasis is being placed on enlistment of persons, particularly young persons, for full-time church vocations. We are seeing intelligent, well-rounded Candidates for Ordained Ministry responding to the call of the Holy Spirit to be pastors.

Thirty future pastors completed the two week Local Pastor's School last week.

The Cabinet, in cooperation with the Board of Ordained Ministry, began the Enhancing Effectiveness in Pastoral Ministry program this past year. This continuing education event for pastors is designed to help them reexamine their call, review their gifts and skills for pastoral ministry, and develop a learning plan for future growth. Clergy Health Services of Emory University conducted the training sessions for this program. Pastoral leadership is an important element in the overall effectiveness of a congregation's ministry. We believe the Enhancing Effectiveness in Pastoral Ministry program, along with the Residency program for Probationary Members and other requirements of the Board of Ordained Ministry will result in stronger pastoral leadership for our churches.

We celebrate the progress made in inclusiveness regarding pastoral appointments. We are blessed with an increasing number of effective women clergy and find a more positive attitude among laity toward women pastors. Our cross-racial appointments have proven to be a positive step in inclusiveness. We affirm the wonderful spirit of the pastors and congregations who are helping us to reach this ideal.

Many Pastor-Parish Committees are requesting young pastors. A myth seems to prevail that only young pastors can attract young adults and youth. The reality is that the more experienced pastor may lead the congregation in stronger ministry with youth and young adults. An important element in all local church ministry is the shared ministry of laity and clergy. The greater the commitment of the congregation and pastor to a shared ministry, working together to provide a strong balance in all facets of the church program, the more effective the church is in fulfilling its mission. This is not my ministry or your ministry, it is the ministry of Christ through our combined efforts.

The Small Membership Church vitalization program through the Board of Missions is now in three Districts. We are blessed to have many small membership churches making a witness and offering Christian community in small towns, rural areas, and inner-city settings. Some small membership churches have been in decline in recent years. We cannot forsake these churches. We are attempting to bring resources to these congregations to enable them to have a strong ministry.

We have much for which to be thankful. God continues to bless us and we give God the praise. South Carolina United Methodism is strong, and we are showing promise of being stronger as we approach a new century. This last decade of the twentieth century is a very important period for us. This Annual Conference needs a clear vision for ministry for this post-modern era.

The vitality of the local church should be our primary concern. Vital congregations are those with a clear sense of mission, providing opportunities for spiritual growth of their members and those whose lives they touch; those where laity and clergy are in ministry together, reaching out to their community and the world through witness and service. Conference and District programming should be directed toward helping our congregations be alive and healthy.

The Cabinet supports the proposal to designate twenty percent of the Congregational Development funds paid by the churches of each district to be used at the discretion of the District Board for Congregational Development of that District.

This will enable small projects and emergency situations to be responded to in a timely manner. It will provide immediate resources for training and leadership development needed to improve the vitality of a congregation. It puts the decision making closer to home and may encourage a greater effort to fully meet the fair share apportionment in every church.

We also support the establishment of a Loan Fund for new church development and redevelopment projects of existing congregations. Low interest loans will make renovations and additions more attainable for many congregations.

The District Boards for Congregational Development are proving to be a great asset for the District Superintendents. Long range planning based on sound research will enable resources to be directed where needed most to strengthen ministry and encourage church growth. There must be opportunities for participation in United Methodist congregations where there is new population growth. In order to have vital congregations, some congregations will need to merge; others may need to discontinue.

Charge lines will continue to be reviewed and changed when deemed advisable in order to have reasonable work loads for pastors and an equitable use of church resources.

Where we support adequate financial income for pastors and their families, we must also encourage churches to maintain a balance among salary, program funds, and missional giving. In some cases there is an almost direct correlation between increases in the portion of income going to pastor's salary and decreases for apportionments and mission specials. Congregations directing over forty percent of their income to support the pastor are often doing so at the expense of local programming and meeting their fair share of the connectional church programs.

We commend the churches who make a strong effort to stay off Equitable Salary support. That most churches want to make their own provision for ministerial support is indicated in the fact that thirty charges are paying exactly $21,600, the current minimum for Probationary Members, Associate Members, and Full Time Local Pastors. An additional thirty charges are paying exactly $24,000, the current minimum for Full Members. Some of these charges are allowing other things to suffer in order to stay off Equitable Salary assistance. With minimum salaries already the highest in the Jurisdiction, and one of the highest - if not the highest - in the denomination; we urge the Conference to give serious consideration before approving increases. It is not always feasible to change charge lines in order to increase a pastor's salary. We also question the wisdom of having the minimum the same for Full Time Local Pastors as for Probationary and Associate Members. Perhaps there should also be a difference for Probationary Members (who have invested time and money in a seminary education) from that of Associate Members.

The Cabinet is on record supporting the effort of CF&A to control budgets in tight economic times. This does not mean that we necessarily concur with every aspect of their pre-Conference report.

The Cabinet understands the need for the two staff positions proposed by the Staffing Study Committee. District Superintendents and District Office Secretaries spend considerable time on matters related to the Board of Ordained Ministry. One staff person tracking the progress of all candidates could save all of us valuable time and maintain more accurate records. If our Bishop is to continue to be a "people's" Bishop, exercising the pastoral aspects of the office, he does need assistance.

A staff person in Congregational Development could assure the best possible planning and implementation of new church planning and the continued development and vitalization of existing congregations.

We expect a great deal of our Conference staff, and sometimes we hear criticism. The Cabinet appreciates the work of the staff and realizes that we are fortunate to have such dedicated persons. Ours is one of the smallest CCOM staffs. Perhaps it is false economy to keep expenses down by having too few employees to accomplish what we expect. This Conference will have to decide whether now is the time to invest in additional staff.

We express a special thanks to Susan Henry-Crowe and Clark Jenkins as they leave the Conference Council for new responsibilities.

Is there any good news? What is the report out of the land of South Carolina United Methodism?

Of course there is good news. We have the Good News! And as long as we are engaged in the sharing of that Good News of Christ, and nurturing and serving in His name, we will be strong.

We are not where we would like to be, but we continue to make progress. We give thanks to God for all our blessings, and ask for guidance as we strive to be all that He calls us to be and accomplish all that He gives us to do.

For the Cabinet
Harlan Wilson, Jr.

At the conclusion of the Cabinet Report, the Reverend Washington C. Kearns rose to commend the Cabinet for its work for the South Carolina Annual Conference and encouraged the Conference to express itself through a rising vote of appreciation for the Cabinet. The Reverend Alan C. Kubach requested a point of personal privilege to express his appreciation for the support given to him during his period of personal grief following the death of this wife and to express appreciation specifically for the Enhancing Effective Ministry Program referred to in the Cabinet's Report in which he has been participating.

The report of the second straw ballot was brought to the Conference. Bishop Bethea reported that a majority vote had been reached for a nominee on this ballot. The Secretary moved that since a majority vote had been achieved on the second ballot, the desired majority vote having been reached, the proposed third ballot not be taken. The motion was approved. The ballot was reported as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 1092
Number of valid ballots: 1061 corrected to 1029
Votes required to elect: 515
Elected: Marshall L. Meadors, Jr.

The Chair announced that the Conference would proceed to the balloting for Clergy and Lay delegates to the General Conference. Corrections to the listing of lay and clergy nominees were announced by the Secretary. The first lay and first clergy ballots were taken at approximately 5:00 p.m.

The Reverend Ted H. Walter was introduced to present the Report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry. The Conference's attention was directed to pages 42-44 of the pre-conference material. The Ministerial Education Fund was represented by the Reverend W. Donald Britt who introduced Mark Christian, a student receiving MEF assistance, to speak briefly about what the Fund meant to him. Mr. Christian stated that he was especially grateful for the provision which allowed repayment of the loan by years of service in the Annual Conference. The Reverend Sinclair E. Lewis spoke on behalf of the Continuing Education Endowment Fund, as he had done in the Ministerial Executive Session, and urged support for the fund. Established as a permanent fund, 90% of the annual net income will be available for grants for ministers pursuing extended study leave. Mr. Lewis also encouraged the laity to support the Fund. Full and Associate Members of the Conference are being asked by the Board of the Ordained Ministry to commit to contribute 1% of their 1991 salary to the Fund which may be paid over a period of five years.

The Report of the Task Force to Study the Establishment of a Scholarship Fund for Seminary Students was presented by the Reverend Roger M. Gramling. The Report is found on pages 42-43 and the document for establishing the Fund is found on pages 43-44 of the pre-conference material.

A motion was made by the Reverend Dorothy N. Culp to amend the proposal to applicants for awards must be certified candidates for "ordained pulpit ministry" in the South Carolina Annual Conference. Mrs. Culp stated that in making the original motion in 1989 it was her intention that the Fund benefit only those persons preparing for the pastoral ministry in the South Carolina Annual Conference. The motion to amend was defeated. A motion to amend the proposal was presented by the Reverend David D. Marcy to replace "at a seminary or theological school of the United Methodist Church" with the words "at a seminary or theological school approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church." Due to the lateness of the hour, the Chair directed that the Conference stand in recess.

SECOND DAY — MONDAY EVENING JUNE 3, 1991

The Conference reconvened at 7:25 p.m. with the singing of "We're Marching to Zion." Lay Ballot No. 1 was reported as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 617
Number of valid ballots: 536
Votes required to elect: 269
Elected: No One

Bishop Bethea proceeded to read Lay Ballot No. 1 in its entirety. Clergy Ballot No. 1 was reported as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	385
Number of valid ballots:	332
Votes required to elect:	167
Elected:	No One

Bishop Bethea proceeded to read Clergy Ballot No. 1 in its entirety. A motion was made by the Reverend Edgar H. Ellis to limit the reading of the Clergy Ballots to those names receiving 25 votes or more. A motion to amend was offered by the Reverend Harlan E. Wilson, Jr. to impose this limit on the reading of the second and successive ballots for General Conference for both lay and clergy ballots. The amendment was approved and motion as amended was adopted. Clergy Ballot No. 1 was read in its entirety. Lay Ballot No. 2 was taken and collected at 8:15 p.m. Clergy Ballot No. 2 was taken and collected at 8:20 p.m.

The Conference moved to an Order of the Day for the evening session on the theme "Vital Congregations: Faithful Disciples" under the leadership of the Conference Council on Ministries. The presentation was opened with the singing of "O, For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." Former South Carolina Bishop Roy C. Clark was introduced by the Reverend A. Clark Jenkins. Following a brief personal remarks, Bishop Clark spoke on the initiative of the Council of Bishops, "Vital Congregations: Faithful Disciples."

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY MORNING JUNE 4, 1991

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium. The Preacher was the Reverend Mack McClam. The Reverend Karen Starr served as Liturgist, and Ms. Madie Robinson was the Lay Reader.

The Conference reconvened at 8:30 a.m. for Bible Study with the singing of "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." Bishop Roy C. Clark was introduced by Bishop Bethea with a statement of biographical information and a fitting word of appreciation from him and Mrs. Clark. Bishop Clark expressed his appreciation to the Conference for the expressions of love and sympathy during the time of Mrs. Clark's recent illness and death. Bishop Clark stated that during the Bible Study time for today, Wednesday, and Thursday, it was his plan to reflect upon three words and their place in vital congregational life. For this morning he spoke on "wait" and the accompanying Scripture Lesson Acts 1:1-14. The disciples, he said, were instructed not to leave Jerusalem but to "wait" for the promise of the Father and that they would receive power when the Spirit came upon them. This period of "waiting" was not to be passive waiting in idleness but rather waiting in hope of a response from God. To wait is to be in prayer, receptive, hopeful, expectant; it is to enter into a time of discernment, rediscovering your own identity as the Church and people of God, and waiting for a vision from God.

Bishop Clark Tuesday Morning Bible Study "Wait" Acts 1:1-14

In these three morning presentations I want to look at three biblical words with there specific reference for vital congregational life. The first of those words is "wait." There is a rich biblical presence for this word "wait." You can call to mind a number of passages which are very dear to us: "Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for Him" (Psalm 37:7) "Wait for the Lord, be strong and let your heart take courage" (Psalm 27:14). And from Isaiah 40, "Those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint" (Isaiah 40:31).

But this word "wait" grasped my attention with most clarity as I was reading the first chapter of Acts and the instructions of the risen Jesus to that band of disciples gathered in Jerusalem after his crucifixion. We read, "While staying with them, He ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. Those words were not spoken to an individual. They were spoken to that little band of disciples who were to become the first Christian congregation. This is not instruction for individual spiritual formation as valuable as it is for our spiritual formation. This is instruction for the life of the Christian community: "You shall wait for the promise of the Lord." This is the instruction that Jesus gives to a group of people whom he hopes will be a vital congregation of faithful disciples.

The risen Jesus was very explicit about what he wanted that congregation to do: "You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem (at home), in Judea and Samaria (the surrounding area), and to the ends of the earth." This is the company of people upon whom he depends to carry out his ministry. So what does he say to them? Does he gather them together and teach them the twelve essential steps for a vital congregation? No. Does he gather them together and have a workshop on church growth. No. Does he send them off to Jerusalem with a program to carry out? No. He says, "Wait for the promise of the Father." Isn't this strange? He gives them a task to do, but instead of telling them to get busy he tells them to wait.

Being good Israelites, when Jesus spoke of the promise of the Father they immediately thought of the promised Kingdom of God. So they asked, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the Kingdom of Israel?" Jesus tells them this is not what he has in mind: "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by His own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. And you will be my witnesses..."

The waiting that the risen Christ asks of his church is not focused on the future outcome of things, but upon their immediate responsibility to be his witnesses. They are to wait for the promised power from God in order that they might do what Jesus wants them to do for him here and now.

Similarly we ask, "Lord, at this time will you revitalize the United Methodist Church and turn our membership around?" And Christ answers, "It's not for you to be preoccupied with that. But you are to wait for power to be my witnesses." Someone of another faith community commented after the "Gathering" in Fort Worth on Vital Congregations — Faithful Disciples that it was good to see the United Methodist Church finally moving from preoccupation with saving itself to asking, "What is it that the Lord wants us to do?" We are not to ask about the outcome and the results. Our role is to witness to Jesus Christ. "You shall be my witnesses." At the core of the Christian community's mission is to be representative, to re-present Jesus Christ to the world. And when he gives the charge, "Be my witnesses", our inclination is to rush out and get the job done. But Christ knows better. He says, "Wait for power when the Spirit comes upon us."

This church of ours, if it is to re-present Jesus Christ, will not do it by slick professionalism or by well-developed programs. It will be done by the infusion of the power of God through the gift of the Spirit. Bishop Felton May has led the church in a creative initiative addressing the drug problem. In connection with that they've developed a video in which a woman who is a recovering drug addict speaks of the power of the spiritual in her recovery. She says, "You can't bring program answers for a spiritual problem." This is the word of the Lord to the United Methodist Church. The key to our effective life is power which is not our own, but that which is given by God. Our mission requires more than our earnest striving. We must have, and Christ has promised, the kind of power which he had for his own ministry. And for that kind of power we must wait.

Wait, just wait? Do nothing but wait? That goes absolutely against our whole cultural conditioning. But when you look at this word you discover that there are two kinds of waiting. There is passive waiting in idleness and there is receiving waiting in openness. To wait upon God is to live in responsible awareness of God and of God's intention for us and for our lives. What did this company do when Jesus told them to wait? Did they sit and do nothing? No, they gathered together and prayed. There is a fundamental difference between saying prayers and praying. Praying is a way of life. Praying is a way of openness; of living in the awareness of God in every moment of life. We are to pray without ceasing. That is, there is to be a style of life in which we are open and receptive and focused upon God and God's intention for our lives. Karl Barth says that theology can never be done apart from prayer. He says that to do theology one must have a window open to the world and a skylight open to heaven. For a church to be vital it must have a window open to the world and a skylight constantly open to the intention of God for it's life. To wait is to be receptive, to be hopeful, eager, to be expectant, to be focused upon God.

Obviously wait has a time reference and a place reference. Jesus tells them to stay where they are and wait. Don't go back to Galilee and start fishing again. Take time to wait upon the Lord. We can't wait without giving time for waiting. Richard Foster spoke at the North Carolina Pastor's Seminar, where I happened to be present, about fasting. He said we often think of fasting as only not eating. Not many of us do that kind of fasting. He suggested that perhaps the most significant fasting would be in other areas. Have we ever thought about fasting from the telephone? Most of us would immediately interrupt our devotionals to answer the telephone. Have we ever thought about fasting from talking? Somewhat facetiously, but also with serious intent, he said, "I really believe if we could get preachers to quit talking a while the Lord might do something with the church." He was inviting us to see fasting as a means of waiting for the promise of God. The word of the Lord to the Psalmist was "Be still and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10). To wait is to be still and to be expectantly open to the presence of God.

Is there waiting time in your congregational life? At its best our worship time should be a waiting time, a time of receptivity and of expectancy that God will speak to us. Our church meetings will be more productive if we learn to prepare ourselves by waiting on the Lord. Think of how often we come to them with our minds filled with the affairs of the day and in a hurry to get them over so we can get home. How can we receive a fresh vision of what God wants us to do and energy to do it? Unless there is time for waiting, for centering down as the Quakers speak of it, we will tend to do our thing and not necessarily the thing God has in mind for us.

Janice Granna tells of a minister serving a church that was badly divided. Each time a serious issue came up in the Administrative Board, the group polarized and argued. Looking for a way to deal with this, he decided upon a procedure. Each time there was a significant issue before the group, he called them together to hear the issue described. Then they went home with the instruction to pray about it — to earnestly seek their best insight into God's will concerning the issue. Then they came together again to report on what they had been led to feel should be done about the issue. That was all they did; listen to one another's reports. Then they were sent home again to again pray and seek God's leading in the light of what they heard from one another. It was only at the third meeting that they began to try to reach a decision which represented the consensus of what they had been led to understand to be God's will for their common life. That is waiting on the Lord.

I once served a church which was building a leisure ministries building when I got there. Three years after I got there, the initial pledge period ran out with a $600,000 indebtedness remaining. That was not a lot of money for the congregation but when we had another pledge campaign we received only $200,000 in pledges. Why? Because the congregation was divided about what use was to be made of the new building. Some thought it was for the members of the church only while others thought it was to serve the community around the church. They were angry with one another about that and in no mood to pay for the building. What do you do? Do you panic and put the pressure on to raise the money? I'm not sure how we were wise enough, but we simply chose to wait. But we did not do nothing. Instead, we spent two years talking about what it means to be a church and who we were as a company of Christians. We asked how it is we go about being a church when we don't agree with one another — as we never will completely. We tried to have and to be a church. After about two years you could sense a change and people began to say, "We are a church and churches meet their obligations. We have more important things to do than wrangle about this building." A compromise on its use was reached and the indebtedness was paid. We learned to wait for the promise.

The Vital Congregations — Faithful Disciples initiative by the Bishops is a call to the church to wait. We are seeking a fresh vision, God's vision, for their life. Before we rush to plan programs, we are inviting congregations to enter into a time of discernment, seeking a new understanding of who they are as the church and what they are called to be and do. We have offered a Foundation Document and Leader's Guide to assist in that undertaking. Across United Methodism congregations are discovering new life as they are learning to wait, reflect and pray expectantly for God's spirit to move among them and to empower them.

It is the promise of God that God's spirit will be poured out on all flesh enabling young and old to dream dreams and see visions. It is the promise of God that they who wait on the Lord will find their new strength renewed. They will soar like eagles; they will run and not find their strength depleted; they will find the strength to plod along from day to day in the ordinariness of church life without becoming wearied and irritated with one another. That is the gift of the spirit to those who wait on the Lord.

The question this poses for us is, "Are we waiting people?" "Is yours a congregation that waits for the promise?" "Are we helping people to know how to wait for the Lord in their lives?" "Do we as ministers wait for the promise?" Wait for the promise of the Father.

The business session of the Conference resumed with the singing of "Morning Has Broken." The Reverend Nellie G. Cloninger was introduced for the purpose of presenting the Reverend Wayne Bryant, Executive Secretary of the South Carolina Christian Action Council who brought greetings on behalf of 2 million fellow Christians in South Carolina who are a part of the Christian Action Council. Mr. Bryant alerted that body to pay especially close attention to the restructuring of state government presently going on in South Carolina and what is happening to children in our state with 30% of the children of South Carolina now being raised in "abnormal" circumstances.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 2 was made at 9:10 a.m. as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	467
Number of valid ballots:	420
Votes required to elect:	211
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 3 was taken at 9:15 a.m. The report of Clergy Ballot No. 2 was then made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	322
Number of valid ballots:	269
Votes required to elect:	135
Elected:	Marshall L. Meadors, Jr. (147) James E. Hunter, III (139)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 3 was taken.

Bishop Bethea announced that the Conference would now turn its attention to the Africa University Project. Mr. Fletcher Carter, director of the Office of Finance and Field Service of the Board of Global Ministries, who is working on the campaign for funding for the Africa University was introduced. Mr. Carter made special note of the recent gift of $100,000.00 from Dr. and Mrs. Jonas Kennedy of Bennettsville, South Carolina, who were presented to the Conference. Following the presentation of the Kennedys and their response, Dr. and Mrs. John Wesley Kurewa were introduced and welcomed by the Conference. Dr. Kurewa is the new president of the Africa University. Dr. Kurewa brought greetings on behalf of the University's Board of Directors. According to Dr. Kurewa, plans are to begin with two colleges — the College of Theology with 20 students and the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources with 50 students. The foundations for these schools are to be laid in October or November with the hope of occupying the facilities by 1993. Additional colleges are to be established later. Dr. Kurewa stated that by the end of the century there will be 900 million people on the continent of Africa presenting a tremendous opportunity for evangelism and church growth. There is a pressing need to provide the skills and learning that can address the problems that the people of Africa are having. Ten million dollars is being sought through advance mission specials to provide endowments for scholarships for students. The ten million dollars being sought through the line item will be used for the building of the University.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 3 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	627
Number of valid ballots:	557
Votes required to elect:	279
Elected:	Carolyn Briscoe (322)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 4 was taken at 10:15 a.m.

The Reverend Ben M. Gafford stated that he was greatly moved by the presentation for the Africa University and suggested that an offering be taken for the project. An offering was received as suggested. The Reverend John W. Culp stating that whereas the United States Congress would be voting today on the Civil Rights Bill moved that the South Carolina Conference send a telegram to the South Carolina Congressional Delegation that the United Methodists of South Carolina are behind the Civil Rights Bill. There were several questions from the floor concerning the Bill. The Culp motion was defeated.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 3 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	417
Number of valid ballots:	345
Votes required to elect:	173
Elected:	Granville A. Hicks (203) James S. Gadsden (192)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 4 was taken at 10:50 a.m.

The Reverend A. Clark Jenkins presented the Reverend and Mrs. Warren Wofford, United Methodist Missionaries which are supported by twelve congregations in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Report of the Board of the Laity was introduced by Mr. B. J. Pasley, Conference Lay Leader. Mr. Pasley presented Mrs. June Willson for the Report from the Conference Council on Youth Ministries found on page 150 of the pre-conference material. The report was highlighted by Mrs. Willson and Miss Angie Sears, Chairperson of the Council. Mrs. Willson spoke of the involvement of the Council and its leadership at the jurisdictional and general church level including membership in the Professional Youth Workers Association and participation in national and international gatherings. The report included presentation of the theme song for this year, "Go With God." The report was moved to the record.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 4 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	684
Number of valid ballots:	544
Votes required to elect:	273
Elected:	Harriett A. Mays (312)
	Charles L. Appleby, Jr. (277)
	Harry R. Kent (277)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 5 was taken.

A motion was offered by the Reverend Edgar H. Ellis, Jr. that on all future ballots no names be read with less than forty votes. The motion was approved as presented.

Mr. Pasley presented Mr. Harry R. Kent to present the Report of the Conference United Methodist Men, found on pages 149-150 of the pre-conference material. Mr. Kent expressed his hope that every local church have a chartered United Methodist Men's group. He cited the Conference organization's involvement in a special project to build housing to replace a substandard unit and the annual UMM Congress at Myrtle Beach held in October. The involvement of the United Methodist Men in Scouting was again highlighted with the presentation of the Bishop's Award of Excellence in Scouting to the following nine units:

"Saved By Grace"

Bishop Kelly

We listen for the word of the Lord as it is recorded in Paul's letter to the community of Corinth, the second chapter, beginning with the 13th verse and reading through the first verse of the fifth chapter. This is the epistle reading for the lectionary for this coming Sunday.

Since we have the same spirit of faith as he who wrote, "I believed and so I spoke," we too believe and so we speak, knowing that the God who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and bring us with you into the presence of God. For it is all for your sake so that as grace extends to more and more people, it may increase thanksgiving to the glory of God. So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day. So this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal wait of glory beyond all comparison because we look not to things that are seen, but to things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal. For we know that if this earthly tent we live in is destroyed we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

There is so much in the scripture that you just can't keep from preaching. On my way to Asbury Church in Richmond, Virginia where I was pastoring at one point, I passed a man at a bus stop. He said to me, "Are you the woman who's the pastor of that church down on the corner?" And I said, "Yes, I am." He said, "You're doing a great job." And I said, "Thank you. You made my day." And I started away, he said, "Come back here. There's only one thing wrong with it." And I said, "What is that?" He said, "You don't have any business doing it." And he began to quote my brother Paul on me. I had to say to him, "My brother, there are 250 children at that church right now. And I don't have time to stand here and defend my ministry to you. Besides, Paul didn't call me anyhow, Jesus called me." The spirit of God moves as it wills, through whom it wills, where ever it wills, whenever it wills. It is the spirit of God. And we waste our time when we determine who God has called.

Paul's theology is very clear for me, though it does get mixed up, but it's very clear for me. This is a scripture that speaks to my heart. Paul doesn't have a very comfortable relationship with the church at Corinth. It's not like the church at Philippi where he was comforted by the people, and loved by the people, even though he went in prison because of his ministry there as he did in other places. There was a bond. So, it's not any surprise that Paul's letter to the Philippians is called the book of joy. But at Corinth, sin city of the day, Paul raised some issues that people were concerned about and there was a lot of competition around. But the words of Paul to the church at Corinth come at a time when he has received word that they are grateful for his ministry among them, even though he has left them. So that when Paul writes, he speaks about the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ and the ministry of Jesus Christ and the understanding of the incarnation that God so loved all the people that God would come in human form as Jesus Christ. Really human form. God becomes an earthen vessel. Paul refers to the human creatures as earthen vessels, limited by their humanity. God risked in Jesus Christ's coming as human, suffering all that we suffer, tempted as we are, and yet victorious over temptation.

I like the words of Dr. Robert Macavey Brown when he talks about the humanity of Jesus, he said, "When Jesus hit His hand with a hammer, it hurt." We like the divinity of Jesus, but we have to accept the humanity of Jesus to understand the challenge that is ours as limited human creatures to dare to live and so live in this world as if we understood that spark of divinity that God has placed in each one of us. It is amazing.

The Psalmist cries out, "Why did you create the human creature just a little less than the angels?" In this scripture, just preceding the words for this Sunday's lectionary, there are these words that we have this treasure. And the treasure is in the understanding of Jesus and the purposes of God through Jesus on our behalf. We have this treasure in earthen vessels to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way but we're not crushed. We are perplexed but we are not driven to despair. We are persecuted but we are not forsaken. We are struck down but we are not destroyed. Always carrying in the body the death of Jesus. That is to say, carrying in our understanding and the limitation of our human minds the purposes of the death of Jesus. And this is why Paul continues to write that no matter what happens in our lives, we do not lose heart.

I remember walking into an elderly woman's room, she had been ill, she was up in her 90's and we didn't know her. We had gone to see her and I remember her daughter said, "She was so ill last night. I can't let you see her." And then as we walked away she said, "But then on the other hand, if I tell mamma that you've been here and I didn't let you see her I'll be in trouble, so go see her." We went up and there was this black woman sitting in this chair with a Bible open on her lap. The shock of white hair and ebony. She sat there and I had gathered all my ministerial kind of visitation understanding ready to minister to this woman and I walked in the door and she said, "Children, don't let the devil steal your joy." She ministered to us. The room was filled with a powerful kind of light and presence. As she sat there, she said, "You know, last night I almost left here. And I told my daughter in the middle of the night, 'You get me out of this bed and sit me in a chair because I want to meet my Jesus with a smile on my face.'"

She had been reading Philippians, even at her age, without glasses. But as she shared with us, it is that understanding that when in the midst of our proclamation of faith we lose heart, then we already give over to the force of evil when God intends for us to be victorious. Paul, you see, had been through all of this and has no fear of death. And he speaks of us as earthen vessels, limited human beings, that transcendent power belonging to God, and the understanding that God becomes an earthen vessel for us.

A little boy came into my office one day, one of the children in the program, and he said, "Mrs. Kelly, you're always talking about the spirit, the spirit this and the spirit that. What is the spirit?" It's easy to preach from a pulpit, but you let a 10 year old child, one of these kids, come and tell you that, now you better say what you mean. I prayed because I was hoping that this child was going to do this himself one day. He happened to be one of my acolytes. I said to him, "Have you ever said to your mother or somebody you don't understand what I mean? You don't know who I am? Have you ever felt hurt and there wasn't a scar on you anywhere and yet you could say to somebody, 'You hurt me.'? What is that me you are talking about? It's hard for me to explain it to you because we are all spirit. We are physical beings and we are recognized by our physical being. You can walk down the street and somebody will know you. And if they know you well they'll know you by name. But there is something about who you are that makes you know that that's not who you really are. And there are times in your life when you wish you could take that real me and lay it out on a table for people to see. That part of you we sometimes refer to as your spirit. It is what you really are. It is why people can hurt you and not put a scar on you. It is why we can love, because love cannot be seen either but we know when we are not loved. And people don't always have to say that. There are ways of letting us know if we are loved or not. And those are things that are unseen, but you know they are real. And all your life you're working on developing this real you that God has created a spirit. We also believe that God is spirit. Jesus has said that God is spirit and you worship God in spirit. That is, with the spirit that is you. And in truth. So that God reveals the God self as creator, reveals the God self in Jesus Christ, and then in the absence of a day when God walked and talked on earth with people and then through Jesus Christ. There is the powerful presence with the spirit of God that is very real, so we know when the spirit is with us and we're also aware when it is not there even though we cannot see it, we don't touch the spirit the spirit touches us."

That's a whole theological course. I didn't get that much out of the seminary course on the Holy Spirit. As we talked he said, "I know what you mean. I told my mother last night, 'You're not listening to me, you don't hear me.'" in an earthen vessel that would limit it helps us to understand that there is a freeing power that moves us even in this life to be more than we could ever be. And know that even beyond this life there is love that continues, there is person that continues, there is the very essence of God's love that continues through us.

Paul says our outer nature is wasting away, but our inner nature is being renewed every day. Somehow, the older you get, as the physical body begins to waste away, and no matter how much people tell you that you don't look your age, you know how old you are. I know that I'm 71, every moment of it. And I praise God that I have a reasonable degree of health. But I know that I'm not going back, I'm going forward. I got the strongest glasses the other day that I've ever had and they cost me more than I thought glasses ought to ever cost, but it is because I need it. I need it to see you. I need it because I need it all the time. That is a wasting away of the physical body, but the person of faith grows in the inner self, the inner nature that begins to be so strong that there comes a time in your life when, as my 102 year old mother said, "You come to know that this world is not your home. And you can do this one thing for me on this day and it will make me happy, and do the same thing the next day and I don't want you doing it. There's no way for you to please me." Because there is a sense in knowing this world is not our home, we are merely transcends on our way somewhere. And our faith sustains that understanding. My concern is how we work on the inner self. How we understand that suffering is temporary. And how we, in our inquisitive nature, try to acquire so many things when they don't mean anything. That which is real, that which is eternal, is that which cannot be seen by the eye but communicates itself without language as love throughout the world.

As a young mother, I remember going from Detroit to Cincinnati and Cincinnati was home for me. We had gone home on a vacation with our two children. Angela at that time was 4 years old and my son was just about 8 months old. As we were driving back to Detroit on a Sunday afternoon through Ohio, we passed a scene where a farmer was moonlighting. He had made a little pony track on a Sunday afternoon and the children were lined up. There was a sign: 10 cents a ride. Angela couldn't read, but she could see the kids lined up for a pony ride and we could afford 10 cents, not much more, but we could afford 10 cents. She said, "Mamma, daddy, can I ride, can I ride?" My husband stayed in the car with the baby and I took Angela by the hand, gave her a dime, and we stood in line for her to ride the pony. Just as she got to the farmer, she raised her little brown hand to put her dime in his hand, and he looked me in the eye and said, "This horse doesn't ride niggers." I wish I hadn't been so conditioned that I kind of expected it. But having lived in Cincinnati most of my life I always approach any adventure with a "How will I handle this?" When you begin to handle it with your children, then it's a different kind of feeling.

I want to ask you what would you say to a screaming 4 year old as you take her back to the car and she's saying to you, "But mamma, it's my turn. It's my turn." She had stood in line, she was clean, she could pay the way, and it was her turn. But how do you hold a child in your arms and pray that this incident will not so damage the inner self, the real self, the spirit of an individual, that your child will become so bitter that he or she will never know how to love as God intended for them to? I wondered what my mother and father had taught us in a parsonage, eight of us? How did they ever communicate to us in a society that said we were less than they were? That limited even the earthen vessel beyond the physical everywhere we turned. And I wondered what was it that mom and pop and the Church of Jesus Christ taught us that enabled us to go anyhow, to determine to be anyhow, to know that we were children of God anyhow. What was it?

The phrase came to me and I sang it to my little girl as a lullaby and I didn't even have to tell my husband what had happened. He knew what had happened and he drove with his foot on the peddle all the way to the floor. But I sang the lullaby over and over again, "You are a child of God. You are a child of God." Don't ever forget that because to be a child of God in a kinship with that divine Spirit, and it lifts the understanding of even the youngest child that they are of value because they are human and God has touched each human from the moment of creation in a particular way. How grateful I am as I talk today about Angela who now is the Associate General Secretary of the Board of Higher Education of the United Methodist Church and staffs the Africa University Committee. Long ago, out of the bitterness she could have felt. There is in the context of that which will not let you just let people treat you anyway either. If we're all in the family, then we have a right to stand up and be counted and say what we think. It's one thing for you to say what you think about me, but it's another thing for me to know that as a child of God I am called. If you don't want to call it anger call it righteous indignation. I long ago learned that peace is not necessarily silence, that peace is participation, and peace is sharing, and peace is sometimes contending. But the commonality in the Church of Jesus Christ that holds us all is the fact that we believe in this Jesus Christ and that the transcending power is God's power.

I worked with my mother (who was 98 at the time) in the middle of the night one night. I had help during the day but didn't have help during the night and I was up about 3:00 and mamma said, "Listen child, your love can't take care of me. If I fall tonight, you can't pick me up. We've been paying for Methodist homes all our lives. And I had said that when I got old enough I was going to the Methodist Home. I think 98 is old enough. Besides, they put a fresh shift starting at 11:00 over there, and I don't have to worry about them being up all night because they're not my children. But I worry about you trying to pastor and trying to do the things here at home with the children and trying to take care of me, so I mean I want to go to the Methodist Home." We began our journey there and it was so funny because I got mamma settled in her room and the next day I went over, she was just 10 minutes from my parsonage and I could see her anytime. My mother was an African American woman from Louisiana and she just had a white way of showing it and that's a part of our history also, and the history of this country, she was blue-eyed and blond at one time, by then gray, but she was walking down the hall of the home and this old lady said to her, "Have you heard? There's a colored woman in here somewhere." One of these days we're going to really be the church of Jesus Christ. My mother's answer will help you understand why I am who I am. My mother said, "Hold on to the rail."

We not only love God but we were taught to love this church of ours anyhow. And to work to help it be what it needs to be. Not made by hand. If I get killed doing what I know is right, then I'm just dead, and I'm going to die anyhow. I hear so many people say about this Church of ours, "We need to be more Wesleyan." Do you know what it means to be Wesleyan? Do you know that the church of England from which John Wesley came was so far from the people at the bottom of the barrel, that when the Methodist's organized they began to preach to the minors and the people that had nothing, and they were so far out in what we today call social action that the Methodist Church of England was said to be seditious. That is historical. Moving against unjust laws. I would have no reason to be either Christian or Methodist if there wasn't a clear message in the Bible and in the history of this church.

But you see, one of the things that I've known is that there's no dichotomy between social responsibility and personal piety. I cannot preach Jesus Christ if I do not believe Jesus Christ. I cannot speak or teach or be a mother or be a friend or be active in the Church of Jesus Christ unless I believe what God has said and what God is doing in the world by the spirit of God. As we think about this, you see, one of the reasons we can't play church is because in discipline of prayer and Bible Study and sharing and accountability groups and the discipleship groups that you have as we try to have vital congregations, they are made up of people who are committed, faithful disciples. You can't have vitality in the congregation, not in a Christian church, if everybody's playing some other game. I'm not very profound, but I hope I'm clear.

In a very dark moment of my own life when the very foundations were pulled out from under me I heard a doctor say, and Joe Bethea and Shirley Bethea were not far away from us, "Your husband has maybe three months to live, maybe six months to live, no more than a year." We prayed for the miracle and worked for the miracle, and I remember David Kelly saying to me, "I don't want any fall of death over this house, I've got as much time as anybody alive. One day at a time." Nobody's got anymore time than that. In addition to the fact, I believe what I've been preaching all these years. So, this is not all of it. This is not all of it. And I tried, as all of us did at home, to match the spirit of that guy. So I was smiling and going on and I was a lay speaker of the church, and Joe, you signed my first lay certificate.

I was a lay speaker of the church, I had no idea of going into the ministry. I felt that the classroom was my ministry, and it must have been true because soon after I became an ordained minister, I met one of my former students at the hospital when I was visiting. He picked me up and said, "Mrs. Kelly, somebody told me you're now teaching in the pulpit instead of preaching in the classroom." So, that's the story of my transition and that's another story, but as things became very clear that God's miracle was not necessarily going to work as we would have it, I've come to believe in healing on the other side of the river. All of it doesn't happen here and this isn't all of it anyhow.

I remember going to the grocery store one day in the northern neck of Virginia, in that beautiful country up there near the Chesapeake Bay, not the sophisticated northern Virginia, but up there where David and I had accepted the appointment and urged the District Superintendent to send us to a little church that hadn't had a pastor live in the community for 103 years. Our plan was to help them build a new church and then after we got the church built we were going to build a recreation center and I was going to come out of teaching school into being a director. We had a great plan. It just wasn't working. I remember when I took my youngest son, who didn't have an African bush at that time — he had a tree, and I took him into a drug store and asked for some Afro Sheen and the lady looked at me and said, "We don't have any afro, I've never heard of that." I said, "Well, it is a product that many young blacks are using and you ought to have it. It's put out by Johnson Company." She said, "I think I know what you mean." She took me around to the back of the store and there was a very special shelf with all of the hair dressings that my people use. I said to her, "You mean you haven't even gotten around to integrating cans on the shelf? You'll never get around to people." She was very disturbed when she heard I was teaching American Government to her daughter.

We were settled there and working and things were working and David had got out of the bed to go get money from the board of missions of the conference as seed money for this church to build a church. It was a great church. Great because it had continued to exist despite circumstances. It was a vital congregation because they were living under circumstances we couldn't imagine. The bus would stop at one place where there were a group of homes and 23 children of the same family would get on that bus. There were hundreds of children right there in that community. It was an exciting place to be. But on that day as I recognized the fact that our plans weren't working, and I did not in any way believe that cancer is the will of God, I do not believe it. I believe the answer to cancer is the will of God. I watched us in the Gulf War, and as I saw the sophisticated implements of war go across, I said, "There goes the answer to cancer. There goes the answer to AIDS. There goes priority instead of humanity." It's funny how you just go do regular things when inside that which is really you is completely fragmented and hurting.

At any rate, I came out of the grocery store and had a young fellow help me put the groceries in and I knew it was just a matter of days by then. And I thought I was doing fine. I took the car and started down this country road and all of the sudden the flood gates opened. It's not the kind of tears you work on, it's something that's been stored up inside of you. You look the same and people speak to you the same but inside something breaks loose that is really you. I pulled over to the side of the road and I dared to say to God, "How can You do this?" It is your own personal lament. God, who has so constructed the human creature, that even a great God will hear and listen to the lament of an individual. It's an amazing kind of grace. "How can you do this," I said, "to this little country church who needs a pastor? And all the experience that David has had he brought to them and then you're going to let him go." And finally I was honest enough and said, "Lord, How can you do this to me?"

And somewhere, from the back of my own life's experience I heard my father sing a song that I didn't know I even remembered, never saw it in print until Songs of Zion came out. And I could hear poppa singing, "I know a great savior. I do, don't you? I live by His favor. I do, don't you? For grace, I implore Him. I worship before Him. I love and adore Him. I do, don't you? I want Him to lead me. I do, don't you? Heaven's manner to feed me. I do, don't you? Whatever's behind me, I need Him beside me in mercy to hide me. I do, don't you? I want to be near Him. I do, don't you? He speaks, and praise God, I hear him. I do, don't you? For me He is caring. The cross I am bearing. Oh, I love Him for sharing. I do, don't you?" I didn't know I knew those words, but they came as a witness to me. Also, the hymn writer understood the covenant relationship of this God who so tenderly cares for us, yet would have us know that the covenant relationship has a response of a human and accountability to the creator and the last words were, "I want Him to use me. I do, don't you? For service, to choose me. I do, don't you? I want Him to bless me, to own and confess me, completely possess me. I do, don't you?" To be possessed completely by Jesus Christ is to know that within your self you need to grow, so that there is nothing between you and your savior. And that possibility and that probability and that power is assured in this world as well as the world to come. Because there will be a time I will not have to be accountable to President Bush. I will not have to be accountable to any human leader or any human person. But someday when the silver chord breaks I hope to see my savior face to face and tell the story. Saved by Grace. This is what Paul knew. This is what Paul knew. That no matter what was done to him, there was an assurance of God's purposes through him in this world and God's promises for the next. Amen.

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 4, 1991

The Conference reconvened at 2:00 p.m. with the singing of "I Love To Tell The Story." The Invocation was given by the Reverend Carol R. Cannon.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 4 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	407
Number of valid ballots:	360
Votes required to elect:	181
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 5 was taken at 2:15 p.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 5 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	659
Number of valid ballots:	566
Votes required to elect:	284
Elected:	Sara S. Shingler (303) James H. Salley (295)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 6 was taken.

Continuing with the Report of the Board of the Laity, Mr. Pasley introduced Mrs. Harriett A. Mays, President of the Conference United Methodist Women whose report is found on pages 148-149 of the pre-conference material. (The Report was amended by Mrs. Mays to add a second sentence to the next to the last paragraph of the report: "The amount reported by pastors that United Methodist Women gave for 'local and community work' was $655,181-.00.") During the presentation of the report, spokeswomen from each of the Conference's twelve districts made mini-reports of the selected activities of each respective district. The Report of the United Methodist Women was moved to the record. Mr. Pasley moved the Report of the Board of the Laity to the record which was approved.

The Reverend W. Robert Borom, Chairperson of the Conference Board of Evangelism, was recognized to make the presentations of the Denman Evangelism Awards. Mrs. Lucille Wolfe, a member of the Liberty United Methodist Church, Spartanburg District, was named as the lay recipient of the 1991 award. The Reverend William C. Bouknight, III, pastor of the Trenholm Road United Methodist Church, Columbia District, was the clergy recipient of the 1991 award.

The Reverend Bruce C. Bryant introduced the presentation of the annual Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridgebuilder Award on behalf of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women and the Commission on Religion and Race. The presentation of the award was made by the Reverend Dan L. Batson to Miss Carlene Triplett, Chairperson of the Bennettsville-Cheraw Cooperative Parish Ministry in Marlboro County and a member of St. Michael United Methodist Church.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 5 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	289
Number of valid ballots:	269
Votes required to elect:	135
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 6 was taken at 3:00 p.m.

The Reverend James E. Hunter, III was recognized for a point of personal privilege. Mr. Hunter expressed his gratitude for the support given to him in the earlier straw ballots. He stressed the need for a unified effort behind the candidacy of the Reverend M. L. Meadors, Jr. and that he wished to initiate that unity by pledging his support to efforts to elect Mr. Meadors. Mr. Hunter stated that as soon as the delegation meets after Conference, it is his intention to nominate the Reverend M. L. Meadors, Jr. as the delegation's candidate for the episcopacy from South Carolina.

The Reverend Kay Adams Best was recognized for the presentation of the 1991 Bessie Bellamy Parker Memorial Scholarship Award. Ms. Best announced that this year's recipient is Kelli Denise Waters who is entering her final year as a student at the Duke Divinity School. Ms. Waters expressed her appreciation for the award.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 6 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	618
Number of valid ballots:	537
Votes required to elect:	269
Elected:	Fletcher Carter (270)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 7 was taken at 3:20 p.m.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 6 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	337
Number of valid ballots:	309
Votes required to elect:	155
Elected:	William R. Bouknight, III (166) Theodore H. Walter (158)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 7 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 7 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	649
Number of valid ballots:	570
Votes required to elect:	286
Elected:	Clelia D. Hendrix (288)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 8 was taken.

Ms. Anne Horton, Chairperson, introduced the Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, found on pages 37-39 of the pre-conference material. The report was presented by Mrs. Hazel C. Bennett, Registrar. The following corrections to the report as printed were made: Page 38, item No. 9, add to the names listed there Richard W. Branch and Joseph Keith Locklair. The report was approved as presented and corrected.

Dr. Michael C. Watson, representing the work of United Methodist Volunteers In Mission, was recognized for the purpose of presenting to the South Carolina Annual Conference a beautiful tapestry, a gift from the people of Ecuador. In responding to the gift, Bishop Bethea also offered congratulations to Dr. Watson upon his recent selection as South Carolina Family Physician of the Year.

The Reverend Theodore H. Walter was recognized for a point of personal privilege. Mr. Walter stressed the importance of the South Carolina Annual Conference expressing its unity behind whomever is the conference's candidate for the episcopacy. He stated the need to send a dear message for that there is unity in the South Carolina Annual Conference, and he encouraged the Conference to support its chosen candidate.

The Conference turned its attention to the Reception of the Classes into Associate, Probationary, and Full Conference Membership, pages 6-7 in the Worship Booklet, with the singing of "We're Marching To Zion." The following persons were received into Probationary Membership as they responded to traditional questions of faith and practice:

William Kevin Cooley
Stephen Michael Heape
Larry Richard Hyder
Joseph Ralph James, Jr.
David Durell Marcy
Anna Graham Miller
Tresco Edward Shannon
James Ronald Singleton
Kelli Denise Waters
Phillip Nicholas Watry
Marla Elizabeth Whetsell
John McKinley Williams, III

The following persons were received into Associate and Full Conference Membership as they responded to the historical questions prescribed by The Book of Discipline and our Methodist tradition:

David Wayne Day
 Roosevelt Geddis
 Benjamin Pinckney
 Robert Samuel Boggs
 James Henry Cook
 Christopher William Cox
 Jennifer Elaine Copeland Cox
 Jeffery Burroughs Dunn
 Paul David Frey
 Samuel Bolivar George, III
 Arthur Melvin Gilliard
 Harold Gregory Gordon
 Debra Griffis-Woodberry
 Benjamin Wade Herlong, Sr.
 Janet Kaye Chopin Joens
 Stephen Ray Jordan
 Michael Arnold Harrington McKinney
 Claire Parker Murdoch
 Michael Edward Murdoch
 Sheila Marie Pollard
 Robert David Blakely Reeves
 Nena Ruth Griggs Reynolds
 Scott Hamilton Wachter
 James Thomas Williams

The Report of the Committee on Future Staffing of the South Carolina Annual Conference, found on pages 60-63 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Dr. Nellie H. Taylor, Chairperson. Dr. Taylor expressed appreciation to those persons who had served as members of the Committee. The Committee's three recommendations, found at the bottom of page 60, were placed before the Conference. The Reverend John W. Hipp moved the adoption of the three recommendations as presented. A statement of support for the motion was made by Dr. Taylor. The Reverend Thomas N. Brittain moved that the three recommendations be considered and voted on separately. This motion was approved.

The first recommendation that the present Conference Council on Ministries Staff positions (1 director, 2 associate directors) be retained was approved as presented.

The second recommendation was presented that the position of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Executive Registrar to the Boards of Ordained Ministry and Diaconal Ministry be established as a cabinet level position. The Reverend Theodore H. Walter presented the recommendation and spoke in support of the proposal. Considerable discussion followed. Questions were raised as to whether a lay person could serve in this position and an inquiry was made concerning the position of the Conference's previous bishop on the issue of an administrative assistant. Questions regarding the cost of the position were also raised. Mr. Meadors replied that CF&A did not recommend funding for the position. While the Council, according to Mr. Meadors, does appreciate the work of the Study Committee and the needs which have been identified for future staffing for the Conference, the struggle of the Council in comparing needs with priorities and resources available led it to conclude that it could not recommend funding as a part of the total budget picture. Several questions were raised concerning the effects upon the apportionments of approving the position. Mr. Meadors replied that there was $17,000.00 in the budget as proposed which could be applied towards the costs of the new position. Further discussion continued with questions continuing to center upon the possibility of a lay person holding the position, the effect upon the apportionments of approving the position, the need for the conference to not allow the "dollar sign" to stop its Vision of what it needs to do its work, and the recommendation from the Cabinet Report that the position is needed. Finally, the question was called on the second recommendation. A standing vote was taken and the result reported as 433 in favor of the recommendation and 383 against the recommendation. There was a call for a recount. A motion was made by Mr. Rhett Jackson to extend the time in order that a written ballot may be taken to be counted and reported to the session on Wednesday. The motion was approved and the body voted again by written ballot. Following the collection of the ballot, the Conference stood in recess.

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY EVENING JUNE 4, 1991

The Service of Ordination of Deacons and Elders and the Consecration of Diaconal Ministers was held on Tuesday evening, June 4, 1991, at 7:30 p.m. in Johnson Arena. Bishop Joseph B. Bethea presided. Bishop Leontine T. C. Kelly was the Preacher. Also assisting in the service was Bishop Roy C. Clark. Music was provided by the Clergy Choir. An offering was received for the benefit of the Bessie Bellamy Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund. Consecrated as Diaconal Ministers were: Donaly Edwin Huss, Jr., Ruth Ann Ivey, and Lillian Amos Queckenbush. Ordained Deacons were: William Kevin Cooley, David Wayne Day, Roosevelt Geddis, Stephen Michael Heape, Larry Richard Hyder, Joseph Ralph James, Jr., David Durell Marcy, Anna Graham Miller, James Ronald Singleton, Tresco Edward Shannon, Thomas Shadrack Summers, Jr. (without reimposition of hands), Kelli Denise Waters, Phillip Nicholas Watry (without reimposition of hands), Marla Elizabeth Whetsell, and John McKinley Williams, III.

Tuesday Evening Ordination Sermon

Tuesday June 4, 1991 Bishop Kelly "Who Possesses You?"

In the scriptures read in your hearing, the gospel Jesus has established a community of intimacy with 12 persons whom He will send out to preach and to heal. They live intimately with Jesus, adopting both His way of life as well as His message. They are a very spiritually strong community. Jesus shares authority with them over illness and over destructive forces. They share His refusal to engage in self seeking or violence, and they share His compassion for human suffering. Not ordained as you will be ordained tonight, but surely called. Not consecrated as you will be tonight, but surely consecrated.

Hear their names. Simon, whom Jesus surnames Peter; James and John, the sons of Zebedee, whom Jesus calls the sons of thunder; Andrew; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddeus; Simon, of Canaan, a zealot; and Judas Iscariot, who would betray Jesus.

The crowds had been so great, as it's so much a part of the ministry of Jesus. At one time in a boat and another time on a mountain, He comes down from the mountain to go home and the crowd follows them, and are so pressing in their need of Jesus' touch and teaching that they can hardly find time to eat. When His family, probably His mother and His brothers, concerned about His safety as well as His security, heard what the people were saying they went to get Him — to save Him. For people were saying "He's beside himself." And the scribes who came down from Bethlehem said, "He's possessed by Beelzebub, by the Prince of Demons, He casts out demons." And Jesus called them to Him and He speaks to them in parables and talks very clearly, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, even Satan cannot stand. No one can go into a strong man's house and take possession of it without first getting rid of the strong man." It was parabolic, but it was clear.

He goes on to tell them that sins would be forgiven, whatever the blasphemies are uttered. But whoever blasphemies against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin. Because, you see, they had accused Jesus of having an unclean spirit. But even the unclean spirits of that day cried out as Jesus came by, "Hail, Son of the Living God!" Matthew uses a stronger interpretation of that same phrase, Matthew says Jesus says, "Therefore I tell you every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven, but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven; and whoever says a word against the son of man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven either in this age or in the age to come." And see, that's before Pentecost. That is the understanding that the Holy Spirit is God's spirit. And then Jesus establishes new kinship linkages.

As you look at this scene, there's no way to parallel an ordination with the kind of scene that is there. But there are those of us who are retired and we do things that you shouldn't do. You don't have to worry about it — you just do it and say the Spirit told you to do it.

There are four things that I want to call to your attention. First, Jesus was accused of being possessed by the Prince of Demons. His sanity was questioned. He's accused of having an unclean spirit. Jesus was believed to be possessed. My question is, "Who possesses you tonight?" Secondly, the real question is not "who possessed Jesus?" Already the authorities are raising a question, a real question, of power, "By whose authority do you, Jesus, do all that you do? Who gave you permission? You didn't ask us for ordination papers. You didn't ask us for permission to be going around and in God's name doing all this and referring to a relationship to God as your father." By whose authority does Jesus do all that He does? Neither the scribes nor the Pharisees had given Jesus authority. And Jesus answered, "It's always the same, 'All authority is given to Me in heaven and on earth.' He named the Father as the source of the authority, the creator of all things. They don't have to understand it, but Jesus knows it."

The same Jesus, while in resurrection, instructed the disciples to wait in Jerusalem, as Bishop Clark told us this morning. Wait in Jerusalem until they receive the power, the real authority to minister in the name of Jesus. And this authority, this power, will come from the Holy Spirit and it will enable the followers of Jesus to do even greater work than Jesus has done. "Who possesses you?" And fourthly, Jesus establishes a new kinship in that setting. He moves beyond His blood relatives to say, "Whoever does the will of God is My brother and My sister and My mother."

As I said, there's no way to really parallel this at ordination, but as you come having come the same path and you realize that even those of us who are bishop's and the district superintendent and the other elders of the church who will lay hands this evening on you — lay hands in prayer that the Holy Spirit will be the source of your authority, and when the church in its process and polity finally, on this occasion, says take the authority, it is not the authority of the institutional church, it is the authority of the power of God through the Holy Spirit in the name of Jesus that you go for. I don't know about you, but I teach in the seminary and some of my students have witnesses as they witnessed on their journey to the fact that some of their relatives and some of their friends thought they were not quite sane when they said they were going into ministry.

I remember when I counted up when I would finish seminary, and realized that I would be 56 when I finished seminary, then my children were probably right when they said, "Mamma, you're going to be ordained and retired at the same conference." It didn't quite happen that way, but who knew how it would come out. But there is a point of convincing, even convincing yourself, what is it that is possessing me? What is it that makes me feel that this is all that I can do in this time of my life? And I would say to you, even in this moment, "If there is anything else you can do other than be ordained tonight, then you would do the church a great favor if you would do it." That's hard to say, isn't it? But it is only when there is absolutely nothing else in this world that you can do other than to be possessed by Jesus Christ and have the Spirit guide you through a particular calling to give yourself in this way that you become the very clear instrument of God, not only in the church but in the world that is God's also. The question of power is that which comes from your faith in the reality of Jesus Christ.

Someone said to me as they were joining the church when I was a pastor, "Rev. Kelly, I want to join. I only have problems with the resurrection." And I said, "Well, you know, you can be whatever you want to be, but you can't be a Christian without believing in the resurrected Christ." You don't have to worry about how it's done, but if you don't believe that Jesus is alive in the world, then what have you got to preach? What have you got to share? People can believe whatever they want to, but there is, I don't call it a prescription, I call it a freedom to witness to a God who never leaves you alone, as you sang.

So, the authority that is given to you tonight is given by the process of a particular denomination, but it is the prayer that the Spirit of God, both in your baptism and in your acceptance as a member of the family of God, that you have found another dimension that you can do nothing else but follow. Not that you don't have the ability to do anything else, but there is that time when it doesn't matter what mamma says or what daddy says or what friends say or what children say or what anybody says. You launch out to say, "Here am I. Send me." And you say it in United Methodism in a particular polity in which we pull our resources and subject ourselves to a particular process of appointment to carry out God's will through our lives. You do it in a very particular time when it is not easy to call people your brothers and your sisters. In a time when this nation under God, undivided, indivisible rather, is divided and I'm not quite sure it's under God. On our coins we write the words, "In God We Trust." No problem with that, God can be trusted. What is problematic in this day and this age is whether or not God can trust us.

I found myself not playing, but thinking in terms of our language today and I shared this the other night in a seminary graduation because I thought about how our language today speaks of the tenure of our time and the serious kind of community in which you go to serve in many forms of ministry. Listen to our language. What we say begins to depict the context in which we minister today. We are not of the day of Jesus, but the same power is available to us, as well as the same suffering. Listen to the words.

We use sociologically a term today in this country, a term that calls a certain group of people in our country, a "permanent" under class. What kind of good news do you have to bring to a people whose own people call them a "permanent" under class? No democracy should ever claim that people are permanently at the bottom of the barrel when even the bottom has dropped out. And yet, our society is marked by people whose future, whose vision of a different way of life seems so thwarted, even by the language that accepts this not just as a possibility, but as something that we cannot address.

A term, the feminization of poverty. We hear these words and we use them loosely, but that phrase means that there are more women and children in line — hunger lines and lines of homelessness and lines of illness — in this day in this country in which you minister than there has ever been before. The feminization of poverty. The poverty that we already know the roots of. We have analyzed poverty and we know what we need to do, but we have yet to address the problem of poverty. What is the good news that goes through you by the power of the Holy Spirit and by the gospel of Jesus Christ that will enable you to so love those at the bottom of the barrel that you would recognize them as your brothers and your sisters and your mothers and your fathers?

Missing children. Out in California, we get it through the mail all the time. There's always a card with children's pictures on it. In Nevada, as you go through the toll booth, there are pictures all up and down the toll booth of children in this country who are missing. Missing children. A sickness of our society. Children who are used. Children who are bought and sold. When materialism becomes so prevalent that people will sell children, then we have been so morally corrupt that I wonder how we, other than by the power of God, can give the good news of love and compassion to people.

Crack babies. Already our papers and our readings are telling us that a generation of kindergarten children are coming into our school systems across this country of children who were born on crack, as crack babies, and we are having to know what to do with these children. Pediatric AIDS. Children born with AIDS. A disease. Last year, I received an honorary degree at one of our universities and we were having a forum in connection with the graduation exercises. There was a forum on AIDS and as I started in one of the men stopped me and he said, "Bishop Kelly, I am so glad that you're going to be on this forum. I hope that you help people understand that we don't have any business paying for a homosexual disease." And I said, "My brother, you're talking to the wrong bishop." At the time, I was president of the national AIDS interfaith network. When I told him that he said, "A bishop of the church." I said, "Have you ever met Jesus? Have you ever known a Jesus who did not touch the untouchables of His day and bring healing and acceptance and a quality of life to people who were on the parameters of the society — unacceptable? There is nothing in the Bible that would make me believe that Jesus would turn His back on anybody." He knew he was talking to the wrong bishop.

No funds for education. You read it all the way through. The lotteries sold straight across this country. I don't know whether you have it in South Carolina or not. If you don't have it yet it's on its way. I know that those of us who are bishops in the west try to organize and involve 100's and 1,000's of United Methodists, trying to keep the lottery out of our areas. The lottery was sold on the basis of how much money was going from the lotteries into education, and people bought it. And they've bought it across this country. As Methodists, we're not supposed to believe in gambling anyhow, I don't know whether you remember that. I don't believe in it, but I want to say if you've got to have a lottery, then put defense on lotteries and put some money and public education for our children. No funds to educate when a democracy is founded on an educated, illiterate people who know how to choose and make decision for themselves and are not subject to decision making powers that move contrary to the will of a majority of the people.

A term that has scared folks to death in the west, it may not frighten you as much because you've been brown for a long time. But it's a phrase, a sociological term called "The Browning of America." It means that there are more people of color in America than ever existed before. The mission feel has come home to us from across the waters, and people of every color and every culture now make this a most diverse community within a global perspective. More diverse than we have ever been. And the mission feel has always been the most comfortable when there were oceans between us. And now, you see, people are here. They're not just pictures in a picture book. And on the west coast. I retired out there because I feel at home out there, the world was out there. It's a marvelous thing.

I remember that when I was an active bishop of the church, and I'm a bishop who's active now, but when I was an administrating bishop of the church I went with the district superintendent to a PPR Committee meeting. They were having problems with their next pastor. They had the same pastor for 17 years and

I don't think their PPR Committee had ever met. They had sent me a resume of their next pastor and his picture. I'd never been a bishop before, but I'd been a Methodist too long to know that's not the appointment process. When the district superintendent had some problems and asked that I go with him, I went. I shall never forget that particular meeting. In the midst of it, one young man, I wished he had been older, said to me with tears in his eyes, "Bishop Kelly, I joined this church to keep my children pure, and you might send us anybody." I said, "My brother, the very fact that you can talk about racial purity to me makes me know how deep this is in you." In that particular situation, there weren't any blacks but there were Asians who had moved in. And the church couldn't be the church with the world that close. And I said, "My brother, I think what we need to do is change this agenda." I did and we talked about the nature of the church of Jesus Christ that knows nothing of racial purity, only of mother and sister and father and children of God as a part of the family of God.

I asked the district superintendent when I left there, "Do you think the people from this church are going to come to the meeting on the district tomorrow night? I'll be preaching." He said, "They don't come to anything on the district." But when I went in to preach on the preaching service on that district the next night, I noticed a whole half of the church was empty. Then they came in: 96, with red, white, and blue name tags on. It's called civil religion. They took up half of the church. In the reception following the service, they came through the line one at a time weeping. That which gives you authority, gives you power. What happens between the pulpit and the pew is God's business. All you have to do is be the clear instrument of God and the Spirit will touch and will confront and will free and will enable and tears will come. And people will know the reality of God's presence in this world today.

The gang system. I said to a young Hispanic who was the director of a settlement house, "What are we going to do about the gangs?" He said, "Oh, Bishop Kelly, don't you understand? The gang system, the gangs in this country are to the crime syndicate as the junior achievement program is to corporate America." It isn't that the children of this country cannot learn if we fund education, it is who we permit to teach them. Another term is unteachable children. And yet in certain neighborhoods across this country a 3rd grade child can stand on the corner, be there at a certain time, receive a package, see that it is delivered, receive the money, and become a part of the whole drug economy. And we say these children cannot learn. This is the reality of the world in which you go to serve and to preach the word.

Criminalization. That term which is the new slavery in America. Anytime 70% of black males are confined to prison, then there's something wrong. It is not innate. As I work with children in the inner city in my ministry, I know that in certain neighborhoods in every major city of this country, a 3rd grade child, particularly a boy. Future is so predictable. In legislatures across this country will pass legislation to build a prison to take care of that 10 year old boy ten years hence instead of putting money in that community to keep him from going to prison.

To speak peace in America is to be unpatriotic. I am the mother of two sons, both of whom have served in the Armed Forces of this country. The elder one during the Vietnam War. Although he did not go to Vietnam, he was Chief Finance Officer in the Middle East during that in Turkey as a part of that war. I am not quite a pacifist, but I want to be. I want to be a pacifist and I'm working on it, I'm praying for it. But I am a peace advocate. I cannot believe in the Prince of Peace and at the same time not feel that our country has not utilized every diplomatic effort before killing. I want to feel good about my country. There used to be something in this country called the loyal opposition. The country grew on a group of people who were patriotic — loved their country. But it is because they loved their country that they had to be an opposition to some of the decisions of their country. That is what democracy is all about.

To say and hear Paul say that we are called to be transformers rather than conformers in this world is to understand that what we preach and what we do in our churches ought to free people. And the church of Jesus Christ must be a safe dialogue place where people can come and discuss some of these problems. When people cannot bring their problems to the church, where are they going to go with them? If the church of Jesus Christ is to be the Town Hall, then that's alright. The ministry of Jesus Christ, and those who followed Him and heard His teachings, heard Him speak on acceptance of people. It was Jesus who said to Peter who, because of love for Him, took out His sword, "Put your sword up, Peter." God doesn't need our defense, God needs our help. And that is the risk of an Almighty God. Listen to our language as we "defend" the American way of life. I love this country. It is the best country in the world. But it ought to be better because we have been resourced to be better.

Last April, it was my opportunity as a retired bishop of the church to go for the division of chaplaincy of the Board of Higher Education in Ministry to three countries — Italy, Sicily, and Germany — to preach for the chaplaincy and to do pastoral visitation for the chaplains of our church who served on the Air Force and Navy and Army bases. It was my second time to go to Germany. When I was in seminary in 1974, I went to Germany to preach for the United States chaplaincy. But this time I went on behalf of the church. I never thought that I would be on a military base and be happy that some of the people there were there. As I talked with young people, I knew why many of them did not want to come home. They had security for their children. I sat in chaplain's homes and I watched little children run out to play. And little 7 and 8 year old children would say, "Mamma, daddy, we'll be right back. We're just going down the street." And the parents didn't have to be concerned. Teenagers at the bar-b-que walking down the street together in Germany, where in our country they couldn't do it even in the best neighborhoods. Security for their children; education for their children; housing for their family. There's something that's screwed about this. Here we are, supporting a military that is defending a quality of life that does not exist even for them, only outside of their country. There is something wrong with that. When you speak about peace in your sermons and when you speak about peace and minister in peace, we are talking, as our bishops have said in the Foundation Document, not just a word of greeting of peace, but a harmony, a wholeness, a quality of life that was God's intent from the moment of creation that is best expressed in the Hebrew understanding of Shalom, Jesus came as the Prince of Shalom. Our ministry has to fit into the person we claim is our authority for being and doing who and what we are.

My final example happened on that trip. I shall never forget it. I was a member of the Virginia Conference of the Southeast. It was very dear to me and will always stay dear to me, though I made a keystone movie trip across the country to be elected as a bishop of the church in the western jurisdiction. But as I told my committee when I left Lake Junaluska, "If it is the will of God for me to be a bishop of the church, then nothing can stop it. And if it's not the will of God, I don't need it. Because I plan to preach Jesus Christ as long as I live. I don't have to be a bishop to do that. God has already moved in my life to make me know where my authority lies." But at any rate, there in Germany, I found a clergy woman from Virginia. She was married to a man who was a judge in the Army. She had a dinner for a group of us that night. We were waiting for her husband to come, and she said, "He's in Berlin today." I had not met him. Sure enough, he came and I met him, and he said, "Bishop Kelly, hold out your hand." He dropped a little piece of cement in it. He said, "This is a piece of the Berlin Wall." I was very grateful. I was really so full at that moment that I couldn't go in to dinner. I asked them to go on in without me; I'd join them in a minute. I went out on the porch. I held that little piece of cement. I remembered the fact that while many people take credit for the wall coming down in Germany, nobody predicted it. It wasn't on any television station, no newspaper, it didn't come down from what we call on high here in America. Nobody said the wall was coming down, the people rose up and took the wall down. It is the bishops of our church of both East and West Germany who tell us of the small prayer meetings and of the people who met together and never in their minds divided themselves from one another. It was the vitality of their faith that came at a point that it was time for it to go.

But what brought me to tears as I held that little cement was what I had read in the Christian Sensory just a few weeks before I had left home. The editorial said that when the wall came down in Germany, the people sang in German, "We shall overcome." I remembered that when the Chinese students faced the guns and the armaments in Tienanmen Square in China, they sang in Chinese, "We shall overcome." And when in Czechoslovakia the people rose up in rebellion against that particular communist regime, they sang in their language, "We shall overcome." And when in Italy I had a luncheon for the Naval chaplains, a clergy Italian couple joined us for lunch. He spoke a little English, she spoke none. But when we stood to sing, "We shall overcome," she didn't miss a word of it. And when Nelson Mandela stepped out of 27 torturous years of imprisonment in South Africa, the people sang, "We shall overcome." And in Latin America, and all around the world.

Do you know what it meant to me, a black woman, to know that little ditty that was born in the slave system of this country, when people knew no way out, but knew that if there is a God and there is a Jesus in whom they believe there would come a day when they, by the power of God, by the authority of the Spirit, would overcome. We couldn't strategize it. Only a God alive today could take that little ditty and move it around the world and make it an anthem for freedom for all people. You go out to minister by the power and authority of a God who is alive, who can possess you and move you, so that this church, this world, will never be the same. Oh, I pray to God that you will do it. Amen.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY MORNING
JUNE 5, 1991

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium. The preacher was the Reverend John Alsbrooks, Jr. The Reverend Ben Barnett served as Liturgist, and Dr. Joseph Heyward was the Lay Reader.

The Conference reconvened at 8:30 a.m. for Bible Study with the singing of "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine." Bishop Clark's topic for the morning was "abide", and the Scripture Lesson was John 15:1-17. Bishop Clark voted that this passage was addressed to the disciples — to those in the church. Faithfulness is determined by abiding in Christ. When we abide in Christ, something changes. Vital discipleship has to do with our abiding in Christ, not the material or tangible things we so often associate with the discipleship. As we abide in Christ and more specifically in his Words, his commandments, we perceive the structuring of our congregational life.

The business session of the Conference resumed at 9:00 a.m. with the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty." The results of the written ballot taken at the close of the Tuesday afternoon session on the second recommendation of the Committee on Future Staffing of the South Carolina Annual Conference was reported as follows: in favor of the recommendation 359, opposed to the recommendation 461. The recommendation was not approved. Dr. Peter T. Mitchell proposed the following amendment to the committee's report specifically the recommendations found on page 60 of the pre-conference material: (1) that the portion of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Congregational Development and Redevelopment be established as a Cabinet level position, 75% of the cost of which shall be funded from the Congregational development and Redevelopment Line Item; (2) that the position of Executive Secretary to the Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministries be established as a repository and record keeping office for these boards with funding not to exceed $35,000 from the Administration fund line item. The motion was interpreted by the chair to be a "substitute motion" for recommendations No. 2 and No. 3 on page 60 of the pre-conference material.

The Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe moved to delay action upon the Mitchell substitute and refer the motion and Committee report to the Executive Committee of the CCOM, CF&A, and Staffing Study committee for refinement and funding consideration and bring a report back to the Annual Conference today. A motion to amend the Henry-Crowe motion was made by Mrs. Anne B. Drake to eliminate the time frame part of the motion. A point of order was raised concerning the need for a motion to reconsider the body's earlier action on recommendation No. 2. The motion to reconsider was offered by the Reverend John Pendarvis. Bishop Bethea ruled the motion to reconsider to be out of order. After considerable discussion, the Reverend Willie S. Teague moved the previous question on all before the body which was approved. The vote was taken on the Drake amendment, and the amendment failed. The body proceeded next to vote on the Henry-Crowe motion to delay action and refer the Mitchell substitute which motion was approved, and the Mitchell substitute was referred.

It was announced that the offering for the Africa University amounted to $2,693.04, and that the offering for the Bessie Bellamy Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund amounted to $1,906.44.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 7 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	320
Number of valid ballots:	306
Votes required to elect:	154
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 8 was taken at 9:40 a.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 8 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	553
Number of valid ballots:	526
Votes required to elect:	264
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 9 was taken at 9:45 a.m.

A motion was made by the Reverend James C. Roberts that all reports which are "for information only" be put to record without reading with the exception of: (1) those reports not published in the pre-conference journal, (2) those reports required by The Book of Discipline to be presented, (3) those reports involving presentation of awards, and (4) orders of the day. The motion was approved as presented.

The Conference resumed consideration of the Report of the Conference Council on Ministries. Dr. Carolyn Briscoe spoke of the excellent leadership which the Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe has given to the Conference through the CCOM and invited the session to acknowledge the Conference's appreciation with a rising vote of thanks. In response Ms. Henry-Crowe expressed her appreciation to all who have served the work and assisted her in her responsibilities. She observed that the South Carolina Annual Conference is "rich in its diversity" and "wealthy in resources", but expressed her concern at what she identified as the Conference's "propensity for mediocrity." In expressing her gratitude for the many joys which she has experienced in working as a part of this Annual Conference, Ms. Henry-Crowe encouraged the Conference to seek a level of trust which would sustain unity and purpose. Bishop Bethea expressed to Ms. Henry-Crowe the Conference's pride in her for who she is, what she has done, and what she will be doing.

Dr. Briscoe, Chairperson of the CCOM, expressed the pleasure of the Council with the selection of the Reverend Lemuel C. Carter as the Council's new Director.

Dr. Briscoe moved the adoption of Section I, of CCOM Report No. 3, found on pages 103-104, of the pre-conference material, and it was approved.

The Conference turned its attention to Section II of CCOM Report No. 3, found on page 104 of the pre-conference material. CCOM proposed in Section II an increase in the line item request for Methodist Homes to bring that request to $595,000.00 for 1992. CF&A has recommended that funding remain at the 1991 figure of $491,929.00. Dr. Briscoe stated that the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee will soon be receiving residents who will need support from the Support Fund and the Conference needs to begin to help there. The line item must be increased, she stated, if Orangeburg and Greenwood are to continue to receive the present level of funding for the Support Fund. Mr. Kent restated the position of CF&A to maintain the current level of appropriations as much as is possible. Considerable discussion followed. The Reverend George R. Cannon moved the previous question which was adopted. The vote was taken and CCOM's recommendation that the apportioned amount for the Methodist Homes be set at $595,000.00 for 1992 was approved. Dr. Briscoe then moved that the just adopted apportionment amount be distributed 55% to the Methodist Home (Orangeburg), 30% to the Greenwood Methodist Home and 15% to the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee. This motion was adopted.

The Reverend Gene A. Norris offered a motion that the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries bring to the Annual Conference a proposal to care for our aging population without the building and maintenance of new United Methodist Homes. Mrs. Clelia Hendrix reported that there is currently a proposal at the level of the General Council on Ministries involving the study of programs and future directions for the Church's Ministry to our older population. The vote was called, and the Norris amendment was not approved. Section II of CCOM Report No. 3 was approved as a whole as presented.

Section III of CCOM Report No. 3, page 105ff of the pre-conference material was considered next. A question was raised by the Reverend Harry Stullenbarger concerning the carry-over of funds and balances from one year to another. Ms. Anne Walker, Executive Director of the Alston Wilkes society, expressed her concern at a suggested "cap" of $12,000.00 being applied to the various specialized ministries receiving support through these advance specials. Section No. III was approved as presented.

Section IV of CCOM Report No. 3 was presented as found on pages 107-115 of the pre-conference material. Dr. Briscoe stated that the number of programs proposed for 1992 has been reduced from 95 to 75. The amount of funding recommended for the 1992 programs is $248,480.00. Questions from the floor were entertained by the Chair. In response to a question about funding for the Ethnic Minority Pastors School, it was stated that funding support for this project comes from other sources. In response to a question as to why a decrease in the number of programs for 1992 over 1991, it was noted that some programs' funding was increased, some decreased. The increase represents a net increase when all programs are considered. A question was raised as to how CF&A went about coming to a decision as to the amount of budget increase which could be tolerated in 1992. Mr. Meadors replied that CF&A held three lengthy meetings in connection with 1992 budget requests. The recommendations which the Council has made reflect the Council's position that the Conference can have an effective response to the Gospel within these defined limits of funding. A question was raised regarding the inclusion of programs for younger children. Mr. Jim Arant, Associate Director of the CCOM, responded that there was programming addressing ministry with younger children. Discussion was discontinued at this point as the hour for an Order of the Day was approaching.

The Reverend James E. Hunter, III was introduced for a matter of courtesy, namely the presentation of Mrs. Hazel K. Colcock, Administrative Secretary to our Resident Bishop. Dr. Hunter praised Mrs. Colcock for her loyalty, efficiency, and supportiveness and described her as a person who can "make things happen." Mrs. Colcock responded with a few brief words to the Conference that her work was a part of a team effort and that she was pleased to be a part of that team.

The Conference turned to A Celebration of Retirement for those Ministerial Members entering the retired relationship at this session of the Conference. The following were recognized and presented a certificate of Retirement:

Melvin Edward Calvert
William Guy Cowart
David Willard Cox
Lawrence Obble Foxworth, Jr.
Levi Green, Sr.
James Ray Gregg
George Hollimon
James Cecil Houston
William Randolph Kinnett
Marion Cooper McClary
George Henry Nichols, Jr.
George Clay Owens
Edwin William Rogers
Thomas Fant Steele, Jr.
Royce Buman Tyler

Liturgist for the Retirement Service was the Reverend Levi Green. A word of greeting and welcome on behalf of the Reverend Warren M. Jenkins. The response to Mr. Jenkins' greeting was made by the Reverend William R. Kinnett. Preacher for the service was retired Bishop Roy C. Clark.

Wednesday June 5, 1991
"The Continuing Journey"
Hebrews 11:1-3; 8-16; 32-40
Bishop Clark

In place of the Hebrew reading which you see listed in your order of service, I invite you to listen to the word of God in this reading from the third chapter of the letter of the apostle Paul to the Philippians. As we read this, we will remember this is the last letter the apostle has written. It comes at the end of his career. He is in prison in Rome. He hopes to resume that career, but to the best of our knowledge, he never does. And, in a sense, this letter becomes the valedictory of the apostle. Beginning with the 7th verse of the 3rd chapter referring to his achievement as a good Hebrew:

"Yet, whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake, I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but the one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness that comes from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection, and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death. If somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I already have obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me His own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippian 3: 7-14 NRSV). This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

What I want to do this morning is first of all to say a word on behalf of all of us gathered here — colleagues, friends, fellow South Carolina United Methodists — to these who are retiring. And then I want to say something on my own behalf to these who are retiring, and to others who may have ears to hear, about life in retirement.

The first word that I speak on behalf of all of us is "Thank you" to these who are retiring for the service you have rendered to the church. Later in this service we will offer a prayer of thanksgiving for you and for your ministry as a representative of Christ through his church. As a grateful company of his people we ought and we do join to thank God for you and for your ministry.

Only God knows, of course, all that you individually and as a group have contributed to Christ's church. I know something of the ministry of a number of you who are there this morning. And what I know about your ministry moves me to gratitude, as I'm sure it does others in this company who know of the investment of yourselves in your ministry and the fruit of that ministry. I happen to know also, personally, something of the struggles and stresses that some of you, at least, have endured. And also of the victories that you've won and something of the cost of those victories as well as the rewards you have experienced. And I am deeply grateful, personally, to be able to join this company, your sisters and brothers in Christ, in a profound and sincere expression of appreciation to each of you for your ministry in, to, and through the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. As I offer this expression of appreciation to those of you whose names will be read later, I want also to speak words of appreciation to those special ones whose names aren't printed in this order of service today — to your wives, and I can say that since all of you who are retiring are men.

Two or three years ago, a son of a South Carolina parsonage family contributed a guest editorial to the South Carolina Advocate entitled "The Bishop Read Her Name." Some of you may remember that. Reflecting on the Annual Conference Memorial Service at which his mother's name was memorialized, he wrote: "At this conference, the Bishop read her name. For more than 30 years, they went to their appointed work for the ensuing year. They were a 'clergy couple original style.' All that time, it was his name that seven bishops read. But she, then she and the children, then only she again stayed or traveled with him. There was never a question as to whether or not she would accept her appointment. But tonight is the only time the Bishop read her name."

My Esther clipped and saved that editorial. When she learned that I was going to preach this retirement sermon, she got it out of her files, and gave it to me with the instruction that at this service I was not only to recognize the retiring conference members, but I was to include equally in our thanksgiving those who traveled and served with them. And, as I have always done for 45 years, I dutifully followed her instructions. Not out of compulsion, but joyfully, in appreciation for the indispensable contribution that our spouses make. They not only support us who are appointed officially to serve, but by their own contributions, they make possible a fullness of ministry that we could never achieve without them. And so today, to those whose names are printed and to those whom we name in our minds and hearts, I say for all of us to all of you, "Thank God and thank you for your ministry."

Now let us reflect for a few minutes on your life as a retired person and as a retired minister. I guess I have a little authority in this area since I have walked a part of this path. As you begin retirement, you will reflect on what has been. I hope that each one of you can look back on your pilgrimage in ministry with gratitude, with genuine satisfaction, and even with joy. It may take a while for some of you to do that. It took me a while. You may carry with you into retirement, as I carried with me, feelings of regret and disappointment that you did not do your ministry better. You may carry with you, as I did, the temptation to fantasize about what might have been if you had had the insight earlier that you now have in hindsight. The first 18 months of retirement I thought of many ways that I could have served the South Carolina Conference much better than I did. Your disappointment may be in others whom you feel did not appreciate you or treat you fairly during the course of your ministry. You may carry with you feelings of ownership for some church you are leaving and experience difficulty in turning it's future over to other hands. You may even feel that retirement is forced upon you and go into this stage of your life reluctantly or with bitterness. You may struggle with feelings of aloneness and uselessness since you have no appointment or congregation to attend to and to attend to you. It would be very unusual if some of these feelings, at least, and perhaps others I've not mentioned, will not arise during your adjustment to retirement. If they do, my counsel is to acknowledge them, to talk about them with one's spouse and with a trusted spiritual friend. They have to be dealt with and resolved or else they will spoil the rest of your life and you will miss what God still has in store for you. God does still have something in store for us who retire.

Someone spoke of Lot's wife, who looked back, as "a frozen pillar of possibility." Looking back freezes our possibilities. But retirement is not graduation. It's not the end. Retirement is commencement. A new beginning in our life's journey and of our life in Christ. We have to let go and turn over to God the past if we are to complete the journey that God has in store for us. This may take some time. It may not happen over night. I know that from experience. But achieving this freedom from the past is an important part of your immediate spiritual journey. God intends for our lives to be forward looking, not backward looking. The heroes of the faith celebrated in the book of Hebrew's, for example, are those who constantly go forward in faith and do not look backward.

I enjoyed reading in the South Carolina Advocate your replies to the Advocate's inquiry apparently about what your plans for retirement were. Your responses had largely to do with the activities in which you expect to engage and where you expect to live, and that's rightly so. When people ask us what we're going to do in retirement, they generally want to know where you're going to live and what have you got to do to occupy your time.

When it comes to activities, ministers are very fortunate. In addition to the recreations and involvements that are available to everyone, ministers can, if they want to, usually find opportunities to keep on doing some of the things they have been doing during the active ministerial years. We can preach from time to time, or at least we can try — we'll have the opportunity. We can write. We can teach Sunday School. We can engage in volunteer leadership roles. And often we can serve as a retired supply or find part time positions in a church. Ministers are very fortunate. We can taper off into retirement so far as activities are concerned as few other professions can.

But I hope that you will not be driven to be doing something all the time. And I hope you'll feel worth something when you aren't doing anything. I hope you'll take time to smell the daisies, as they say, whatever that means. I hope you'll take time to enjoy relationships, especially with your spouse, as well as with others. And I hope you'll give attention most of all to who you are, and what God is calling you to be in these latter years of your life. God's call is not over. It's never over for any human being as long as we live.

So the question now is, "Having fulfilled the active call to ministry, what is God's call to you now?" I believe that's the center of the reflections that take place in the autumn years of our lives. It's natural that in the first full blush of retirement and the adjustments it brings, questions about what we will do are the dominant ones. You have a lot of questions to answer and things to work out. But as time moves along, and we go deeper into the autumn season of our life, activities will become more limited, the margins of life will loom clearer, and we will be forced to ask more fundamental questions about the meaning of our lives.

In this book of Philippians, Paul writes about those who "have not learned Christ." This world, he says, is the limit of their horizon. But we are citizens of heaven. Our outlook goes beyond this world to hopeful expectation of a savior who will come from heaven — the Lord Jesus Christ. In retirement, in the latter years of life, our eyes and hearts begin to see the horizons of this world and it's activity. And the crucial task becomes to look beyond that horizon to the ultimate meaning of life in Jesus Christ.

A man named Eugene Geissler has written a book entitled The Best Is Yet To Be: Life's Meaning In The Aging Years. Eugene Geissler is a Roman Catholic layperson. It's a very stimulating and helpful book for those of us who are older. He picks up on Browning's phrase, "The best is yet to be." People today with images of the infirmities of old age and the dread of having to go into a nursing home are cynical about Robert Browning's contention that "The best is yet to be, the last of life for which the first was made." But in Geissler's view, the best that is yet to be, for the aging years, is the potential for spiritual growth. For the faith filled person, the latter part of life is a unique and special journey toward a sense of the things that matter. So that we can live lives of fulfillment in simplicity and expectancy. (1) Simplicity and expectancy are the key words of the autumn years of life. "The central problem of character and age," says Lewis Sherrill, "is simplification." By the term simplification of life, we mean distinguishing the more important from the less important. Getting rid of the less important and elevating the more important to the focus of feeling, thought, and action.

Geissler closes his book with a story of an old man in the closing days of his life. In that story, he has this sentence about the old man: "It was rather that the vital spirit in his deadening body was edging, stripped more and more of the things of this world, toward the meaning of life." It was the gift of a growing maturity, a surer sense of what matters, and a greater freedom to give oneself to those things.

According to an ancient tradition, the apostle John became bishop of Ephesus. He labored there until at a great age he grew too weak to preach and even to stand. They would carry him to church seated, and he would say one sentence to the assembled people: "Little children, love one another." That was his entire life teaching concentrated into one sentence. In age you begin to see the essence of what it's all about. The great gift and joy in life's maturer phase is to discover what matters, Geissler tells us to desire the Lord as the friend of old age. "It came to me as a shock that I didn't ask the Lord for enough. He has given me what I asked for, but I haven't asked him above all for the gift of himself." (2) As more challenges and responsibilities are left behind, Geissler finds that "our gracious God has been filling the empty places with the divine self. As life runs out, the divine enough rushes in. Seeking the divine enough as life winds down is our calling and our hope." (3) Our hope no longer centers in our strength or our achievement, but our hope is in the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Yesterday morning Bishop Kelly talked about our eternal habitation. We have a house not built with hands. I preached about that for years; I preached about that when I was young. It was all up here in my head. I believed it up here. But I want to tell you the gospel about eternal habitation and the meaning of that for your life changes when that habitation gets closer; when those whom you've loved are in the eternal habitations. That's what happens as life gets older. The gospel takes on a meaning that it hasn't had before in your life. Don't give up on that quest and that journey. It's an exciting journey in the autumn of life to find the meaning of God in fresh ways in your life.

Well, in a sense we've come full circle. I want to come back to the question the Advocate asked. What will you do in retirement? The developmental psychologists tell us that as we get older we become more altruistic. We want to give more of ourselves. I don't know whether many of you ministers have had the experience I have when visiting older people who felt themselves to be at the threshold of death. How often they begin to talk about the good things they've done. They look desperately in their life for something they can point to as a contribution. When we get older, we begin to discover that it's not what we've gained in career or possessions that matters most. We look desperately for something we've given to life. We begin to learn that Jesus was right. It's a lot more blessed to give than to receive. It's a lot more blessed to contribute than to achieve. Sometimes we have to experience the knocks of life and life has to take away from us the things we thought we wanted very much for us to begin to learn that.

In retirement many of us do ask, "What can I do as an older person? What can I contribute?" Someone answers that in a materialistic, pragmatic, youth centered culture, we can be a witness to the values of simplicity and the devotion to the things that matter. As we simplify our life, and as we show that the quest of our life is for the things that matter, we can become the elders in society. This society needs wise and spiritually mature elders. We don't force our message on anybody, we just live it. What does a frenetic world need more than the living witness of persons who have entered into the shalom of God, the peace which the world cannot give rooted in abiding in Christ. These retirement years are a special time to receive the gift of scripture and of prayer. Make prayer your goal. Petition the Lord for the gift of prayer. Desire the Lord as the friend of advancing years. Enter deeply into the scriptures. You'll be freer now to enter into scripture than you ever were before because you will not be thinking, "Now, what can I say to those folks on Sunday."

Somebody has put out a book called The Devil's Dictionary. The definition of a Christian is: "noun, a group of people who believe the scripture is inspired and very valuable for other people." But now you don't read the scripture to get three points. You don't read the scripture for what this congregation wants and needs. You read it for what the Lord is saying to you about your life. Dig deep into the resources of faith and discover that God is the friend of the advancing years. Desire the Lord. Desire the Lord. Amen.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 5, 1991

The Conference reconvened at 2:00 p.m. with the singing of "I Stand Amazed In the Presence." An invocation was offered by the Reverend Needham R. Williamson.

The Reverend Reginald W. Ponder, Executive Secretary of the SEJ Administrative Council, was presented to the Conference. Dr. Ponder spoke about the programs and activities of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

The Reverend M. L. Meadors, Jr. was recognized for a point of personal privilege. Dr. Meadors expressed his gratitude for the support given him on the straw ballot and the election to the General Conference Delegation. He stated that he had been deeply touched by the statements of support and appeals for unity made by Dr. Hunter and Dr. Walter on Tuesday, and he wished to affirm and thank them for what they have said and done. Dr. Meadors added that should he not be chosen as the candidate by the delegation, he pledges his support to whomever that candidate should be.

The Reverend Talmadge B. Skinner was recognized for a point of personal privilege. Chaplain Skinner announced that Wofford College had been selected as one of eleven schools to participate in the Bonner Scholars program beginning in the fall of 1991. The program combines scholarship assistance with student commitments to volunteer services and outreach assignments.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 8 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	384
Number of valid ballots:	351
Votes required to elect:	171
Elected:	Robert E. Stillwell (189)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 9 was taken at 2:20 p.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 9 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	641
Number of valid ballots:	611
Votes required to elect:	306
Elected:	Polly M. Gramling (327) Joseph E. Heyward (308)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 10 was taken at 2:30 p.m.

The Conference directed its attention to acting on the Report of the Committee on Nominations. Mr. Griffeth corrected the correction on page 200 of the registration material by withdrawing the change for Mrs. June Willson on the Board of Education. He moved the election of those nominated as presented and corrected, and they were approved. Mr. Griffeth moved the election of all those nominated which are before the body. These included the nominations for the Belin Trust, Spartanburg Methodist College Board, Wesley Foundation Boards (pages 132-133), Methodist Colleges (page 135), various district boards and committees (pages 211-213) and additional nominations places before the Conference on Monday. They were approved.

The Conference then suspended the Standing Rules to allow the election of four clergy persons now to the Committee on the Annual Conference as the makeup of that Committee was changed by action of the Conference. The following persons were elected: A. Clark Jenkins, Susan De Loache, Gary D. Phillips, and Theron W. Smith. Appreciation was expressed to the Reverend John Alsbrooks, Jr. for seven years of service on the Committee on Nominations.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 9 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	323
Number of valid ballots:	311
Votes required to elect:	156
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 10 was taken at 3:40 p.m.

The Reverend Jack Buckley, Educational Opportunities was presented to the Conference. Mr. Buckley stated that again in 1992 there would be a tour from the South Carolina Annual Conference to the Holy Land. The Reverend Lee Cothran will serve as the Conference Coordinator for this tour. A district coordinator will be named for each district. Mr. Buckley stated that $24,000.00 in clergy scholarships are available and that a Conference Committee is developing a scholarship program to assist lay persons in making the tour.

The Report of the Board of Pensions was introduced by Mrs. Anne B. Drake, Chairperson. Mrs. Drake stated that there are two goals towards which the Board is working: (1) desire to reach a 1% funding rate for each year of past service and (2) by the year 2001 to have fully funded all of the present unfunded liability. The Reverend W. Timothy McClendon, Secretary of the Board, presented Report No. 1, which begins on page 44 of the pre-conference material. Mr. McClendon noted that under item B there is no budget increase requested as the necessary increase is being made-up from the Pension Reserve Fund. He highlighted the other items contained in Report No. 1. Report No. 1 was approved as presented. The Addendum to Report No. 1 (page 45) was approved as presented with the following personal notation: Correct the service record of the Reverend J. Cecil Houston, 1/2 credit for the period 9/1/60-12/31/60, 1/2 credit for the period 1/1/61-12/31/61, 3/4 credit for the period 1/1/62-12/31/62, 3/4 credit for the period 1/1/63-12/31/63, 3/4 credit for the period 1/1/64-12/31/64, full credit for the period 1/1/65-12/31/65. Addendum A, pages 45-47, was also adopted as presented.

Mr. Hammie Chaplin presented the Report of the Committee on Proportional Payment of the Board of Pensions found on page 202 of the registration material. The report as presented was corrected by the deletion of No. 46 and No. 52. Mr. Chaplin reported that the process for the work of this committee has been established and followed and that all appeals have been heard. He moved that the 1990 listing of Defaults and Liens be adopted as presented and corrected. The motion was approved. The Report of the Board of Pensions as a whole was then adopted by the Conference.

A presentation on behalf of the United Methodist Publishing House was introduced by the Reverend James S. Gadsden. Dr. Gadsden described several activities of the Publishing House including its Library Project for the new Africa University with proceeds from hymnal sales be applied to assist the University. Dr. Gadsden noted that 120 new titles are provided each year through the Publishing House. He then presented Miss Toni Robb, Manager of the Columbia Cokesbury Store, who expressed appreciation to the Methodists of South Carolina for their support of the Columbia Store. Ms. Robb also mentioned the newly published and available devotional book by the Reverend W. Wallace Fridy of the South Carolina Conference. A check in the amount of $20,927.88 from the Publishing House was presented to the Conference for the benefit of the Conference Pension Program. Bishop Bethea expressed the thanks of the Conference.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 10 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	356
Number of valid ballots:	337
Votes required to elect:	169
Elected:	Delos D. Corderman (172)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 11 was taken at 3:30 p.m.

The Report of the Commission on Group Insurance, found on pages 52-58 of the pre-conference material and page 201 of the registration material, was presented by the Reverend John W. Hipp, Chairperson. Report No. 1, pages 52-53, was approved as presented. Report No. 2, pages 53-54, was approved as presented. Mr. Hipp noted changes in Report No. 3, page 54, for the first time in several years. The annual deductible has been increased from $200.00 to $250.00 and the 80% payment threshold amount has been increased from $2,000.00 to $5,000.00 with 100% payment of all eligible expenses over $5,000.00. Mr. Hipp stated that adverse changes in our experience has led to the need for a 60% increase in premium costs for 1992. Report No. 4, pages 54-55, was approved as presented. Report No. 5, page 55, was approved as presented. Report No. 6, page 56, was approved as presented. Report No. 7, page 56, was approved as presented. Mr. Hipp moved the adoption of the Report No. 8 and Report No. 10 which are found on page 201 of the registration material and Report No. 9, page 57. Enrollant premium figures will remain the same as for 1991. Mr. Harry Kent stated that the amount recommended by CF&A from the line item is less than the amount listed in Report No. 10 with the suggestion from CF&A that the difference come from the Reserve Fund. The difference was reported as $396,465.00. Mr. Hipp reported that the current request in these reports for 1992 is based on an estimate derived from experience as of May 11, 1991. It is estimated that at the end of 1991, the Reserve Fund would have and estimated 2.5 to 2.6 million dollar balance. The proposed deficit would eliminate a significant portion of the reserve in 1992 with a deficit also projected for 1993 according to the Commission. The Reverend Archie R. Bigelow stressed the need for the Conference to accumulate at least one year's premium in the reserve in order to have a sound program. Reports 8, 9, and 10 were then adopted as presented.

Mr. Hipp reported that for the last three years the Commission has been instructed to investigate a dental program for the Conference, but given the current budgetary limitations, the Commission cannot justify recommending the adoption of such a program. Thus, the report found on page 58 of the pre-conference material is brought to the Conference for information only. Mr. Hipp moved the adoption of the report of the Commission as a whole. The Reverend Alan C. Kubach moved that the Dental benefit Plan B be adopted by the Conference as a part of its insurance program. The motion was voted on and defeated. The Report of the Commission on Group Insurance was then adopted as a whole.

At this point a twenty minute recess was observed for the lay members of the Conference while a meeting of the Ministerial Executive Session was held in Johnson Arena. Mr. Walter, Chairperson of the Board of the Ordained Ministry, reported that a request has been received from the Reverend Robert E. McKeown for retirement under the provision of Par. 451.2(a) twenty years of service. Dr. McKeown stated that this decision was made out his intention and desire to be faithful to his calling and to this Conference. He stated that he has heard and is grateful for the affirmation of his career plans as a ministry and that he desires to maintain his relationship with this Conference which retirement will permit him to do. By requesting retirement, he indicated his desire that the Ministerial Session be spared a disciplinary struggle over the questions related to his ministry. The Session then approved the addition of his name under the appropriate section of Minute Question 51.a.

The Reverend Clarence E. Kanipe moved that the Board of the Ordained Ministry bring to the 1992 Ministerial Executive Session a policy statement from the basis of United Methodist theology and polity, as to what constitutes valid extension ministry and what constitutes grounds for Honorable Location. The motion was approved.

The following motion was then offered by the Reverend David E. Lupo and was approved:

WHEREAS, business question 72 asks "what ordained ministers" and not "what positions" are approved; and

WHEREAS, paragraph 443.1(d) of the 1988 Book of Discipline emphasizes that the gifts and graces of the individual are to be considered by the Board of Ordained Ministry through the requirement that the written statement of the applicant include "sharing a sense of calling to that ministry and their gifts and evidence of God's grace for it;"

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Ordained Ministry be directed to consider the individual as well as the position when making its recommendations concerning appointments to other valid ministries under paragraph 443.1(d) in 1992 and following years.

The Conference reconvened at 4:30 p.m. with the singing of "Take the Name of Jesus With You."

The report of Lay Ballot No. 10 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	602
Number of valid ballots:	587
Votes required to elect:	294
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 11 was taken at 4:35 p.m.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 11 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	378
Number of valid ballots:	368
Votes required to elect:	185

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 12 was taken at 4:44 p.m.

The Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, pages 49-52 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Reverend Rutledge D. Sheridan, Chairperson. Mr. Sheridan moved the adoption of Report No. 1 as presented, and it was approved. Under Report No. 2 Mr. Sheridan stated that the line item request is the same amount for 1992. He predicted that need for equitable salary support will continue to rise and warned the Conference to expect a 25% increase in the asking for 1993. Under item A he noted the increases which are being proposed in the equitable salary schedule. Mr. Sheridan moved the adoption of Report No. 2. The Reverend Forest D. Mixon moved to amend the report, item A, by freezing the 1992 equitable salaries at the 1991 rates. Following discussion, the Reverend A. Clark Jenkins moved the previous question on the Mixon motion. The question was called, and the vote taken. The Mixon motion was not approved. The Reverend Harry R. Mays moved to eliminate the phrase "Social Security" where it appears on page 50 and page 52 of the Report. The motion was approved.

The Reverend Harlan E. Wilson, Jr. moved that Item A be amended to reflect a 50% increase in all categories except Local Pastors (Full Time) which would reflect a 3% increase, over the 1991 equitable salary figures. Questions and discussion followed. The question was called, and the vote taken. The Wilson amendment was not approved. The question was then called on Report No. 2. The vote was taken and Report No. 2 was approved as presented with the deletion of the phrase "Social Security." The Reverend A. Clark Jenkins moved that the Bennettsville-Cheraw Cooperative Parish be granted a salary supplement up to $7,000.00 from Equitable Salaries. This motion was ruled out of order by Bishop Bethea.

Report No. 3 was moved to the record with a question related to whether the recommended voucher forms and professional expense reimbursement forms had been included in the "Clergy Compensation Guidebook." The Commission responded that they had been included.

Report No. 4 was presented by Mr. Richard Murphy. The report petitions General Conference to add permissive legislation following paragraph 720 that an Annual Conference may adopt a "basic salary plan" for its active pastors. The report was approved as presented. Mr. Sheridan expressed his appreciation to the secretary and members of the Commission of Equitable Salaries and moved the adoption of the Commission's report as a whole which was done.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 11 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	487
Number of valid ballots:	480
Votes required to elect:	241
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 12 was taken.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 12 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	331
Number of valid ballots:	319
Votes required to elect:	160
Elected:	William C. Reid (161)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 13 was taken. Following the collection of the ballot, the dinner recess was observed.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY EVENING JUNE 5, 1991

The Conference reconvened at 7:30 p.m. with the singing of "When We All Get to Heaven." An invocation was offered by the Reverend Cassandra P. Jackson.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 13 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	300
Number of valid ballots:	291
Votes required to elect:	146
Elected:	Debra A. S. Quilling (149)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 14 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 12 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	502
Number of valid ballots:	495
Votes required to elect:	248
Elected:	Becky L. Buie (328)

It was noted that with the election of Mrs. Buie, the lay delegation to the General Conference had been elected.

Mr. Harry R. Kent moved that on the first ballot for the Jurisdictional Conference delegations, names receiving ten or more votes be read; on the second ballot, twenty-five or more; on the third and succeeding ballots, forty or more. The motion was approved as presented. Lay members proceeded to vote Lay Ballot No. 13.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 14 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	234
Number of valid ballots:	228
Votes required to elect:	115
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 15 was taken.

The Reverend Washington C. Keams moved that on future clergy ballots only the names of those receiving 50 votes or more be read. The Reverend Thomas N. Brittain offered the following motion as a substitute: when voting begins on clergy jurisdictional delegates on the first ballot read only the names of those receiving ten or more votes, on the second ballot twenty-five or more, on the third and following ballots forty or more. The Brittain motion was approved, and the substitute adopted as the motion.

A motion was made by Mr. R. Steven Brooks that the top three vote accumulation of each ballot become our elected delegated to jurisdictional conference from both the laity and the clergy. Dr. Carolyn Briscoe offered an amendment to the motion that the Brooks motion become effective on the third ballot for jurisdictional delegates. Following discussion, Dr. Briscoe withdrew her amendment. The question was called on the Brooks motion, and the vote was taken. The motion was not approved.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 15 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	275
Number of valid ballots:	267
Votes required to elect:	134
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 16 was taken at 8:30 p.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 13 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	404
Number of valid ballots:	306
Votes required to elect:	154
Elected:	Bennie J. Pasley (188)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 14 was taken at 8:45 p.m.

The report on Clergy Ballot No. 16 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	289
Number of valid ballots:	281
Votes required to elect:	141
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 17 was taken.

The Reverend Joseph W. Alley moved that 9:45 p.m. be set as the time for the Wednesday evening adjournment. This motion was approved.

The Conference turned its attention to the Report of the Committee on Resolutions. The report was presented by the Reverend James C. Adams. The Committee reported the Resolution on Pre-Conference Materials, page 206 of the registration material, with a recommendation of non-approval. The Committee's recommendation was accepted, and the resolution was not adopted. The Committee reported the Resolution on Homosexuality, page 207 of the registration material, with a recommendation of approval. Discussion followed. A motion to amend the Resolution was offered by the Reverend Eldrige B. Rowell by deleting the word "further" in the opening phrase of the second paragraph. The Rowell motion was adopted as amended.

The Resolution on Soil and Water Stewardship was reported to the Conference. The Reverend Samuel B. George moved to amend language in the Resolution as follows: In the first WHEREAS paragraph, change the word "Man" to "humanity" and the word "him" to "us"; in the third WHEREAS paragraph, delete the word "his." The amendment was approved, and the Resolution as amended was adopted.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 17 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	270
Number of valid ballots:	270
Votes required to elect:	136
Elected:	Charles L. Johnson (151)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 18 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 14 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	414
Number of valid ballots:	341
Votes required to elect:	171
Elected:	June B. Willson (177) Betty Moss McGuirt (175)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 15 was taken.

The Report of the Committee on Petitions was presented by Ms. Malissa Burnett. It was agreed to extend the time set for adjournment in order to receive the report. The Petition "To General Conference", found on page 208 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation for approval, and it was adopted. The Petition "from the Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference", page 203 of the registration materials, was presented with the Committee's recommendation for approval, and it was adopted. The Petition "Recommending instruction related to United Methodist Women for United Methodist Pastors", page 208 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation for approval, and it was adopted. The Petition "Recommending instruction related to United Methodist Women for United Methodist Pastors", top of page 209 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation for approval, and it was adopted. The Petition "Recommending instruction related to United Methodist Women for United Methodist Pastors", bottom of page 209 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation for approval, and it was adopted.

The Petition "To The South Carolina Annual Conference", found on page 210 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation of non-approval. Mr. Jim Arant stated that the proposed legislation would make it permissible to establish an "Old Adult Ministries Council." He clarified the fact that this petition has not been endorsed by the Conference Council on Ministries. The question was called, and the vote taken. The recommendation of the Committee was not sustained, and the proposed Petition was adopted.

The Petition related to a proposed "Campus Ministry Special Program for 1993-96: Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center", found on pages 128-129 of the pre-conference material was presented with the Committee's recommendation of approval, and it was adopted.

The Petition "Regarding a United Methodist Study Committee's Vote Recommendation to the 1992 General Conference Concerning the Problem of Homosexuality", found on the middle of page 207 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation of non-approval. A motion was offered by Mr. A. J. Hutto to amend the second and twenty-second line of the text by inserting after the words "recommendation to" the words "the General Council on Ministries which may be forwarded to . . . ." Considerable debate followed. The question was called. The amendment was approved as presented. The vote was then taken on the petition as amended. The recommendation of the Committee for non-approval was not sustained by the body, and the petition as amended was adopted.

A similar Petition, found on pages 207-208 of the registration material, was presented with the Committee's recommendation of non-approval. Mr. A. J. Hutto moved to amend this petition in a similar fashion by inserting in the second line of the text after the words "recommendation to" the words "the General Council on Ministries which may be forwarded to . . . ." The Hutto amendment was adopted as presented. The Reverend Scott A. Stevenson moved a second amendment to the petition by adding following the words "incompatible with Christian teaching" at the end of the first "whereas" paragraph the words "while affirming the sacred worth of persons who engage in such practices." The amendment was approved. The recommendation of the Committee for non-approval was not sustained, and the petition as twice amended was adopted by the body. The Conference adjourned for the evening.

FIFTH DAY — THURSDAY MORNING JUNE 6, 1991

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium. The Preacher was the Reverend William R. Bouknight, III. The Reverend Rosemaire Nivens was the Liturgist, and Mrs. Carleatha Benson served as the Lay Reader.

The Conference reconvened at 8:30 a.m. for Bible Study with the singing of "Shall We Gather at the River." Bishop Clark's topic for the morning was "Signs" and the Scripture Lesson was Acts 2:42-47. Bishop Clark stated that "signs" are the visible presence of the invisible God working in the world and the expression of Christ's life within us. He called his listeners to ask about the "sign language" of their congregations. What are the signs we are giving through our actions. The early church was a sign itself, and the church today must be aware that it is a "sign," not just the doer of signs. Indeed, we do not create or make our signs; signs appear, and they appear only as the love of Christ invades the spirit. As God works in our lives, we often are signs without even knowing it. At the conclusion of the Bible Study, Bishop Bethea expressed his appreciation and the appreciation of the Conference to Bishop Clark for this presence and witness during these three days.

Thursday June 6, 1991 "Signs" Acts 2: 37-47

Let me just first say a word of appreciation to all of you who are present here this morning and through you to others who are not present who have been equally gracious to me this week. I wasn't sure I ought to come to South Carolina, but Bishop Joseph Bethea didn't give me any chance to express my doubts about that. Some of you ministers have heard me speak rather strongly about pastors who go back too soon to where they've been moved away from. It's important for me not to go back until I have been able to surrender my former pastorate to the present pastor and not have any need to control or to have any opinions about anything that is going on. But thank God I have that freedom and I have rejoiced so much in the privilege of being with you and grateful for Bishop Bethea inviting me to come. I would say to you that your graciousness has made this a healing occasion. I'm more of a whole person now because of your love and care. I'm grateful for that.

The word that we are going to look at this morning came to my attention through our work on Vital Congregations — Faithful Disciples. We are looking at words that relate to vital congregational life. These words which I have talked about — wait, abide, and today the word sign — have been very important to me in my own spiritual journey in the last year or two.

Since this word "sign" arose in our discussions about vital congregations and faithful disciples, I want to talk about it this morning out of that background. We encounter the word sign in the Old and New Testaments quite frequently in a variety of settings. But I have been especially impressed with its usage in the gospel of John where John speaks of the signs that Jesus did. And, then, even more so in the book of Acts where the signs which were done by the early church are described. I want to read to you the passage from Acts 2, which is one of the places in which this word is used. This is the account of the response of the first Christian community to the preaching of Peter after Pentecost, "Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'What should we do?' Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.' And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.' So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

"Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved" (Acts 2: 37-47 NRSV).

I call your attention especially to the 43rd verse. "Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were done by the apostles." We find similar statements as the Acts account moves on. You know the story in Acts 4 of Peter and John who healed the lame man at the gate of the temple called Beautiful. They are called before the authorities who discuss what to do with them. They said, "What will we do with them? For it is obvious to all who live in Jerusalem that a notable sign has been done through them. We cannot deny it." A notable sign, which is the healing of a lame man. Later, describing Philip's ministry, this is reported: "The crowds with one accord listened eagerly to what was said by Philip, hearing and seeing the signs that he did." And it goes on to describe unclean spirits being driven out of persons, people who were lame being healed and many others being helped. These were the signs that were being done by the early Christians.

Now, the text often speaks of signs and "wonders" — i.e., miracles. But not all signs are miracles. That is important to remember. Signs as well as wonders were being done. As I said earlier, this thought of signs grew out of our development of the Vital Congregations — Faithful Disciples document. People kept asking, "What are the marks of a vital congregation of faithful disciples? Give us a list of ten things that a vital congregation should be." But every time you start making up a list of what a vital congregation should be, that list becomes exclusive of other congregations. Most lists are culturally biased. If you draw up a list that fits a white, middle-class congregation, it won't fit a Korean congregation. Often, when we draw up a list, it is one that will fit larger, more affluent congregation but would not apply to smaller, less affluent congregations. Any time you draw up a list and say, "This is what a Christian is," you're going to leave somebody out. Or "This is what a vital congregation is," you are going to leave somebody out. And yet people kept saying, "When you talk about vital congregations, what are you talking about?"

It occurred to us that the biblical word is sign. So we talk about signs of vital congregations. We introduced that section of the document with these words: "The signs described below point toward Christ's ministry being active through congregational mission and personal discipleship. These signs will take a unique form in any given congregation, and in any believer. These are the expression of the life of Christ within us" (Foundation Document p. 115).

There are two things that are characteristic of a sign. First, a sign is visible. It is an evident happening that can be seen. The New Testament never speaks of words as signs. We use words sometimes to interpret signs, but signs can be seen. Remember that verse I read about the council talking about Peter and John? They said, "A notable sign has taken place. We cannot deny it." They could not deny it because it has been seen. Signs are visible expressions of the life of Christ.

The second thing about signs is that they point to a power beyond ourselves. They point to the power of God. Signs are the visible expression of the invisible power and activity of God working in the world. Signs are the expression of the life of Christ within us. If we really begin to think about signs as the expression of Christ's life within us, then, instead of asking, "What do I do for Christ?" We ask, "What do I allow Christ to do through me?" That is a fundamentally different approach.

This is a growing edge in my life now. I am aware of the extent to which I have tried on my own to live a good life, to do what I ought to do. I have always tried to be a good boy since I was a little boy. I have had my agenda. The church gave it to me, my parents taught it to me. But it has been a self-generating life of goodness. I am finding that it is fundamentally different from a life of goodness which results when the Spirit of God moves and acts through you. Our conscious intention is always required, but life has a different quality when, waiting on God and abiding in Christ, one's way of life has the quality of the fruit of God's activity in your life. When they said of Jesus that he spoke as one having authority, they were speaking of this sense of the divine speaking and acting through him. His was not the authority of imposed power or even of an overwhelming personality. It was authority which had a sign quality; an expression of God through him.

If, biblically speaking, signs are the visible expression of the activity of God in our midst, then I simply have two questions to ask of us this morning. The first is, "what kind of sign or signs is your congregation giving?" What is the sign language your congregation speaks? A priest once said to his congregation, "In view of the whole word, we are the church here." In view of your community, you are the church where you are. What signs of the presence and activity of Christ in you are you giving?

In Memphis there is a very large church which decided recently to move fifteen miles out east from Midtown, where I live. The Midtown population is becoming more diverse and ethnically mixed and many of those who traditionally have attended this church are moving east. So they spent 35 million dollars on new church facilities. A few weeks ago they held a conference on the second coming of Jesus. The minister on the staff responsible for the conference said in an interview with the local newspaper that they were serious about Jesus' second coming. They expected him to come before the end of the century. Someone wrote to the paper saying they did not quite understand. You moved out east to insure your future but Jesus is coming in just a few years. The congregation, in the view of this person, was giving out a mixed sign. In addition to this mixed signal, they had given another kind of sign when they decided to leave their traditional place of ministry and seek more favorable circumstances. We do give signs by what we do.

Also in Memphis there is a different kind of sign being given. Across the street from the church I attend is the Church Health Center. It is headed by Scott Morris who is a graduate of Yale Divinity School and of the Emory University School of Medicine. Scott has given twenty years of his life seeking to lead the church to understand that a major portion of ministry should be healing because that was a major portion of Jesus' and the early church's ministry. So he developed and leads the Church Health Center which is a full medical clinic ministering to the working poor. If you are working you get Medicaid benefits for health care. If you work where medical insurance is provided you have that benefit. But if you work where there are no such benefits, you have no medical care. It is to these that the Church Health Center ministers with volunteer doctors and dentists from the community supplementing the service rendered by the two full time doctors on the staff.

Scott Morris says what he is doing renders service, to be sure, but its most important dimension is that it is a sign. He considers it a sign to the church that local congregations should not turn the healing ministry over to others, but should be themselves involved in some way in bringing healing in Christ's name. For Scott Morris the Church Health Center is an expression of the life of Christ in him and in the church. What signs are we giving of the life of Christ in us?

In the past few weeks I have been leading a Sunday School group in the church I attend. I must confess that Esther and I had not been going to Sunday School. But after Esther was gone, I began to feel that I should make myself available to do something, if needed. At about the same time a Sunday School class lost their teacher and called on me. Sometimes things seemed more than coincidental. I agreed to teach them for a few weeks. The first Sunday I was there the pastor brought in and introduced a man who had never before been to the class. The class sort of acknowledged that he was there, but went on with their business and paid little attention to him. He did not return the next Sunday. Now it may have been the teaching that turned him off or something else, but I wondered if the class had given him a sign — a negative sign and not a sign of the activity of Christ through them. What I want you to do is to look at your congregation. Try to get outside of it as if you were not a part of it and ask, "What kind of signs are these?"

One day a woman came to see me in my office at West End Church about a personal problem. Dressed in my three piece suit and buttoned down collar, I sat behind my paper strewn desk to talk to her. After a few minutes she said to me angrily, "You know what you remind me of more than anything else? You remind me of a corporate executive." From that day on I have sought never to talk about personal, pastoral matters from behind a desk. Of course, there is more to it than where you sit. But that experience has led me to ask of myself what kind of signs I am giving off to others? Is my demeanor one which gives a sign of Christ's healing, welcoming, restoring, wholeness and giving presence?

The second thing I want to point out is that not only did the early church do signs, they were a sign. That first congregation, by the quality of its life, impressed people. They found favor with its people. People came to that congregation because they saw the intensity and passion of their worship. They saw their generosity towards one another. They saw the genuineness of their fellowship. The Christian community is called to be a different kind of community. We are called not just to do signs, but to be a sign by the quality of our life. We are called to be a grace community. Things are just done differently in the church because we are a community of grace and love. Does that describe your community of faith?

I must close by saying this. Signs are not signs we print. They are signs which Christ prints through us. You and I can't create those signs. I can't really be hospitable in my own strength. It's only as the love of Christ begins to invade my spirit that I can have the grace to be hospitable. And so, we can't be signs unless we wait on the promise and unless we abide in Christ. It is out of a vital life in Christ, with our intention to let that life flow through us, that by God's grace we can become signs. The marvelous thing about being signs is that when God is working in our lives, we often are signs when we don't even know it. It is not a real self conscious thing. It is the fruit of who we are. So what I want to say to you is wait for the promise, dwell in Christ, and let the activity of Christ become visible through you as a sign to the world. Amen.

The business session of the Conference resumed at 9:10 a.m. with the singing of "God of Grace and God of Glory." Words of appreciation were spoken for the services rendered by the many local pastors who serve appointments in the Conference. It was requested that the Conference send greetings to the Reverends Melvin Fludd and Willie A. Lee who are absent from Conference due to illness. The Secretary replied that it has been done.

A motion was offered by Mr. Harold Taylor to instruct the Nominating Committee that the words "white, black, female, male, Caucasian, ethnic minority" be omitted next year as a qualification to go to Conference and that anyone using these words be disqualified as a candidate. Discussion followed. The vote was taken, and the motion was not approved.

The Hartsville District Lay Leader rose for a point of personal privilege to correct the Report of the Committee to Promote Apportionment Payment, page 64 of the pre-conference material, which states that the Orangeburg District "continued to top the list in percentage paid." In 1990 the Hartsville District led the Conference in percentage paid on apportionments.

The Reverend Clifford R. Gilmer, Sr. moved to amend the Board of the Laity's form for no nominations to be revised to include the category "Native Americans" as well as "Ethnic Minority" to insure that "Native Americans" will not be overlooked in the process of nominations to conference positions and/or delegations. The motion was adopted.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 18 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	262
Number of valid ballots:	234
Votes required to elect:	118
Elected:	No One

The Reverend C. J. Lupo, Jr. requested a point of personal privilege to express appreciation for the support given him over the years and to state that he does not desire nor seek election as a delegate. Following Mr. Lupo's statement, Clergy Ballot No. 19 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 15 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	399
Number of valid ballots:	310
Votes required to elect:	156
Elected:	Lubilee L. Addison (173) Pat Foil (166)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 16 was taken.

The Conference resumed its consideration of the Report of the Committee on Resolutions. The Committee reported the resolution on the "plight of the black male" authored by the Reverend Norman H. Brown with its recommendation that the resolution be referred to the Conference Council on Ministries for study to be reported back to the 1992 Session of the Annual Conference. Prior to voting on the resolution, Mr Brown to make editorial clarifications in the text of the resolution as follows: (1) in the first paragraph substitute the word "increase" for the word "decline" in the second line; (2) in the next to the last paragraph delete the phrase "downward decline of" and put in its place the phrase "the conditions which have produced".

With these changes the recommendation of the Committee to refer was adopted.

The Committee reported the following Resolution of Gambling presented by the Lancaster cluster of the Rock Hill District with its recommendation of approval:

RESOLUTION ON GAMBLING

WHEREAS, The Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that: "Gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, economic, and spiritual life, and destructive of good government. As an act of faith and love, Christians should abstain from gambling, and should strive to minister to those victimized by the practice. Where gambling has become addictive, the Church will encourage such individuals to receive therapeutic assistance so that the individual's energies may be redirected into positive and constructive ends. Community standards and personal life styles should be such as would make unnecessary and undesirable the resort to commercial gambling, including public lotteries, as a recreation, as an escape, or as a means of producing public revenue of funds for support of charities or government." (section 74 par. G)

WHEREAS, South Carolina law allows payoffs of Video Poker Machines, gambling is now legal in South Carolina.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. This Annual Conference of the S. C. Conference stands in opposition to all payoffs of Video Poker machines and all forms of gambling.
2. The Board of Church and Society, in cooperation with every District Superintendent, appoint committees that will invite other traditions to apply political pressure to repeal the provisions to allow payoffs on machines.
3. We request the Bishop to send a letter to the members of the South Carolina General Assembly stating this position of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.
4. We encourage the Christian Action Council to marshal its resources of member denominations to overturn legalized gambling.
5. This resolution of the Annual Conference be reported through the Advocate.

Lancaster Cluster
Rock Hill District

The Reverend A. McKay Brabham, Jr. moved to amend the resolution by the deletion of the second paragraph and to put in its place the following paragraph:

"WHEREAS the State of South Carolina is presently in violation of its own constitution through the failure of the legislature to act to prohibit payoffs through the use of Video Poker Machines, and

WHEREAS the position of the United Methodist Church has long been that gambling is morally wrong, and

WHEREAS continued failure to deal with this matter by the legislature will lead to a state wide epidemic of unregulated gambling in South Carolina, and

WHEREAS it has been demonstrated in the courts that corruption has already tainted the Democratic process of law making in our states, and

WHEREAS it is imperative that our law makers demonstrate their dedication and faithfulness to integrity and government.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that . . . " Continue the resolution as it is. The amendment was approved, and the Resolution adopted as amended.

The Committee reported the following resolution presented by the Reverend A. McKay Brabham, Jr. on the "peoples of the Sea Islands of South Carolina" with a recommendation of approval, and it was adopted as presented.

WHEREAS, the sea islands of South Carolina have long been inhabited by descendants of early residents of these islands, and

WHEREAS, various inequities have been imposed upon these inhabitants through taxation and other methods used to dispossess them of their homes and heritage, and

WHEREAS the General Assembly of South Carolina has the power to correct these inequities and to prevent further dispossession,

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SHOULD ENACT SUCH LEGISLATION AS IT IS NECESSARY TO SEE THAT JUSTICE IS DONE OF BEHALF OF THOSE TO WHOM HARM HAS BEEN DONE.

A. McKay Brabham, Jr.

The Reverend A. Clark Jenkins was recognized for the purpose of introducing and presenting to the Conference Mr. Sedrick Harris, a senior at Rush College, who spoke as a representative of the Black College Fund.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 19 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	348
Number of valid ballots:	294
Votes required to elect:	148
Elected:	Sheila D. Rogers (182) Angelin Jones Simmons (149) Ralph Alston Cannon (148)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 20 was taken.

The Conference turned its attention to its earlier action in connection with the Report of the Committee on Future Staffing. Mr. B. J. Pasly reported on behalf of the bodies charged by the Henry-Crowe motion from Wednesday morning to report on the Mitchell substitute. Mr. Pasly offered the following motion on behalf of those groups that recommendation No. 3, page 60 of the pre-conference material, be amended, by addition, to read: That the position of Associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries for Congregational Development and Redevelopment be established and funded at $81,000.00 to be taken from the one million dollar line item already listed in the budget for congregational Development and Redevelopment. There followed much discussion of this proposal. It was requested that Mr. Pasly share the groups' recommendation concerning the other proposed position in order that both parts of its recommendation might be heard. Mr. Pasly reported that the groups recommend that the Annual Conference establish a new position of Executive Registrar and Administrative Assistant to the Bishop with responsibilities similar to those proposed by the Future Staffing Study Committee but not cabinet-level requiring and additional $28,000.00 in new funding with a 50/50 division of time.

The body took up discussion of the proposals. It was reported in response to a question that the proposals had received CF&A endorsement. A motion was made by Mr. Butch Blackwell that the Study Committee of Future Staffing work to bring another proposal to the 1992 Session of the Annual Conference. There continued to be considerable discussion. The Reverend Christopher L. Poole moved that the question be called on all that was before the body. The motion to call the question was approved. The Blackwell motion to refer was put to a vote and was not approved. The motion presented by Mr. Pasly regarding the position of Associate Director for congregational Development and Redevelopment with the source of funding so specified by that motion was presented for a vote and was approved by a two-thirds vote.

The Reverend Eldrige B. Rowell moved that recommendation No. 2 of the report of the Committee on Future Staffing be reconsidered. The Reverend David E. Lupo moved to amend the motion by taking the vote for reconsideration by a standing count vote. The Reverend Annette C. Edwards clarified this further by calling for a count-off vote. The vote on the motion to reconsider was taken by a standing counted vote. The vote was 480 to 421 for reconsideration, and it was approved. The recommendation presented by Mr. Pasly was placed before the body as follows:

The Annual conference establish the position of Executive Registrar to the Board of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry and Administrative Assistant to the Bishop. The duties will be similar to those defined on pages 61-63 of the Pre-Conference Information except that the position will not be a cabinet-level and will require only an additional $28,000. Currently there is $17,000 available in the "Administration Fund" approved by CF&A on page 4, Report No. 2 of the Pre-Conference Information: $3,000 must remain for committed computer services. Combining an additional $28,000 with the remaining $14,000 will provide a salary plus fringe benefit package of $42,000 adequate to employ a competent Executive Registrar to the Board of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry and Assistant to the Bishop with a division of time of 50/50.

A question was raised concerning the application of Standing Rule 103 and the need for a two-thirds majority vote as specified by that rule. There was a question calling for disclosure of the proposed new funding requirements. It was stated that the $28,000.00 in new funding would come through the Administration Fund line item but that $7,000.00 of this amount could be taken from funds already allocated to the Board of Ordained Ministry. The vote on the proposal was taken, and the proposal was not approved.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 16 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	562
Number of valid ballots:	434
Votes required to elect:	218
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 17 was taken.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 20 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	338
Number of valid ballots:	274
Elected:	Frank J. Griffith, Jr. (141)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 21 was taken. A motion was made that on the next clergy those receiving the five highest number of votes be declared elected. The motion was not approved. A motion was made that if there is no election on the next lay and clergy ballots, the person receiving the highest number of votes on each ballot be declared elected. This motion was also defeated.

Bishop Bethea announced that he would reconvene the Ministerial Executive Session following the lunch recess. The Conference recessed for lunch.

The Ministerial Executive Session reconvened. The Registrar of the Board led the body through the completion of the remaining Minutes questions related to the Board of the Ordained Ministry with the exception of questions No. 17 and No. 18.

FIFTH DAY — THURSDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 6, 1991

The Conference reconvened at 2:00 p.m. with the singing of "Let There Be Peace On Earth."

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 21 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 353
 Number of valid ballots: 287
 Votes required to elect: 144
 Elected: A. Clark Jenkins (153)
 William W. McNeill (149)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 22 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 17 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 513
 Number of valid ballots: 406
 Votes required to elect: 204
 Elected: James S. Arant (262)
 Rhett Jackson (224)
 Charles Hutchins (217)
 Hazel C. Bennett (212)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 18 was taken.

Minute question No. 17 was presented and responded to by the Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery, Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministers, on behalf of Bishop Bethea.

The Reverend A. McKay Brabham, Jr. requested a point of personal privilege. Mr. Brabham, speaking for himself and members of the Committee on the Episcopacy expressed appreciation to Bishop Bethea for his invitation to former Bishop Roy C. Clark to come and be a part of this Annual Conference Session, especially in light of Mrs. Clark's recent illness and death. Mr. Brabham also expressed appreciation to Bishop Bethea for absorbing in his capacity as presiding officer so much of the frustration which has been felt and expressed by those attending the Conference this year. Mr. Brabham shared his concern and the concern of the Conference for Mrs. Bethea and her health.

Mr. Joel W. Hand, Jr. moved that the Conference direct the Standing Rules Committee to devise a plan for the election of a slate of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences; that the elections be carried on at the district level, with confirmation of election by action of the Laity at the next Annual Conference, and that this plan be presented for action at the 1992 Annual Conference. An amendment to the motion was offered by Ms. Lillie Mae Taylor that each district send five nominees to the South Carolina Conference where election to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference will be made. The amendment was put to a vote of the Lay Members of the Conference and was approved. Mr. B. J. Pasly moved to further amend the Hand motion by substituting "Board of the Laity" for the "Standing Rule Committee" and then referring the motion to the Committee on Standing Rules. The Pasly motion to amend was approved. The Hand motion twice amended was approved, and is referred to the Committee on Standing Rules.

The Reverend James E. Hunter acting for the Committee on Courtesies and Introductions indicated that Mrs. Bethea was in the session and asked that she and her daughter, Mess Josepha Bethea, be escorted to the platform. They were introduced and brought brief words of greeting to the Conference.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 22 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 221
 Number of valid ballots: 184
 Votes required to elect: 93
 Elected: No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No., 23 was taken at 2:50 p.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 18 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 385
 Number of valid ballots: 352
 Votes required to elect: 177
 Elected: Angela L. Sears (182)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 19 was taken.

The Conference resumed consideration of Report No. 4 of the Conference Council on Ministries, pages 115-117 of the pre-conference material. Dr. Carolyn Briscoe moved adoption of the 1992 program budget figure totalling $248,480.00. A question was asked concerning the amount of increase in the proposed 1992 Conference budget as a result of actions already approved. It was reported that there is presently a 6.2% increase in the proposed 1992 budget. The Reverend Alan C. Kubach moved that the 1992 program budget remain at the 1991 level of $243,131.00. The chair ruled the Kubach motion to be out of order. The proposed program budget was then approved as presented.

Dr. Briscoe moved the adoption of Section B, Report No. 4, and it was adopted as presented. The total figure for Section C, Report No. 4, was corrected to $493,070.00 to reflect the earlier action of the Conference to fund the Associate Director for Congregational Development and Redevelopment from that line item. The corrected figure reflects a proposed 4% salary increase for seven support staff employees, not recommended by CF&A. No increase has been provided for the professional staff. The Reverend Edgar H. Ellis, Jr. moved to amend Section C by providing a 4% salary increase for all staff, professional and support. The motion to amend was not approved. Section C was then approved as corrected with a total funding figure of $493,070.00. Dr. Briscoe moved the adoption off Report No. 4 as a whole with a corrected grand total figure of $963,341.00. It was approved.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 23 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 324
 Number of valid ballots: 264
 Votes required to elect: 133
 Elected: Lemuel C. Carter (133)
 Edward H. McDowell, Jr. (133)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 24 was taken at 3:20 p.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 19 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 397
 Number of valid ballots: 378
 Votes required to elect: 190
 Elected: Hammie L. Chaplin, Jr. (199)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 20 was taken at 3:25 p.m.

The Conference turned its attention to the Report of the Board of Church and Society which was presented by the Reverend J. Risher Brabham. The Board's Resolution "On Ethics In Government", page 125 of the pre-conference material, was presented and was approved as presented. The Board's Resolution "On Care For Persons With AIDS", page 125 of the pre-conference material, was presented and approved as presented. The Board's Resolution "On The Persian Gulf War", page 126 of the pre-conference material, was presented. The Reverend Kim M. Strong moved to amend the resolution by the addition of an item No. 7 to read: We support our troops still in the Persian Gulf and pray for their safe and complete return from the Persian Gulf. The amendment was approved. Mr. A. J. Hutto moved to add an item No. 8 to read: We praise our Lord and offer a prayer of thanksgiving for the courageous and valiant efforts of our women and men of our armed services and for the courageous leadership of President Bush. The amendment was not approved. The Reverend Frank Copeland moved to amend the resolution with the addition of an item No. 8 to read: We support the families and soldiers stationed in Europe with the family and friends still in the Persian Gulf area as well as Operation Comport. The amendment was approved. Ms. Lillie Mae Tyler moved that a copy of this resolution be sent to our Congressional Delegation. The motion was accepted by the Board. The resolution as amended was then adopted.

The Board's Resolution "On Mental Health", pages 126-127 of the pre-conference material, was presented and was approved as presented. The Board's Resolution "On Voting Rights", page 127 of the pre-conference material, was presented and editorially corrected by the deletion of the word "illegal" in the thirteenth line of the text. The resolution was approved as presented. The Board's Resolution "On Hunger", page 127 of the pre-conference material, was presented. Mr. Sam Crouch moved to amend item No. 1 of the Resolution by deletion of the phrase "rather than" and putting in its place the phrase "in addition to." The amendment was adopted. The resolution as amended was approved.

The Reverend Roger M. Gramling led the Conference in completing action on the Report of the Task Force to Study the Establishment of a Scholarship Fund for Seminary Students, pages 42-44 of the pre-conference material. A motion had been presented by the Reverend David D. Marcy to replace the words "at a seminary of theological school of the United Methodist Church" with the words "at a seminary or theological school approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church." A vote was taken, and the Marcy amendment was not approved. The Reverend Wayne A. Culp asked the Conference to reconsider its earlier action of not approving the Reverend Dorothy N. Culp's amendment to the report which would have excluded "certified candidates for Diaconal ministry" from eligibility to receive support from the Fund. The Reverend Frank Copeland moved reconsideration of the earlier action. The motion to reconsider was discussed. Following discussion, the question was called. The motion to reconsider was voted on and was not approved. The report was then adopted as presented.

The Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe moved to amend the rules for debate to "one speech for" and "one speech against" with no more than one minute allotted for each speech on issues to come before the Session. This motion was adopted.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 24 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	314
Number of valid ballots:	281
Votes required to elect:	141
Elected:	No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 25 was taken at 4:45 p.m.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 20 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	364
Number of valid ballots:	347
Votes required to elect:	174
Elected:	Richard F. Murphy (179)

Following the reading of the report, Lay Ballot No. 21 was taken.

The Reverend Ben M. Gafford moved that a list of all delegates, with names and mailing addresses be sent to all pastors and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Reverend Scott A. Stevenson moved to amend the motion that the information be printed in The Advocate instead of being sent. The amendment to the motion was accepted by Mr. Gafford. The motion was approved as amended.

The Reverend Robert J. Howell, Jr. moved that the Annual Conference request local churches to find opportunities to print the various resolutions which have been passed in their newsletters or Sunday bulletins between the close of this Conference and the end of 1991. The Reverend Mike Murdoch moved to amend the Howell motion by addition as follows: At the bottom of each resolution list the names and addresses of specific organizations which are relevant to the specific resolution, that each organization may be sent a copy of the action taken by the United Methodist Church of South Carolina. The Murdoch amendment was voted on and was not approved. The Howell motion as presented was voted on and was approved.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 25 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	304
Number of valid ballots:	285
Votes required to elect:	143
Elected:	John M. Stapleton, Jr. (154) A. Mickey Fisher (148)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 26 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 21 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	343
Number of valid ballots:	336
Votes required to elect:	169
Elected:	Martha F. Thompson (174)

Mr. Harry Kent moved that upon completion of the jurisdictional conference delegation, one more ballot be taken for reserves, the top five vote getters plus any tie for fifth place be named as the reserves. The motion was approved. Lay Ballot No. 22 was then taken.

The Reverend Robert E. Stillwell moved that the Annual Conference underwrite the expenses to send the top two (2) alternates (in positions 12 and 13) on both lay and clerical delegations, to General Conference; and, that their expenses be paid according to the same schedule that applies to General Conference delegates; that these funds come from "General Conference Delegates" funds; any additional funds that may be necessary shall come from Contingency. The Reverend Ted H. Walter moved to amend the Stillwell motion by addition that the expenses of the new CCOM Director to General Conference be paid by the Council on Finance and Administration. This amendment was accepted by Mr. Stillwell. The Stillwell motion was then approved with the amendment as accepted.

The Reverend April Hall was recognized for a point of personal privilege to announce that a Scholarship fund has been set up at the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary to honor the Reverend W. Wallace Fridy in recognition of his many years of teaching the Methodist Studies at the Lutheran Seminary.

The Report of the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling, pages 140-146, was presented by the Reverend David C. Surret, Chairperson. The report was approved as presented including adoption of the "Enlistment Action Plan" found on pages 141-146.

The Report of the Board of Camps and Retreat Centers was presented by Mrs. June B. Willson. Mrs. Willson introduced Mr. Steve Withers, who presently serves as caretaker at Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. She also announced that Sewee will be open for day usage beginning June 15th. Mr. Wes Vought was recognized for thirty years of service as Director of Asbury Hills United Methodist Camp. The attention of the Conference was directed to handout information which has been prepared by the Development Committee.

In the Report of the Board of Missions, the proposed "Policy for Cooperative Ministries" found on pages 121-123 of the pre-conference materials was presented and was approved. As a part of the Report of the Commission on Religion and Race, a newly completed worship booklet, "The Continuing Journey" was presented to the Conference.

With these items completed, the Report of the Conference Council on Ministries as a whole was approved with appreciation expressed to the Council and to the Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 26 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 284
 Number of valid ballots: 270
 Votes required to elect: 136
 Elected: Eben Taylor (141)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 27 was taken.

The report of Lay Ballot No. 22 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 302
 Number of valid ballots: 252
 Elected as reserves: Thomasina G. McPherson
 John Redmond
 W. Greg Borom
 Oren O. Jones

With the election of the reserves, the Lay Ballot was completed.

The Reverend James H. Williams requested a point of personal privilege as pastor of Asbury Memorial United Methodist Church in Charleston to express the pride of that congregation in one of its members, Mr. Harry R. Kent, who was first elected as a delegate to General Conference in 1964 and has been elected each quadrennium since that.

The Report of the Trustees of the Annual Conference was presented by the Reverend R. Wayne Home. Its report on page 65 of the pre-conference material was approved as presented. The Resolutions presented by the Trustees found on page 204 and the top of page 205 of the registration material, resolutions to deed, were approved as presented. The Resolution to "Discontinue Christ United Methodist Church in the Spartanburg District", page 205 of the registration materials were presented. Mr. Perry Bishop expressed displeasure at the resolution to discontinue. The Reverend James E. Hunter, III responded that it was with much regret that this action has been recommended. He reported that a majority of the congregation refused to accept a Methodist Pastor and to pay the apportionments and initiated a legal effort to take the property. Under these circumstances, he stated that it was the opinion of the Cabinet and District Committee that it could not be kept open now but that it may be possible to reopen the church at some future item. The resolution was approved as presented. Other "resolutions to discontinue", found on pages 205-206 of the registration material were each approved as presented. Mr. Home moved the approval of the Report of the Conference Trustees as a whole, and it was adopted.

The Report of Charge Line Changes and Merged Churches found on page 210 of the registration material were presented and approved as presented.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 27 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 275
 Number of valid ballots: 268
 Votes required to elect: 135
 Elected: No One

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 28 was taken.

The Report of the Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate, page 65 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Sara Ann White. Report No. 1 was moved to the record without reading. Reverend White moved the adoption of Report No. 2, and it was approved. The report as a whole was then adopted as presented.

In response to Minute question No. 18, section a), the Bishop presented the following nominations for the Conference Committee on Investigation:

George R. Cooper
 Patricia S. Wood
 Angelin J. Simmons
 Lawrence F. Hays, Jr.
 Harry R. Mays
 A. Clark Jenkins
 Milton R. McGurt

Reserves
 Ellen April Younker
 Lee C. Bines
 H. Michael Cox

They were elected as presented.

The Report of the Committee To Promote Apportionment Payment was presented by the Reverend Rutledge D. Sheridan. The report is found on pages 64-65 of the pre-conference material. Mr. Sheridan corrected the second sentence of the second paragraph of the report to read that the Hartsville District topped the list in the percentage paid on apportionments in 1990. Mr. Sheridan moved the adoption of the report and the four recommendations contained in it. The Reverend Eldrige B. Rowell moved to amend the report by the delegation of item C in the recommendations. There was discussion. The Rowell motion was not approved. The recommendations of the Committee were then approved as presented. The report was then adopted as a whole.

Bishop Betha proceeded to recognize those churches which have been reported as having paid 100% of their apportioned amount for 1990. Certificates have been prepared for each of these churches and are to be presented at the next opportunity. Mrs. Becky L. Buie, Conference Treasurer, noted corrections to the list as published for several churches in the Marion district. Representatives of the 100% churches were asked to stand and receive the appreciation of the Conference.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 28 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast: 280
 Number of valid ballots: 275
 Votes required to elect: 138
 Elected: Richard E. Seignious (144)
 Thomas Nesmer Brittain (144)

Following the reading of the report, Clergy Ballot No. 29 was taken.

The Reverend Elisabeth R. Smith moved that the Conference request the Committee to Promote Apportionment Payment to develop some means of getting more input from more lay people with emphasis on hearing questions and concerns, in order to bring suggestions from the laity of our local churches to the Conference for consideration, rather than just from the Conference to the local church. Ms. Smith also suggested that the Committee make some recognition of churches whose apportionment giving has significantly increased from the previous year. The motion was approved.

The Report of the Council on Finance and Administration was presented for approval by the Reverend M. L. Meadors, Jr. Mr. Meadors moved that the salaries of the support staff in the Office of the Conference Treasurer be increased by the same percentage as has been approved for support staff in the CCOM. This motion was approved. Report No. 6, page 9 of the pre-conference material, was deleted accordingly renumbering Report No. 7 to become Report No. 6. Mrs. Buie reported the changes in figures in Report No. 1, page 4 of the pre-conference material. The Reverend Harlan E. Wilson, Jr. moved to amend Report No. 3, C., 1, by increasing the pre-district figure to $17,200.00. This was approved and line No. 8 of Report No. 1 was adjusted to $509,500.00. Mr. Meadors moved the adopted of the proposed 1992 Budget as amended, and it was adopted.

The Reverend Reginald Thackston moved that information about the local church insurance program of the General Council on Finance and Administration be available from the office of the Conference Treasurer. The motion was accepted. Mr. Meadors moved that the Report of CF&A be adopted as a whole, and it was done.

The Reverend Stuart R. Smith offered the following motion: That all reports presented to the 1992 Annual Conference which involve a recommendation (or recommendations) requiring the action of the Annual Conference must in every case include, in the pre-conference materials or at the time of presentation, a written statement explaining as fully as possible the thinking of that body in making their recommendation. The motion was not approved.

The report of Clergy Ballot No. 29 was made as follows:

Number of ballots cast:	262
Number of valid ballots:	234
Elected as Reserves:	H. Sam Johnson Susan Henry-Crowe Gloria R. Davis Gene A. Norris G. Scott Middleton

With the election of the Reserves, the Clergy Ballot was complete.

Bishop Bethea asked the members of the General and Jurisdictional conference Delegations to come and stand before the Conference. Remarks were made by the Reverend M. L. Meadors, Jr. and Dr. Carolyn Briscoe.

The Secretary moved that all reports, information, etc. in the pre-conference and registration packets not previously acted upon be moved to record. The motion was approved.

Bishop Bethea expressed appreciation on behalf of the Conference to Wofford College and its staff for hosting the Session of the Annual Conference, to all persons, committees, etc. that have worked so diligently in arranging for the Conference, to Mr. Corderman and the Secretarial Staff, to Mr. Walter (Parliamentarian), to Chaplain Talmadge Skinner of Wofford College and his staff, and to the Tellers who served so faithfully throughout the Conference, and to Mr. and Mrs. John Hills.

The Reverend A. Clark Jenkins moved to reconsider the earlier action of the Conference in connection with the Civil Rights Bill before the U. S. Congress; the motion was not accepted.

Bishop Bethea announced that the District Superintendents would announce corrections, if any, to the listing of the appointments for each of the districts, after which he would "fix" the appointments. Then, the Conference would conclude with the Covenant Renewal Service.

The listing of the appointments were distributed to the body. Each district superintendent was introduced by Bishop Bethea as the extension of the episcopal office and the connecting link between the local church and the general church. Corrections, if any, were announced by each district superintendent for his or her respective district. The appointments were then declared "fixed" for each district by the Bishop.

The conference was concluded with the Covenant Renewal Service beginning with the Collect, page 12 of the Worship Booklet. Following the benediction, the Conference was adjourned.

5. Amend the 1990 Journal Question 21.b to list John S. Haney as Completed Local Pastors School in 1989 and should have been listed in the Journal to that effect.
6. George Walker (PM) is currently under appointment in the Orangeburg District for the 1991-92 conference year under Paragraph 426.1 and Board of Ordained Ministry polity guidelines. By the Policy Guidelines adopted June 1991, the current 1991 and 1992 years may fulfill the requirement as Probationary Member and Mr. Walker will be eligible to apply for Full Connection subject to approval of the Ministerial Session.
7. James Wakefield Covington is in the process of readmission and restoration of his credentials by the South Carolina Conference under Paragraph 456. Mr. Covington is required to serve at least one year as a local pastor and is currently under appointment in the Greenwood District for the 1991-92 conference year.
8. The discontinuance of Wade Humphries Everett as a Probationary Member under Paragraph 418 is related to a letter of complaint dated May 24, 1991 by District Superintendent J. Ben Cunningham based upon Paragraph 2621.1(a),(f). A letter of withdrawal was received June 2, 1991 from Mr. Everett. He was invited to appear before the Board of Ordained Ministry but did not respond.
9. Amend the 1988 Journal by listing James E. Moore, Spartanburg District, in Question 19. Amend the 1989 Journal by listing James E. Moore under Question 20 (a). Amend the 1990 Journal by listing James E. Moore under Question 21 (b).

REPORTS OF BOARDS, COUNCILS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES, AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

The Committee recommends the following changes in the Standing Rules of the Annual Conference:

Current Standing Rule 41.e

- e. Commission on Worship shall relate to the General Board of Discipleship, Division of Evangelism, Worship and Stewardship. (See Para. 729.4) The ex-officio members shall be the president of the South Carolina Chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and Other Arts.

Proposed Standing Rule 41.e

- e. Commission on Worship shall relate to the General Board of Discipleship, Division of Evangelism, Worship and Stewardship. (See Para. 729.4) The ex-officio members shall be the president, or a designated representative, of the South Carolina Chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and Other Arts.

Current Standing Rule 60

- 60. There shall be a Committee on the Annual Conference. In accordance with the 1988 Book of Discipline, membership includes the Bishop, the District Superintendents and Conference Lay Leader. It is recommended that the elected members be twelve (12) lay persons nominated by the Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference. The ex-officio members shall be: the director of the Conference Council on Ministries, the Annual Conference secretary, treasurer and parliamentarian; and one representative of the Commission on Worship, the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Men, the United Methodist Youth Fellowship (who is elected by the Conference Council on Youth Ministries), the pastor(s) of the host church(es) of the next Annual Conference session shall meet with the Committee in the pre-conference meetings.

Proposed Standing Rule 60

- 60. There shall be a Committee on the Annual Conference. In accordance with the 1988 Book of Discipline, membership includes the Bishop, the District Superintendents and Conference Lay Leader. There shall be twelve (12) elected members nominated by the Committee on Nominations for election by the annual Conference. It is recommended that these twelve (12) elected members be lay persons. Up to four (4) additional clergy may also be nominated. The ex-officio members shall be: the director of the Conference Council on Ministries, the Annual Conference secretary, treasurer and parliamentarian; and one representative of the Commission on Worship, the United Methodist Women, the United Methodist Men, the United Methodist Youth Fellowship (who is elected by the Conference Council on Youth Ministries). The pastor(s) of the host church(es) of the next Annual Conference session shall meet with the Committee in the pre-conference meetings.

Current Standing Rule 132

- 132. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, his membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission or committee shall automatically cease: provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.

Proposed Standing Rule 132

- 132. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission or committee shall automatically cease: provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.

Current Standing Rule 103

103. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program at a time no later than the afternoon of the second full day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in World Service and Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.

Proposed Standing Rule 103

103. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in World Service and Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.

Current Standing Rule 102

102. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 101, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference secretary for use in the election.

Proposed Standing Rule 102

102. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third full day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 101, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference secretary for use in the election.

Current Standing Rule 90

90. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, 1970. Funds for program implementation will be vouchered by the implementing group (board, commission, committee, council). Funds for emergent needs will be determined by the COM through its program audit process.

Report No. 3

- A. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 1992 will be as follows, with the understanding that the item for in-district travel, which is paid from the District Administration Fund only by voucher, varies from district to district.

Salary	$48,830
Average in-district travel	2,200
Insurance	960
Total	$51,990

- B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($7,324.50) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 1992 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.

- C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:

1. The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $17,200 per district.
2. Exception: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of the rent of that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
3. The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,000 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 1992 will be as follows:

	Membership	Amount
Anderson	15,775	$3,100
Charleston	25,753	4,100
Columbia	28,127	4,300
Florence	21,870	3,700
Greenville	21,148	3,600
Greenwood	19,766	3,500
Hartsville	21,651	3,700
Marion	20,641	3,600
Orangeburg	19,113	3,400
Rock Hill	17,701	3,300
Spartanburg	18,345	3,300
Walterboro	15,010	3,000

4. Travel is set at $6,500, insurance & pensions at $10,932, and continuing education at $500.
5. There will be no shifting of funds between travel, program and office expense.
6. Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training which would assist his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.

- D. Each District Board of Trustees shall elect a treasurer from the elected trustees of said district. The treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, writing all vouchers for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an incoming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $150 packing expenses. The treasurer shall report to the board all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.

- E. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church is asked to pay to its respective District Parsonage/Office Fund:

Recommended for 1992

Report No. 4

- A. We call attention to the "Special Days" designated by the Book of Discipline and recommend that they be observed with appropriate free-will offerings and that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church..

Human Relations Day—January 19, 1992
 One Great Hour of Sharing—March 29, 1992
 Native American Awareness Sunday—May 3, 1992
 Golden Cross Sunday—May 3, 1992
 Peace With Justice Sunday—June 14, 1992
 Epworth Children's Home
 Mothers' Day—May 10, 1992
 Work Day—September 20, 1992
 Church school offering first Sunday each month
 World Communion Sunday—October 4, 1992
 Missions in South Carolina—November 1, 1992
 United Methodist Student Day—November 29, 1992

- B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday, March 15, 1992. Also, it is recommended that all gifts from individuals or churches designated for this cause may be received for the scholarship.

- C. We offer the following recommendations:

1. That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data.
2. That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.
3. That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference pay a standard rate of 20 cents a mile when a representative travels on church business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 25 cents; if a car contains three persons, all traveling on church business, the rate be 28 cents; and if a car contains four or more persons, all traveling on church business, the rate be 30 cents per mile. We recommend that other expenses of travel on church business be paid; also, that the maximum paid to a person for meals shall be $3.50 for breakfast, $4.50 for lunch and $7.00 for the evening meal. Meal reimbursement will normally equal $15.00 per day.
4. That each church place in its budget an amount of at least $500 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion be allowed to accrue during the tenure of the pastor, but not to accrue for the benefit of the subsequent pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs, even if it is done on a salary reduction basis, and that if this is done, the amount be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes salaries and benefits for 1992.

5. That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
6. That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 1987, 1988, 1989 and 1990. When a church has declined for two years in "net funds", the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
7. That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 64 through 72 (inclusive) of Table II.
8. That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided 55% to Orangeburg Methodist Home, 30% to Greenwood Methodist Home, 15% to Pee Dee; that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Fund (item 9, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College, and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Camps and Retreat Centers (item 13, Report No. 1) be divided 60% to Asbury Hills Methodist Camp and 40% to Sewee Coastal Retreat Center.
9. That the granting of sabbatical leave by the Annual Conference shall carry with it automatic authorization from the Contingency fund to provide pension credit and insurance for the persons granted the sabbatical, provided there are not funds in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry for this purpose. No more than two sabbatical leaves will be funded by the Conference in any one year.
10. That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
11. That the program agencies of the Conference Council on Ministries be funded 100% of budget if needed, by using funds from the Contingency Fund and interest earned from the corpus of the Contingency Fund.
12. That the Local Church Insurance Program of the General Council on Finance and Administration be recommended to local churches. Information on this property and casualty coverage may be obtained from the conference treasurer's office.

Report No. 5

The following information is reported to Annual Conference in accord with the resolution passed at its session in 1985. Upon recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, a sustentation grant was made to C. Burns Nesbitt for the period October 1, 1990, through December 31, 1990, in the amount of $2,703.35.

Report No. 6

THE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION
MOVING EXPENSE STUDY
Report No. 7

During the 1990 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, CF&A was given the responsibility of continuing the Study on Minister's Moving Expenses. Having studied the method of handling moving of eight Conferences, we find that only two handle moving expenses differently from the South Carolina Conference. The method used in those two do not adequately address the concerns raised during the 1990 session of the Annual Conference. Having given consideration to the concerns raised and various suggestions for handling moving expenses, we feel that our present system best meets the needs of the South Carolina Conference. We therefore recommend that we continue with the present method of handling moving expenses whereby the receiving church is responsible for the moving expenses of the incoming minister.

Gareth Scott, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Diaconal Ministry in South Carolina continues to grow as a viable ministry in the United Methodist Church. Enrollment in the certification studies and in the candidacy program for diaconal ministry continues to grow. More people each day are considering diaconal ministry as an option when they accept the call to ministry.

The goals for the South Carolina Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry are: 1) the interpretation of diaconal ministry and certification, 2) the recruitment of persons for certification and or consecration into diaconal ministry, 3) to administer the standards and requirements of diaconal ministry in South Carolina, and 4) to provide support for diaconal ministers, certified persons, and other lay professionals in the United Methodist Church.

The Board continues to grow in its recruitment and training of diaconal ministers. Twelve new mentors have been trained to assist candidates in process. Continued Education Events are developed for the next two years to help diaconals and others in the areas of time management and staff relations.

In the work of the Conference, the Board of Diaconal Ministry affirms the need of an Executive Registrar of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry and Administrative Assistant to the Bishop. However, first priority should be given to the position of Church Development and Re-development. We commend the General Conference Study Committee which is looking into the Study of the Ministry. We are appreciative of their work and hope that persons going to General Conference will be open to the Committee's report.

ESTABLISHMENT OF A SCHOLARSHIP FUND FOR SEMINARY STUDENTS

The 1990 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference adopted a report prepared and submitted by The South Carolina United Methodist Foundation in response to a motion made at the 1989 Session of the Annual Conference by the Reverend Dorothy N. Culp concerning the possibility of establishing a scholarship fund for the benefit of South Carolina seminary students. In adopting the Foundation's report in 1990, the Annual Conference authorized the Bishop to appoint a special task force to study the establishment of such a fund and to prepare a document to be brought to the Conference's 1991 Session.

Following the 1990 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, Bishop Bethea appointed the task force as specified and requested the following persons to serve as members of that task force: W. Donald Britt, James L. Correll, Jr., Dorothy N. Culp, Robert E. McKeown, Toni L. White, Anne Horton, Esther K. Witherspoon, Edwina Williams, W. Earl Sanford, Major Brown, Janice L. Frederick-Watts, Mildred Wright, James S. Gadsden, and Roger M. Gramling. The task force met on September 26th and again on November 13th of 1990. In its deliberations, it considered the increasing costs of theological education and the increased indebtedness with which many persons enter ministry today. It also noted and expressed its concern at the less than adequate support received each year by the Ministerial Education Fund apportionment which is the main vehicle of the Church's support for our seminaries and our seminary students.

Indeed, in the process of developing a proposal to establish a "scholarship fund for seminary students", a major concern of the task force was that such a fund, if established, not compete with the Ministerial Education Fund for support. The proposal being presented by the task force has been developed with the desire and intent that awards from a scholarship fund for seminary students be supplemental to support received from the Ministerial Education Fund.

In the proposal being presented an applicant for an award from this fund must be a "Certified Candidate" for either Ordained Ministry or Diaconal Ministry, enrolled as a full-time student in a program of study leading to a first professional degree at a seminary or theological school of the United Methodist Church, and an applicant for assistance through the Ministerial Education Fund. It has been the experience of the Board of the Ordained Ministry over the years that the major complaint from students who choose to attend non-United Methodist schools was that the cost of attending United Methodist schools was prohibitive. It was felt that this fund should address that particular need and assist students to attend a United Methodist school.

The following proposal and document is presented by the task force to the Session of the Annual Conference and contains the provisions it considers necessary to initiate a "scholarship fund for seminary students".

A Scholarship Fund for Seminary Students

THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE SEMINARY STUDENTS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Purpose of the Fund

The South Carolina Annual Conference Seminary Students Scholarship Fund shall be a permanent endowment fund. The purpose of the Fund is to assist students pursuing theological education in preparation for full-time Christian service under the auspices of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Administration of the Fund

The South Carolina United Methodist Foundation shall be the repository and administrator of the Seminary Students Scholarship Fund as "agent" for the South Carolina Annual Conference. As agent, the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation shall receive, receipt, and hold in trust all gifts and devises to the Fund; invest and reinvest all monies belonging to the Fund; and be responsible for the supervision and management of all properties of the Fund.

In investing and reinvesting the assets of the Fund, the Foundation shall act as would a reasonably prudent man under similar circumstances having due concern both to the protection of the principal of the assets and the production of reasonable income. The Assets of the Fund may be commingled with other assets owned or held by the Foundation for investment purposes.

The South Carolina United Methodist Foundation may annually retain a reasonable amount of the gross income of the Fund, not to exceed 5%, to defray routine costs related to the administration of the Fund. If any assets or properties of the fund shall require special handling, any cost so incurred shall be a direct claim upon the income of the Fund.

Gifts and devises received for the benefit of the Fund shall constitute its CORPUS and shall not be invaded. The net income, and only the net income, of the Fund shall be used for the purposes herein defined.

Use of the Income

The corpus of the Fund shall be invested and reinvested by the Foundation to produce income to be used as follows:

1. 25% of the annual net income of the Fund shall be returned to the Fund to be added to its corpus to be invested and reinvested.
2. The remaining 75% of the annual net income of the Fund shall be available to the Selection Committee of the Fund, herein defined, for distribution as scholarship awards.

Criteria for Applicants and the Selection Process

1. Applicants for awards must be either Certified Candidates for Ordained Ministry or Certified Candidates for Diaconal Ministry in the South Carolina Annual Conference.
2. Applicants must be enrolled as full-time students in a program of study leading to a first professional degree at a seminary or theological school of the United Methodist Church. No awards shall be made for study beyond the first professional degree.
3. No applicant shall be considered who is not also an applicant for assistance through the Ministerial Education Fund.
4. The recipients of scholarship awards shall be chosen by a Selection Committee whose decision shall be final. The Selection Committee shall be composed of: 3 members of the Conference Board of the Ordained Ministry chosen by that Board except that 1 of the 3 shall be the Chairperson of the Board's Ministerial Education Fund Committee; 2 members of the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry chosen by that Board; and 2 members of the Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling chosen by the Committee. The Committee is authorized to name such officers from among its members as may be required to carry out the responsibilities and duties of the Selection Committee. The Executive Director of the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation shall be an ex-officio, non-voting, member of the Selection Committee.

5. In making scholarship awards, the Selection Committee shall take into consideration the personal financial needs of the applicant, the applicant's evidence of promise for future service to the Church, and the applicant's understanding of his or her role in the Church's Ministry.
6. Scholarship awards shall be made on the basis of the availability of funds. The Selection Committee may make awards as funds permit.
7. Application for a scholarship award shall be made to the Selection Committee on such form(s) and include such information as may be prescribed by the Selection Committee. The application deadline shall be May 1st for the ensuing academic year.
8. Additional guidelines which may be needed from time to time to facilitate the application and selection process may be developed by the Selection Committee.

Promotion and Funding of the Fund

The Board of the Ordained Ministry, the Board of Diaconal Ministry, and the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling shall share responsibility for the promotion of the Fund. Gifts and devises to the Fund from individuals are encouraged and welcomed. Local churches and church organizations are invited to contribute to the Fund. However, no gift or devise shall be accepted in the Fund designated for the exclusive benefit of any person by name or title, any program of study, or any seminary or theological school.

Gifts and remittances for the Fund shall be made directly to the South Carolina United Methodist Foundation, 4908 Colonial Drive, Suite 106, Columbia, South Carolina 29203.

THE BOARD OF PENSIONS Report Number 1

- A. The Board of Pensions requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix $278.00 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers, which shall include approved supply time prior to admission into full connection. In the case of Special Conference Claimants, the rate shall be 100% of the rate for full conference members. The Board requests that the annuity rate for a spouse be 75% of the minister's service annuity rate.
  1. based on ten years if the approved service years of the spouse are fewer.
  2. for the approved service years of the spouse if the total of approved service is less than fifteen but more than ten years.
  3. for the minister's total years of service if the service years of the spouse are more than fifteen years.
- B. The Board of Pensions requests that an appropriation be made that will give the Board of Pensions (The Pension Fund) $3,212,414.00 for the program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1992, and that this sum be apportioned to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference on the basis established in continuing resolutions.

C. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed, and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the South Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference:

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the years 1990 and 1991 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

- I. A. We hereby approve any recognized institution of our denomination to which a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference may be given an Episcopal appointment, outside the State of South Carolina, as an institution to which ministers so appointed may receive pension credit, provided that the minister pay his or her institutional assessments in an amount equal to 16.4 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation for the year funded.
- B. Each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed with annuity credit shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions an amount equal to sixteen and four-tenths percent (16.4%) of the Denominational Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pensions for the year 1992. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 1992 or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in special appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, and the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge made at the current monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister in special appointment is current.
- II. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- III. We recommend that the Annual Conference approve the distribution which the Board of Pensions has made to claimants during the year as set forth in detail in our Report No. 2, Payments to Annuity and Beneficiaries during the year 1989.

Anne B. Drake, Chairperson
W. Timothy McClendon, Secretary

SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
ADDENDUM A to the MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)
and the
COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)
MPP Supplement Paragraph (c)
For the Year 1992

This Addendum A is applicable to the South Carolina Annual Conference and is effective as of January 1, 1992. It replaces any previously executed Addendum A and shall be in effect until amended by the Annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) (as revised January 1, 1989).

Contribution Base MPP/CPP Base is Plan Compensation up to DAC	The MPP and CPP Contribution Base shall be the Participant's Plan Compensation for a Plan Year, not to exceed the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). (MPP 2.1(e) and 2.1(f); CPP 2.1(e) and 2.1(f).)
MPP/CPP Church Contribution Rate 12% Rate Option	The MPP Church Contribution Rate shall be 12% of the Contribution Base of Each Active Participant. The CPP Church Contribution Rate shall be 4.4% of the Contribution base of each Active Participant. (MPP 4.1(b) and 4.1(e)(i); CPP 4.1(a).)
Remittance by the Annual Conference	The MPP and CPP Church Contribution shall be made monthly to the Plans by the Annual Conference in accordance with the Plan Document. Such MPP and CPP Church Contributions shall be transferred monthly from the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference by the General Board of Pensions to each Active Participant's account and the Protection Benefit Fund, respectively.  The Annual Conference shall maintain an amount in its Deposit Account sufficient to provide for the monthly transfer of the Church Contributions on behalf of its Active Participants. In the event the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge shall be made by the General Board of Pensions. Such charge shall be made at the current monthly rate of interest credited to the Diversified Fund (6.5% per annum) or the current monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program, whichever is greater. (MPP 4.1(a) and 4.2(g); CPP 4.1(b) and 4.2(h).)
MPP Special Arrangements	The South Carolina Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in MPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as Active Participants. (MPP 3.2)
Sabbatical Leave	All Full and Associate members appointed to a sabbatical leave shall continue to participate in MPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on the Participant's annualized Plan Compensation immediately prior to such leave. (Disciplinary Paragraph 446; MPP 3.2(b))
Conference Disability Leave (NON-CPP)	All Active Participants appointed to disability leave but not approved for CPP disability benefits shall continue to participate in MPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on the Denominational Average Compensation. (Disciplinary Paragraph 450)
Maternity/Paternity Leave	Members appointed to Maternity/Paternity Leave shall continue to participate in MPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on the Member's Plan Compensation while salary is being paid, or, based on the Member's annualized Plan Compensation immediately prior to the cessation of salary. (Disciplinary Paragraph 449)

CPP Special Arrangements

The South Carolina Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as Active Participants. (CPP 3.2)

Sabbatical Leave

All Active Participants appointed to Sabbatical Leave shall continue in CPP with the contribution based on 3.4% of the DAC. (Disciplinary Paragraph 446; CPP 3.2(b))

Maternity/Paternity Leave

All Active Participants appointed to Maternity/Paternity Leave shall continue in CPP with the contribution based on 3.4% of the DAC. (Disciplinary Paragraph 449; CPP 3.2(b))

Conference Disability Leave (NON-CPP)

An Active Participant appointed to disability leave but not approved for CPP disability benefits shall continue in CPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on 4.4% of the DAC. (Disciplinary Paragraph 450)

Appointed Less-Than-Full-Time

All Active Participants appointed 3/4 time shall continue to participate in CPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on 3.4% of the DAC. (Disciplinary Paragraph 441.2; CPP 3.1(h))

Past Service Pension Rate

On January 1, 1992, the ministerial Pension Rate shall be $278.00, and the local pastor's Pension Rate shall be $278.00. (Disciplinary Paragraphs 1606.2(b), 1606.7, and 1606.21(a); MPP Supplement (f))

Pre-1982 Personal Annuity (Non-Service Annuity)

The Personal Contributions Annuity derived from pre-1982 contributions made between October 1, 1944 and July 1, 1971 in the case of members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, 1785 (Southeastern Jurisdiction), and for the period prior to July 1, 1972 in the case of members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, 1866 (Central Jurisdiction), shall apply toward payment of the Participant's Formula Benefit. (MPP Supplement (e)(1) and (5))

Surviving Spouse Benefit

In accordance with paragraph (e)(5) of MPP Supplement One, the Surviving Spouse Benefit shall be 75% of the Participant's Formula Benefit.

Past Service Pension Funding

In accordance with paragraph (f) of MPP Supplement One, Unfunded Liability as of January 1, 1991, has been actuarially projected to be $6,148,064. Past Service Funding Deposits are required to fund the Unfunded Liability and shall be in the amounts and for the periods shown below:

Amount	Period of Deposit
$903,902	9 years

These Annual Deposits shall be made at the end of each calendar year as required by the General Board of Pensions. The Past Service Deposits shall be transferred from the South Carolina Annual Conference Deposit Account to the South Carolina Annual Conference Past Service Funding Account on December 31. If the Annual Cash Flow Requirement, as determined by the General Board of Pensions, exceeds the Past Service Funding Deposit Amounts, then the Cash Flow Requirement shall become the required Past Service Funding Deposit. ## THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Serving the Annual Conference in the preservation of its history is an important mandate of this Commission. In keeping with the task, we are happy to report that the Claflin holdings of Conference records have been microfilmed. The Archivist at Wofford College reports that the college plans to purchase its own microfilming equipment and important records there will be processed in house.

Other aspects of preservation included fall visits to Duncan Memorial in Georgetown and First United Methodist in Conway, two historic sites, to observe their preservation programs. This information aids other local churches through workshops and other means of communication in which the Commission participates.

Several Commission members led Church Orientation Leadership Training during January and February. No other Conference level workshop will be held this year but the Jurisdiction will present two in October. One is for beginning archivists and one for the more advanced ones. The workshops will be held at Lake Junaluska. The Commission will sponsor one or two participants.

The Historic Site at Cokesbury in Greenwood County is now maintained by a private historic commission. Cokesbury was the second of more than a hundred sites to be so named by our General Church. The members of the Conference Historical Society accompanied the Commission members on visits to the three sites named. We encourage all Methodists to visit our nine sites to observe this portion of our heritage. Join us in visiting John Wesley United Methodist Church in the fall.

The Commission continues to nurture the Historical Society of the South Carolina Conference. A copy of the Society's newsletter, THE MARK is in each Annual Conference packet. This publication has received commendation from various parts of the country. Mrs. Lois Burkhalter, the editor, invites churches to send news of interest from your local church Archives and History Program. We also solicit your membership — both churches and individuals — in the Society.

Following the Conference Memorial Service in 1990, grave markers for Ministers were presented to families. This practice continues for qualified families that request markers. Certificates were awarded churches for anniversary celebrations. This practice also continues.

Work is still in progress on the Charleston Cluster of proposed sites. The Historical Society has made preliminary plans for a Convocation to be held in Charleston in 1992. This will be in celebration of the restoration of the churches from the Hugo disaster and hopefully the recognition of a proposed shrine and two or more sites.

Mr. Herbert Hucks, Jr. still is archivist at Wofford College. The situation at Claflin, however, needs attention. Unless more volunteers can be recruited for the position there, we must ask the Conference to consider hiring a part-time person. This would be in cooperation with the Claflin officials according to proper procedures.

Two of our members: Mrs. Alma Shokes by death and Miss Barbara Pickens by moving to another state left us short of our full number for the past several months. We look forward to having the full number again.

We congratulate Dr. A.V. Huff, Jr. on the updated history of the South Carolina Conference and the Conference's progress on the new Ministers' Book. We also congratulate Dr. Huff for his publication of a new textbook for the public schools of our state.

We thank the ADVOCATE, our own members and those of the Society as well as all others who have assisted the Commission in its work.

Esther K. Witherspoon
Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

Report No. 1

INFORMATION

The South Carolina Conference, through this commission, helps fund mission and ministry across the state by providing salary support to churches in several different categories as follows:

1. Missional Situations
  - a. New Congregations
  - b. Restructured Charge Lines
  - c. Engulfed Situations
2. Minimum Salary Appointments
3. Special Categories beyond the regular minimum salary schedule
4. Cooperative Ministries
5. Cross Racial Appointments

The following is a summary of the number of churches receiving support in each of these categories and the totals granted for each as of:

	January 1990		January 1991
1. Missional Situations	3 Churches	$ 41,468.00	2 Churches	$ 24,989.00
2. Minimum Salary	38 Churches/Chgs	157,236.00	40 Churches/Chgs	188,254.00
3. Special - beyond regular schedule	6 Churches/Chgs	46,207.00	6 Churches/Chgs	44,559.00
4. Cooperative Min.	0	0	0	0
5. Cross Racial Appointments	0	0	3	15,995.00
Totals	47	$244,911.00	51	$273,797.00

Appreciation is expressed to those churches who have raised their local salary support and do not find it necessary to request additional funds from the South Carolina Conference.

Pastors holding every conference relationship (except retired) are eligible for equitable salary support. Receiving funds as of:

	January 1990	January 1991
1. Full Members	22	20
2. Probationary Members (Full Time)	6	7
3. Probationary Members (Not Full Time)	1	1
4. Associate Members	7	9
5. Local Pastors	4	6
6. Student Pastors	7	8

RECOMMENDATIONS

Whereas, the Discipline of 1988, paragraph 722, provides for fixing an Equitable Salary System by the Annual Conference, therefore be it resolved: That the South Carolina Annual Conference fix an equitable salaries system according to the following recommendations to become effective on January 1, 1992, and to continue until changed by this Annual Conference. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that a line item apportionment of $200,000 be made to fund salary support required and/or provided under these recommendations. This is the same amount approved for 1991.

A. The Commission recommends the following minimum salary scale. Salary amounts have been based upon 74% of the 1991 average salary for Full Members of the Annual Conference. Other categories are based upon a percentage of the Full Members calculated figure.

Category	Amount	Increase
1. Full Members	$25,650	$1,650	6.9%
2. Probationary Members (Full Time)	23,100	1,500	6.9%
3. Probationary Members (Not Full Time)	20,500	1,500	7.9%
4. Associate Members	23,100	1,500	6.9%
5. Local Pastors (Full Time)	22,300	700	3.2%
6. Student Local Pastors	19,250	1,250	6.9%

These salaries are inclusive of any amount the church pays for cash salary, tax-deferred contributions, car-travel expense, utilities, and health insurance premiums.

Notes: The 74% figure is a 1% increase over 1991. At this time we are projecting an additional 1% increase next year to reach a top rate of 75% in 1993.

The recommendation for category 5 above reflects an increase of only 3.2% this year to offset an extremely large 20.3% increase granted last year when a motion from the floor of the Conference was approved setting the amount for Local Pastors (Full Time) at the same level as that for Probationary Members (Full Time) and Associate Members. The Commission does not feel that Local Pastors should receive the same minimum salary as those pastors who have completed the educational and other requirements for admission into the Conference as Probationary Members or Associate Members.

B. Longevity Merit Income

A pastor who has served ably for fifteen (15) or more years in full time service, ten (10) of which have been in the South Carolina Conference shall receive $900.00 above the minimum base.

C. Travel Supplement

(1) The Annual Conference provides a travel supplement through the Equitable Salary Fund for pastors of churches/charges faced with inequitable transportation costs due to the geographic spread of the parish or the distance of the parish from hospitals and other institutions requiring frequent visits by their pastor.

(2) Pastors shall qualify for the travel supplement when:

- The Charge pays the Equitable Salary Apportionment in full for the previous year.
- The pastor receives salary from the Equitable Salary Fund.
- The pastor lives in the parsonage or in other housing within the parish boundaries.
- The pastor resides more than 20 miles from the hospitals most often used by parish members and/or 30% of the parish families reside more than 10 miles from the parsonage.

(3) The Supplement program shall be administered as follows:

- Travel supplements shall be disbursed by voucher on the basis of actual miles in excess of 4,000 quarterly or 16,000 annually driven in performance of pastoral responsibilities up to a limit of 20,000 miles. (4,000 to be covered by supplement.)
- The mileage rate shall be that approved by Annual Conference for Boards and Agencies.
- Clergy couples shall not be compensated for extra travel for commuting between their parishes.

D. Continuing Education

The Commission shall provide the difference between what the local charge pays and seventy percent (70%) of the Conference recommendation.

- This money shall be provided for Full Members and Associate Members of the Annual Conference and for Full-Time Local Pastors who have completed the courses of study.
- This money shall be vouchered on a reimbursement basis.

E. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

F. The District Superintendent shall request the salary assistance required by each charge, which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Salaries before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Equitable Salaries Commission and completed by the pastor, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the District Superintendent indicating income from all sources.

G. If the Bishop and Cabinet find it necessary to make an appointment requiring equitable compensation supplement beyond the regular schedule, it may be granted upon Cabinet request for a term not to exceed three and one-half (3½) years in any given situation, and Equitable Salaries shall not pay in excess of thirty-five percent (35%) of total compensation in any instance. Assistance will decrease one-third each year after the first year and a half, unless superseded by section K.

H. Cross Racial Appointment

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross racial appointment, find it necessary to request equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis.

I. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or Coordinators of Cooperative Parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Missions, and application made by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year, may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a four and one-half (4½) year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half, unless superseded by section K.

J. Missional Situations

Missional Situations are when areas—rural, inner city, transitional or engulfed neighborhoods, or areas where new churches are organized, demand an effective ministry but are not capable of providing such ministries without equitable salary assistance. To be eligible for equitable salary assistance the following procedure must be followed:

- A District Committee shall be the authorizing body to project a new missional situation.
- The District Committee will refer this to the Board of Missions for verification that it is indeed a missional situation.
- It will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will then designate a pastor with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate salary for that particular missional situation.
- Each missional situation will be reevaluated annually by December 31st each year.
- Each step of the above procedure must be documented in writing to the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1.

Other provisions:

If known at the time, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Salaries of a potential missional situation a year ahead of the time it is expected to be effected. In all cases where a new missional situation is to be effected, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1st preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected salary cost to be incurred in June.

Equitable salary assistance will be provided over a 4½ year period decreasing 25% each year after the first year and a half as follows:

1st Year and a Half:	The amount of equitable salary support will be according to the pastor's category. Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Cabinet for a salary that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his previous appointment.
2nd Full Year:	The grant depends on amount received the first year and a half. At the beginning of the second full year, the church must assume one-fourth of the pastor's salary.
3rd Full Year:	The grant depends on amount received the second full year. At the beginning of the third full year, the church must assume one-half of the pastor's salary.
4th Full Year:	The grant depends on amount received the third full year. At the beginning of the fourth full year, the church must assume three-fourths of the pastor's salary.

At the beginning of each calendar year, an annual "cost of living" increase will be added to the amounts paid by Equitable Salaries in missional situations. The amount of this increase will be determined by the Commission on Equitable Salaries at its June meeting each year. The total amount of equitable salary support, including the cost of living increase, to be provided in the following year will be communicated to each church by September 1st for use in the budgeting process for the new year.

- Note: 1. Except where the administrators of this salary schedule feel an extreme case of hardship exists, no salary funds will be granted to a church after the fourth full year.
- Note: 2. The local church's share of this salary schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.
- Note: 3. In all cases where a missional situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.
- Note: 4. The moving expenses for pastors assigned to newly set-up congregations will be paid by equitable salaries.

- K. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that no equitable salary supplement be granted that would increase the pastor's total salary to a figure more than thirty percent (30%) above the minimum salary for the appropriate category, except at the request of the Bishop and Cabinet for missional situations (See Sec. J. above).
- L. Equitable Salary Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the pastor involved.
- M. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that the South Carolina Conference designate fifteen percent (15%) (or actual expenses) of salary support funded by this commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.
- N. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that any charge receiving equitable salaries assistance for three consecutive years or failing to pay more than 65% of the minimum salary shall be studied by the Equitable Salaries Commission for the purpose of making recommendations regarding a realignment of that charge.
- O. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested.
- P. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that the minimum salary for full members of the Conference (under 15 years) be indexed to the average salary package (which includes cash salary, tax-deferred contributions, car-travel expense, utilities and health insurance premiums) of all full members of the Conference, and we recommend that for 1992 it be indexed at 74% of the Annual Conference average salary of the preceding year and that the resulting number be rounded to the nearest $50.00.
- Q. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.
- R. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that the following not be eligible for equitable salary support:
  1. Retired supplies
  2. Part-time local pastors
  3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 144.
  4. Special appointments categories within the itineracy of the United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 443.1a,b,c of the 1988 Discipline.

CLERGY COMPENSATION GUIDEBOOK

The Book of Discipline (Paragraph 722) gives the Commission on Equitable Salaries the responsibility of providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to the district superintendents and the Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations, and the Report of the Clergy Compensation Committee that was adopted at the 1990 Annual Conference recommended that guidelines be established by this Conference as a Clergy Compensation Package that would standardize computation and reporting of clergy compensation. Therefore, the Commission has been working on developing a guidebook that addresses these concerns, and which, we hope, will be helpful to all who have a part in setting the pastor's compensation.

We expect to mail these new guidebooks to all district superintendents, and to the pastor and chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations in each church/charge in the late summer, so they will be available to use as you consider the pastor's compensation package for the 1992 calendar year.

After you have had the opportunity to review and use these guidebooks, we invite you to forward any comments or suggestions for improvement that you may have to the chairperson of this Commission. It is our sincere desire to prepare a guidebook that will be useful and helpful to you on the local church level.

PETITION TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

It is recommended that the following petition, adopted by the Commission on Equitable Salaries at its regular scheduled meeting January 5, 1991, in Columbia, South Carolina, be sent by the Conference Secretary to the Secretary of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church during the period of time set for presenting such petitions to be considered during the 1992 General Conference:

"An Annual Conference may by a three-fourths vote at any regular session adopt a basic salary plan for its active itinerant and local pastors."

THE COMMISSION ON GROUP INSURANCE

Report Number 1

The insurance program of the South Carolina Conference is designed to provide its eligible employees (as defined herein) with a comprehensive plan for major medical and life insurance. The program is administered through a group plan supervised by the Commission on Group Insurance. The following are eligible for coverage under the program:

1. Those fully employed by a church either in full membership, probationary membership, associate membership, or full time local pastors or full time diaconal ministers related to and serving a local church within the South Carolina Annual Conference.
2. Certified candidates for ministry or probationary members in the last two years of seminary.
3. Ministers who are full time employees of Annual Conference boards, agencies, or institutions.
4. District superintendents.
5. Student local pastors who are serving work within the boundaries of the Annual Conference.
6. Lay persons who are full time employees of the Annual Conference.
7. Retired or disabled employees (except for those referred to herein as lay persons) immediately eligible to receive pension or disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation or disability leave with disability benefits takes place, and who had a minimum of ten (10) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the South Carolina Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement or the grant of disability benefits by the General Board of Pensions and their respective dependents.
8. Those retired or disabled employees, referred to herein as lay persons, immediately eligible to receive pension or disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation or disability leave with disability benefits takes place, and who had a minimum of ten (10) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the South Carolina Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement or the granting of disability benefits by the General Board of Pensions, and their respective spouses.
9. Ordained ministers from other United Methodist Annual Conferences, and ordained ministers from other Methodist denominations and other denominations fully employed by and under episcopal appointment to a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference to a charge in the South Carolina Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraph 426 of the 1988 Book of Discipline.
10. Full-time employees, and their eligible dependents, of a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference currently enrolling no less than 75% of all full-time employees in the Annual Conference group insurance plan. The funding basis to be established by the local church with the annual conference on the current advanced premium.

Eligibility requirements are set forth in a guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN, published by the carrier from time to time and available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, South Carolina 29211.

Report Number 2

In accordance with the provisions of Section 5, PROTECTION BENEFITS, of the Comprehensive Protection Plan effective January 1, 1982:

1. The minimum Surviving Spouse Annuity Benefits will be those described in Section 5.1 of the Comprehensive Protection Plan documents.
2. The Surviving Children Benefits will be those described in Section 5.2 of the Comprehensive Protection Plan effective January 1, 1982.

3. Death Benefits

- (a) In the event of the death of an Active Participant or a Retired Participant, death benefits shall be payable in accordance with the provisions of this Subsection 5.3.
- (b) Active Participants who are receiving disability benefit payments in accordance with Subsection 5.4 shall continue to be eligible for the death benefit coverage set forth in this Subsection 5.3.
- (c) An Active Participant who ceases to be eligible for the death benefit for any reason other than retirement shall continue to be eligible for the death benefit coverage for a period of thirty-one days following the date on which participation was terminated.
- (d) Upon the death of an Active Participant or a Retired Participant eligible for death benefit coverage hereunder, a benefit shall be paid, based upon:
  - (i) the age of the Active Participant at the time of death.
  - (ii) whether the person is an Active Participant or a Retired Participant at the time of death.
  - (iii) the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time of death of the Active Participant or Retired Participant, and
  - (iv) the following table of percentages of the Denominational Average Compensation payable as a benefit:

The Denominational Average Compensation:

1991	$28,508
1992	$30,132

56	100%	70	38%
57	95%	Retired
58	90%	at any
59	85%	age	20%

- (e) The benefit shall be paid to the Beneficiary of the Active Participant under this Plan in twelve equal monthly installments; a benefit payable due to the death of a retired Participant shall be paid in a single-sum for the full amount of the benefit.
- (f) Upon the death of the spouse of an Active Participant or a Retired Participant eligible for death benefit coverage hereunder, a single-sum spouse death benefit equal to 15% of the Denominational Average Compensation shall be paid to the Active Participant or the Retired Participant.
- (g) Upon the death of a Surviving Spouse of a deceased Active Participant or Retired Participant, a surviving spouse who is receiving a pension benefit from a conference on December 31, 1981, or a surviving spouse of a bishop elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, a single-sum Surviving Spouse death benefit equal to 10% of the Denominational Average Compensation shall be paid to one of the following in the order of precedence as indicated:
  - (i) The designated beneficiary, if any survives
  - (ii) The contingent beneficiary, if any survives
  - (iii) The decedent's estate
- (h) Upon the death of a natural or legally adopted child, who is at least 14 days of age and under age 18 years, of an Active Participant or a Retired Participant eligible for death benefit coverage hereunder, a single-sum death benefit of $1,000 shall be paid to the Active Participant or Retired Participant.

Major Medical Insurance Benefits

The major medical plan of the Conference Insurance Program provides benefits for reasonable and customary charges incurred by the insured, or a covered dependent, while receiving hospital services, treatments and supplies ordered by a physician. After a $250 annual deductible, the plan provides for payment of 80% of the first $5,000.00 of eligible expenses and 100% of all other eligible expenses over $5,000.00.

The coverage for retired participants is reduced to a lifetime maximum of $500,000.00 for the insured and each dependent.

Other details of the major medical expense plan are contained in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN.

Report Number 4

Medicare Benefits

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older. The Medicare Program consists of two parts: (a) hospital insurance, designed to pay for physicians' service and related medical services. Under terms of the Medicare Program, hospital insurance (Part A) is provided for all persons under the plan. The medical insurance (Part B) is an optional feature for which the insured pays a stated monthly premium.

The Conference Insurance Program is so designed that it provides certain benefits which begin at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and in addition, makes provision for some benefits not covered by Medicare at all. Therefore, it is required that all ministers and/or dependent spouses aged 65 or older shall enroll in Medicare Part A and Part B and, in any event, benefits for enrollants and eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall be computed as though the enrollant or eligible dependent were enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B.

Inasmuch as the insurance coverage for normally retired ministers and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 is provided for them by the Conference without cost to the insured, all persons who are or who could be covered by Medicare Part A and Part B shall have their benefits computed by the Benefit Reduction method; and each insured or dependent age 65 or over should be positive that any hospital he/she enters is one which participates in the Medicare program. Our plan does not pay benefits which are or could be paid by Medicare.

Eligible retired enrollants and their eligible dependents as well as participating active enrollants and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Benefit Reduction approach with the same deductible(s) applicable and the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes Part A and Part B the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes that the active age 65 and over enrollant and dependent shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately upon reaching the age of eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Administrative Procedures

Billing: The Office of Ministerial Affairs sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Although statements are mailed quarterly, payments for premiums may be made on monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keep his premium payments current. The Commission on Insurance has instructed the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs to cancel the insurance coverage of any participant who does not pay his premium by the end of the quarter for which he has been billed.

Ministers Serving Special Appointment: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for insurance, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. (The "institutional share" for ministers serving churches is paid through the Council on Finance and Administration appropriation directed to the Conference Insurance Program). This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, those serving United Methodist colleges and other Methodist institutions and agencies directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and operating under Boards of Trustees, should they elect coverage under the Conference Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, his employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and his employer.

Premium payments: Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account".

Application for Insurance Coverage: Eligibility for enrollment begins with recognition as a probationary member, full-time employment as a local pastor or student local pastor, or as a transfer from another Annual Conference, and so noted in report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry. Enrollment at any other time classifies an applicant as a "late entrant". Open enrollment for local church employees under the provisions of section 10 of Report Number One may be made only in the months of January and July.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs. If not completed and in the hands of the Administrator within 31 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be classed as a "late entrant". It will then be necessary for a health statement to be furnished, and in most instances, a physical examination will be required at the expense of the insured.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and the carrier audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

1. making certain that they have received all the services for which they are requesting payment.
2. supplying the documentation required to validate their claim.
3. refraining from asking for reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program.

Claims should be submitted at least quarterly, but not more often than once a month.

The Commission on Group Insurance is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Commission submitted to and approved by the Annual Conference. The budget of the Commission on Insurance is approved by the Annual Conference and the Commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers to maintain the level of benefits approved by the Annual Conference for the eligible participants as defined by the Annual Conference.

Report Number 6

Coverage for Conference Lay Employees

The Commission on Insurance receives from time to time requests from conference boards and agencies for insurance coverage for by employees. Accordingly, the Commission has adopted the following policy in this connection:

Conference insurance coverage is available to all employees of the United Methodist Church directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and working within the boundaries of the Annual Conference, including fully employed diaconal ministers fulfilling the requirements of Paragraphs 302-315 of the 1988 Book of Discipline and recommended by the Committee on Diaconal Ministry of the South Carolina Annual Conference, provided the insured and the agency concerned bear their full share of the cost of the insurance.

Coverage under the major medical insurance shall be the same as for all other persons covered, and all provisions governing eligibility for the Conference Insurance Program shall apply.

Life Insurance Coverage for eligible Conference Lay Employees shall be as follows effective January 1, 1981:

- |  |             |   |
|--|-------------|---|
| 1. Less than age 60:                                       | $15,000.00 |   |
| 2. Age 60 but less than age 65:                            | $13,000.00 |   |
| 3. Age 65 but less than age 70                             | $13,000.00 | reduced by 8% for each birthday until the 70th. |
| active employees:  |             |   |
| 4. Age 65 and over for those retiring before June 1, 1975: | $ 4,000.00 | (additional care)                               |
| 5. Age 65 and over for those retiring after June 1, 1975:  | $ 5,000.00 | (additional care)                               |

Coordination of Benefits

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a non-profit provision which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expenses. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed spouse is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's own policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefits that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN.

THE COMMISSION ON GROUP INSURANCE

Report Number 8

The Commission on Insurance makes the following recommendation for action by the 1991 South Carolina Annual Conference.

1. That the Council on Finance and Administration apportion to the churches the sum of $2,582,177.00 for the Conference Insurance Program to be used as follows:
  - a. $79,717.00 for administration of the program.
  - b. $2,502,240.00 for the Conference's share of the cost of the insurance program in providing coverage for eligible enrollees of the S.C. Conference.
2. That enrollee premium payments be set as follows:
  - a. Categories 1-10 of Report Number 1 shall be $80.00 monthly.
  - b. Premiums for retired ministers 65 and over be fully paid by the Annual Conference except in cases where the spouse is under age 65; in which instance the premium shall be $40.00 monthly.
  - c. Premiums for the surviving under age 65 spouse will be $40.00 monthly.
  - d. Premiums for the actuarially retired member under age 65 with dependent shall be $80.00 monthly.
3. Participants in the Conference Insurance Program shall pay their premiums in advance. All coverage shall be subject to cancellation if payments are not made prior to the end of the quarter for which the insured is billed.
4. Every participant in the Conference Insurance Program shall become familiar with the provisions of the program as outlined in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN, copies of which are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, PO Box 11284, Columbia, SC 29211.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on the Annual Conference met on October 8, 1990 and the Executive Committee met on December 14, 1990 to consider all suggestions received for the 1991 session. "Celebrate and Witness: Vital Congregations—Faithful Disciples" was adopted as the theme for the 1991 session. The preacher for the session will be Bishop Leontine T.C. Kelly. The Bible Study leader will be Bishop Roy C. Clark. The Rev. Phil C. Lavender will be invited as the preacher for the Communion/Memorial Service on Sunday evening, June 2nd. Mr. John Kurewa, President-Elect, Africa University will be available to address the session Monday evening, June 3rd.

The Committee determined that the balloting for General and Jurisdictional delegates will necessitate utilizing the Wednesday evening time period for business. The Committee also will use printed ballots and lists of nominees for the lay and clergy ballots and use ballots with whole numbers that may be easily scanned.

Referrals were made to the Board of Ordained Ministry regarding the Ordination Service and the Ministerial Session on Monday morning, June 3rd. Listing the percentage of increase for all churches with a gain in membership was referred to the Board of Evangelism.

The Committee, on the recommendation of the Committee on the Election of Bishops to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, proposes the following procedure for a straw ballot regarding candidates for the episcopacy at the earliest possible time on Monday, June 3, 1991: (a) The nominated candidate's name and a 100 word sketch will be printed in the pre-conference materials. (b) A ballot listing the nominees and with a space for one write in will be distributed at the session. (c) Each member of the annual conference will cast a vote for one candidate. (d) The order of the election in (c) will be announced. (e) A second ballot considering the persons with the five highest vote totals in (c) will be taken. (f) A final ballot considering the persons with the two highest vote totals in (e) above will be taken. The results of the final ballot (f) will be announced naming the person who received the majority vote.

The resident bishop has set the following dates for sessions of the South Carolina Annual Conference: May 31—June 4, 1992; May 30—June 3, 1993. The Committee on the Annual Conference recommends that the 1992 and 1993 sessions be held at Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Joseph B. Bethea, Chairperson
Delos D. Corderman, Secretary

THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

Again, this year, we had some difficulty in getting the materials for the Journal forwarded to the Conference Secretary. This meant, of course, a later date for publication. We regret this and are keenly mindful of the need for an earlier distribution. However, we are dependent upon the several agencies/organizations of the Conference that need to be included, and we do the best we can following receipt of all items. If the Conference desires to establish a deadline for receiving all materials in order that we may have an earlier publication and distribution date, we encourage that this be considered.

We continue to be grateful to our Conference Secretary, the Reverend Delos Corderman, for his able commitment to this task. We also express appreciation to Jeanette Mack and her staff at Print Media Services for the laborious commitment made to gather, computerize and print the Journal and, upon its completion, to mail it to our constituency.

Our request of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration for 1992 was increased by 5% for a total of $55,000. for operations. We believe this to be in line with current expenses, especially when we are striving to abide by the resolution adopted by the Annual Conference pertaining to Solid Waste Management. This has to do with our use of 100% recycled paper in the publication of the Pre-Conference Report and the Conference Journal. Also, this is an election year for delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, and biographical information will be required. All of this adds to our expenses.

Progress is being made in the gathering of information for the publication of the Ministers' Book 1991. The Reverend and Mrs. David E. Nichols are our editors, and we are hopeful the work can be completed by mid-summer and be ready for distribution in early fall. It appears that we have sufficient funds for this undertaking; no additional funds were requested of CF&A for the current period.

The Committee on the Conference Journal is appreciative of the opportunity to provide these services, and we are hopeful that our publications serve our constituency well. We remain open to your constructive criticism and helpful suggestions.

Having served on this Committee since 1984 and as chairman for the past three years, I have submitted my resignation effective June 1991. I have enjoyed the privilege of sharing in the work of this Committee but, for personal reasons, feel I must focus my energies elsewhere. To my successor as well as to the Committee at large, I extend my best wishes. The publications and supplementary materials for which this group is responsible are vital and deserve wholehearted commitment. I am confident they will receive no less.

M. Eugene Mullikin, Chairman

THE COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy has had two meetings since last Annual Conference. The fourth is scheduled for May 14, 1991.

Charles Bundy, Chairperson of the Evaluation Committee for the Bishop, distributed forms in October and summarized the results at the December meeting. Comments were both consistent and positive. Bishop Bethea was praised for his optimistic and yet prophetic leadership. His ability to work well with the Cabinet was noted as well as his approachability in discussing problems or conflicts. He was also commended for his guidance in particular in the process of making cross-racial appointments and during the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo.

The Committee on the Episcopacy unanimously voted at its September meeting to support the securing of an additional staff person in the Conference offices, specifically that of an Administrative Assistant that would be accountable to both the Bishop and the Board of Ordained Ministry. A sub-committee consisting of Charles Bundy, Clyde Calhoun and B.J. Pasley was appointed to work with the Board of Ordained Ministry on a combined job description.

The Episcopal Residence Committee, under the direction of Chairperson R.H. Smith, has been attentive and efficient in attending to repairs and maintenance of the Bethea's home.

As of the December meeting, Bishop Bethea hopes to take his Renewal Leave during September, October and November of 1991. The Committee will assist him in any way needed to observe this time.

An underlying concern of clergy and laity across the Conference these past few months has been the health of Mrs. Bethea. She and her family continue to be in the thoughts and prayers of everyone.

Clyde Calhoun, Chairperson
Susan Ashworth, Secretary

THE COMMITTEE ON FUTURE STAFFING OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

During the 1990 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, Bishop Joseph Bethea requested the formation of a Conference Staffing Needs Committee. A motion was made by the Rev. Thomas N. Brittain and was adopted that the Bishop appoint a committee representative of the Boards and Agencies to recommend to the 1991 Annual Conference recommendations for future staffing of the South Carolina Annual Conference.<sup>1</sup> Thirteen names by position were listed by the conference. The Bishop added five more persons.

The Work of the Committee

The Committee met on August 16, November 13, and December 17, 1990; and on February 4, 1991, at the Methodist Center. The group elected its officers as follows: Chairperson - Nelle H. Taylor; Vice-Chairperson - B.J. Pasley; Secretary—Rev. John Hipp; Secretary—Rev. Michael Walker. In addition, three sub-committees accepted and acted on three separate charges from the chair. A job function survey was developed and distributed to the Conference Council on Ministries and other non-programming entities including Cabinet, Office of Ministerial Affairs, Board of the Ordained Ministry, Board of Diaconal Ministry, Committee on Episcopacy, Treasurer's Office, and the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Center. Further input was solicited through a news story in the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate.

The objectives and directions of the Committee were determined to be the following:

1. Affirmation of the current Vision Statement of the 1988-92 quadrennium:

"That the United Methodist Church in South Carolina respond to God in mission: proclaiming the Word, nurturing the faithful, and ministering to the world."

The committee recognized that we must be visionaries for the kingdom of God as God continues to create the present and future in new ways.

2. Areas of concern to be met by staffing:
  - a. Congregational development and redevelopment
  - b. Inclusiveness
  - c. Enhancing vital ministerial leadership
  - d. Emphasis on education, mission, and evangelism
  - e. Faithful stewardship of the order and administration of the conference.

Requests for additional staffing were received as follows:

1. The Conference Council on Ministries reviewed and coordinated the programming requests received from the appropriate lay or clergy representative and recommended as follows:
  - a. Director of CCOM
  - b. Associate Director for Missions
  - c. Associate Director for Discipleship
  - d. Associate Director for Congregational Development and Revitalization
  - e. Associate Director for Youth and Age-Level Ministries
  - f. Associate Director for Communications
2.
  - a. Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and
  - b. Executive Registrar to the Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministries

The Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministries and the Committee on the Episcopacy agreed on this joint proposal.

3. Building Contractor

4. Conference Coordinator of the Global Mission Partner Churches.

Through job descriptions, determined accountability, function, relationship to objectives, and enhancement of local church mission were studied by both a sub-committee and the full committee.

Recommendations to the 1991 Annual Conference

With prayerful regard for the many needs of the Church, the Committee responds to its charge with the following recommendations:

1. That the present Conference Council on Ministries Staff positions be retained.
2. That the position of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Executive Registrar to the Boards of Ordained Ministry and Diaconal Ministry be established as a Cabinet level position.
3. That the position of Associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries for Congregational Development and Redevelopment be established and funded at $81,000 to be taken from the one million dollar line item already listed in the budget for Congregational Development and Redevelopment.

Nelle H. Taylor, Chairperson
John Hipp, Secretary

ADDENDUM NO. 1: SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF POSITION

TO: SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE, JUNE 1991

FROM: Committee on Future Staffing Needs of South Carolina Annual Conference

I. PROPOSED POSITION TITLE:

Executive Registrar of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry and Administrative Assistant to the Bishop

II. Explanation of Needs:

- A. The Board of Ordained Ministry is charged with responsibilities of ADMINISTRATION, TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS, AND CONFERENCE RELATIONS of the pastors in process and appointed to 1069 local churches and ABLC who are related to SC Conference. The Book of Discipline now requires a clear process for record keeping on clergy from candidates to full members. These records cover an active span of 8-10 years on each person. Board Registrars are usually elected to serve four years. To maintain continuity and legality in record keeping calls for an adequate depository, oversight, up-date, and managed control of the records and detailed attention to the process of becoming an ordained pastor.
- B. The Board of Diaconal Ministry is charged with similar responsibility and record keeping for Diaconal Ministers and persons in Certification (Education, Music, Youth, Evangelism, and Church Business Administration).
- C. The Administrative Assistant to the Bishop is a recognized need by the Committee on Episcopacy based upon the tremendous demand upon the time of Bishop Joseph B. Bethea in fulfilling the disciplinary duties. The disciplinary duties which include (1) to lead and oversee the spiritual and temporal affairs of The United Methodist Church. This involves traveling in the connection for the Council of Bishops as well as in South Carolina; (2) Presidential duties presiding at conferences, oversight for financial program, establishing district lines, appointments; (3) Working with ordained ministers in making and fixing appointments, details of establishing charges, fixing Charge Conference membership of all ordained clergy in ABLC, dealing with transfer requests. Many of the time consuming duties of the bishop are details related to administrative functions and details. With provision for an Administrative Assistant, many of the details can be prepared for action and decision of the Bishop. It is recommended that the part-time position of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop could be linked to the part-time position of Executive Registrar of Board of Ordained Ministry. This arrangement is currently in operation in several Annual Conferences.

(Time allocation: 70% Board of Ordained and Diaconal Ministries; 30% Administrative Assistant)

III. Qualifications:

1. Ordained Elder in United Methodist Church.
2. Knowledge of The Book of Discipline, with particular attention to Chapter 2 "The Diaconal Ministry", Chapter 3 "The Ordained Ministry", and Chapter 4 "The Superintendency".
3. Willingness to study and up-date knowledge of UMC DIACONAL and BOM HANDBOOK and BOM POLICY GUIDELINES OF SC CONFERENCE; and experience on district committee and/or Board of Ordained Ministry preferable.
4. Skills in administration, communication, interpersonal relations.
5. Knowledge or willingness to learn computer record keeping and management. This includes program coordination with each District Office and SC Conference computer networks which may be developed.
6. Commit to maintain regular office hours in the functions of Executive Registrar of Board of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry, and Administrative Assistant to the Bishop.

IV. Accountability:

1. Appointed by the Bishop, in consultation with the Boards of Ordained and Diaconal Ministry, and responsible to the Bishop in the assigned functions.
2. Maintain confidentiality.

V. Functions in the Position:

A. General Functions:

1. Office hours designated Monday through Friday.
2. Coordinate secretarial assignments.
3. Reply to inquiries promptly: (Bishop, DS, BDM Chair, BOM Chair, Candidates, Others)

1. Develop agenda for BDM actions at regular annual meetings in February, June, October.
2. By May 30 and October 1 receive MEF applications; review with MEF Committee; notify candidates and respective seminaries of amounts of grants awarded; and advise SC Conference Treasurer to mail checks to seminaries August 15 and December 15.
3. Prepare and distribute report forms for DS and/or Charge Conferences in which a Diaconal Minister is employed, including all renewal forms.
4. Other duties as assigned by BDM or Chair of BDM in coordination with the Bishop.

E. Functions of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop:

1. To handle administrative details related to clergy transfers, contact with ABLC clergy, liaison with Board of Ordained Ministry in matters of joint concern (Leave of Absences, retirements, Sabbaticals, Honorable Location, career evaluation and enhancement program, readmissions, Surrender of Ministerial Office, etc.).
2. To managing replies to correspondence not requiring the Bishop's personal attention.
3. To keep the Bishop informed and up-dated on pastoral needs related to illness of clergy families.
4. At the request of the Bishop, and in order to free the Bishop for a closer and continuing personal contact with laity and clergy, to give attention to the following:
  - a. To convene meetings related to the Bishop's office as required by The Discipline, rules of the Conference, and demands of the community.
  - b. To assist with problem solving and concerns directed to the Bishop's Office from local churches and/or clergy.
  - c. To manage designated business details related to the Bishop's office.
  - d. To give time to preparation and details related to the participation of the Bishop in various events related to church, community, ecumenical events, etc.
  - e. To be in the office when duties of the Bishop require being out of town in order to give temporary assistance to matters and promptly respond to correspondence, where appropriate.
  - f. To research matters demanding intricate details for a decision by the Bishop such as matters related to Judicial Decisions, The Discipline, etc.
5. To serve as liaison to various committees to maintain clear communications and to brief the Bishop on matters for his attention.
6. To attend business sessions of the Cabinet, except appointment making sessions, in order to assist the Bishop with follow-up details and preparation for interpreting matters related to program, ministerial relations, research on transfer candidates and other matters.
7. To assist the Bishop in the performance of other duties which are appropriate to the position.

Nelle H. Taylor, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

The Committee on Election of Delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences was involved in monitoring the process concerning nominations for persons to the General and Jurisdictional Conference pool of nominees as outlined in its report to the 1990 session of the Annual Conference.

The Committee believes that persons seeking to be episcopal candidates should meet the provisions of Paragraphs 501, 502 of the 1988 Book of Discipline as well as the following possible characteristics:

1. Integrity
2. Good personal appearance.
3. Relates well with persons.
4. Ability to excite members of the S.C. Conference in regards to his/her candidacy.
5. Visibility in the Southeastern Jurisdiction.
6. A supportive family, if married.
7. History of prophetic leadership.
8. Pastoral heart.
9. Proven administrative skills in a hands on manner.
10. Theological knowledge.
11. Experienced with a proven track record.
12. Acceptable skills in preaching and presiding.
13. Decision maker who accepts responsibility for decisions.
14. Goal setter who points direction, provides inspiration and leads the way in achievement.
15. Understands the heritage and tradition of the United Methodist Church.
16. Exemplifies sound judgement.

The Committee offers the following proposal for a straw ballot to be held during the 1991 session as a means of securing the advice of the Annual Conference in regards to a possible episcopal nominee from South Carolina: (a) The nominee's name and 100 word sketch will be printed in the pre-conference materials. (b) A ballot listing the nominees, and with a space for one write in, will be distributed at the session. (c) Each member of the annual conference will cast a vote for one nominee. (d) The order of the vote in (c) will be announced. (e) A second ballot considering the persons with the five highest vote totals in (c) above will be taken. (f) A final ballot considering the persons with the two highest vote totals in (e) above will be taken. The results of the final ballot (f) above will be announced naming the person who received the majority vote.

The Committee on the Election of Delegates also requested that the name of nominee and a 100 word biographical sketch, along with the endorsement of ten members of the Annual Conference be submitted to the conference secretary by March 15, 1991 in preparation for the straw ballot.

Charles L. Johnson, Chairperson
Delos Corderman, Secretary

THE COMMITTEE TO PROMOTE APPORTIONMENT PAYMENT

The Committee is very pleased to report that for the third year in a row South Carolina Conference churches/ charges have supported the budget of the Annual Conference at a significantly higher figure. In 1990 the Conference paid $12,254,014 against a total budget of $14,300,885 or 85.7%. This represents a 2.0% increase over 1989 and a dollar increase of almost $1,000,000. In the past three years churches/ charges have increased the percentage paid on apportionments from a low of 79.4% in 1987 to 85.7% in 1990, an increase of 6.3%.

Eleven of the twelve districts posted percentage increases in 1990. The Hartsville District topped the list in percentage paid. The number of churches/charges paying apportionments 100% increased from 480 in 1989 to 537 in 1990, a commendable increase, and this Committee wishes to give thanks to both churches and pastors that have responded to our efforts to encourage full payment of all apportioned items.

At the same time, we think it is important to point out that even in the light of these gratifying statistics, the Conference still experienced over a $2 million shortfall in meeting the 1990 Conference budget. This fact alone shows the necessity of continuing our efforts to move all churches/charges toward 100% payment of all apportionments.

In working toward this end, District Interpretation Rallies on the Annual Conference Budget were held in each district in the late summer last year as recommended by this Committee. These rallies were for the pastors and lay members of the Committees on Finance in each local church/charge. Reports from all the district superintendents indicated that these were good events. Some, however, said that churches that did not pay apportionments did not come. Positive comments were also received from lay persons, many of whom felt that these rallies gave them more ownership in the apportionment process.

The Committee reported last year that we were working toward obtaining statistical reports on payment of apportionments by size of church, type of setting (rural, urban, etc.) and racial orientation. Such computer analyses have been received and are now in the process of being reviewed, as are computer analyses showing apportionment payment for the years 1985-1990 on many individual churches/charges. It is our hope that as we analyze and reflect on these computer reports, they will provide valuable information that will help us identify trends and areas where special attention is needed in order to continue to lead our Conference toward the goal of full support for our Annual Conference budget each year.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ADOPTION BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- A. A continuation of the District Interpretation Rallies on the Annual Conference Budget. For 1991 these are to be held in the six districts not attended by the Bishop in 1990. These rallies may be held in July or August but no later than September 15th, with a 1-1½ hour time frame. The format would be similar to that used in 1990.
- B. To address the need for an increased emphasis on stewardship education in our Conference, Stewardship Awareness Workshops for both pastors and the laity will be held in the other six districts in 1991. The Board of Laity is presently working on a format for these workshops.
NOTE: The events recommended in A and B above would follow an alternating pattern in each district in succeeding years.
- C. We endorse the amendment made to our report at the 1990 Annual Conference requiring those churches/charges who have not paid all apportionments in full to submit in writing, to the District Superintendent with "The Year End Report", a statement signed by the pastor and Administrative Board chairperson as to why such apportionments were not paid. This information will be forwarded to the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the Committee to Promote Apportionment Payment. The purpose for this is to gain information from the churches/charges that may prove valuable in helping them raise the level of their commitment to our connectional ministry.
- D. We request the Council on Finance and Administration to provide $2,000 to fund the continuing work of this committee in 1992. This is the same level approved for 1991.

Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, Chairperson
Rutledge D. Sheridan, Secretary

THE TRUSTEES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The major goal of the Board for this past year has been to recruit and train "District Agents" to assist the Conference Trustees on property matters concerning the abandoned and discontinued church sites in the twelve districts. With the help of the District Superintendents we were able to find some very capable people and they were trained on March 21 in Columbia. Each "agent" was given available information on the properties in their respective district and in the following months will work to bring a favorable resolution to the status of each piece of property.

At the 1990 Annual Conference a resolution was passed to transfer the Renfrew United Methodist Church property to the Travelers Rest United Methodist Church. Following Conference, the Travelers Rest Church decided not to receive the property, therefore it continues to be the responsibility of the Conference Trustees as called for in the "Resolution to Discontinue" in the 1989 Journal.

There is a full financial report of monies held in trust by the Board in the Conference Treasurer's report.

RESOLUTION TO DISCONTINUE
 SHILOH UNITED METHODIST CHURCH of the FAIRFIELD CHARGE
 ROCK HILL DISTRICT

WHEREAS, Paragraph 202 of the 1988 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church declares that a local church is "to minister to the needs of persons in the communities where the church is located, to provide appropriate training and nurture to all" as minimal expectations of an authentic church; and
 WHEREAS, membership of Shiloh United Methodist Church on SC Highway 215 at Jenkinsville, South Carolina, a member of the Fairfield Charge in the Rock Hill District, has declined to fewer than 20 members, making it difficult for them to provide outreach and nurturing ministries, local and conference benevolences, building maintenance, and pastors' salary; and
 WHEREAS, the Church Conference of Shiloh Church in session May 21, 1991, voted to discontinue Shiloh United Methodist Church; and
 WHEREAS, the Rock Hill District Board of Church Location and Building, the Bishop of South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, and a majority of the District Superintendents thereof, have consented that Shiloh United Methodist Church be discontinued; and
 WHEREAS, all the former members of Shiloh United Methodist Church have requested transfer to other churches or have withdrawn;
 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, in session June 2-6, 1991, in Spartanburg, South Carolina, does hereby declare Shiloh United Methodist Church, on SC Highway 215 at Jenkinsville, South Carolina, discontinued; and,
 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the land, the sanctuary and Sunday School building of Shiloh Church be placed under the watchcare of the Trustees of Bethel United Methodist Church located on SC Highway 269 and made available for occasional special services such as weddings, funerals, Bible studies, and anniversaries in the hope that at a future date Shiloh might be reconstituted as a viable congregation, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Shiloh treasurer be instructed to turn all undesignated cash balances over to the Bethel treasurer to apply toward the Fairfield Charge pastor's salary for 1991 and that the management of the Shiloh Cemetery, including funds designated for cemetery care and maintenance, be entrusted to Shiloh members Katherine Meadows and Adrian Glenn until such time as a Cemetery Association shall be organized and chartered with the State of South Carolina.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE

Report No. 1

The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate continues to search for new and innovative ways to serve the United Methodist Family of the South Carolina Annual Conference. The Advocate experienced one of its largest increases in circulation in 1990 from approximately 13,000 to 17,000. The increase in circulation was largely due to the local church editions.

The Advocate increased its staff and upgraded equipment. The position of managing editor was established and Ms. Allison Buice was hired after a lengthy search.

The paper experienced its largest postage increase in recent times. Postage increased by more than twenty-two percent. The Advocate is attempting to off-set the increase by increasing advertisement revenue, circulation, and regrettably, we will need to increase subscription rates in all categories in 1992.

The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate is still one of the best weekly publications in the connection. It remains faithful to its mission and continues to look for various ways to serve this conference. The Advocate invites all members of the South Carolina United Methodist Family and other members of the connection to be involved in its development and growth.

The Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate wish to thank Bishop Joseph B. Bethea and the Cabinet; Council on Finance and Administration; Advisory Groups of the Advocate; Reverend Willie Teague and other members of the staff; and you, the readers and well wishers of the Advocate for your prayers and support of the paper.

Finally, the Advocate will say good-bye to several devoted trustees this year: Larry McCutcheon, William Cobb, and Fred Reese.

Report No. 2
 Recommendations

1. The Advocate Board of Trustees respectfully request that the Conference continue to endorse the Advocate as our official Conference newspaper, urging each pastor, local church and United Methodist to become a regular reader by subscribing through the All Family, Church Leader Plan, Local Church Edition, or individually.

PETITIONS

SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE PETITION Regarding a United Methodist Study Committee's Vote Recommendation to the 1992 General Conference Concerning the Problem of Homosexuality.

WHEREAS: From January 31st-February 3rd, 1991, a United Methodist committee formulated specifically to study the problem of homosexuality voted 17-4 to "drop" the United Methodist Church's 18 year-old Social Principles statement which "condemns" the practice of homosexuality as "incompatible with Christian teaching" and

WHEREAS: The committee's proposed changes in the Social Principles statement which will be recommended to the 1992 General Conference include the following statements: "We acknowledge with humility that the Church has been unable to arrive at a common mind on the compatibility of homosexual practice with Christian teaching" and "Many believe it (homosexual practice) acceptable when practiced in a context of human caring and covenantal faithfulness" and "The present state of knowledge in the relevant disciplines does not provide a satisfactory basis upon which the Church can responsibly maintain a specific prohibition of homosexual practice."

WHEREAS: On pages 81-82 of The Book of Discipline (1988), "United Methodists share with other Christians the conviction that Scripture is the primary source and criterion for Christian doctrine" and "Our standards affirm the Bible as the source of all that is "necessary" and "sufficient" unto salvation (Articles of Religion) and "is to be received through the Holy Spirit as the true rule and guide for faith and practice" (Confession of Faith).

WHEREAS: Within the pages of the Bible, there are numerous examples that the "practice" of homosexual behavior is absolutely prohibited (Genesis 19:1-13; Romans 1:24-28; 1 Corinthians 6:9; Jude 1:7), and that those who engage themselves in such a practice "will not inherit the kingdom of God" (1 Corinthians 6:10).

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference opposes a United Methodist Study Committee's 17-4 vote recommendation to the 1992 General Conference on the grounds that their findings deny the absolute prohibition of homosexual practice upheld through Scripture as well as denial of The Book of Discipline which upholds the Bible as our primary source for faith and practice.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference reaffirms the Social Principles present statements regarding the incompatibility of homosexual practice with Christian teaching as found on pages 71-72 of The Book of Discipline.

Respectively submitted,
Reverend Michael E. Murdoch

PETITION TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

Discipline reference: Paragraph 276

Amend the first sentence in paragraph 276.2 by striking out the words "annually on the first Sunday in May" and inserting the words "on a date determined by the Annual Conference." The first sentence will then read, "Golden Cross Sunday shall be observed on a date determined by the Annual Conference."

The amendment will bring the wording of paragraph 276.2 into line with the wording of paragraph 276.1, which allows the Annual Conference to set the date for the observance of Christian Education Sunday.

It will also allow Golden Cross Sunday to be scheduled to avoid conflict with the observance of Native American Awareness Sunday on years when Easter falls late in April.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER

The Trustees have continued the effort to improve the services offered to the members of the Annual Conference, while providing for adequate maintenance within the budget.

We have employed a receptionist to assist visitors to the Center, as well as to route telephone calls to the appropriate locations. In conjunction with this, a new telephone system was installed. There have been some start-up problems with the system; however, the installer is continuing to work on these.

The heating and air conditioning systems continue to give problems. Some have been identified and corrected. Our goal is to have all equipment problems identified by the end of the summer. Once the problems are identified, a program of repair for other corrective action will be prepared.

The Center has taken possession of the Chaney property located adjacent to the Center. A study is underway to determine the most appropriate use of this property

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES Report No. 1

1990 was an unprecedented year for the South Carolina Conference Council on Ministries. In addition to continuing to respond to needs incurred by Hurricane Hugo, continuing to strengthen our efforts in inclusiveness, and addressing needs of a rich and diverse Annual Conference, the Council on Ministries understood its global commitments. The leadership of the Annual Conference, through the Conference Council on Ministries, has been intentional in hearing concerns and deliberate in planning programs that respond to expressed needs for training, education, mission and evangelism. The chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries and the chairpersons of the District Council on Ministries addressed the need for coordination, greater participation of churches in the districts, and more district and regional program offerings. Serving a vastly diverse constituency in 1070 churches with 245,000 United Methodists in towns, rural and textile communities, and urban settings the program offering must be diverse. The Council also decided that programs must be offered in districts and regions; must be more focused for education, evangelism and mission; and must be designed to strengthen the ministry of the Church. To this end, the Council on Ministries is presenting a coordinated program for 1992 of 75 programs, support for eighteen Advance Specials, and six line items, an operating budget that is 11% of its total budget.

The need for intensive work in congregational development is great. The need for establishing new congregations, cultivating United Methodist Churches in ethnic communities; training leadership for evangelism, outreach and education; revitalizing existing congregations; and offering new ministries in communities where there is no United Methodist presence is unprecedented. With a growing population, on the one hand, and existing critical human need on the other, the United Methodist Church in South Carolina stands at a crossroads in her history. How can we be faithful to the call of the Gospel to go into all the world preaching the good news of salvation and reconciliation? Robert Greenleaf, in Servant Leadership, reminds us well. While the Church must oppose those injustices that it believes wrong it cannot lead from a predominantly negative posture. One can lead only by strong, specific, sharply aimed, affirmative posture and actions. This clarity is what gives hope and direction to the Church and the world.

Out of our sense of commitment to the ministry of the Church the Conference Council on Ministries, a praying and working community of faith, offers this report. Our efforts represent our understanding of the call of the Gospel, the needs of the congregations, and our best dialogue and judgment on how to be the United Methodist Church in South Carolina at the close of this 20th Century.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude for this ministry that has been entrusted to me and to us that I leave the Council on Ministries. The years have been fruitful, fulfilling and a time of learning and growing. This place of service has served only to deepen my love for and commitment to the United Methodist Church in South Carolina with all its strength, richness, color, diversity, and commitment to the Gospel.

I cannot leave without publicly thanking Bishop Bethea for his trusting me with this ministry, Carolyn Briscoe for her leadership and friendship, my colleagues Jim Arant and Clark Jenkins without whom this work would not have been as much fun, the staff without whom it could not have been done and the eighty dedicated members of the Conference Council on Ministries who have given their best for the sake of the Gospel and the mission of the Church. I am thankful for the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Susan Henry-Crowe, Director

ADVANCE SPECIALS 1992

BENNETTSVILLE-CHERAW AREA GROUP MINISTRY: Finding strength in numbers, nine small churches are in a cooperative to develop strong, informed and active members within the individual congregations. The ministry provides programs for children and youth; leadership training in Christian education, evangelism and missions; and joint Bible studies. Working together has brought encouragement and challenges which have resulted in membership growth, improved physical plants and a group of trained lay leaders.

BETHLEHEM COMMUNITY CENTER, COLUMBIA: An agency of the board of Global Ministries which strives to create a climate in which people may grow in democratic living, to strengthen family life, to promote understanding between racial, religious and economic groups, to work with the people in the community to bring about desirable change. The Center has expanded its kindergarten program to two classes and to an all-day schedule to aid working mothers. Activities for the elderly include reading classes, Bible Study and referrals for the transportation to needed services.

BETHLEHEM COMMUNITY CENTER, SPARTANBURG: The purpose of the Center is to help people to develop mentally, physically, socially, and spiritually to the highest degree of capability. Many activities are offered from Day Care to a Senior Citizens Club. A full time neighborhood worker provides referral services and a hand of friendship in time of need. Transportation, household items, and educational opportunities are available. Summer camp is a special annual affair. Recreational activities include team sports, gym and playground activities.

INTERFAITH COMMUNITY SERVICES, INC: An interfaith organization which responds to those community needs which are too great for one congregation to meet alone. It works for care coordination for the health impaired elderly, food for children, shelter services, in support of public education, crime prevention, and provides companionship services. A current project is to raise sufficient funds to remodel the Oliver Mission to meet city standards so that housing can continue to be provided for transients in the capitol city.

CRISIS MINISTRIES - ANDERSON: The ministry serves as an outreach to the community especially those of adolescent age. It strives to show that someone cares regardless of the time or place the need for help occurs. The final objective is that individuals the ministry comes into contact with become productive members of society through the variety of services offered.

UNITED MINISTRIES OF GREENVILLE: The United Ministries is a Christian Service Organization in Greenville County reaching out to the lost and forgotten of the area. The different ministries enable local churches to put their faith into action. They assist those in crisis situations through the Emergency Program. Through involvement in the Service Ministries, they offer a helping hand to the elderly who are in need. A program of serving the needs of children is one new initiative. Family Ministries allows them to assist families in stressful situations. United Ministries is the church in ministry to the community.

KILLINGSWORTH: Killingsworth is a care-giving community residence for adult women who have experienced some difficulty or crisis in their lives—alcohol and/or drug abuse; mental and emotional problems; incarceration; violent family situation; etc. As they move from a time of trauma or brokenness to a more wholesome and holy life, we provide a supportive community of love, concern, and challenge. In addition to room and board, we offer counseling, education, spiritual development, community reorientation, job development and personal growth opportunities in a stable environment.

RURAL MISSIONS, INC.: An interdenominational organization that serves the Sea Island people and migrant workers of South Carolina, Rural Missions, Inc. has established cooperatives, child care, and services to youth, handicapped and the elderly. Rural Missions is an example of the church working for change amid poverty and illiteracy.

UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION: South Carolinians get personally involved in short term mission projects at home and overseas. Teams have worked in Beaufort and Anderson counties, Haiti, Dominica, Mexico, and Honduras providing services in medicine, construction, education and agriculture. UVMIM sponsors drug repackaging and shipping, the collection of mid-wifery kits and eye glasses and support for the school lunch program in Haiti.

WALLACE FAMILY LIFE CENTER: The newest of the mission projects in our Conference, the Center was begun by the Conference United Methodist Women. It provides a place where adults and children can gather to learn skills relating to family life and enriched living. Assistance is given in job application, referral service, tutoring, nutrition and parenting education. Cultural opportunities are brought to a depressed area of our conference by this mission.

APPALACHIAN DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE: The South Carolina Conference portion to keep our relationship.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION IN APPALACHIA: The South Carolina Conference portion to keep our relationship.

PHOEBE TAYLOR MEDICAL CLINIC: Many persons who live on the islands in Charleston are suffering for medical attention (this includes migrant workers). A retired medical doctor has agreed to open a clinic to care for some of these patients. Bethlehem United Methodist Church has donated the space. Funds are needed to purchase medical equipment.

ALSTON WILKES SOCIETY: (Board of Church and Society) Purpose is to engage in assistance to former offenders in the readjustment into the local community and to advocate for reform in the South Carolina criminal justice system. The services offered by this agency include family assistance and counseling, parole by planning, employment placement, community residential programs, youth home for juvenile boys and recruitment and training of volunteers.

CHRISTIAN ACTION COUNCIL: (Board of Church and Society) This ecumenical agency's purpose is to develop and implement programs which promote cooperative Christianity and foster Christian social witness through information, conferences, consultations, continuing education and cooperative study.

GRAND STRAND LEISURE/CRISIS MINISTRIES: (Board of Evangelism) The Grand Strand Leisure Ministries is a cooperative ecumenical effort of five churches. Funds from the Methodist Conference are sent through the pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Myrtle Beach. Funds are distributed to the ministries as needed. Helping Hand is a crisis center serving all ages and races. The greatest part of funds go to Helping Hand. Campground Ministry provides Sunday-throughout the week religious services as well as counseling and recreation. Other ministries such as Surf and Sand Mission (a kindergarten on the beach) and Snowbirds and Seagulls (a program for senior citizens) at times need funds. The only ministry receiving funds from those it serves is the Campground Ministry in the form of offerings during services.

OLIVER GOSPEL MISSION: The Oliver Gospel Mission founded by a Methodist minister, the Rev. Robert C. Oliver in 1888, has been reaching the "poor and neglected" for 100 years as he directed in his will. Supported by public response to human needs, the mission provides beds 12,000 times a year and meals some 50,000 times. Hopes for a second century of service are expressed in the building renovation program costing $750,000. The mailing address is: PO Box 7791, Columbia, SC 29202; Telephone (803) 254-7708

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY WORKER: A salary support grant for Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministries. Church and Community Worker approved by the National Division, Board of Global Ministries.

IV. PROGRAMS, EVENTS, PROJECTS AND RESOURCES

GOAL 1: UNITED METHODIST HERITAGE

Opportunities for study and active involvement through the United Methodist Church shall enable persons to understand, affirm, and live out their United Methodist heritage, with special emphasis on South Carolina

1. ECUMENICAL BREAKFAST - At the 1992 Annual Conference CUIC will sponsor a breakfast on Tuesday morning. Our theme in 1992 will be The Future of COCU.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS $350

2. ETHNIC MINORITY PASTORS SCHOOL - A three day seminar/workshop setting for EM pastors and lay leadership to challenge, inform, inspire, motivate, and stimulate participants to strengthen their ministry for a more effective witness and mission. This event will be held at Claflin College, June 21-24, 1992. In this setting, open, frank and family dialogue will take place as leaders and participants share with each other. National and Conference leadership will be attained.

ETHNIC MINORITY CONCERNS COMMITTEE -O-

Objective 1.1 To present to every local church Methodism's long heritage and continuing role in higher education.

3. COLLEGE BOUND - A joint effort of Higher Education and Career Planning and Counseling to ask local churches to identify promising students to get them connected to UM Institutions of Higher Education. Students will be invited to attend a one day seminar June 27 at the UM Center to address academic counseling, monitoring and preparation for college.

HIGHER EDUCATION and CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING $1,800

4. YOUTH/COLLEGE LINK-UP - Database of high school sophomores, juniors and seniors from UM churches in SC made available to each UM college for promotion and recruiting use. Request for information is mailed to churches in August each year. Database is maintained at Spartanburg Methodist College.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY $600

Objective 1.7 To request an annual Bishop's Day with Confirmation Classes.

5. BISHOP'S DAY WITH CONFIRMATION CLASSES - Two days will be designed in 1992. Young people enrolled in Confirmation Classes are offered an opportunity to spend small group time with the Bishop and other persons leading five workshops that will help confirmands understand the outreach of the United Methodist Church and the strength of the connectional system. Meaningful plenary sessions are planned for fun and fellowship.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM $300

GOAL 2: MAKING AND NURTURING DISCIPLES

The United Methodist Church shall bring together persons into Christian Community and discipleship, shall teach and nurture them as they grow in commitment and send them forth to fulfill their common discipleship in the world.

6. SPIRITUAL LIFE RETREATS - Five weekend retreats for enrichment to be held January, February of 1992. Local churches send youth groups and counselors. Conference Council on Youth Ministries provides leadership and program. Retreats begin on Friday night and end on Sunday after lunch. This is an on-going program of the CCYM that has been well received by our churches. Youth from small, medium, and large churches participate. This is especially helpful to small membership churches who do not have enough youth to go on a retreat. These youth experience retreats for the first time.

COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES $5,125

Objective 2.1 That the United Methodist Church in SC promote programs that reinforce and strengthen the family unit, minister to the needs of a variety of family types, and assist individual family members of all ages to achieve their full potential as whole persons in God's kingdom.

TOTAL	$4,901,251	$5,129,406

1. Line Items

As requested by CFA the CCOM is maintaining the line items at the 1991 level with the exception of the Methodist Homes. The CCOM is recommending $595,000 for the homes. Funding from the Annual Conference provides financial aid for residents who cannot pay the full cost of care that is required. With the addition of the Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee additional financial aid to residents is needed. In consultation with the Board of Health and Welfare and upon approval by the Annual Conference, the Homes have mutually agreed to distribute 1992 funds using the following formula: Orangeburg 55% (from 66.6%); Greenwood 30% (from 33.4%) and Florence 15% (by addition). The line item needs to be at this level in order to assure the Homes of at least the same dollar income as in 1991.

2. Program Events, Projects Budget

The CCOM presents a comprehensive coordinated program budget in keeping with the 1988 Book of Discipline, the conference goals and objectives, and its own understanding of the mandate to provide programs beneficial to the congregations and districts of the Annual Conference. After a year of prayerful, careful and deliberate planning the CCOM adopted this program budget.

(The Conference should note that in 1980 the CCOM received $292,446 for programming administration with a $6,900,939 conference budget.

In 1992 the CCOM is presenting a $308,971 for programming/administration with a proposed $15,235,593 conference budget. Over a 12 year period percentage giving to the CCOM program and administrative budget has decreased from 4.2% to 2%).

3. CCOM Program and Advocacy Groups Administration

After the March 19 CFA meeting when the CCOM was asked to adjust the Administrative budget to the 1991 level the Administrative Committee worked diligently to keep the Administrative budget at the 1991 level.

4. CCOM Operations

- A. Upon recommendation by the Committee to Study Staffing Needs the CCOM proposed operations budget reflects an additional staff position for Congregational Development and Redevelopment at a total cost of $81,468.
- B. While the CCOM operations budget reflects compliance with CFA's request to give no salary increase to professional staff, the budget does differ in that it includes a 4% salary increase for support staff (non-professional staff). This is a cost of living increase and represents a total of $7,385.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In 1990 the Board of Education provided opportunities for leadership development, teacher training, and training for church school leaders. The goal of the board is to enable Christian Education to grow in the local church.

The critical social issues of human sexuality and drug abuse must still be addressed by the church. The Board of Education continues to emphasize these programs. Human Sexuality training was held in one church. A conference leadership training event was held at Myrtle Beach. Seven Drug Prevention Education events were held in the Conference in 1990. One-hundred-thirty-two participants from age levels elementary to senior high attended (this number includes adult leaders and parents).

Mini-laboratory training and Christian Worker Schools continue to be a strong part of the Board of Education program. Four mini-labs were provided (Music in the Classroom, Creative Teaching Techniques, Parenting, and Leading Classroom Discussion). Two Small Membership Church labs were held, and one coaching conference was held. Five Christian Workers Schools were held with over 200 participants attending.

Scholarships were given to 110 people to train them for leadership in the conference. Seventy-seven attended the Leaders' Retreat at White Oak. Eighteen persons attended the Leader Development Center for Lab Training. Twenty-one other scholarships were given to train leaders for Christian Education in South Carolina.

Three regional curriculum workshops were held to train Church School Teachers, Sunday School Superintendents, and Age-Level Coordinators on the latest United Methodist Curriculum. One-hundred-fifteen attended.

The Board of Education continues to strive to serve the local church. In the future more district and local church events will be held. "The fundamental goal of Christian Education is to develop disciples" (from: Foundations for Teaching and Learning in the United Methodist Church).

THE BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREATS

In 1990 summer campers at Asbury Hills combined a week or more of mountain air and strenuous activity with the theme of "Lord, Teach Us to Pray." The combination was apparently a popular one, since summer camp attendance was up to 725 in 1990 from 660 in 1989. The Camp Administration and the Board of Camps and Retreats is not satisfied solely with the increase in attendance. We are initiating a process of camper, parent and local church review of the strengths and weaknesses of our current summer program and will be fine tuning the program to ensure it meets the needs of outdoor Christian education in the 1990s.

During the past year, Asbury Hills Administration has initiated a joint programming project with Epworth Children's Home. The Board of Church and Society, in cooperation with Asbury Hills Administration, initiated a program called "Asbury Missioners" intended to provide substance abuse education in an outdoor setting. Both programs resulted in moderate additional use of the Asbury Hills facilities in 1990, and participation in the programs should continue to grow in the immediate future. In 1990, the Board of Camps and Retreats updated the existing master plan for Asbury Hills and began a process of determining how best to use the anticipated camp development funds to improve existing facilities at the camp while ensuring that any new facilities will be compatible for both youth and adult use.

In 1990, Sewee Coastal Retreat Center served as a materials depot and staging area for the Hugo Relief Effort. The relief effort returned jurisdiction and possession of the facility to the Board of Camps and Retreats on November 1, 1990. Since that time, the property has been cleared of all Hugo debris and is ready for some primitive camping and, perhaps, other activities. During 1990 the Board of Camps and Retreats prepared a Draft Master Plan for Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. Part one of this plan has been reviewed and approved by Conference Council on Ministries. When prudent in terms of the success of the fund-raising activities of the Camps and Retreats Development Committee, part one of this plan will be implemented. Part one involves the basic site improvements in preparation for the building plan: (1) earthwork and grading; (2) site drainage and work on second lake; (3) water system, including wells and distribution system; (4) sewer drain system for 70 to 90 people, including pump station and drainfield; and (5) road improvements. Plans for subsequent phases involve adult type accommodations and meal and meeting areas. In the meantime, the retreat center will be open in June for day use and overnight primitive camping.

The Board of Camps and Retreats faces increasing challenges in the area of maintenance and facility upkeep. Many of the facilities, and much of the equipment, at Asbury Hills has rendered yeoman's service over the past twenty or so years. Time, however, has taken a double toll on most of the camp's capital assets. First, many of the furnishings and equipment are outmoded in terms of the expectation of Methodists in the 1990s. Second, continued use over the past decades means that ever increasing amounts of money and attention are required to elicit the same level of service and satisfaction from existing facilities.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Board of Evangelism initiates, plans, and carries out programs to train, motivate, and equip pastors and local churches for their effective evangelism ministry. Growth in discipleship, as well as in numbers, is the board's goal for churches within our annual conference.

Our annual School of Evangelism at Springmaid Beach was held in October and was attended by 160 pastors and lay people, who spent three days in workshops and lectures providing practical help for their particular ministry situations. Areas of emphasis for the school included planning for revitalizing a congregation, Growth Plus: A Vision for Discipleship, and Disciple Bible Study.

During Lent of 1990, the Bishop's Day with Confirmation Classes was held for the fourth year. Over 600 young people from across the conference and their adult leaders, assembled at College Place United Methodist Church to learn more about Methodist history, the connectional system, and agencies of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina. The young people had an opportunity to talk with Bishop Bethea making the connection seem more close to the local church.

The Denman Evangelism Awards were presented during the informal worship service Wednesday evening of Annual Conference. In 1990 more people were nominated for two awards than ever before. The clergy award was given to Reverend James F. Squires. The lay person receiving the award was Mr. Kenneth L. Nelson.

Programs in lay visitation and church revitalization have been provided by the board. These vital programs have reached churches in four districts in 1990. As the program grew a manual for lay visitation was developed. This manual will be used to train local church members through district and cluster settings. Consultations were made in local churches.

In February 1991 a training event for Disciple Bible Study was held. A total of 50 people attended.

Several board members attended "The Gathering: Vital Congregations/Faithful Disciples" in Fort Worth, Texas, October 31 -November 4, 1990. This event, attended by United Methodists from around the nation and world, provided workshops, resources, and inspiration focused on the church's evangelistic outreach ministry. The Board is planning ways of incorporating all of this into existing and future programs.

Response to Church Growth Resolution: In the fall of 1990 the Board of Evangelism was given the responsibility of implementing the Resolution on Church Growth which had been presented to the Annual Conference in 1989 and referred to the Cabinet. Following its study the Cabinet sent its recommendations to the CCOM. In turn, the CCOM turned it over to the Board of Evangelism. The Board is seeking ways to implement the resolution as soon as possible by either incorporating its objectives into existing programs or planning new programs. One existing program, "The Bishop's Five Star Plan of Excellence", is viewed as one of the means of accomplishing these goals. The Board will also pilot Covenant Discipleship Groups as an example of a new program emphasis.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

Report 1

One of the most important ministries in the United Methodist Church is that of the laity. The South Carolina Conference Board of Laity creates programs that enhance this ministry. Programs are developed on the basis of perceived need pulling on the strength of the United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men and United Methodist Youth organizations. The Board of Laity focuses on programs that create opportunities for growth in Christian discipleship.

Report 2

In 1990 the Board of Laity implemented these programs:

- Job Function Workshops were held in six districts to train local church leaders.
- Forty-eight lay speaker instructors were trained in May to supply leaders for district lay speaking schools. The following courses were offered: The Basic Course, Lay Speakers Lead in Worship, Every Member in Ministry, and Lay Speakers Lead in Stewardship.
- The Laity Convocation was held in August of 1990. 1055 persons attended. The theme was "Following Christ Through Discipleship."
- The Every Member Commitment program brochure was mailed in the coordinated mailing. Those trained in the program from each district were listed in the mailing.
- Two awards were given for "Family Church of the Year". They were given to Sharon UMC of Rock Hill and Philadelphia UMC of the Rock Hill District. These awards are given on the basis of the church's ministry to the family.
- A third section of the Age-Level and Family Ministries manual was written for "Young Adult Ministry". This builds on former sections.
- Two Singles Retreats were supported by the Board of Laity. The ministry by, for, and with singles continues to grow.

B.J. Pasley, Conference Lay Leader

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

"Strengthening Congregational Worship Using the United Methodist Hymnal" was the theme of eight workshops held in the Rock Hill, Greenville, Columbia, Charleston, Walterboro, Spartanburg, Florence, and Marion Districts in 1990. Over 860 persons participated in sessions led by the Hymnal Training Team made up of Pastors, Musicians and Christian Educators. This new worship resource has made a great impact on congregations in South Carolina. Workshops will be held in the Greenwood, Anderson, Orangeburg and Hartsville Districts in 1991.

The Commission on Worship planned and carried out the worship services for Annual Conference including the opening Communion and Memorial service and daily early morning Communion. The Worship Booklet for Annual Conference was compiled by members of the Commission.

Two additional pages for "Worship Nuts and Bolts" have been prepared. These include "Children and Worship" and a bibliography. This booklet is distributed to Worship Chairpersons at Church Leader Orientation sessions.

Members of the Commission on Worship have been faithful in their participation in planning and carrying out our objective to make worship more meaningful in our congregations throughout South Carolina.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The South Carolina Conference Board of Missions continues to focus on mission education, mission service, and mission giving. The mission convocation set for September 14, 1991 at Shandon United Methodist Church, Columbia, South Carolina will focus on cultivation and education. Through UMVIM, SIP, Salkehatchie Summer Service, Hungrief, Church Extension, Congregational Development and Redevelopment, and Advance Specials we seek to be involved in mission service. We invite local churches to become involved in these vital areas of missions and ministry.

We continue to celebrate the fact that for more than 200 years, we have helped build churches and congregations; even as we have always been part of the daily struggles to feed the hungry and to seek justice for the poor and the downtrodden. Today, that commitment to mission is sustained through the dedicated service and loving service of some 550 missionaries in more than 70 countries around the world. In addition, we help support about 200 nationals who serve as missionaries in their respective homelands and in other countries.

The Town and Country Subcommittee of the Board of Missions recommends the adoption of the following policy for Cooperative Parish Ministries:

The South Carolina Board of Missions Proposed Policy for Cooperative Ministries

- I. Cooperative Ministries are established to increase mission and ministry in a particular area. This involves the efforts and resources of two or more congregations, securing certain types of pastoral leadership, training laity, and setting up a ministry administrative model.

The purpose of this policy document is to aid our Conference to meet the challenge of organizing for collective ministry in a given geographical area. This policy document shall be applied in cooperative ministry settings supported by the Conference Board of Missions.

The aims and specific objectives of Cooperative Ministries in the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church are:

- To provide a comprehensive ministry of quality
- To use resources, persons, facilities and finances to their fullest potential
- To provide increased opportunities for involvement of congregations in outreach ministry
- To strengthen the witness of the church to its members and to the community
- To affirm the hope, integrity and mission of each local church
- To help staff persons perform significantly in cooperative ministry with built-in support systems
- To affirm creative and new styles of ministry, and
- To reduce duplication of ministry

II. Paragraph 206.2 of The Book of Discipline - 1988

Annual Conferences shall consider a process of cooperative parish development through which cooperative parish ministries are initiated and developed, in both urban and town-and-country situations. Where cooperative parish ministries already exist in Annual Conferences, care and support shall be given in the ongoing development of such ministries, and the Annual Conference shall consider adopting a formal written policy concerning cooperative parish ministries, including a plan of enabling congregations, church-related agencies, and pastors in a defined geographic area to develop a relationship of trust and mutuality which results in coordinated church programs and ministry, supported by appropriate organizational structures and policy. A superintendent or director of parish development may be appointed to work with the Cabinet(s) in the implementation of these ministries in a conference or an area.

Cooperative parish ministries may be expressed in forms such as the following: (a) Larger parish—a number of congregations working together using a parish-wide Administrative Council, or Administrative Board and may determine; providing representation on boards and committees from all churches; guided by a constitution or covenant; and served by a staff appointed to the parish and involving a director. (b) Multiple charge parish—an intentionally organized group of two or more pastoral charges in which each church continues to relate to its Charge Conference on the organizational level and also participates in a parish-wide council. The ordained ministers are appointed to the charges and also to the parish, and a director or coordinator is appointed by the bishop. (c) Group ministry—a loosely organized group of two or more pastoral charges in which ordained ministers are appointed to charges. The ordained ministers and/or lay council, representing all churches, may designate a coordinator. (d) Enlarged charge—two or more congregations, usually on the same circuit and of relatively equal size, that work as a unit with the leadership of one or more pastors. There may be a charge Administrative Council, or Administrative Board and Council on Ministries, and necessary committees. (e) Extended or shared ministry—a larger membership church sharing ministry with a smaller membership church usually served by one pastor. (f) Cluster groups—a group of churches located in the same geographic area with a loosely knit organization which allows the participating congregations and pastoral charges to engage in cooperative programs in varying degree. A district may be divided into cluster groups for administrative purposes. (g) Probe staff—composed of ordained ministers and other staff assigned to a geographic region to explore possibilities for cooperation and developing strategy for improved ministries to persons. (h) Ecomenical parish—a group of United Methodist churches and churches of other Christian traditions joined in a common shared ministry. (i) Shared facilities—two or more United Methodist congregations sharing a building such as those performing ministries in different languages and/or with different racial and ethnic groups. The congregations may enter into a covenant which ensures mutual representation on such bodies as Administrative Council, Administrative Board, Council on Ministries, Board of Trustees, and other committees and work groups.

- III. Prior to the actual organization of a new cooperative ministry there shall be a preliminary study of the area. Its purpose is to determine the feasibility of developing a group of churches into a cooperative ministry. This study shall be done by a probe staff, a probe team, the section of Town and Country Ministries, the section on Urban Ministries or the Task Group of the Board of Missions, which ever is most feasible in cooperation with the district superintendent.

The result of the study along with a recommendation shall be presented to the Cabinet and the Board of Missions for its approval.

The professional staff shall then be selected on the basis of needs of people and churches and the skills of the local church members. The staff shall:

- Secure funding commitments for the proposed ministry (local churches, Annual Conference, General Church, Agencies, etc.)
- Assign professional workers to Cooperative Ministry
- Train professional workers and lay people

The Bishop and Cabinet are asked to give careful consideration to the appointment of clergy persons to cooperative ministries. One pastor will be appointed as Director of the Parish and/or to a local church. All others are to be appointed well aware of the fact that they share in a mutual ministry.

The cooperative ministry shall develop some type of governing body, (Board of Directors) and develop a constitution or by-laws for a method of operation. A budget must also be developed with program and staffing needs in mind.

In addition to pastors, the staffs of cooperative ministries may include other professional workers and full-time or part-time secretaries. The other professionals either are assigned to the project as National Mission Personnel or they are employed by their cooperatives.

IV. The Cooperative Ministry shall make provision for its own method of financial operation. The participating churches will be asked to make financial contributions to the cooperative ministry. Other funding possibilities: special fund raising projects, direct gifts, District, Conference and General Board grants, etc.

Funding for Cooperative Ministries from the Board of Missions shall follow the normal grant procedure for Conference Advance Specials, on forms provided by the Conference Office, along with a copy of the budget for the organization.

V. Evaluation and review will be done on an annual basis on forms from the Conference Office known as Agency Review, first by the DCOM where the Cooperative Ministry is located, then submitted to the Board of Missions' Town and Country or Urban Task Force Subcommittee. The annual evaluation is then forwarded to the CCOM for review and recommendations.

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

Spartanburg Methodist College, operating beneath the Annual Conference Board of Missions, helped develop the lives of over 1,600 individual persons through its educational ministry in 1990. The missional linkages across the conference between the college and local churches helped change many lives, and United Methodists should realize the grateful appreciation felt by our students and also the faculty and trustees.

In implementing its missional ministry, Spartanburg Methodist College serves the following types of persons with unique educational programs:

Proud heritage of serving the disadvantaged since 1911

- No student ever denied admission due to lack of funds
- 30% of students with family income below federal poverty level
- $2.8 million in financial aid provided in 1990 for the needy
- Very low fees in comparison to other accredited colleges
- In 1990 saved South Carolina taxpayers over $3,000,000 in subsidies required for the same enrollment at a state college
- 87% of students received some financial aid

Academic Programs (operating budget of $7,200,000)

- One of the nation's largest 2-year church-related colleges
- 83% of graduates transfer to a senior college or university
- Flexible schedule for various types of students, including older adults

Students Served in 1990-91

- Over 1,600 different students served annually
- 1,059 were enrolled during fall 1990 semester
- 443 resident students
- 90% work to help pay costs
- 95% South Carolinian
- 300 working adult students

1990 Church Support for Ministry at SMC

- $466,000 apportioned to churches, with 75% paid
- Each dollar contributed supports...
  - 41 cents in financial aid of needy students
  - 8 cents for campus ministry program
  - 19 cents for scholarships to United Methodists
  - 13 cents for prison classes, serving 60 inmates
  - 19 cents for special learning equipment to help disadvantaged students

$11,520,000 Institutional Development Campaign 1981-91 ($13,100,000 given)

- Contribution of $7,260,000 in capital gifts on $6,000,000 goal
- 1990 gifts of $758,000 for programs increased from $297,000 in 1980
- Still need $1,000,000 for renovations of old buildings in 1991-94

Values of the Institution

- Development of the full persons by emphasis on intellectual growth, spiritual development, and motivation to serve humanity
- Emphasis on work ethic: helping people help themselves

In mission together through Christian higher education, let's build even stronger programs to help persons develop abundant lives. The college appeals to each local church to strengthen three missional links with us: 1) full payment of the SMC apportionment by each local church; 2) missions specials from local church groups for helping one of the special needy groups described earlier; 3) encourage United Methodist students to study at a United Methodist college. For your convenience in communication with your campus, use our toll free telephone, 1-800-772-7286.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board of Church and Society continues to have as one of its focuses the care and stewardship of God's creation. We provided an opportunity for United Methodist constituents to participate in two conference programs related to the created order: (1) Justice, Peace and the Integrity of Creation, (2) United Nations Seminar in Washington, D.C. on the Environment.

As we witness in the social order for a more just society, we continue to lift up the United Methodist Church's rich heritage of involvement with social justice issues.

The Board presents and urges the passage by the Annual Conference the following resolutions.

Jim Harrison, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY
RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION ON ETHICS IN GOVERNMENT

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church in South Carolina has over two hundred and forty-five thousand members, and is the second largest denomination in the state of South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church encourages all members to hold high the banner of faith and conduct themselves as becomes Christ and His church; and

WHEREAS, recent revelations concerning the conduct of certain of our elected government officials has seriously eroded public confidence; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of this state deserve genuine spirituality and morality reflected in their elected government officials, Now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the United Methodist Church of South Carolina that the Church, through its membership, shall at all times endeavor to choose for public office, individuals of high moral character and integrity who will conduct their official and personal affairs in such a manner as to maintain public confidence and hold sacred the public trust endowed upon them.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the South Carolina General Assembly enact significant legislation regulating the ethical conduct of its members and their staffs as well as registered lobbyists and political action committees in order to restore public trust in our elected officials.

RESOLUTION ON CARE FOR PERSONS WITH AIDS

WHEREAS, over 100,000 people in this nation have died from AIDS since the disease was identified in 1982, including 30,000 persons in 1990, and

WHEREAS, it is estimated by the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control (DHEC) that nationally between 1,500,000 and 2,500,000 persons have already been infected with the AIDS virus, and

WHEREAS, DHEC has published that in South Carolina between 1982 and 1990 there were over 4,300 reported cases of persons infected with the AIDS virus, of whom nearly 700 have died, and

WHEREAS, the AIDS virus is exclusively transmitted through the exchange of body fluids, and not through casual contact, mosquitoes, air, etc., and

WHEREAS, rampant discrimination continues against persons with AIDS, including arbitrary firings, insurance cancellation, housing discrimination, disability certification, etc., and

WHEREAS, most United Methodist churches in this conference have yet to make a tangible commitment to ministry to persons with AIDS,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT:

1. We affirm the 1987 Resolution on AIDS, particularly in calling for increased governmental funding for research, prevention, and treatment; acting to prohibit discrimination; praying and otherwise being in a supportive ministry to persons with AIDS and their families; and calling on all persons to abstain from risky behavior that there might be no new cases of infection.
2. We commend the organizations that have committed themselves to caring for persons with AIDS, including the Palmetto AIDS Life Support Services (PALSS), PALSS Lowcountry, DHEC, the Department of Social Services, Community Long Term Care, The Ecumenical AIDS Ministry (from the SC Christian Action Council), United Spirit for AIDS (Horry County), hospitals, hospices, the county health departments, the many county task forces, and others.
3. We commit ourselves to being educated about AIDS and ministering to the physical and spiritual needs of persons with AIDS. We will accomplish this by training to be a volunteer at least one person from each of our local United Methodist churches at one of the organizations listed above or in other, similar organizations. We suggest this be the Health and Welfare officer. We call upon this local church volunteer to cooperate with the District AIDS Program. We can find out about services in our local areas from our DHEC offices or by calling 1-800-322-2437.

RESOLUTION ON THE PERSIAN GULF WAR

WHEREAS, Iraq violated the norms of international law in occupying the sovereign state of Kuwait, and;

WHEREAS, Iraq systematically tortured, displaced, and persecuted Kuwaiti nationals remaining in their homeland, and;

WHEREAS, the United Nations firmly opposed Iraq with resolutions, trade sanctions, and an armed, international coalition led by the United States, and;

WHEREAS, armed conflict was fought between Iraq and the United Nations coalition, a conflict which led to grievous loss of human life and critical damage to the environment, and;

WHEREAS, Iraq apparently sought to involve Israel in this conflict by firing missiles at Israeli population centers,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH:

1. We affirm the United Methodist Social Principles on War and Peace as stated in paragraph 75(c) of the 1988 Discipline, which rejects war as a means of settling disputes between nations.
2. We categorically denounce the invasion of Kuwait and call on Iraq to abandon all territorial claims against Kuwait.
3. We endorse the initial efforts of the international community to restrain in aggressions of Iraq in the peaceful forms of economic sanctions and the building of a defensive force in Saudi Arabia.
4. We call for the provision of an international mechanism to settle the legitimate grievances between Iraq and Kuwait that future conflicts may be averted.
5. We call for the liberated Kuwait to be liberated also from the tyranny of an unaccountable emir. We recognize that a constitutional monarchy would preserve both the traditions of Kuwait and ensure that basic human rights and freedoms that a democracy provides.
6. We call for an international conference to resolve the long-standing Palestinian problem after the war. We know that so long as there is no satisfactory ending to this issue, there will be no lasting peace in the Middle East.
7. We support our troops still in the Persian Gulf and pray for their safe and complete return from the Persian Gulf.
8. We support the families and soldiers stationed in Europe with the family and friends still in the Persian Gulf area as well as Operation Comfort.

RESOLUTION ON MENTAL HEALTH

WHEREAS, the 1988 General Conference of the United Methodist Church adopted a resolution recognizing that all aspects of health - physical, mental and spiritual - were of equal concern to Jesus Christ whose healing touch reached out to mend broken body, bent mind or wounded spirit with one common purpose - the restoration of wholeness and renewed communion with God and neighbor,"

WHEREAS, in South Carolina in 1990, 53,858 persons received help at one of 17 state Mental Health Community Centers, and 15,887 were admitted to one of the state's psychiatric hospitals (of which 5,932 were first time admissions), and at least 346 persons committed suicide, demonstrating the extent of mental health issues facing our state;

WHEREAS, the trend in recent years to de-institutionalize mental patients has corrected the problem of merely warehousing patients, without adequate community-based mental health programs for those released from hospitals, many of them end up among the homeless on our streets; and a disturbing number of the homeless mentally ill are children;

WHEREAS, the federal government continues to underfund research and assistance in areas of mental health concerns;

WHEREAS, the South Carolina General Assembly has historically provided inadequate funding for the Department of Mental Health, resulting in over-crowded, over-worked, and under-staffed hospitals and mental health centers;

WHEREAS, the S.C. Department of Mental Health has been required by the General Assembly to provide services for a large number of patients who are not mentally ill, such as the elderly, veterans, mentally retarded, youth, and prisoners, further reducing the resources available for serving the mentally ill;

WHEREAS, as Christians we are called to follow the example of Jesus who extended God's unqualified love to all, but especially to those who were outcasts, sick, afflicted, and lived on the fringe of society;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the local churches of the SC Annual Conference

1. Shall observe the month of May each year as Mental Health Month by having speakers, workshops or other programs, bulletin inserts, newsletter articles;
2. Shall participate in the "Walk for the Mentally Ill" which is usually held the last Saturday in October in Columbia;
3. Shall provide leadership in organizing local chapters of the Mental Health Association or Alliance for the Mentally Ill if one does not exist in their county;
4. Shall investigate ways of providing space and opportunities for programs and support groups that will serve the mentally ill in their community.
5. May obtain materials, resources and information on all the above from the Mental Health Association in South Carolina, 1823 Gadsden St., Columbia, SC 29201, or from a local chapter of the Mental Health Association.

FURTHERMORE, the Board of Church and Society recommends to local churches the work of the National Mental Health Association and its local chapters, a voluntary organization that works to promote mental health through programs and services to the mentally ill, education, and advocacy on a local, state, and national level and the National Alliance of the Mentally Ill and its local chapters, a self-help organization of families and friends of mentally ill persons that provides mutual support, education and advocacy.

RESOLUTION ON VOTING RIGHTS

Despite the passage of the Voting Rights Act in 1965 and its amendment and extension in 1982 by the Congress of the United States, South Carolina has failed to comply with the intent of Section 2 which make discriminatory voting practices unlawful. In particular, the state of South Carolina has failed to enact legislation that would eliminate discriminatory, at-large elections that effectively deny the one-person one-vote concept set forth in the U.S. Constitution. As a result, minority South Carolinians are denied important constitutional and human rights. The intransigence of the General Assembly has required that minority groups seek expensive and time consuming legal redress in the courts, on a county by county, city by city, school board by school board basis. Almost without exception, the court has found in favor of the plaintiffs. Many jurisdictions in South Carolina have yet to convert from at-large to single member voting districts.

They are, therefore, in violation of Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act.

Additionally, in spite of the fact that black citizens make up one third of this state's population, we have not had a black Representative to the U.S. Congress since George Washington Murray served, some 94 years ago.

We call, therefore, on the General Assembly of South Carolina to eliminate — by legislative means — at-large voting in South Carolina in as much as it is discriminatory, and serves to deny voters their rights.

We further call on the General Assembly to strongly support this creation of at least one, and preferably two, majority-black congressional districts so as to achieve appropriate minority representation at the national level.

RESOLUTION ON HUNGER

WHEREAS, more than a half billion of the world's population are chronically hungry, and

WHEREAS, five and a half million children die each year from preventable or curable diseases such as measles, dehydration and diarrhea, and respiratory infections, and

WHEREAS, in the United States more than 12 million children live in poverty, and more than 100,000 children are homeless, and

WHEREAS, in South Carolina in 1986, according to the report of the Interim Study Committee on Hunger and Nutrition in South Carolina, 160,000 - 268,000 people in South Carolina are hungry due to poverty, and

WHEREAS, Militarization is a primary cause of hunger in that it consumes both natural and human resources,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT:

We demand that our elected representatives at all levels

1. redirect resources to meeting human and development needs in addition to military needs
2. involve women as full participants in the design and execution of programs to reduce hunger and its structural causes;
3. design programs for economic and human resource development that target poor people and will ensure their access to basic social services;
4. ensure that international assistance should support national programs which build on what people are doing for themselves.

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT WE AS UNITED METHODISTS BE COMMITTED TO INCREASE OUR KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING OF HUNGER, ITS CAUSES, AND THE EFFORTS TO OVERCOME IT. WE FURTHER COMMIT TO CHANGING OUR ATTITUDE AND OUR BEHAVIOR AS CONSUMERS AND CITIZENS, SO THAT WE WILL BE ACTIVELY INVOLVED BOTH IN FEEDING THE HUNGRY AND BEING ADVOCATES FOR THE POOR THROUGH CHANGING PUBLIC POLICIES.

We encourage local churches to participate in Hungrief, CROP, UMCOR, Seeds of Hope, Bread for the World, UNICEF, Heifer Project, and other international and local ecumenical efforts that address the issues of hunger in our world.

SOIL AND WATER STEWARDSHIP

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH CAROLINA

WHEREAS, God gave man dominion over the earth, commanding him to sow and reap, to work diligently, harvest wisely, keep the earth fertile and to nourish the needs of all; and

WHEREAS, the protection of South Carolina's soil, water and air quality are essential to the production of food and fiber and vital to the future of our state's economic growth and development; and

WHEREAS, as Christians we are committed to heed God's command to be good stewards of His creation by protecting and improving the quality of our environment through wise use and management of our land and related natural resources; and

WHEREAS, our Planet Earth, God's own creation, is in danger of being doomed by human crimes of neglect, indifference, waste and careless consumption; and

WHEREAS, not only are we all dependent upon air, soil, water and plants for our existence, but also we have an obligation to protect these resources for the sake of the generations to follow; and
 WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church seeks to meet the spiritual and physical needs of the people; and
 WHEREAS, in South Carolina the month of May is observed as "Soil and Water Stewardship Month" in conjunction with the national observance of "Soil and Water Stewardship Week", April 26—May 3, 1992.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the United Methodist Church of South Carolina, that the Church through its membership observe the Month of May as Soil and Water Stewardship Month, and that one Sunday between April 26 and May 3, be designated as

in South Carolina, and we urge all of our members to join in this observance along with our 46 soil and water conservation districts, the Land Resources Commission and other local, state and federal agencies and organizations committed to the conservation of our state's land and water resources, in recognizing and fulfilling our responsibility to be faithful stewards of our land and water resources.

RESOLUTION ON THE SEA ISLANDS

WHEREAS, the sea islands of South Carolina have long been inhabited by descendants of early residents of these islands, and

WHEREAS, various inequities have been imposed upon these inhabitants through taxation and other methods used to dispossess them of their homes and heritage, and

WHEREAS the General Assembly of South Carolina has the power to correct these inequities and to prevent further dispossession,

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SHOULD ENACT SUCH LEGISLATION AS IT IS NECESSARY TO SEE THAT JUSTICE IS DONE OF BEHALF OF THOSE TO WHOM HARM HAS BEEN DONE.

A. McKay Brabham, Jr.

RESOLUTION ON HOMOSEXUALITY

BE IT RESOLVED that the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Spartanburg, South Carolina, June 2—6, 1991, go on record as opposing the report of the Homosexuality Study Task Force Committee to be presented to the 1992 General Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said Annual Conference, meeting in Spartanburg, South Carolina, June 2 - 6, 1991, go on record in support of the present wording regarding Human Sexuality as contained in Paragraph 71, Section F, of the 1988 United Methodist Discipline.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said South Carolina Annual Conference, meeting in Spartanburg, June 2 - 6, 1991, hereby request the duly elected General Conference delegates voting to respectfully consider the action taken by the South Carolina Annual Conference regarding Human Sexuality.

This resolution submitted by the Administrative Board of St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Elizabeth Whetsell, Chairperson of Administrative Board
Carl N. Harris, Pastor

RESOLUTION ON GAMBLING

WHEREAS, The Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that: "Gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interests of moral, social, economic, and spiritual life, and destructive of good government. As an act of faith and love, Christians should abstain from gambling, and should strive to minister to those victimized by the practice. Where gambling has become addictive, the Church will encourage such individuals to receive therapeutic assistance so that the individuals' energies may be redirected into positive and constructive ends. Community standards and personal life styles should be such as would make unnecessary and undesirable the resort to commercial gambling, including public lotteries, as a recreation, as an escape, or as a means of producing public revenue of funds for support of charities or government." (section 74 par. G)

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina is presently in violation of its own constitution through the failure of the legislature to act to prohibit payoffs through the use of Video Poker Machines, and

WHEREAS, the position of the United Methodist Church has long been that gambling is morally wrong, and
 WHEREAS, continued failure to deal with this matter by the legislature will lead to a state wide epidemic of unregulated gambling in South Carolina, and

WHEREAS, it has been demonstrated in the courts that corruption has already tainted the Democratic process of law making in our states, and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that our law makers demonstrate their dedication and faithfulness to integrity and government.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. This Annual Conference of the S. C. Conference stands in opposition to all payoffs of Video Poker machines and all forms of gambling.
2. The Board of Church and Society, in cooperation with every District Superintendent, appoint committees that will invite other traditions to apply political pressure to repeal the provisions to allow payoffs on machines.
3. We request the Bishop to send a letter to the members of the South Carolina General Assembly stating this position of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.
4. We encourage the Christian Action Council to marshal its resources of member denominations to overturn legalized gambling.
5. This resolution of the Annual Conference be reported through the Advocate.

RESOLUTION

to the South Carolina Annual Conference the United Methodist Church from the Council on Finance and Administration
South Carolina Annual Conference

WHEREAS, the membership of The United Methodist Church continues to decline despite all efforts to the contrary; and

WHEREAS, the budget of the general church continues to increase; and

WHEREAS, it is not possible for a declining membership to continue indefinitely to support an increasing budget;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, in session June 1991, does hereby recommend to the General Council on Finance and Administration and to the 1992 General Conference that the General Conference budget be no more than zero per cent (0%) increase for the 1993-1996 quadrennium; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be submitted to the General Council on Finance and Administration and to the 1992 General Conference.

TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE:

The Administrative Board of the Akersgate United Methodist Church, Greenville, SC, urges the South Carolina Annual Conference, meeting in Spartanburg, June 2-6, 1991, to support the recommendation of the Advisory/Coordinating Committee on Older Adult Ministries of the General Council on Ministries:

"Be it resolved that the Discipline be changed to read as follows:

Paragraph 726.

Amend Paragraph 726.6 as follows:

6. Age Level and Family Councils Ministries.

The council Age Level and Family Ministries may establish councils for and/or coordinators of children's, young adult, adult, older adult, single adults and family ministry councils ministries as it deems necessary to the performance of its duties. (See paragraph 743, concerning the establishment of a Council on Youth Ministry)."

Thank you for your consideration of this important matter.

Administrative Board

PETITION

SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE PETITION Regarding a United Methodist Study Committee's Vote Recommendation to the 1992 General Conference Concerning the Problem of Homosexuality.

WHEREAS: From January 31st-February 3rd, 1991, a United Methodist committee formulated specifically to study the problem of homosexuality voted 17-4 to "drop" the United Methodist Church's 18 year-old Social Principles statement which "condemns" the practice of homosexuality as "incompatible with Christian teaching" and

WHEREAS: The committee's proposed changes in the Social Principles statement which will be recommended to the 1992 General Conference include the following statements: "We acknowledge with humility that the Church has been unable to arrive at a common mind on the compatibility of homosexual practice with Christian teaching" and "Many believe it (homosexual practice) acceptable when practiced in a context of human caring and covenantal faithfulness" and "The present state of knowledge in the relevant disciplines does not provide a satisfactory basis upon which the Church can responsibly maintain a specific prohibition of homosexual practice."

WHEREAS: On pages 81-82 of The Book of Discipline (1988), "United Methodists share with other Christians the conviction that Scripture is the primary source and criterion for Christian doctrine" and "Our standards affirm the Bible as the source of all that is "necessary" and "sufficient" unto salvation (Articles of Religion) and "is to be received through the Holy Spirit as the true rule and guide for faith and practice" (Confession of Faith).

WHEREAS: Within the pages of the Bible, there are numerous examples that the "practice" of homosexual behavior is absolutely prohibited (Genesis 19:1-13; Romans 1: 24-28; 1 Corinthians 6: 9; Jude 1: 7), and that those who engage themselves in such a practice "will not inherit the kingdom of God" (1 Corinthians 6:10).

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference opposes a United Methodist Study Committee's 17-4 vote recommendation to the 1992 General Conference on the grounds that their findings deny the absolute prohibition of homosexual practice upheld through Scripture as well as denial of The Book of Discipline which upholds the Bible as our primary source for faith and practice.

Respectively submitted,
Reverend Michael E. Murdoch

PETITION

SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE PETITION Regarding a United Methodist Study Committee's Vote Recommendation to the General Council on Ministries which may be forwarded to the 1992 General Conference Concerning the Problem of Homosexuality

WHEREAS: From January 31st - February 3rd, 1991, a United Methodist committee formulated specifically to study the problem of homosexuality voted 17-4 to "drop" the United Methodist Church's 18 year-old Social Principles statement which "condemns" the practice of homosexuality as "incompatible with Christian teaching" while affirming the sacred worth of persons who engage in such practices; and

WHEREAS: The committee's proposed changes in the Social Principles statement which will be recommended to the 1992 General Conference include the following statements: "We acknowledge with humility that the Church has been unable to arrive at a common mind on the compatibility of homosexual practice with Christian teaching" and "Many believe it (homosexual practice) acceptable when practiced in a context of human caring and covenantal faithfulness" and "The present state of knowledge in the relevant disciplines does not provide a satisfactory basis upon which the Church can responsibly maintain a specific prohibition of homosexual practice."

WHEREAS: Within the pages of the Bible, there are numerous examples that the "practice" of homosexual behavior is absolutely prohibited (Genesis 19:1-13; Romans 1:24-28; 1 Corinthians 6:9; Jude 1:7), and that those who engage themselves in such a practice "will not inherit the kingdom of God" (1 Corinthians 6:10).

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference reaffirms the Social Principles present statements regarding the incompatibility of homosexual practice with Christian teaching as found on Paragraphs 71-72 of The Book of Discipline.

Respectively submitted,
Reverend Michael E. Murdoch

PETITION

TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

Discipline reference: Paragraph 276

Amend the first sentence in paragraph 276.2 by striking out the words "annually on the first Sunday in May" and inserting the words "on a date determined by the Annual Conference." The first sentence will then read, "Golden Cross Sunday shall be observed on a date determined by the Annual Conference."

The amendment will bring the wording of paragraph 276.2 into line with the wording of paragraph 276.1, which allows the Annual Conference to set the date for the observance of Christian Education Sunday.

It will also allow Golden Cross Sunday to be scheduled to avoid conflict with the observance of Native American Awareness Sunday on years when Easter falls late in April.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Our Board met on February 10, 1990, at Winthrop Wesley Foundation and on November 10, 1990, in Columbia. At the fall meeting we welcomed six new Board members who began working right away. Highest praise goes to all the members and officers of our Board, and to the Rev. Clark Jenkins, our CCOM Staff liaison, for giving inordinate amounts of time and energy to fulfill our mandates.

The Task Force on Interpretation tried to tell the higher education story across South Carolina, aided by our most effective advocates: students, campus ministers, faculty and administrators. We also desire that there be an active, aware Chairperson of Higher Education and Campus Ministry in every local church.

From the Annual Conference continues to flow more enthusiastic support for our ministry through Christian higher education. Evidence includes another year of solid increase in the percentage of "line-items" paid from local churches in 1990: Campus Ministry (up 3.4%); Senior College Fund (up 3.5%); Black College Fund (up 2.6%); and, Africa University Fund (up 7.1%). This excellent response allows us to continue strong ministry through Wesley Foundations, to consider seriously expanding our campuses, and to strengthen ministry with ethnic minority students. Increased giving enables colleges to keep pace somewhat with the growing need for student aid. But even when our apportionments are paid 100%, the need will grow! In 1990 our three fine colleges, Claflin, Columbia and Wofford, received greater financial support from churches in the Conference than ever before. By the end of 1992, receipts from the Senior College Fund will be distributed equally among these schools.

We continue to forge effective collegialship between our Board and college boards of trust. The process for nominating trustees annually in classes is working well to insure continuity on these boards and to maintain dialogue between church and campus, fostering deeper mutual respect.

The college presidents' reports to Annual Conference highlight the achievements and bright prospects within all three campus communities. All our United Methodist institutions of Higher Education are working closely together to interpret a common mission.

From our Conference's share of receipts for the 1989 Student Day Offering we awarded two $500 merit scholarships to deserving students. The 1990 offering jumped almost $10,000 (more than double!), enabling our Board to award four scholarships in 1991.

In 1990 we welcomed two new full-time campus ministers: the Rev. Tom Wall at Columbia Wesley Foundation and the Rev. Jimmy Montgomery at Orangeburg Wesley Foundation. Both have begun energetic and creative ministries. Revision of the 1985 "Campus Ministry Guidelines" will be complete by the fall of 1991. And a task force is evaluating part-time campus ministry across the state, seeking to expand United Methodist presence to thousands of students currently not being reached. Of course, expansion will require greater commitment and investment of funds. But the need is urgent. The S.C. Student Convocation, the Summer Investment Program (S.I.P.) and the Sea Island Rural Mission Project annually offer life-changing involvement to college students.

Vital re-birth of interest in faith and mission is springing up on campuses all across the country and our own state. Recognizing that, and attempting to keep the momentum from recent national gatherings, the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry approved a resolution seeking to establish "Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center" as a denominational emphasis in the next quadrennium. Our Conference Board endorsed this resolution on February 9, 1991. It is printed below as the conclusion of our report and brought before the 1991 Annual Conference for consideration.

Bob Stilwell, Chairperson

A CAMPUS MINISTRY SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR 1993-1996:

CAMPUS MINISTRY: MISSION AT THE CENTER

WHEREAS, the Church of Jesus Christ seeks always to fulfill its mission of loving God with all of its heart, soul, mind, and strength, and its neighbor as itself, and

WHEREAS, since its founding in 1784, American Methodism has carried out a vital ministry in higher education both to train its own leaders and to shape the leadership of society, and

WHEREAS, that commitment continues today through the work of campus ministries at non United Methodist colleges, and through chaplaincies on the campuses of United Methodist related colleges, and

WHEREAS, in 1991 more than 13.2 million students and nearly 900,000 full and part time faculty will be on the campuses in the United States, and

WHEREAS, the campus has been the historic place at which both church and society have exercised leadership, educated future leaders, and provided access to leadership for racial ethnic persons, and

WHEREAS, those leaders will be asked to make far-reaching and often irreversible decisions affecting humankind: its churches and societies, its nations and regions, its earth and air, and

WHEREAS, the college years for traditional students are times of significant moral formation, and for non traditional and older students often occur in the midst of critical personal and career change, and

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church, for the sake of its mission and its own institutional vitality, seeks to strengthen its ties with young adults and with the faculty and staff who will help shape society's future, and

WHEREAS, the Church seeks to make known God's call to Christian vocation for the whole body of God's Church and for the recruitment of ordained and diaconal ministers, and

WHEREAS, through campus ministry, the Church places itself at the center where values are tested and new identities are formed, where inquiry is encouraged and research is carried out, where, in fact, the issues of the world exist in microcosm,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that The United Methodist Church recognizes the critical importance of the campus and of its mission in that arena where lives are changed and world and church leaders are formed, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the 1992 General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopt "Campus Ministry: Mission at the Center" as a Special Program for the 1993-1996 quadrennium, funded at $1,000,000, and that the Special Program be assigned to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry for implementation.

Approved by GBHEM October 4, 1990

Endorsed unanimously by the SC Board of HE/CM, February 9, 1991

CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION/UNITED METHODIST CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Clemson Wesley Foundation/United Methodist Campus Ministry (CWF/UMCM) strives to serve the United Methodist Church and its membership on the campus of Clemson University. We are hopefully a strong witness to faith and our Methodist heritage in the academic community. Together, the Wesley Foundation and the Clemson United Methodist Church, offer students, faculty and staff a place to share and discuss matters of faith in a variety of settings. In worship, study and fellowship opportunities we bring folk together to share a common experience of faith and faithfulness.

This year at CWF/UMCM has brought a fresh vitality to our unique relationship with the Clemson UMC. The effect of the cross-racial appointment of the Reverend Charles Johnson to CUMC has been overwhelmingly positive. Charles' involvement in the life of the CU community has greatly enhanced a wide range of educational and inspirational programming through CWF/UMCM. The participation of ethnic students in our program has been especially enriched.

Once again our fall planning retreat and whitewater rafting trip got our year off on the right foot. Twenty-two students planned the entire fall schedule over two days at Lake Junaluska.

Highlights of the 1990-91 schedule included:

Five Gospel choirs from across the Southeast came together last fall for a two day workshop hosted by CWF/UMCM.

A second Bible study group was organized this fall to satisfy a need among students who had little or no background. A Bible Stories Study, as it was called, leads students through the Old Testament with an emphasis on the narrative of the history of Israel.

Clemson Wesley Foundation was once more the leader among CU students organizations, raising more than $1000 of the total $14,000 raise in the Clemson CROP Walk Against Hunger.

Our Fall Retreat to the mountains of NC, our Annual Ski Trip to Boone, an Atlanta Braves/Six Flags excursion, a work day with Camp Providence, three local work days helped to enliven our fellowship and build community at our local center.

Participation in the Annual SC United Methodist Convocation at Santee and our involvement in the Sea Islands Mission Project last spring also were important to our ministry this year.

Our regular weekly gatherings, including Evensong our principle event on each Sunday evening, Tuesday Night Discussion, our on campus Bible Study group and Friday Night at the Movies continue to thrive. This semester Wesley students have worked hard to renovate our downstairs. After 15 years the Clemson Community Food Cooperative relocated in February. The space that they occupied has been transformed into a game and recreation center, with a pool table, ping pong and other attractions.

Life continues unabated at CWF/UMCM. We are most appreciative of the effort on the part of so many to make this ministry possible. Thanks to the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the pastors and churches who make campus ministry a priority, CUMC, and especially to the students of CU whose spirit and faithfulness continues to be a witness to God's reconciling love in Jesus Christ.

Enoch Hendry, Campus Minister

COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION University of South Carolina and Columbia College

The Columbia Wesley Foundation is the United Methodist presence on the campuses of the University of South Carolina and Columbia College providing ministry for and with students, faculty, and staff. In the context of a faith community we offer a Christian point of reference in the midst of great diversity.

Also known as PALM (Partnership Among Lutherans and Methodists) Campus Ministry, we enjoy working with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America in an ecumenical ministry. Through our own ecumenical orientation, we have encouraged a greater working relationship among various campus ministry groups. This has led to our implementing an "ecumenical weekend" which brought together all of the groups. This has led to our implementing an "ecumenical weekend" which brought together all of the groups. This has led to our implementing an "ecumenical weekend" which brought together all of the groups.

We continue to have as a main focus, racial and cultural inclusiveness. This comes in part through the ministry of our Ethnic Minority Campus, Church, and Community Worker, Mr. Charles White. Through his efforts on the campus of USC and Columbia College, at College Place UMC and in the Eau Claire community, many new opportunities for cross-racial understanding and experience have been created. The community, many new opportunities for cross-racial understanding and experience have been created. The community, many new opportunities for cross-racial understanding and experience have been created.

Our students and staff have given great amounts of energy and time this year in writing and producing an original drama on race relations in South Carolina. "Breaking Down the Barriers" has been presented at eleven different venues across South Carolina. The production's aim was to renew dialogue about race relations in the conference in hopes that new levels of inter-racial understanding and reconciliation can be reached.

Having a three-person staff has allowed us to make new initiatives to meet a diversity of need. A "Faith and the Arts" group has been set up particularly for faculty and staff at USC. Daily mid-day prayer in a contemplative mode has been established and a weekly student-led Bible study has been organized to complement the regular fare of the Sunday evening worship service and fellowship meal and the Wednesday evening communion, meal, and program. We are blessed with tremendous student leadership and committed participation. Among our students are seven ministerial "candidates." Our students have been active attending national and statewide events including the National Convocation on the Ordained Ministry, the Ecumenical Student Gathering in Louisville, and the South Carolina United Methodist Student Convocation. Participation in the week-long Sea Islands Work Project organized in conjunction with other South Carolina campus ministries and through Rural Mission is very popular and a highlight for many students.

The work at Columbia College has gone well this year. PALM at Columbia College which was begun in the spring of 1990 has now become a chartered organization. This group has stabilized and matured this year through dedicated student leadership and with good help from the Columbia College Chaplain, Toni White.

This has been a wonderful and exciting year in campus ministry. I have thoroughly enjoyed my new work in this challenging and vital area of the church's ministry. Thank you for your support and encouragement.

Tom Neal, Campus Minister

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Winthrop Wesley Foundation seeks to involve persons of all ages and cultures in a variety of ministries which engage the society with the Good News of Jesus Christ. During 1990 we continued our ecumenical ministry which brought together Methodists, Presbyterians, and Catholics in worship, fellowship, study, and service. The typical week featured the large gathering on Wednesdays for a meal and program, two Bible study groups which met on Monday and Tuesday, a Friday night social event, a student hunger action group on Tuesday evening, a homeless coalition group on Sunday evenings and special events scattered throughout the academic year.

1990 was highlighted by five retreats dealing with such themes as the environment, spirituality, and worship. It was culminated with the National Ecumenical Student Conference held in Louisville, KY after Christmas. Winthrop had the single largest number of students attending of any school that was represented—twenty. We sent two students to St. Louis for the United Methodist Convocation on Ordained Ministry and had one go to the National Student Leadership Conference in Dallas, Texas.

We continued our long-time commitment to ending hunger by raising over $17,000 through the CROP Walk, Hunger Run, and Oxfam Fast. We had four persons attend the SE Gathering of Bread for the World; we conducted two letter writing campaigns for the Student Center on behalf of reducing the armaments race and on behalf of children which produced over 600 letters to Congresspersons. We sponsored the Earth Day activities on the Winthrop campus which included a ceremonial tree planting, a recycling drive, and information booth in the student center.

Again, we are grateful to the United Methodists of South Carolina who have enabled our ministries to take place through a supportive and caring community of faith on the Winthrop campus.

Rasher Brabham, Campus Minister

ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation is a ministry of the South Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church to the students, faculty, staff and administrations of Claflin and South Carolina State Colleges. When I call to remembrance the diverse ways God's grace has been evidenced and manifested through campus ministry in the lives of persons who are associated with both institutions of higher education, I offer gratitude to God for the South Carolina Conference for its continued support.

Our Campus Ministry is a ministry of "intentionality." We have intentionally ministered to the students, faculty, staff and administration remembering Paul's admonition to the youth Timothy, "for God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power and love and self-control" (2 Timothy 1:7).

We ministered to the students this past year through worship with the observance of Thanksgiving, Advent, and Ash Wednesday. We are providing counseling service and discussions for students devastated by the war in the Persian Gulf, peer pressure, loneliness and other concerns.

Our Ministry was extended to the community through our Clothes Drive entitled "Keep the People Warm" Campaign. Clothing was collected and donated to agencies for the homeless. We expanded our mission through our Fund Drive for UNICEF. The Funds collected were sent to UNICEF. Two of our students participated in Exploration '90 held in Louisville, Kentucky. This event brought United Methodist Students together from across the church to discuss God's call to some form of church vocation and/or Ordained Ministry. Our students returned excited, refreshed and renewed that God is calling them into Ordained Ministry.

We co-sponsored a Prayer Vigil for Peace January 15, 1991, the deadline Iraq was given to leave Kuwait, or be faced with war by the United States and other nations. This was a moving experience. A significant number of students, faculty and administrators participated in this event. We also participated in the South Carolina Student Convocation Retreat. Our students felt good about this event which was very enjoyable.

Our Ministry involved ministering to international students matriculating at both institutions. As a result of being a long way from home and confronted with problems that other students are not experiencing, we have been intentional in our ministry to these students. We have tried in a loving and Christian way of assisting them to feel at "home" away from home.

Our weekly ministry continues its involvement with Bible Study and Power Hour. In addition, we have started a weekly "Survival Hour" on Thursday evening. During "Survival Hour" students congregate at the Wesley Foundation for a meal, play games, fellowship and discussion. We discuss issues that are of concern to our students with the hopes of helping them to survive through the week.

We continued the tradition of sponsoring "Youth Day" for high school United Methodist Students from across the Conference. This event brought to the Campus over 1,000 youth and 300 adults from the United Methodist Churches for a day of fun, recreation, fellowship and an exciting football game.

Lastly, we are ever grateful to all United Methodists in South Carolina who believe in this ministry, and supports this ministry with their gifts and prayers. Certainly, without your love, prayers and financial support our ministry to our students matriculating at Claflin and South Carolina State Colleges would not be a reality.

Jimmy J. Montgomery, Campus Minister

THE CITADEL WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Citadel Wesley Foundation continues to be served by a part-time campus minister. Our goal is to offer a United Methodist presence on the campus that will be a source of Christian growth and support. The Wesley Foundation also seeks to be a link between the students and their local churches.

The Monday evening meeting, held jointly with the College of Charleston, affords one of the best opportunities for ministry with a variety of programs and fellowship. Area churches provide refreshments. The average attendance is about 50.

Other activities have included our annual September gathering at the beach, featuring low country cooking, which drew about 30 persons. The fall retreat was attended by 15 persons. We were represented by 17 persons at the 1991 SC Student Convocation in March.

This year we have worked in cooperation with The Citadel's Coordinator of Chaplaincy Activities to participate in various campus ecumenical programs. In August we took part in The Gathering, a worship and fellowship experience for freshmen students and their parents. We also took part in the Religious Emphasis for 1990. The campus minister has also preached at the Protestant Worship in Summerall Chapel and made himself available for counseling.

Some 140 different students, not all United Methodists, have been touched by the Wesley Foundation during this school year.

Deep appreciation is expressed to my co-worker, Rev. Cindy Karges, and to Asbury Memorial and St. James Churches for their patience, cooperation and encouragement. Likewise, thanks is given to area United Methodist churches for their support.

James H. Williams, Campus Minister

THE COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

The College of Charleston Wesley Foundation strives to meet the needs of and encourage the faith development of United Methodist students and their friends. The College of Charleston Wesley Foundation is served by a part-time campus minister.

The primary fellowship group is the Monday evening meetings, which is held jointly with the Citadel Wesley Foundation. Student leadership for this group is divided equally between the campuses. This combined gathering continues to be important to our students providing them with a forum for discussions of faith issues as well as support and friendships.

In the fall, the students participated in a retreat led by the Citadel campus minister and the College of Charleston campus minister. This spring the students and campus minister attended the South Carolina United Methodist student convocation.

The United Methodist presence continues to be known by our participation on the College of Charleston Religious Life Council. Besides regular meetings of students, representatives and the campus ministers, we have participated in Activity Fairs, ecumenical worship services, and Orientation programs.

We wish to thank the South Carolina United Methodist Conference for support of campus ministry for College of Charleston students, faculty and staff. Thank you also to the Rev. Jim Williams, Citadel Campus Minister, for his significant leadership and to the area churches, whose pastors and members support our program with speakers and refreshments. We continue to dream of a full-time campus minister for the Charleston schools of higher education so an even more encompassing campus ministry might be developed.

Cindy Beasley Karges, Campus Minister

THE FURMAN UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation has been one of the more active religious-oriented student groups on the campus of Furman University. The Wesley group is primarily of Methodist background and heritage, yet many students of non-Methodist background are also included. We believe our primary purpose is to be a support group for students away from home. We strive to provide fellowship, fun, friendship, and support all in a setting which encourages personal devotional growth and spiritual enrichment.

The Wesley group enjoys three week-end retreats each year that are well attended and anxiously looked forward to. The Wesley group not only has a fellowship meal each Wednesday but also plans a regular weekly program. They are also very active in projects and programs that involve them with other religious and non-religious student groups on campus. They collected for UNICEF, work one day a week with mentally retarded adults, help with Habitat for Humanity, Faith Walk for Hunger, Winter Relief Fund for the Needy, and personal sacrifice for World Hunger. There is a good relationship between the Wesley Foundation at Furman and Travelers Rest United Methodist Church. The TRUMC pastor usually devotes Wednesdays to come work and serves as the available Methodist Chaplain to anyone on campus at all times.

Louis D. Jamison, Director

THE MEDICAL UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Medical University Wesley Foundation ministry has made progress since its inception several years ago with a part-time campus minister.

In the initial stages, groundwork was established in "getting a foot on campus," and establishing a United Methodist "presence" in terms of having a campus minister available for counseling and for making available United Methodist resources and financial aid.

The past year brought the formation of a Bible Study group in a joint effort with the Baptists and the Presbyterians (USA). This group has met weekly throughout the year during the lunch hour. Both Medical faculty and students have attended this fellowship and attendance has ranged from the low teens to the low twenties.

An important goal for the next year is to increase the participation of United Methodist students in Conference activities and in other ministries in the Charleston area.

James O. Harper, Campus Minister

CLAFLIN COLLEGE

Three accrediting agencies paid reaffirmation visits to Claflin in the 1990-91 academic year: the UMC University Senate, the National Association of State Departments of Teacher Education and Certification, and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

They found the college planning a $5 million Campaign for Claflin to endow scholarships and faculty development, to build a 200-bed dormitory for women, to modernize and air-condition all existing dormitories, and to acquire available property adjoining the campus.

Visitors from the Black College Fund reported:

"The Claflin curriculum is strong and has a solid base in the liberal arts and sciences.

"The library is in excellent condition. Increasingly, resources have been devoted to library support, with excellent results.

"Enrollment is steadily increasing due to an active recruitment program. Dormitories have good occupancy rates. An enhanced basic skills program has improved retention rates."

The college has adopted "Claflin 2000," a master plan to guide long-range campus development. It encompasses the new dormitory, a new classroom building for the communications and the business administration departments, more efficient parking and traffic flow, and extensive landscaping to beautify this academic home for nearly 900 students.

Nearly two-thirds of our faculty hold doctorates in their disciplines, making this the strongest faculty in our history and one of the strongest among all historically Black colleges.

Claflin's $10 million budget still depends too much on tuition and fees which vary with yearly enrollments. To stabilize fiscal projections Claflin is building an endowment to reach the recommended $9 million for 900 students. Our current endowment stands at $3.8 million, but a new Title III Endowment Challenge from the U.S. Department of Education will match the next $1 million dollars added to our endowment with $2 million!

The exciting opportunity for Claflin College to provide quality education to even more students is within our grasp.

Oscar Allan Rogers, Jr., President

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

The joy of learning in an unapologetically spiritual environment continues to be the essence of Columbia College. Our students seek to grow in knowledge, wisdom, and faith. Our faculty and staff aspire to create an environment of mutual trust and honest inquiry. Our trustees and alumnae strive to provide the resources and wise counsel to ensure effectiveness and relevance. The community of learners at Columbia College is as vibrant as at any time in her 137 years of distinguished service. The past year has been especially successful. At the May Commencement Exercises, Johnnie Cordell Breed presented a gift of $1,000,000 to be used to construct a 30,000 square foot academic building to be called the Johnnie Cordell Breed Leadership Center. Before 1990 ended, an additional million dollars had been raised and the college is so confident that the remaining $1.5 million will be pledged before December 31, 1991, that ground breaking is expected this summer.

Columbia College's emphasis on leadership has attracted regional and even national attention. Our freshman enrollment increased by 21%; further, the retention rate of enrolled students has gone from 80% to 85% during the past two years and is projected at 87% for the current year. With an enrollment of 1193 of whom over 80% receive some type of financial aid, Columbia College remains an inclusive community of scholars.

Of particular significance to the Annual Conference has been the appointment of a full-time Chaplain, the Reverend Toni L. White. The response of the community to Toni's ministry has been phenomenal.

Reverend White's gifts of the spirit have endeared her to students, faculty, and staff. Her charisma and strong sense of presence serve as a daily reminder of the powerful role of women in the clergy. During the difficult days of Operation Desert Storm, Toni's deep and abiding faith was a source of comfort and strength for students, as well as faculty and staff. Chaplain White's impact is being felt in revitalizing Chapel, reactivating community outreach, and heightening a pervasive sense of spirituality on campus.

From February 25-28, 1991 a twelve member team of prominent educators from throughout the South visited Columbia College as part of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' reaffirmation process. SACS Reaffirmation Committee Chairman, Dr. Clyde Rent, President of Mississippi Women's University, praised Columbia College for the very special sense of community evident on campus and for the significant achievements in fulfilling our important mission. The dedication of faculty and staff and the exceptionally high quality of the student body were mentioned by several committee members as great strengths of the institution. The tone of Dr. Rent's remarks, as well as those of the visiting team was very positive and supportive. The reaffirmation of accreditation occurs every ten years and Columbia College is encouraged by the bright and promising future identified during the Self-Study and SACS visit.

With continued support of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, the wonderful blend of change and continuity which characterizes Columbia College will provide the challenging environment needed to empower women and prepare them to improve the quality of life for all.

Dr. Peter T. Mitchell, President

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Wofford College is pleased to report an excellent year during 1990.

We had the strongest student body we can remember. Enrollment was full and the freshman class included 15 National Merit Scholars and 2 National Achievement Scholars. One reason for the strength of the student body is the college's aggressive financial aid program which has grown to its present level of $7 million. These funds supplied from federal, state, college, church and private sources assist 75% of the student body with the cost of their education. The young men and women who benefit from this assistance enter Wofford from a wide range of backgrounds and being a multitude of talents to the community.

During this year these students continued to expand their program of service to the people at the college and the greater Spartanburg Community. Under the leadership of Chaplain Talmage Skinner the "Twin Towers Project" involved many students and most organizations in significant volunteer service activities ranging from Habitat for Humanity to the tutoring of "at risk" children. This year students undertook a support effort for family members and alumni who were involved in the war in the Persian Gulf. Three of our students were called to duty to join scores of alumni who were serving in the effort.

This was a year in which some important physical changes began to take shape on the campus including the construction of the F.W. Olin Building, a new tennis center to replace the courts removed from the site of the Olin Building, and the construction of a new 152 bed dormitory.

The college maintained a solid financial position finishing the 1989-90 year with a positive current fund balance. This was greatly aided by financial support from all of our constituencies. The Campaign for Wofford, a multi-year effort to secure $33.3 million for college operations, endowment growth, and capital projects, is well underway. Over 5,000 contributors enabled the College to enjoy record fund raising success, and they helped make a Wofford education possible for the students. The Annual Fund which provides support for the college's operating budget increased 7.2 percent to a record total of $1,277,365. The South Carolina Conference's Senior College Fund portion of this amount also reached a record level of $312,229. For that support we are very appreciative. It makes a significant difference in our ability to help worthy students.

These dollar statistics are important because of what they make possible for people. Wofford remains committed to offering a superb educational experience in the liberal arts to qualified students of this region regardless of economic circumstances. Doing so requires that we seek increased scholarship assistance, teaching support, and improved facilities. Advocacy by United Methodists in our state for the South Carolina Tuition Grant Program is vital to continuing the assistance for students seeking an education at Wofford or one of the other independent colleges. We all work in order that no student will be discouraged from considering Wofford for financial reasons.

In summary, Wofford had a particularly good year in 1990. Enrollment remained full, faculty and staff morale high, and the college has no debt. Wofford is proud of its relationship with the United Methodist Church and is prepared to face the challenges of the future secure in its position as an outstanding liberal arts college operating in the Christian tradition. We thank you for your faithful support.

Joan M. Lesesne, Jr., President

The Board of Health and Welfare continues to work through the following standing committees: Golden Cross, Program and Training, Nominations for Boards of Trust, and the Conference Homes.

GREENWOOD METHODIST HOME

This is the twenty-third annual report of Greenwood Methodist Home to the South Carolina Annual Conference. We are pleased to have this opportunity to report to the Conference the accomplishments of the past year, comment on our plans for the year ahead, thank you for your participation in this ministry, and tell you how you can undergird our effort to serve older persons in the name of Christ and the Church.

First, a look back over the past year. We began 1990 with 100 residents in our Nursing Center, and during the course of the year there were 42 admissions. We discharged 44 persons, with 17 of them being returned to their homes or being transferred to other facilities. Of the 42 admissions, 14 of these persons were from the residential units on our own campus, a good indication that our "continuum of care" is operating as it was designed.

The Nursing Center continues to operate with a "Waiting List" (currently 38 persons are seeking admission), but our campus residents receive priority in the admissions process. The patient "mix" in the Nursing Center is about 35% Medicare/Medicaid clients and 65% "private" or self-paying. Within the "private" group are the persons that we assist financially through the Methodist Homes "Support Fund."

The residential units comprising our "Heritage Hills Retirement Community" have served 150 persons during the year. "Aldersgate Court" (12 apartments), our prototype "Garden Court" apartment building, served 19 persons in the year; "Bristol Court" (18 apartments) served 21 residents; and "Wesley Park," our Cottage/Duplex apartment section (17 Cottages, 10 Duplex apartments in 5 buildings), served a total of 51 persons. By late Spring 1991, 5 additional Cottages will be completed and occupied in "Wesley Park."

The major growth in our residential population was centered on the new Congregate Living Center, "Heritage House." The 50 Suites in "Heritage House" served a total of 59 persons during the year. Five of these persons relocated to the Nursing Center when it became apparent that they required more assistance than the independent-living environment of "Heritage House" could provide.

All of the past year's work, however, is but a prelude to the future. The Board of Trustees is continuing its "forward planning," and although there is no firm timetable for the next round of construction, the Board's goal is to have construction plans "at the ready." For major construction projects, like the "Heritage House" building, experience has shown that about 2 years is required for good planning, and another two years for construction. Thus, for any "new" construction project, the lead time would normally be about 4 years. Planning now will mean that when we have opportunity to build, we can begin the construction without the usual delay involved in creating the plans.

As an essential part of this planning process, the Board has laid the groundwork for a financial campaign to be conducted in late 1991. This will not be a "Church" or "Conference" fund drive, but it is our hope that many individual South Carolina United Methodists will want to be a part of this effort. We learned many years ago that it is not possible to charge enough for our services to pay all the costs associated with providing the services. It takes many gift dollars to provide the facilities and to care for some persons who cannot pay the full cost of their care. This financial campaign—our first since the "Methodist Homes Campaign" of 1968-71 when this Home was just getting started—is essential for debt retirement, upgrading older buildings, and continuing the development momentum achieved in the past decade.

We are deeply grateful to each local Church and to the countless persons who have contributed to the "Methodist Homes Support Fund." The Orangeburg and Greenwood Homes could not be very charitable without the "Support Funds" that convey adequately the gratitude we feel: perhaps Bishop Joseph Bethea's words express what we feel: "It's time to sing the Doxology!" We need continued growth in the "Support Fund" as The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee begins its life of service later in the year or early in 1992. As the Manor begins its operation, both Orangeburg and Greenwood will receive reduced percentages of the "Support Fund" dollars in order to provide a measure of assistance for persons the Manor will serve. If the dollar amounts are not to be reduced appreciably, the total that is contributed must increase. As local Church budgets are planned, we hope that this will be clearly understood.

All of our Homes — residents, members of the staff and Trustees — need and ask for your prayers, your presence, and your gifts! We thank you for what you have done and for all that you continue to do. Our "Welcome Mat" is always out, and if you come to see us at any of the Homes, you will be proud of what your Church is doing for older persons.

William A. Klauber, Jr., MD, Chairman, Board of Trustees
Ted R. Morton, Jr., President of the Home

THE METHODIST HOME—ORANGEBURG

The year 1990 was a very good year for The Methodist Home - Orangeburg. Our new kitchen facility, The Rikard Building, was dedicated by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea to the glory of God and in loving memory of Wilma and Fred O'Neal Rikard.

Our Arts-Crafts area of the Woodard Building was expanded by the addition of the McAlhany Memorial given by Mrs. Cleo McAlhany in loving memory of her late husband Marvin R. "Mac" McAlhany.

Work was begun on the French Quarter, a new sub-division which will contain thirty-one cottages and will increase our number by approximately forty-five new residents.

Groundbreaking is expected this Spring for the new Nancy Freeman Stringer Memorial Chapel which will be built to the glory of God and in loving memory of the late Mrs. Nancy Freeman Stringer of Anderson, South Carolina. The Stringer Foundation has given a sizeable grant to The Methodist Home to help construct this new building which will occupy a very prominent place on the front campus.

Our most pressing need is for a new, modern, up-to-date, high-rise medical/nursing complex with private rooms to take care of our loved ones who require nursing care. The Board of Trustees has this in the long range plans but needs approximately ten to twelve million dollars.

We are grateful for The Methodist Homes' Support Fund. We thought it was outstanding last year when we raised seventy-five percent of askings and this year we have done even better with seventy-eight percent. Praise God!

We are grateful for our "big" sister - The Greenwood Methodist Home and are looking forward to our new little sister - The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee being finished and opening. The Bishop's Study Committee on Homes continues to explore ways of cooperating and improving our ministry to our older loved ones in South Carolina.

Thanks for your help!

C. Burton Sheffield, Executive Director
Clarence Gramling, Chair, Board of Trustees

THE METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

Construction on The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee began June 25, 1990, and is scheduled for completion by mid-September, 1991. The first phase will have 123 units, 83 independent apartments consisting of one, two, and three room designs, and will have 40 assisted living rooms. The assisted living area will accommodate residents who are ambulatory, but perhaps need help with bathing, medicine dosage, feeding, etc.. All units are rental.

There are ninety-one potential residents who placed deposits for priority reservations at the time this report (March 27, 1991). These people are presently being interviewed for permanent residency.

On March 1, the Executive Committee, on authority of The Board of Trustees of the Manor, employed Mr. E.W. "Bert" Mask as Executive Director. Mr. Mask comes to us from Biloxi, Mississippi, where he managed a Methodist Retirement Center. The mission of The United Methodist Manor of The Pee Dee is to provide a lifestyle that enhances the quality of life for each person wherever he/she might be in that process. We will continually strive to create an independent and secure living environment that encourages enriching and fulfilling lives through the practice of self-determination.

We will embrace the concept of Christian love and care. All accommodations, programs and services are designed and provided with the needs of senior adults and their loved ones in mind. We endeavor to nourish the human spirit and preserve personal dignity by addressing the spiritual, social, emotional, and physical needs of each resident.

When conceived we were told not to obligate the Conference financially. Thus far, we have not, but strongly feel it is time for the Conference to obligate itself financially to us. We need, and feel, we are entitled to more than just your prayers.

Hugh S. Miley, Jr., Chair, Board of Trustees

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

James 1:27 reminds us that true religion is caring for the orphans and widows. Methodist history gives us reason to be proud of our record of response to those in greatest need.

We are grateful for those great leaders of this Annual Conference who provided leadership and vision in the establishment of Epworth Children's Home, which for 95 years has been a source of love, care and guidance for thousands of children. We are aware that your prayers and gifts make this ministry possible. On behalf of the children and families served by Epworth, thank you for your faithfulness.

Epworth is the only child care/family service institution related to the South Carolina United Methodist Conference. It is also the only fully accredited church-related child care institution in South Carolina. We are proud that we have been given the opportunity to serve children and families in times of crisis and need.

This year was an eventful one. In early February, the President was recognized by the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries as "Administrator of the Year."

A total of 51,284 days of care were provided through residential, foster family, in-family, and higher education programs. Hundreds of children were served through outreach programs such as family counseling, family preservation and mental retardation services. Ten students were in higher education, including college, technical schools and seminary. More than 1,800 persons were touched by the Epworth ministry during 1990.

Plans to begin construction of the new special care facility are progressing nicely after some redesigning to meet state regulations. The projected cost of this building is $950,000. Approximately $600,000 has been received through special gifts from individuals, churches and private foundations. We continue to seek additional gifts to underwrite this project.

In November, the compensatory education classes received accreditation from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. A Director of Education and a Media Specialist have been added to the staff. The education program has been enhanced by computers and educational software received through the combined efforts of many people, especially the United Methodist Women, and the "Computers for Classrooms" promotion of Bi-Lo, Inc.

The second annual Family Violence Conference was held in October and was well attended. This conference is jointly sponsored by Epworth Children's Home, the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries and the Council on Ministries.

The decreasing number of available foster homes, the practice of placing foster children in homes which have not met approved standards, specifically for fire safety, and the hurts inflicted upon children in our fast moving society should cause Christians to grieve.

We continue to explore ways to creatively manage children and have long-range plans for providing a greater range of services. Children coming into care today have many problems. They have become "orphans of the living." Most of them have had little structure in their lives, they have educational deficiencies, and many exhibit behavior problems. Our desire is to be of service to them, whatever their needs.

A major problem affecting child care — and one in which the Conference can be of assistance — is finding enough quality house-parents. Although this has been an ongoing problem, it has increased in recent years. We continue to have faith that among our church people are those who are eager to give a year or more to this ministry to children.

During 1990 we lost, through retirement, two very effective housemothers. Mrs. Alma Coleman served 17 years in Dantzler Cottage and Mrs. Mildred Strock served 16 years in Waddell Cottage. We also lost through death, Mr. Eugene Griffith of Newberry, a faithful member of the Epworth Board of Trustees.

The Reverend Tom Brittain continues to do an outstanding job in Church Relations and Financial Development. He speaks with church after church, sharing the message of the ministry of Epworth with Methodists throughout the Conference.

Financial support for the Epworth ministry continues to be strong. Special offerings increased over last year. Our goal is to help every Methodist in South Carolina realize the need to maintain and increase support for this ministry and recognize the urgency for every church to receive the designated offerings on Work Day, Mother's Day and First Sunday Church School. In addition, we hope that United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, Church School classes and other groups will continue to identify this work as a mission of the church as they seek special projects.

We are extremely grateful for the excellent support and cooperation we have received from Methodists throughout this Annual Conference, and we look forward to working with you as God continues to guide the ministry of Epworth Children's Home through this century and into the next.

Oren O. Jones, Chair, Board of Trustees
Charles A. Hutchins, President and CEO

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

In his greeting to the Annual Conference on June 5, 1990, Reverend Wayne Bryan, Executive Minister of the South Carolina Christian Action Council, noted that on the farm and in the church, there are some things easily and best accomplished alone, and other things that can be done effectively only when done by a group working together. The CUIC Commission believes that churches working together to attain certain goals give witness to the headship of Christ over his body, which is the church.

During the 1990-91 Conference year, our primary focus was on Interreligious Concerns. The Ecumenical and Interreligious Breakfast held at the 1990 Annual Conference featured Iman Muhammad S. Adly of the Islamic Center in Columbia as the keynote speaker. Seventy-four (74) persons attended the breakfast, the largest number since the breakfast was begun in 1979.

On December 7, 1990, this Commission hosted an Interreligious Symposium entitled "Politics and Religion in the Middle East." The day began with a keynote address by Dr. Shahrough Akhavi (of the Department of Government and International Studies, USC). Later, Dr. Akhavi lead a workshop entitled "The Larger Arab World Context and Its Impact Between Arabs and Palestinians." Other workshops included in the symposium were: "The Complexity of Contemporary Religion" led by Rabbi Sanford T. Marcus; "Islam in the Middle East" led by Iman Muhammad Adly; and "Influence of Christianity in the Middle East" led by Dr. Carl Evans. The Symposium was attended by more than 60 people from across South Carolina and made those participating even more aware of the complexity of attaining peace in the Middle East. The workshop also made us more aware of the concerns and needs of our Islamic and Jewish brothers and sisters.

The Service of Celebration entitled "Come, Holy Spirit" which was scheduled for January 6, had to be canceled when we were unable to secure a speaker for the event. Our plan was to use this service to kick off a two-week period of prayer and intercession for the World Council of Churches meeting in Australia. We also hoped to encourage local churches to use the World Council of Churches Bible Study, Come Holy Spirit, Renew the Whole Creation. At our February 9th meeting, the Commission decided to renew our efforts in this area by asking each Commission member to organize a Bible study using this book in his/her local community. Each commission member was encouraged to involve churches whose parent body is a member of the World Council of Churches. We will review how these went at our October meeting.

Members of the Commission have been working one on one with local church CUIC chairpersons. We have also given training at job function workshops.

It is our prayer that the South Carolina Conference churches will continue to strive for unity among all churches believing in Jesus. By doing so, we can be God's answer to Jesus' prayer recorded in John 17:21, "...that they may all be one...so that the world may believe...."

Nellie C. Gray Cloninger, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Our Commission continues its quadrennial work with a commitment to expand upon the efforts of former commissions and to provide information designed to enhance mutual support within our annual conference with concern for inclusiveness and equity for all persons and in all areas of our life together.

Our Commission is divided into working committees which are meeting regularly and working at flushing out ideas, inherited and new. Presently, a committee is working on determining minority presence and participation in camps and retreats of the conference; another committee is seeking ways to improve local church involvement in the celebration of Continuing Journey Sunday. Yet another committee is working with the National Division of Project Equality to compile statistics of equal opportunity employment at all levels in some of our own United Methodist institutions in the state.

We have resubmitted our proposal to the CCOM, along with the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, which establishes an award to be presented each year to one person of the South Carolina Conference who has built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness for all persons without regard to race, gender, age, handicap, or economic condition. The award is named "The Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridge Builder Award" and will be presented for the second time at Annual Conference 1991.

We have a program enabling us to work with the Commission on Archives and History in a History/Listening project designed to enable our commissions to interview local church clergy and laypersons concerning our 1972 conference merger and to record perceptions where we are today as United Methodists in South Carolina. Mrs. Maggie Pasley chairs this committee.

During the months of March and April we helped to design and sponsor a program of interreligious dialogue offered to churches in each of the twelve districts. An original drama entitled, "Breaking Down the Barriers" was presented by students from Columbia College and the University of South Carolina. This intentional "bringing together" is another way in which the Commission seeks further healing in our "continued journey" together in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Debra A.S. Quelling, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

One of the goals of the Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women is to serve as a supportive link between the General Commission and the local church. To accomplish this goal, members led Job Function Workshops in districts who requested the training. The Commission also published a newsletter that was distributed to pastors and local church chairpersons on status and role of women through the Coordinated Mailing. It has also distributed The Flyer, the newsletter of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women, to interested persons.

A second goal of the Commission is to increase the acceptance and support of women in both lay and ordained ministry. One means of accomplishing this goal is women in the Pulpit Sunday. We encourage local churches to observe this day by inviting a woman, preferably a clergywoman, to lead a Sunday morning worship service. The worship resources provided by the Commission this year made use of recently-written hymns that are in The United Methodist Hymnal. One theme was based on "Woman in the Night" (No. 274), lifting up women in the New Testament. The second focused on the Biblical image of God caring for us as a mother eagle cares for her young. (Deut. 32: 11, hymn no. 118). Through the use of such material and through hearing a woman preach God's word, our congregations can benefit from and enjoy the richness of the gifts God has given women.

One highlight for the Commission in 1990 was the presentation of the first Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridge Builder Award to the Rev. Luonne Rouse. We co-sponsor this program with the Commission on Religion and Race. This award, named after a deaconess who served in South Carolina for over twenty years, is to be presented annually to a person who has built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness to all persons. It is given in the hope that we might all learn to embrace all persons as sisters and brothers.

The Commission was pleased to secure Dr. Gloria Scott, president of Benedict College and former national president of the Girl Scouts, to be the keynote speaker at the biennial "Changing Roles of Women Conference." However, due to a low number of pre-registrants, the decision was made that the best stewardship of the Annual Conference's money would be to cancel the event.

In all its work, the Commission on the Status and Role of Women seeks to enable the church's continuing commitment to the full participation of women in the total life of the church. Our hope is to witness to the liberating message of Jesus Christ that recognizes every person, woman or man, as a full and equal member of God's human family.

THE COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is pleased to present the following report on its activities for 1990 and its plans for 1991. Our Committee has been divided for the past eighteen months into two Subcommittees—Discovering Careers and Enlistment for Christian Vocations.

The Discovering Careers Subcommittee is charged with providing a workshop called "Discovering Careers." This workshop, designed as a one-day experience (but adaptable in length and content) in career/life planning has provided both young people and adults with tools in career planning, mid-life career changes and career planning issues. The participants also have follow-up career counseling available to them after the workshop, with some of the counseling for ministers being partially financed through the Committee's allotted funds by the Annual Conference. The "Discovering Careers" workshop will be more intensively promoted during 1991 through the efforts of the Subcommittee. The workshop can be a wonderful program for part or all of a meeting of many groups in local churches and Annual Conference organizations and institutions. An effort will take place during 1991 to recruit and properly train additional persons to lead "Discovering Careers" workshops as requests are received for these events.

The Subcommittee on Enlistment for Christian Vocations is focused upon the recruitment of ordained clergy, diaconal ministers and other Christian vocational personnel. During the Spring of 1990 a packet of information for persons in the Conference who are interested in exploring Christian vocations was prepared and distributed during Annual Conference and through the Office of Enlistment staff members.

In addition to this recruitment effort, the Subcommittee has established the Office of Enlistment. This Office is composed of four part-time Enlistment Counselors placed throughout the Annual Conference. The Enlistment Counselors are:

The Reverend Clarence "Smoke" Kanipe
 Anderson, Greenville, Greenwood and Spartanburg Districts' Counselor
 The Reverend Larry McCutcheon
 Florence, Hartsville, Marion and Rock Hill Districts' Counselor
 The Reverend Elizabeth Burgess Drennan
 Charleston, Columbia, Orangeburg, and Walterboro Districts' Counselor
 Mrs. Jacqueline Carter-Harris

Lay Vocations Specialist and Assistant in Orangeburg, Columbia and Rock Hill Districts

These persons are available to meet with conference and district groups of clergy and laypersons, local churches and individuals who are interested in the enlistment of persons for service in ordained, diaconal and other ministries. These Enlistment Counselors are available to meet and counsel persons who are contemplating entrance into a field of ministry. The counselors have been trained in three settings by General Church and Annual Conference leadership. We are very excited about their commitment to this significant ministry in the church.

During 1990 and 1991 the Subcommittee along with representatives from a great number of Conference boards, agencies, institutions and local church pastors with expertise in enlistment have engaged in an extensive study of issues in and approaches to this crucial issue. The Study Committee on Enlistment for Christian Vocations, as this group has been titled, heard from persons of many perspectives including local church pastors effective in enlistment, seminarians, pastoral care specialists, campus ministers, three General Church executives in areas of ordained ministerial enlistment, diaconal ministry and pastoral care and support and representatives for General Church enlistment convocations. A Long-Term Plan of Enlistment for Christian Ministry and Vocations was presented to the Spring meeting of the Conference Council on Ministries for their adoption and approval.

Also the Subcommittee on Enlistment has been extensively involved in the execution of the Bishop's Plan of Identifying and Enlisting for Ministry. This is an intensive program sponsored by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, Columbia College and our Committee. The plan has been supported financially in its first year by a grant from the National United Methodist Foundation. It has consisted of four components—Bishop's Convocation on Enlistment for Ministry (held at Shandon UMC, Columbia in September 1990), District Follow-Up Meetings (held during Fall/Winter 1990-91), Retreat I for Persons Interested in Ministry (held at Columbia College in May 1991) and Annual Follow-Up Retreats at Other United Methodist Campuses. Continuing work will be required to fully carry out this challenging and significant plan.

The Subcommittee on Enlistment also assisted in the planning and financial support of persons attending "Exploration '90" held in St. Louis in October 1990. Twenty-five persons from South Carolina were deeply motivated about ministry as a possible direction for their lives at this national enlistment convocation.

An annual workshop for ministers to reaffirm their call or assist them in exiting their work led by Dr. Larry Salters was held in 1990 and will be repeated in 1991. This workshop includes both group and individual counseling. It is also hoped that Dr. Salters will be more available for the individual career counseling of Annual Conference members.

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is most excited about the efforts it is making in career planning. We are deeply appreciative of the support of the Conference Council on Ministries staff especially Doris Chambers, the Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe and Jim Arant. Everyone is invited to participate in the enlistment and career planning efforts which are offered for the benefit and strengthening of Christ's work through the South Carolina Annual Conference.

I. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

A. INTRODUCTION

Part IV of The Book of Discipline (1988) is entitled, "The Ministry of All Christians." Paragraph 105 states:

The Church as the community of the new covenant has participated in Christ's ministry of grace across the years and around the world. It stretches out to human needs wherever love and service convey God's love and ours. The outreach of such ministries knows no limits. (page 113)

Paragraph 108 states:

Within the people of God, there are those called to the representative ministry—ordained and diaconal. Such callings are evidenced by special gifts, evidence of God's grace, and promise of usefulness. God's call to representative ministry is inward as it comes to the individual and outward through the judgment and validation of the Church. (page 114)

Throughout the history of the Christian Church persons have been called into full commitment of their time and talents by God. The church has guided and validated the call of such persons. Unfortunately, in recent years the South Carolina Annual Conference and others across the denomination have experienced unusual trends in the area of enlisting persons into ministry who have experienced God's call.

Consider these statistics and trends:

- 1) Only 9% of ordained United Methodist clergy are age 35 and under
- 2) In the next 12 years a large percentage of ordained clergy will retire
- 3) Significantly increasing numbers of clergy enter the South Carolina Annual Conference from other denominations
- 4) 135 of United Methodist pastors according to a recent survey are reluctant to encourage anyone to go into ministry
- 5) While we rejoice over persons entering ministry as second careers, their tenure obviously will be shorter
- 6) The need for diaconal and lay servants in the church is even more profound as more persons are attracted to urban and larger congregations requiring greater staff support while more prospects for lay ministries now choose to pursue ordained ministry

B. BACKGROUND

It was out of concern for the trends listed above and others, that the Annual Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling, initiated an extended study of enlistment for Christian vocations with the encouragement and support of Resident Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, and Conference Council on Ministries Directors James S. Gadsden and Susan Henry-Crowe. Persons beyond the membership of the Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling were recruited to expand the scope and viewpoints to be expressed in the study. Various Annual Conference Boards and Agencies related to the issues of ministerial enlistment were asked to serve along with three local pastors who had been effective in this area. A membership list is attached to this report.

Bishop Joseph B. Bethea called the Study Committee on Enlistment for Christian Vocations together for their first meeting on March 30, 1990 with these goals established:

- 1) Develop support for efforts of newly formed Office of Enlistment
- 2) Survey all available data concerning enlistment of persons for Christian vocations (General Board of Higher Education and Ministry staff and other sources)
- 3) Consider the appropriateness of data's application for the South Carolina Annual Conference and determine unique data needs for this conference
- 4) Study carefully all such data
- 5) Develop goals and action plan for increasing enlistment of persons for Christian vocations in the South Carolina Annual Conference
- 6) This action plan will be approved by the Conference Council on Ministries
- 7) The action plan will be implemented by the Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling in cooperation with other appropriate bodies
- 8) Evaluate the implementation of the "Enlistment Action Plan".

Persons from many perspectives have appeared before the Study Committee including local church pastors effective in enlistment, seminarians, pastoral care specialists, campus ministers, three General Church executives with expertise in areas of ordained ministerial enlistment, diaconal ministry, and pastoral care and support and representatives to General Church enlistment convocations. Several surveys have been taken additionally. The general summaries of these can be found in Section III of this report.

II. BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL BASES OF ENLISTMENT FOR MINISTRY—THE CALL, THE CALLER AND THE CALLED

A. GOD CALLS EACH ONE OF US

In our baptism, each one of us receives God's call to be a minister and to serve God and our neighbor. Each one has gifts and talents to use in proclaiming God's love. Saying yes to God calls us to put our faith into action in a variety of ways. Jesus invites men and women, youth and children, to join him on an exciting journey of discipleship. In a similar spirit, our congregations recognize our gifts and invite us to share them as leaders in our congregations and communities.

B. EQUIPPING OTHERS FOR MINISTRY AS LEADERS

Clergy leadership in the wider community has a rich heritage. Today's clergypersons follow in the traditions established by outstanding leaders. In general, ministers in The United Methodist Church are well trained and highly motivated. However, ministers can become more effective in liberating persons, who are stuck in the pew or who stand on the outside of involvement at any level, for the ministry of the church.

Our church enlists, examines, licenses, educates, consecrates, ordains and appoints ministers. The road to membership in The United Methodist ministry is a long one. The standards are high. No other Church makes better provision for its ministers and ministries than our church. New leaders have to be found in every generation: the force, the inspiration, the passion for leadership have to be rediscovered at every moment of decision.

Today many gifted men and women are not choosing full-time Christian vocation. Such persons need to be challenged to discover their gifts and use them in the ministry of the church. The future of our church depends on the curiosity and dedicated work of talented people spiritually motivated to a life of Christian service. What is needed most is a positive attitude, one that is shared by ministers and laypersons alike.

C. GOD CALLS PASTORS TO SERVE

To effectively involve the laity in the shared ministry, the clergy must share leadership. Pastors must live out their understanding that all members of the congregation are servants of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, or a false understanding of leadership and dependency is encouraged. When the pastor has a commitment to shared ministry, then being right and being challenged become less important. The pastor as an effective teacher will help a disciple become stronger and more independent. As effective administrators they will help his or her parishioners be functional and effective as citizens in the adult world of leadership, decision making and complexity.

The theme of shared leadership runs throughout the Bible. In Exodus 18:21 Moses receives the advice of his father-in-law to organize the Israelites where far more involvement would take place in the decision-making process. Jesus called the disciples and sent them out, two by two, to share a leadership task (Mark 6:7). Paul wrote about the many parts that make up the Body of Christ and the importance of each stressed the necessity for all to work together.

In many situations the role of the local church pastor is crucial in the calling of persons to ministry. It is through the example, guidance, influence and leadership of the parish pastor that persons are provided an avenue and support to hear God's call for their lives. The place of the local pastor is almost irreplaceable for persons to consider the call.

D. THE ROLE OF THE LAITY

Lay people must take their ministry seriously. They must help children, youth and adults understand the demands of Christian discipleship and the results of the abundant life that Christ promises. Part of the role of the laity is to encourage those called to representative ministry to articulate their call, to discover their gifts for serving God, and mentor them into servant ministry. They must also help the person understand that those who would be leaders must serve all. When laypeople see that a person has the gifts of Diaconal or Ordained ministry they should encourage and support them. Each person with gifts should be encouraged to explore their gifts in light of their Christian faith and with the idea of looking toward representative ministry. Only God calls us to ministry but laypersons can be agents of God by showing care, love and support for all the people of God.

E. THE ROLE OF THE DIACONAL MINISTER

As a layperson, the Diaconal Minister also has a vital role in enlisting and encouraging people called to representative ministry. As ministers of love, justice and service they are called not only to help people understand their calling to Diaconal Ministry but also to Ordained Ministry. Diaconal Ministers should encourage educationally and spiritually lay professionals who work in the church and world without ordination or consecration. The Diaconal Minister, a layperson, is an agent of God, listening to God and sharing in the call of God's people.

F. RESPONDING TO GOD'S CALL

God's call may come through cries of hurt and pain in our community or from the Staff (Pastor) Parish Relations Committee or the clergy. But the first call we hear should be spiritual. Anyone may go to the door of the pastor or the Staff(Pastor) Parish Relations Committee with the conviction of Isaiah saying, "Here am I! Send Me" (Isaiah 6:8), and offer themselves to lead.

Once we are inside the rhythm and movement of the Holy Spirit, we are prepared to take another step on the journey. In the step of equipping... of learning the skills of service. After Jesus announced his call to a life of service and love, he went into the wilderness for forty days and forty nights. If we are going to be effective leaders we must follow the best model available to us, and that model is Jesus Christ. As excited as we are about our response to God's call, we must not play down the importance of preparation for service. Moses spent time at a retreat center on Mt. Sinai, and Paul had to retool in Damascus before carrying the gospel to the world.

Life has a way of testing our new commitments, and unless we equip ourselves spiritually, we will find ourselves trapped in disappointment, stuck in jealousy, and paralyzed by doubt. Paul instructs us to put on the whole armor of God as we plan to preserve as Christians (Ephesians 6:11). The next step in the call process is "discovery." Jesus called the disciples. As they walked with him and talked with him, each follower discovered more and more about themselves.

Being called of God and being sent by God are two distinct operations of the Holy Spirit. The word "call," used consistently in the New Testament, is from a Greek word meaning to call toward one's self, to summon. It is basically used in a three-fold manner: call to salvation, call to discipleship, and call to service. The word "send" is from a Greek word meaning to send forth from one's self, furnished with credentials, with a commission to act as one's representative and accomplish a certain mission.

Biblically speaking, God's call is not to go somewhere, but to be someone by His Grace. It is in His sending that our direction is made known as to the geographical location. He calls us to Himself in order that He might send us to others. We can really rejoice with our brothers and sisters when they hear the call, have a personal experience with the caller, and are ready to answer the call. Be ye ever sure that God who has called you will also sustain you.

III. RESEARCH DATA AND TRENDS DISCOVERED

A. OVERALL ISSUES AFFECTING ENLISTMENT

The Study Committee identified the following issues as significant ones as affecting the enlistment of persons in Christian ministry:

- 1) Nature of congregational life
- 2) Theological and biblical foundations for articulating the faith
- 3) Sense of church history, heritage and the connectional life (including Annual Conference programing, especially outdoor experiences in camps and retreats)
- 4) Evangelism - through witnessing/example and service
- 5) Christian Education - its role, influence and strength
- 6) Pastoral involvement in enlistment and the nature, style and content of the practice of ministry
- 7) Role of laity in enlistment - including support and follow-up
- 8) Children's and Youth Ministry Programs - existence of and strength of
- 9) Financial Support during seminary and beyond
- 10) Nature of contemporary society including cross-cultural, cross-racial diversity

B. SURVEY RESULTS

Surveys were taken at the 1990 Annual Conference session meeting in Spartanburg. The percentage of surveys returned were in reality small for statistical accuracy. However, they are presented here for review.

CLERGY QUESTIONNAIRE—88 PASTORS RESPONDED

Who most influenced you to enter the ministry?

Pastor - 41%      Family - 22%

At what age did you first consider ministry as a vocation?

Below 10 - 6.8%; 10-15 - 12.5%; 16-20 - 35.2%; 21-25 - 21.6%; 26-35 - 14.8%; 36-45 - 9.1%; 46 & above - 0

The largest number of pastors in the survey sample indicated they made a decision to enter ministry between ages 16 - 20 and next between ages 21 - 25.

IV. OBJECTIVE OF "ENLISTMENT ACTION PLAN," A LONG-TERM PLAN OF ENLISTMENT FOR MINISTRY AND CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The South Carolina Annual Conference is to provide a setting in which persons can accept the claim God has on their lives for Christian ministry through word, sacrament, order and service.

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

The Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling has a primary responsibility in addressing personal and family needs of clergy, both ordained and diaconal, and their families. In addition, the Committee participates in the Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee, the Disaster Response Team and the Annual Dialogue on Clergy Needs. During 1990-91 the Committee has worked to address these needs through three CCOM programs:

1. Fee Supplement Program. The committee works with the approved Pastoral Counseling Services within the conference to provide fee supplement for clergy persons and/or their families, both ordained and diaconal, in the event that counseling is indicated. The approved centers are listed below with a summary of the activity of each center.

- a. Grand Strand Pastoral Counseling Center
First United Methodist Church 901 Kings Hwy., Myrtle Beach 29578
Dr. Kenneth Smith, Director
21 clients seen, 109 sessions held, $3,625.00 supplement received
- b. Spartanburg Pastoral Counseling Services
109 Kent Place, PO Box 5471, Spartanburg 29304
Dr. Mitchell Kylonen, Director
18 clients seen, 180 sessions held, $6,300.00 supplement received
- c. Pastoral Counseling Service
Trenholm Road UMC, 3401 Trenholm Road, Columbia 29204
Dr. Paul Carlson, Director
26 clients seen, 240 sessions held, $7,352.50 supplement received
- d. Pastoral Counseling and Personal Growth Center
Trinity UMC, 2703 Augusta Road, Greenville 29604
Dr. John Miller, Director
23 clients seen, 96 sessions held, $3,322.00 supplement received
- e. Saluda Psychological Services, Inc.
120 Saluda St., Rock Hill 29731
Rev. Guy Shealy, Director
3 clients seen, 25 sessions held, $875.00 supplement received
- f. Pastoral Counseling Services
Virginia Wingard UMC, 1500 Broad River Road, Columbia 29210
Dr. J. Dickey Evans, Director
23 clients seen, 163 sessions held, $4,297.50 supplement received
- g. The Charleston District Pastoral Counseling Center
Bethany UMC, 118 W. 3rd. St., South, Summerville 29483
Dr. Robert Nix, Dr. A.C. Holler, Co-Directors
5 clients seen, 76 sessions held, $960.00 supplement received

2. The Bishop's Retreat For Pastors and Spouses. This retreat was held again this year at the Sea Mist Resort in Myrtle Beach. There were over 115 couples registered. The workers were Dick and Elise Eslinger.
3. The Annual Networking Meeting of the Directors of the centers of the Executive Committee of CCPCC. The meeting was held on March 11 at the United Methodist Center in Columbia.

In addition to those programs listed above the committee is now working on several events which will be designed to meet needs of clergy persons and families of clergy. In 1992 we will offer three Marriage Enrichment Events for clergy and spouses.

THE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND REDEVELOPMENT

The Conference Committee works with Districts to provide resources to help determine priorities for new church development and church revitalization. Demographic data now on computers enables each district to have accurate information about each church as well as results of studies done by the National Division. Access to this data is available from each District office. In addition, Districts are reporting ten-year goals for congregational development and redevelopment. This information will be studied to determine how these goals can impact conference programs and initiatives, assuring closer coordination and cooperation between all Conference program agencies.

The CDR and the Board of Missions have developed a uniform funding application procedure which avoids duplication of efforts, obtains essential information and permits referral to appropriate agencies for action.

Representatives of the cabinet, CDR and Board of Missions have met with the Bishop on several occasions to help clarify roles and move toward a broad base of support for common goals of the Conference and CCOM. While these meetings have been useful, much remains to be done to address more clearly the needs for missional appointments, salary support, roles of empowering agencies in congregational redevelopment, and conference support of the line item for CDR.

As this committee continues its work, it will offer proposals for closer and expanded new church outreach.

ADDENDUM to the Report from Congregational Development Coordinating Committee

1. District Congregational Development Discretionary Fund.

Twenty percent of the CD funds raised in each district be designated for use at the discretion of the District Committee for Congregational Development, with the following provisions: a) No more than one-half of the discretionary funds may be used for new church projects, b) There will be no accumulation of funds. Unexpended funds will become available for use by the Conference thirty-six months after the budget year in which they are received.

Rational: The determination of use of these funds will put the decision making closer to the local level: the DBCD will have funds available for urgent needs that may develop during the year and for smaller projects that will be wise stewardship; and there is the possibility that this will motivate greater giving on the part of the churches not paying 100%. It is felt that any amount greater than 20% for this purpose would be detrimental to the Congregational Development program.

2. Loan Fund.

Grant the Board of Missions the authority to establish a loan fund for new church development, merger, relocation, and enveloped situations be established. Conference agencies (such as Equitable Salaries and Belin Trust) will be asked to invest funds at a moderate interest rate to be loaned to churches at an interest rate below prime. CD funds not allocated will be used to begin the Loan Fund. Individuals and congregations will be solicited. Initially, the loan fund would pay investors five percent interest and charge seven percent to borrowers. The rate for interest paid and charged could be evaluated each year and changed for new participants as needed.

Rational: Adequate financial resources are not available to meet all of the needs in the Conference for land purchase and building construction. Individuals and churches having a strong commitment to church extension growth could designate giving to the Mission Special; those investing would practice good stewardship by having their investments work for the good of the church; churches under severe financial stress from land and building costs could save enormously by borrowing at a very favorable rate.

THE COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS

In following the responsibilities with which it is charged by The Discipline, the Committee on Communications continued its year to "make creative use of television and telecommunication ministries" (726.10i The Book of Discipline, 1988). This year, the Committee adopted a resolution for Vision Interfaith Satellite Network (VISN) which, if passed by the S.C. Conference, will be distributed to cable television stations in the South Carolina markets. The resolution requests the stations include VISN in their scheduling and invites all other participating denominations to take similar action.

The Committee commends CCOM Director Susan Henry-Crowe and her staff on the production this year of five special editions (Church Congregation Development and Redevelopment, Summer Activities, Church Giving, United Methodist Colleges and their mission in higher education and the Advance Specials of the church), and 12 CCOM pages, both of which appeared in The Advocate; the successful media coverage of the 1990 S.C. Annual Conference; and the development of an Audio-Visual Media Resources Catalogue.

The Committee on Communications is grateful for the financial support of the Annual Conference. Funds were appropriated for the Council's work in communications for 1991.

A. McKay Brabham, Chairperson

THE DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

Eighteen months after the Hugo experience, we are still attempting to help people put their lives back in order. Our state has traveled far down the road to recovery and our Church has responded extremely well.

Every Board and Agency of our Conference has been involved in recovery to some extent. Pastoral Care and Counseling, Church and Society, Missions, UMW, UMM, UMMVIM and others have given direct assistance with recovery. Everyone has given indirect assistance.

UMCOR gave personnel, guidance for organization and funds that continue to help us. South Carolina United Methodists have used UMCOR's expertise to learn effective ways of dealing with disaster. UMCOR has offered additional funding for Hugo response and we are requesting an additional $100,000.

We are now winding down our response to Hugo and review of our response is in order. While efforts for recovery have not always been as smooth or timely as preferred, the United Methodist long term response has been at the forefront of the religious community. Our funding, coordination, construction skills, and emotional support have touched more lives than just those 3500 families that needed repairs or rebuilding of homes.

Just as everything has a beginning, everything must have an end. We have targeted June as the end of our Hugo response. Hugo forced us to evaluate our state's substandard housing. The Charleston District United Methodist Relief Center will continue to meet needs uncovered by Hugo and address the problem of substandard housing. The Charleston District Relief Center is a joint effort of the Charleston District, the Disaster Response Committee, Board of Missions and Board of Church and Society.

Ocean Grove UMC, Charleston District experienced tragedy again last month when a fire destroyed their fellowship building. The Disaster Response Committee responded with $2500.

This report would not be complete without thanking Rev. Susan Henry-Crowe (and she will surely be missed), Bishop Bethea, and members of the DRC.

Nick Elliott, Chair

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women in the South Carolina Conference continued their many-faceted program on the local, district and conference levels in 1990. At all times the goal is to promote and provide activities and avenues to carry out the PURPOSE of the organization: "to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church."

A highlight of the year was the National Assembly in Kansas City. Attending were 135 South Carolina United Methodist Women, and scores more were unable to register because of lack of space.

Events held in South Carolina:

1. Under 40 Event - 130 young women attended this first time offering led by Barbara Borom with the theme, "Rejoice and Grow in Wholeness and Holiness."
2. Spiritual Growth Retreat - The theme was "Faith for the Hard Times," and the leader was Janice Grana, South Carolinian who is publisher of The Upper Room. Close to 1200 had spirits lifted and faith strengthened.
3. Undesignated Giving Workshops - Mary Yaggy, volunteer consultant from the Women's Division, itinerated in the districts, reaching about 475 women with information on where our money goes and why giving "with no strings attached" is so important in the ongoing mission of the church. Mrs. Yaggy, who is from Des Moines, Iowa, has worked with our conference finance committee for three years; during that time we have seen a measurable increase in our Pledge to Mission.
4. South Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission - Our conference was host at Spartanburg Methodist College to 325 people from 17 conferences for this week-long event designed to prepare conference school committees and study leaders to conduct their conference schools later in the summer.
5. South Carolina Conference School of Christian Mission - Using the theme "Christian Faith and Cultural Realities," 383 women and a few men studied "Galatians," "People of a Prophetic Church: Central America," and "Gospel, Culture and Media."
6. Christian School Responsibility Interpretation Workshop - 87 conference and selected district officers attended this weekend event provided by the Women's Division as part of the Quadrennial Leadership Design package. Three Women's Division leaders (2 members and 1 staff) were the leadership team for this informative and challenging workshop.

7. Annual Meeting - At Bethel Church in Walterboro on a rain-soaked weekend in October which held down attendance, 376 members from across the conference heard a stirring address by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea on the theme, "Growing in Mission," and an eye-opening presentation on "Child Abuse: Through the Eyes of a Child" by Sue Smith Curran, Director of SOUTH CAROLINA CARES FOR CHILDREN. Interest groups, worship, business, and good fellowship rounded out the two-day program.
  8. Officer Training Day for District Officers - Jan Blosser, Women's Division staff person for the six-conference Atlanta Region, was the keynoter for this day designed to hone skills and learn jobs. 158 conference and district officers were in attendance.
- One additional program not held in South Carolina:
9. United Methodist Seminar: Making Peace with the Earth - United Methodist Women joined the Conference Board of Church and Society and United Methodist Men in sponsoring this seminar designed for our conference group of 25 youth and adults and held at the United Methodist Building across from the Capitol in Washington, D.C.

The foregoing gives a birds-eye view of conference programs. Districts also held retreats, days apart, workshops, mission study sessions, officer training days and annual meetings. Local units were involved in many local activities and programs. A sampling: preparation of meals (or contribution of money for meals) for Volunteers in Mission working on houses for Hugo victims, support for homes for abused women and children, putting up Speed Limit signs in neighborhood, tutoring children and adults, holding Bible study in nursing homes, preparing meals for bereaved families, operating a thrift shop, recycling, operating program for latch-key children, advocating for school breakfasts, Prayer Breakfasts, mission studies, Reading Program, and more.

In 1990 United Methodist Women in South Carolina gave for mission through their conference treasurer $498,878.33. The amount reported by pastors that United Methodist Women gave for "local and community work" was $655,181.00.

Membership reported in 1990 is 31,766 in 868 local units. This figure represents the many women who are vitally involved in seeking to act out the PURPOSE of the organization. Their aim is to enlist others in the same high calling.

Harriet A. Mays, President

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men continues to be the fastest growing organization in the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference UMM continues to grow with charters equaling 276 at the end of 1990.

The scouting program continues to be strong. The Third Religious Encampment drew over 100 participants for the third year. Ten units received the Bishop's Award of Excellence.

The UMM's Congress in 1990 showed its largest attendance ever. Two hundred sixty (260) men and their wives participated. The men gather for spiritual growth, leadership development, and meaningful fellowship.

As an outreach project the UMM paid the expenses to bring medical equipment, donated by Dr. and Mrs. Thayne Coulter of Kansas, to South Carolina to support a medical clinic for the Edisto Indians.

The support for the Living Prayer Center reached $1,800.00 in 1990 and telephone calls were taken at the Men's Congress to show support, care, and love to those in need.

UMM continues to grow with the Book of Discipline (paragraph 264) requiring each charge to charter. We expect charters to grow. With the UMM commitment to Evangelism, Mission, and Spiritual Growth we expect men to grow.

Harry Kent, President

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

During 1990 the Conference Council on Youth Ministries adopted the theme "Lord Prepare Me to Be A Sanctuary." Approximately 4,500 teenagers participated in programs carried out by the CCYM.

1990 began with three Spiritual Life Retreats held at Springmaid Beach. These retreats continue to grow and to meet needs of our youth and adult counselors throughout South Carolina. Retreat Leaders for 1990 were: Earl Wilson, Ed Kilbourne, Motalapula Chabaku, and Duffy Robbins. Each of these leaders helped youth explore how they can be "sanctuaries." The Area and State Basketball tournaments continue to be popular among our youth who enjoy the sports arena. Again, the highlight of the Basketball tournaments is giving of the Sportsmanship Trophy in memory of Mitch Milford. A deep appreciation is expressed to Tom Davis of Trinity UMC, Sumter for his leadership in the area of basketball. He has given many hours and given of his talent to lead each year the Basketball Tournaments.

Each year the Conference Youth Choir grows and continues to be a strong program in Youth Ministry. The musical "Go With God" about the prophet Amos and Dr. Martin Luther King was performed throughout the state. In addition, the Youth Choir sang for the Anderson Crisis Ministry, Orangeburg Methodist Home, and Rural Missions.

Over three hundred teenagers participated in Youth Annual Conference. Teenagers attended workshops on Spirituality, Sexuality, Self-esteem, and Racism. Having all teenagers in the four workshop areas gave them the opportunity to openly discuss what is happening in their lives.

Approximately 100 persons attended Leadership Week. Again, this was a tremendous learning experience for all who participated. Workshops on communications, program planning, resources, bible study, etc., were held. The total group experienced ways to build community in youth groups.

One of the largest numbers of adult workers gathered for the Training Week-end held just for adults. Mike Saffly from the North Carolina Conference was the keynote speaker. Workshops were held to train adults in the areas our youth gave as priorities. It was a very successful weekend.

Angie Sears, Kappi Kameckis, Denise Haigood, June Willson, and Paul Frey attended the Jurisdictional Youth Caucus. Angie Sears was elected Chair of the Jurisdictional Youth organization.

Paul Frey and June Willson continue to serve on the Youth '91 Planning Committee. June Willson represents the Southeastern Jurisdiction on the National Youth Ministry Forum Design Team. She is, also, working with the Jurisdictional Youth Coordinators to form the New Professional Youth Organization for persons employed in Youth Ministry.

A new professional organization was organized in South Carolina, "South Carolina Forum of Adults in Youth Ministry." Officers for this new organization are: John Warren, Chair; Kempie Shepherd, Vice-Chair; Sara Whetstone, Secretary; Cathy Joens, Treasurer, and Bart Sistare, Publicity. Meetings for this organization will be the third Thursday of February, April, June, August, October, and December.

Youth Service Fund giving was up for 1990. A total of $12,959.40 was collected from churches and special projects. Of this $12,959.40, $3,887.82 went to National YSF projects; $4,626.84 went to In-State Projects; and $4,092.52 went to Out-of-State Projects. The CCYM expresses their thanks to all the churches and persons who participated in Youth Service giving for 1990.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks for you as an Annual Conference giving youth and adults the opportunity to serve.

Angie Sears, Chair

June Willson, Youth Coordinator

THE ETHNIC MINORITY CONCERNS COMMITTEE

At the 1988 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the conference endorsed and accepted the Comprehensive Plan of the Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee. In that plan, continued emphasis would be placed on those critical issues in South Carolina that would continue to elevate, motivate and strengthen Ethnic Minority churches in South Carolina.

In the Comprehensive Plan adopted by this Annual Conference, priority was given to the establishment of Ethnic Minority Congregations in areas where there was not an Ethnic presence.

It appears that a broad based effort at new church development and church revitalization must be initiated immediately if the United Methodist Church is to be in mission and ministry with the Black population of the United States. This calls for a new strategy for starting new Black congregations and revitalizing existing congregations.

The Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee has sought to help strengthen and enable local churches to the end that Christian Educational programs, parsonages, tutorial programs, cultural enrichment programs, capital improvements, and leadership development experiences have all been funded through the Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee.

The following reflects funding requests from September 1990 through February 1991. These requests were reviewed and recommended by the Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee and approved by the CCOM.

TOTAL	$49,490

Many lives have been touched, churches revitalized, parsonages built, purchased, and renovated and leaders strengthened for witness and mission.

There is still much work to be done and we would prayerfully hope that this Annual Conference keeps this Committee in your prayers.

REMEMBERING

The Reverend Phil C. Lavender

I remember as if it was yesterday. In those pre-school years and those hot summers my mother, after, lunch would open up Herbut's Story Book of The Bible. She would read story after story. When she had finished I had heard stories of giants and kings, of evil and good, of the powerful and the weak. I had heard stories of betrayal, stories of faith, stories of hope. I had heard the stories of God. I remember.

I remember the smell of the gas heater in a small room on the second level of the small church in which I grew. The ventilation was poor but the teaching and the care was good. I was eleven years old as Mrs. Morgan told us the stories, the stories of giants and kings, of evil and good, of the powerful and the weak. I heard the stories, the stories of betrayal, the stories of faith, the stories of hope. I heard the stories of God. I remember.

The Apostle Paul writes to the Corinthians. He had established the congregation but had great concern as he received news of divisions and problems. Corinth did not have two factions, they had many. Members were lining up behind church leaders. Some were claiming to follow Paul, while others pledged alliance to Peter and Apollos. Some claimed to be the 'true' Christians since 'they' were the only ones following Christ.

The divisions manifested themselves in various other ways. There were socioeconomic divisions of the haves and have nots at the Lord's Supper. Some brought their 'steaks' to the 'fellowship meal' while others could only afford 'Spam'. They ate separately.

There were economic divisions between Jewish and Gentile Christians. Thus there was disagreement over what could be eaten (i.e. meat) and the participation of women in the service. Some Jewish Christians wanted the practice of the synagogue continued where only males could speak.

There were morality problems. There were lawsuits. There was heresy concerning the resurrection of Jesus. If we as clergypersons had been sent to Corinth we would have asked for 'reconsideration'...even though the Church was said to have "great possibilities".

Paul in dealing with these multiple problems tells the Corinthians to remember. "Now I would remind you brothers and sisters," he says. He wants them to remember. He wants them to remember what was preached and believed in the very beginning. After this 'reminder' Paul calls to their mind the content of his original preaching and teaching. That content is the death, resurrection and appearance of Jesus Christ. He reminds them how that 'memory' has shaped his own life and caused him to be an active recipient of God's grace.

What Paul does in this passage is a microcosm of scripture and the faith itself. Scripture and faith operates on the basis of memory. But, it is not memory that is tied to the past but memory that calls one to respond in the present and look with hope to the future.

Nils Astup Dahl, Emeritus professor of New Testament at Yale Divinity School, in his marvelous essay entitled "Jesus in the Memory of The Church" writes of this unique place of memory. In the writings of Aristotle, Dahl says, the word "Mnemeuein", "to remember" could be applied only to something past but not to something present or future. To remember in the New Testament means that one "recalls something or thinks about it in such a way that it is expressed in speech and is formative for attitude and action". In the Old Testament when God is said to remember, he remembers the covenant and he acts in conformity with it. When he no longer remembers, he no longer remembers Israel's inequities. In other words he pardons them.

This understanding is much like our parents words to us in our youth. Whether it was dating or an outing with friends our parents would tell us to "remember who we are". It was a reminder that who we were in the past should govern present and future actions.

This evening we gather to remember. We remember as we celebrate the Lord's Supper, the Eucharist. It is not simply a past event but it defines who we are in the present.

We also are gathered to remember those who have gone before. Those who have gone before who were the tellers of the story. They have proclaimed just as Paul said he did..."let me remind you, brothers and sister...let me remind you of what we proclaimed and what you received." And they like Paul could say, "God's grace was not given to me in vain." We remember these faithful tellers of the story of the Good News of Jesus Christ.

In light of the Eucharist drama played out before us, in light of the drama of the lives of the tellers of the Gospel story how does this past, how does this story serve to direct us now? Where are we now because of our past? We might ask it this way, what are good memories and what are bad memories?

All of us have good and bad memories. Sometimes those bad memories become better over the years. If we participated in sports in high school or college those bad plays that we remember get better and better with time. We realize how good we really 'were'.

The kind of memories that I am speaking of here, however, are different than our usual ideas of what is good and bad. I am talking about memories that either cause you to respond now, in the present or hinder us from responding. Good memories are not necessarily pleasant memories but they help us to live faithfully now. They define who we are in a redemptive sense, now.

The memory that I have of my parents are good in that they not only laid the basis for my Bible content understanding but they stressed that life was to be lived ethically and morally in light of my faith. That memory defines to a great degree who I am now.

This definition of memory was kindled recently as I sat with my confirmation class as we worshiped with the Beth Shalom Synagogue in Columbia. I wanted my youth to get a sense of the context out of which their own story had come. During the homily Rabbi Silverstein read from his diary. His diary recounted the events of he and his family in the early forties. How they fled from their home to France. He recounted hearing planes flying overhead and bombs falling. The memory that he has is not a pleasant one but it is a good one. It helps define who he is in his life and faith now. It calls him to certain attitudes and actions. It is a good memory.

Bad memories are those memories that not only live in the past but destroy the ability to fully live in the present and look to the future. Bad memories are memories characterized by nostalgia and sentimentality. Nostalgia and sentimentality are killers for the Christian faith. They are shallow emotions without present commitment.

I am reminded of this shallow and destructive kind of sentimentality when I think of the Nazi regime. The Nazis would kill Jews by day and at night listen to Wagner and weep.

Nostalgia and sentimentality are present where churches live in the past. They become entombed. Nostalgia and sentimentality are seen in the view of Jesus as a "sweet Savior" who is unable to identify with or be involved with us in the real world. Nostalgia and sentimentality define a commercial for a church I saw recently. The point of the commercial was that seeing your child in the choir would bring a tear to your eye. Nostalgia and sentimentality is being moved, like the book of James says, to say "be filled and be clothed" but nothing is done to bring that about.

These are bad memories. They are shallow and will not equip us for our Christian ministry.

If the Lord's Supper and those faithful servants who have gone before are reminders, how might these good memories give us direction now? Where do they further point us?

This reminder, this memory first of all calls us to be true to the faith of Jesus Christ and the content of that faith. Paul is concerned the Corinthians have forgotten what he preached and taught. Some either denied the resurrection or felt it had already passed so they could live as they wanted.

Diogenes Allen, professor of philosophy at Princeton Theological Seminary has written a marvelous book entitled Christian Belief In A Postmodern World. He says that the church is like a barge. Like the barge, as it approached the shallow waters of scientific doubt the church has either veered to the far bank to totally avoid the difficulties of critical thought and hidden themselves in dogma or they have lightened the barge by throwing over some of the content (i.e. Christian claims) so the barge will pass safely over.

We are truly a diverse church, and I am thankful for it. But, we have to remind ourselves that our faith has content. Warm fuzzies are not enough.

Secondly, we are reminded, we remember that as Christians, lay and clergy that one of the vital ingredients of our Christian life is integrity. This is true in our every day business dealing and it is especially vital in our life as clergypersons. Being trustworthy, caring, not taking advantage of people in vulnerable situations must characterize our life and ministry.

Paul's placed great emphasis on integrity. Some had questioned his integrity due to changes in his travel plans. He had a great concern for that and responds in the very beginning of II Corinthians, in chapter one to that charge. He knows that if he is viewed as having no integrity the message he speaks will not be heard.

We remember who we are in Christ. Our life and ministry is characterized by integrity.

Thirdly, we are reminded, we remember that there is perhaps no greater time for the churches response in this world as now. There is no greater need for the Church to be who she is than now.

There is a vacuum in our society. As Diogenes Allen, quoted earlier, says we are living in a postmodern world. Our society and the modern mentality that were outgrowths of The Enlightenment are crumbling. What has been taken for granted is being called into question. We have facts (and fax) and information but we do not have knowledge. We have data but we do not have wisdom. People climb social-economic ladders but their souls are starving. Morality is crumbling, Allen says, for we thought that there could be a secular basis for morality and society. It's like admiring a beautiful flower. One cuts the flower just above the roots so it can be admired. One wonders later why the flower soon dies. We have forgotten the "roots" of justice and morality. We have forgotten the story out of which it came. It's the story Paul tells. It's the story that we tell...in the Supper and in the lives of those who have gone before.

So, we gather here this evening. We gather again to remind each other of the story. It is the story of giants and kings, of evil and good, of the powerful and the weak. They are the stories of betrayal, the stories of faith, the stories of hope. They are the stories of God...and the story of Jesus Christ. And we remember.

RICHARD S. COVINGTON
March 29, 1927 — July 19, 1990

Born in Wadesboro, NC, the son of Dr. James and Mary Dunlap Covington, he is survived by his precious Nancy and their three children, Richard S. Covington, Jr. of Bethlehem, PA, Mrs. Laura C. Neal of West Columbia, and Mrs. Nanette C. Moore of Aiken.

Educated at University of North Carolina, receiving a BS, University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee, with Degree in Theology. He served as Associate St. Johns in Aiken, Kelton, Pamplico, Hartsville-St. Luke, Platt Springs, Fair Lawn, Swansea, Graniteville, St. John, and Bethel Union.

The Memorial Service was held near his home at Cherry Grove. The family selected the Scriptures and music which were used. The Rev. Roderick Dail read Revelation 21:1-4, the Rev. Tom Wilkes read 23 Psalm, the Rev. Terry Martin read I Cor. 13, and the Rev. Don Cavin read Matt 5:1-16. The solo, "Hope of the World" by Dick's niece was sung and the service was concluded with closing prayer, the Lord's Prayer, and benediction.

Terry Martin presented the United States flag on behalf of our President to Nancy.

While we say good-bye to all our friends on this day we are all reminded by the strength of the Greater Love who makes the oceans roar, the rivers run, the streams trickle, and who orders creation here on earth. What mysteries await the faithful, Dick now surely knows.

— Thomas B. Wilkes, Jr.

CHARLES HAYES DAVIS
August 14, 1927 — November 7, 1990

The ministry of Charles H. Davis began with a License to Preach on October 11, 1954. From that day, and until his death, Charles Davis had a deep love for the Gospel and for the United Methodist Church.

Charles was a son of the South. He was born in Anson County, North Carolina. His parents were R.N. and Effie Jane Davis. Home and family were as dear to his heart as was preaching the Gospel. Charles married Olivia on October 8, 1952. Olivia was a faithful wife and devoted companion. Anyone who saw Charles and Olivia together knew of his deep love and abiding affection for her. Charles was devoted to his children, Deborah Denise and Ralph Scott. His last two years afforded him the opportunity to spend time with his grandchildren. Clearly, they enjoyed each other to the fullest. Charles left his family a legacy of love and devotion. This legacy will surely be a source of comfort and pride for years to come.

Family and friends may also celebrate his ministry. Charles prepared for ministry by graduating from Erskine College with an A.B. Degree in 1959. He also attended Seminary at the Erskine Theological Seminary and the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. His pastoral record includes the following appointments: Chicopee Charge (1955-57), Princeton Charge (1957-58), Bethel (Iva) (1958-61), Summerville Circuit (1961-64), Shiloh (1964-72), Dunbar (Greenville) (1972-75), Sharon (Greenville) (1975-80), Mt. Bethel-Porters Chapel (1980-86) Montgomery Memorial (1986-87) Duncan (1988-89) Disability Leave (1989-1990). Charles very much resisted Disability Leave because he wanted to continue as an Effective Member in the Conference. Disability was something he did not want but he managed it well with the help of family and friends.

Charles Davis died on Wednesday, November 7, 1990. His funeral was conducted at Sharon United Methodist Church on Saturday, November 10. The Reverend Herbert Stephens, Jr. and the Rev. James E. Hunter presided. The interment was in the Sharon Cemetery, adjacent to Sharon United Methodist Church. The cold, blustery day of his burial was quite a contrast to the warm affection of family and friends who packed the church to give thanks and praise to Almighty God for the life and memory of Charles H. Davis.

RALPH OTIS BATES
September 7, 1916 — July 2, 1990

Ralph Otis Bates was licensed to preach the gospel in 1953. He was a faithful preacher, proclaimer, and pastor until his death on July 2, 1990. Even though Ralph retired in 1985 from episcopal appointments, it could never be said that he retired from the ministry of his Lord and Savior. He was one of those very unique individuals who understood retirement to be just another way in which to serve. Retirement for Ralph just opened new doors of service, and opened old doors simply wider.

Ralph had a personality which attracted others to him, and had a special way of making one feel comfortable in his presence. If ever there was a perfect mentor to be found in the South Carolina Conference, it surely was Ralph Bates. It did not take me long to fall in love with him after I began serving Epting Memorial in 1988. He had served Epting Memorial from 1977 through 1982. He moved from Newberry in 1982 to serve his last appointment at Nazareth in Olanta until retirement in 1985. Having served Epting Memorial for five years, he and his precious wife, Mildred Kirkland Bates, decided to return in 1985 to the church they loved so much. When I arrived with my rental truck in 1988, Ralph was at the parsonage to help unload. This was a very remarkable display of devotion since he was still under the care of a doctor for heart problems.

Ralph was determined to help make my pastorate at his former appointment a success. He was never too busy to listen to my problems or concerns. He was always there to share with me all the years of experience he had gained in the ministry. I came to depend on his judgment in many instances, and I can honestly say that Ralph never gave me any advice that wasn't correct. He had invested five years of his life's work into Epting, and he was only too glad to see his younger successor do well. If all of God's anointed pastors were like Ralph, it should be a standing rule that there would be at least one retired pastor in each Methodist church in South Carolina. It would be such a waste of talent and knowledge to have all such pastors retired at Lake Junaluska, or all attending just a few of the larger churches in the conference. Quite often I would tell Ralph that it should be a requirement of the conference for each retiree to attend a small church and assist others as he assisted me. He was always too gracious to accept any credit for the help he rendered me and this parish.

The name Ralph Otis Bates will never appear in our journal as having served large membership churches with high name recognition, but that was not important to him. What was important to Ralph was that he would give one hundred percent of himself no matter where the bishop would send him. His contentment was within himself. The Holy Spirit affirmed his value in the cause of Christ in this world. Also, one must consider the total dedication of Mildred, his wife since January 2, 1944. Mrs. Bates has always seen her role as one of supporting her husband in any way possible. I am proud to say that Mrs. Bates is still a very active member of Epting Memorial. She continues her love and concern for the parsonage family, and the general ministry of the church. Mildred always loved to make visits with Ralph. So many members have expressed their gratitude for her devotion. It is sad to say, but I believe Ralph and Mildred's generation was the last of the traditional clergy marriages where wives were always by their husband's side assisting him by any means possible.

Ralph Otis Bates is now with his Lord and Savior, and has joined that great crowd of believers who surround us, but his presence will always be felt. His dedication will continue to preach the love of Christ long years from now. I can simply conclude by saying that having known Ralph as a mentor, a real father figure, was an humbling experience. I shall be forever in his debt for the things he taught me. I would like to think that as long as I live, Ralph will live also because of the lasting impression he made on me. May God grant me the wisdom to help a new pastor as Ralph helped me. The words I used to close Ralph's funeral service on July 5, 1990 still express my deep inner feelings for him. These words still seem very appropriate, and I shall end with them, "Papa, enjoy the Kingdom, and until I see you again, may He keep you in his loving care".

— Barry L. Brown

LLOYD DEFOIX BOLT
February 17, 1901 — September 5, 1990

Thank God for Lloyd Bolt! When I think of this minister who served the United Methodist Church for 46 years, I think of a servant of God whose life was balanced and poised, ready always to serve to the limits of his ability and energy.

Our friend was an excellent preacher, a discerning prophet, a caring pastor, and a tireless worker for Christ and the church. Known always as a faithful student of the Holy Scriptures, Lloyd was preparing sermon outlines and developing new ideas even in the last weeks of his life. Throughout his ministry he prepared his messages carefully, using great themes based on Biblical passages—such as redemption, salvation, grace, and spiritual holiness. Usually he committed to memory the Scriptural passage on which he was preaching, quoting the entire passage most effectively and helpfully. He spoke with conviction and passion, calling his hearers to repentance; his plea was for commitment—and recommitment—to the Christian life.

Lloyd was an evangelist in the finest sense of the word. Let it be remembered that his evangelistic fervor was certainly not limited to the pulpit. It was not unusual for him to say to someone working on his car, or cutting his hair, or preparing a legal document: "Tell me, my friend, do you feel that you have given your heart to Jesus Christ?" or "Have you accepted Christ as your personal Savior and Lord?"

As a leader in the South Carolina Conference, Lloyd was held in high esteem by laity and ministers alike. He seldom made speeches on the conference floor; when he did, he spoke forcefully, unequivocally, and briefly. As pastor and district superintendent he took his stand for justice and righteousness, insisting that all persons be treated with dignity and fairness. As a district leader he sought the best possible decisions in the appointment-making process. His concern was to focus on the welfare of the parish and minister, whether the church was small or large. Clearly, he had no patience with those seeking popularity, or personal gain, through position in the church.

Our friend was a avid sportsman, both as a fan and participant. His favorite sports were baseball, basketball, and golf. He excelled in all three; and always he was interested in improving his game, and he played to win!

In his personal life Lloyd's love knew no bounds—as husband, father, and grandfather. To Clara, his wife for fifty-eight years; to his daughter, Judy; and to his granddaughters, Clare and Lee, he left a marvelous pattern for living the Christian life. To countless friends he was a fine gentleman, respected and loved by all who knew him.

Humbly we thank God for Lloyd Bolt:

- uncommon interpreter of the Word;
- clarion voice of righteousness and justice;
- prophet of unusual ability;
- preacher of conviction

On November 4, 1979, as Lloyd retired from his duties as Minister of Visitation at First United Methodist Church of Waynesville, NC—and then was named "Minister Emeritus"—Mrs. Rubye Bryson, Chair of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee, spoke for the congregation at the honoring service:

Today we are observing a day which we call "Appreciation Day for the Lloyd Bolts." Since you have served this church as Minister of Visitation, the members have had a truth brought home to them of what one man filled with love for his Savior and his fellowmen can mean to others. They have felt the inspiration, warmth, comfort, and laughter of someone who brought all this to them when he visited even for a few minutes — We want to present this plaque to you as a token, but a constant reminder, which says: "We love you, Lloyd Bolt."

To which all of us say: "Amen and amen!"

JOEL EARLE CANNON April 27, 1918 — February 17, 1991

Joel Earle Cannon, a kind, gentle, loving Pastor for 47 years, was born April 27, 1918, in Spartanburg, S.C., son of John Burns and Eulalie Earle Cannon. After graduating from Spartanburg High School he received his B.A. from Wofford College in 1939 and his B.D. from Emory University in 1945. He also did graduate work at Vanderbilt University and taught at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbia.

On June 2, 1942, he married Opal Lancaster, his sweetheart and life-long helpmate in ministry. Their marriage was blessed by two daughters — Opal Catherine Cannon of Columbia and Mildred Josephine "Joey" Cannon of Spartanburg. Also, surviving is a sister, Caroline C. Holt of Spartanburg, and a brother, the Reverend Dr. Ralph A. Cannon of Greenville.

Having heard God's call to be a minister, he was licensed to preach in May of 1941; ordained deacon and elder in July of 1945; and was received into full connection in October of 1947. He faithfully and lovingly served the church as an Army Chaplain, Pastor, Youth Director and District Superintendent. His appointments were: Travelers Rest/Slater, 1941-43; Student, Emory University, 1943-45; Chaplain, U.S. Army, 1945-47; Youth Director, Upper S. C. Conference 1947-48; St. Paul (Florence), founding Pastor, 1948-54; Grace (Pickens) 1954-58; Broad Street (Clinton) 1958-61; Trinity (Charleston), 1961-63; Kingstree, 1963-67; Memorial (Greer) 1967-70; Lake City District Superintendent 1970-75; Florence District Superintendent 1974-75; Trenholm Road (Columbia), 1975-79; Grace (Williamston) 1979-82; Christ (Boiling Springs), 1983. In retirement, he served as Associate at St. Paul, Trinity, and Bethel Churches in Spartanburg.

Joel's service to the Conference included: his cabinet leadership; Columbia College Trustee; Epworth Trustee; Board of Pensions; Board of Ordained Ministry; Chairperson, Committee on Episcopacy; Chairperson, Committee on Investigation; Delegate, S.E. Jurisdictional Conference; and many committee assignments.

On February 19, at 2:00 pm, a worship service celebrating Joel's fruitful life of Christian love and ministry was held at his home church, Bethel, Spartanburg. Officiating at the service were Bishop Edward L. Tullis, Dr. James E. Hunter, III, and the Reverend W. Harvey Floyd, Jr. Bishop Tullis summed up his life in the following way: "Superb Christian Gentleman, committed minister and churchman, warmhearted gospel preacher, devoted husband and father, loyal friend, reconciler, a person of humility, honesty, integrity, sterling character." His earthly body was laid to rest in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens, Spartanburg, after a half century of dedicated ministry and humble Christian service.

OLEN LEON HARDWICK May 29, 1909 — August 29, 1990

On Wednesday afternoon, when Olen Hardwick was transferred to life eternal, I recalled a word spoken when another close friend moved into life immortal: "Now there goes a man God can use!" Of course, in a sense, God can use any one of us—and does. However, I feel that God used Olen in several special ways. May I mention these?

We were in college and seminary together, and entered our Annual Conference the same year. I have treasured his friendship and the qualities of his life for 61 years.

There goes a man God could use—a man who thought things through for himself. He would take a stand, never to be changed by the shifting winds of public opinion. Based on good thought Olen brought courage to so many life situations. In Hugh Walpole's classic novel, FORTITUDE, the village sage, old Frosted Moses, brings encouragement to a street urchin, Peter Wescoat, saying "Peter, tisn't life that matters—it's the courage you bring to it!" How often I have seen Olen in the role of the village sage - bringing a word of encouragement to someone in need!

Whether it was a long hard battle with an incurable disease, or a fight against some evil condition in his community—or in the world—he always brought courage.

There goes a man God can use; a man endowed with an uncommon ability to genuinely love people. First, he loved his family; his caring wife, Ruth; his devoted daughters: Frances, Louise and Catherine; and all the other members of his family. How careful he was in the distribution of his love to those dear to him. Then, his love knew no bounds when he was aware that his friends were in trouble; and for parishioners who were moving in crises in the churches he served in the Carolinas.

Another dimension of Olen's care for his fellows is virtually unknown, I believe. As I mention this, I can see this modest man blushing. Often Olen discovered some young person who probably would not have had a college education except for his financial assistance. Again, here was a man God could use—and did.

Our friend had an unusual ability in business matters. He was successful; and always he put honesty—complete integrity—at the center of all his transactions. Surely this was a man God can use as a model in the economy of life.

And this man's total commitment was to God. He based his security in the belief that God will use one's life forever.

Olen and I heard Henry Hitt Crane at Duke in 1934 preach a series of sermons using Henry Van Dyke's FOUR THINGS for his themes. Olen said to me that this poem capsulated his philosophy:

*"Four things a man must learn to do —
To think without confusion clearly;
To love his fellowmen sincerely;
To act with honest motives purely;
To trust in God and heaven securely."*

There goes a man God can use. Blessings always on our dear friend, Olen Harwick.

WILLIAM HENRY HARMON, JR.
August 27, 1913 — February 12, 1991

The Reverend William Henry Harmon, Jr. was born on August 27, 1913, in Fountain Inn, S.C., the son of William Henry and Hattie Brownlee Harmon. He attended the Greenville County schools and received degrees from Furman University, University of South Carolina, and Emory University.

He served his country in the Army Air Corps during World War II.

He was also a retired rural carrier with the United States Postal Service.

Bill was a kind, gentle person who loved God and His church intensely. He had a special concern for the smaller churches and the people who made up the membership of these important congregations. This kind of caring led him to become a "second career" pastor. He was licensed to preach in 1954, ordained deacon in 1961, and was ordained elder and received into full connection at the South Carolina United Methodist Annual Conference in June of 1967. He emphasized the Good News of Jesus Christ with a unique confidence and assurance that he was in the center of God's will for his life.

His ministry was confined to the Greenville District where he served the following churches: Poe-Francis Asbury, Jackson Grove, Anderson Road-Brandon, Verner Springs Mission, and McBee Chapel. He retired in 1982, but continued to help in the various churches where his gifts were needed.

Bill died on February 12, 1991, as the result of injuries he sustained in an automobile accident on December 24, 1990. His funeral service was conducted by the Rev. William R. Claytor, Jr., Dr. John Wood Robison and The Rev. John Watson. Interment was in Green Pond United Methodist Cemetery near Fountain Inn. He is survived by his wife, Birdie Marie Phillips Harmon.

ARTHUR C. JONES
October 15, 1914 — January 16, 1991

Arthur C. Jones was born on October 15, 1914. He was the son of John and Alice Nance Jones. He was married to Beatrice Jones of Longtown, South Carolina. She preceded him in death December 24, 1976. To this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Tamara Jones Browning. I asked Tammy to share some thoughts of her father with me since I had known him for only a few months. Reverend Jones is remembered as being an authoritative person. He was one who was able to take control, yet be kind in a sensitive situation.

He served as past president of the Spartanburg area NAACP. He involved himself in the desegregation of that area's schools. He also involved himself with the Head Start Programs in Spartanburg. He was one that pushed not for separate Head Start programs for black and white children but the same programs because they were God's children.

He reminded his daughter that he did not have a lot of formal education but he had common sense. He used it to also to help integrate eating establishments.

Reverend Jones retired as an associate member in 1981. His membership was with Sims Chapel Church in Spartanburg. There he served as the chairperson of the administrative council.

He faithfully served in the following appointments: Wilkinville; Longtown-McBee; Walhalla; Spartanburg Circuit; Harmony-Bethel; Jefferson Parish 1976-78; Trinity-Pleasant Grove (Landrum) 1977-1981.

Funeral services were conducted January 20 at Silver Hill Church by the writer and assisted by the church's pastor Reverend James McGill.

On the last Sunday that Reverend Jones attended church, he sat near the back. This was unusual. After worship I went to him to ask if he was all right. His response was "Yes, I'm all right." I only imagine he sat at the back to sing to himself the song, "Sweet Home, Lord I Wonder If I'll Ever Get Home."

JAMES FOSTER LUPO
April 26, 1894 — March 31, 1991

James Foster Lupo was born in Greenville, S.C., the son of John Robert and Ida Hawthorne Lupo. On June 30, 1915, he and Ellie Lou Traynham were married, and to them the following children were born: Eleanor (Mrs. Carl J. Sanders), Christine Jimmelle (Mrs. Edgar D. Davis—deceased 3/21/83), Anna Beth (Mrs. T. Johnson Sturgis), and Bobbielu (Mrs. John H. Woodward). Subsequent to the death of his wife (9/24/67), he married Dr. Adeline Pierce Patton, who died October 12, 1980.

He was graduated from Furman University in 1915, and took the Emory University Correspondence Course of Study. He was licensed to preach in 1914, received Ordination in 1916, and received into full connection in the Conference in 1918.

Furman University conferred on him the honorary Doctor of Divinity in 1950, and he received the honorary Doctor of Letters from Lander College in 1960.

His appointments in the Conference include: Graniteville (1916-1919), Simpsonville (1919-1921), Waterloo (1921-1922), Whitmire (1922-1926), Main Street, Columbia (1926-1930), Saint Johns, Rock Hill (1932-1936), Bethel, Spartanburg (1942-1947), Bethel, Charleston (1947-1951), Main Street, Greenwood (1951-1957), John Wesley, Charleston (1957-1962), Saint Johns, Fort Mill (1962-1966).

James Foster Lupo had a special interest in evangelism, in missions, and church extension. He participated in evangelistic missions in Cuba, Hawaii, the Phillipines, Singapore and Malaysia. While serving Main Street Church in Greenwood, he encouraged and assisted in the organization of a new church, which came to be named the Lupo Memorial United Methodist Church.

Following his retirement in 1966, he made his home in Rock Hill. For six years he served on the staff of Saint Johns Church. Following that, he served several interim pastorates, and often filled the pulpit of both United Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. Even in his latter years, he continued to be interested in the Annual Conference, appointments, and issues facing the general church.

His funeral service on April 2 was appropriately held at Saint Johns United Methodist Church in Rock Hill, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Needham Williamson, Bishop Carl J. Sanders (his son-in-law), the Rev. Dr. C. J. Lupo, Jr. (nephew), and Mr. John Hardin, a long-time community leader and friend.

JAMES ADELBERT MERCHANT
March 20, 1921 — April 27, 1991

Erudite, dedicated, dignified, warm, competent, hard-working; Jimmy Merchant was all these and more. For 46 years he ministered to congregations across South Carolina, sharing with them the characteristics and spirit that made him the effective minister he was.

Some of us fare well in some places and not so well in others. Jimmy served well in all the places he was appointed. He had charges in small towns and open country, in larger towns and in cities. He had small membership churches and large membership churches. He served as a district superintendent. In all appointments he was warmly received. On his death people from Grace-Bramlett to Marion (his first and last appointments) and all appointments between gave expression of their love for and appreciation of their pastor and friend.

Fortunate is the pastor whose family complements that pastor's calling and gladly participates in it. When Jimmy married Ruth Jones of Greenville, he had a partner in ministry. Her insights and wisdom, her counsel and support were invaluable. The charges to which they were appointed hold Ruth in high esteem and credit her with stimulating their will to serve. Their children, James A., Jr. (Del) and Carol Ruth, were an asset to their parent's ministry and set a standard for young people in the congregation. As adults, they became their parent's warm friends as well as their children.

James Adelbert Merchant was born in Cowpens, South Carolina, the son of the Rev. James Ernest Merchant and Lautrelle Gatlin Merchant. His mother survives him as do Ruth, Del and Carol. A man given to serious study, Jimmy received degrees from The University of South Carolina and Emory University. His dedication to learning made him a logical choice to serve for 8 years as Dean of our Pastor's School.

His first appointment was Grace-Bramlett. He went from there to serve Hickory Grove, Blacksburg, Woodside-Berea, St. Mark in Seneca, Main Street in Dillon, St. Paul in Orangeburg, Main Street in Greenwood, First Church in Lancaster, the Anderson District and First Church in Marion. It was in Marion at the end of that appointment that he and Ruth chose to live.

Throughout his ministry, Jimmy served his church by having membership on numerous boards, committees and commissions. The Executive Committee of the Southeastern Jurisdiction named him as its president in 1979. He was secretary of our Conference Board of Education. He was a member of the Council on Finance and Administration. The Methodist Home of Orangeburg numbered him among her trustees. In community life he was a member of the Rotary Club and served on its Board of Directors. He was active in the Mental Health Association and supportive of numerous care-giving agencies in the places he was appointed.

A service of Death and Resurrection was held April 29, 1991 at First United Methodist Church in Marion with Charles Inabinet and Lemuel Carter leading the service. Interment was the same day at Woodlawn Cemetery, Greenville, conducted by Jack Meadors and William Claytor. A faithful minister who served effectively has now been given his highest appointment.

WOODROW W. SINGLETARY
February 12, 1925 — January 1, 1991

In the sermon on the Mount, our Lord describes the ideal characteristics of the citizens of His Kingdom. One of the characteristics listed in the Sermon of the Mount is found in Matthew 5:5, "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."

The Reverend Woodrow Wilson Singletary was a meek man and a beautiful person. He was the son of the late Reverend D. K. and Mrs. Edna Singletary. He was born on February 12, 1925, in Florence, S.C. He departed this life on January 1, 1991.

Reverend Singletary received his early education in Florence County Public Schools. He continued his education at Morris College in Sumter, S.C.; Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia, and the Conference Course of Study.

This meek and mild man served several appointments in the South Carolina Annual Conference. His pastorate which spanned over thirty-four years included the following appointments: Glenn Chapel, Old Chio, Little Rock; Cheraw; Alcot, East Kingstree, Beaufort-Hardeeville, Bonneau, Pineville-Bowman, Jefferson Parish, Mechanicsville, Cottageville Parish, Lake City and Wateree.

He retired in June 1990 and became a very supportive and loving member of Cumberland United Methodist Church in Florence, S.C. He immediately joined the United Methodist Men and the Men's Bible Study Class. He became an integral part of the life of his home church.

There were a number of things that I liked about Woodrow Wilson Singletary and I shared some of them at his Home Going Services on January 7, 1991. He had a beautiful spirit; a meek nature; he enjoyed being a minister and he loved the churches he served; he spoke well of the connectional system, he loved his family; and he was a committed Christian.

Those who shared the joys of life with him and survived to cherish his precious memory are: his loving and devoted wife and friend, Mrs. Louise Mack Singletary; Mrs. Joan Singletary Givens, his precious daughter and "little girl" as he affectionately referred to her; his son-in-law and buddy, Mr. David A. Givens; four sisters and two brothers and a host of other relatives and friends; and the Cumberland U.M.C. family.

It was a joy and delight to serve as his pastor; to be counted as one of his friends; and to participate in shared ministries together.

I thank God for this meek and mild man.

ISAAC SAMUEL SMALLS
June 18, 1894 — May 21, 1991

Isaac Samuel Smalls was born in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, June 18, 1894. He was the son of Isaac S. and Ellen Smalls. He married Lizzie Smalls of Strawberry, South Carolina on August 27, 1939. They were blessed with the following children: Rev. Isaac S. Smalls, Jr., Eva Graham, Mildred Williamson, Helen Emsley, Mabel Sloan, and Margaret Jefferson (deceased).

He was licensed to preach June 19, 1933; ordained Deacon August 17, 1939; ordained Elder, November 24, 1946; Local Pastor, retired June 1, 1968. His appointments included Enoch Chapel, 1939-1942; Wesley (Georgetown), 1942-1944; Stephen Circuit-Bethel Jevorie, 1944-1950; Cooper River-Tabo-St. Luke, 1950-1968; St. Paul, 1969-1972; Bethel Green Hill, 1971-1972.

Isaac S. Smalls was loved by many. He displayed the Christ-like Spirit wherever he went. He was loyal to the United Methodist Church serving with an humble spirit.

He departed from this life May 21, 1991. The Celebration of this life was held at Joshua United Methodist Church, Strawberry, South Carolina.

JAMES WILLIAM TAYLOR
March 4, 1892 — July 22, 1990

Rev. James W. Taylor, son of the late Thomas T. and Nettie Taylor, was born in Marlboro County, S. C. March 4, 1892.

After completing his elementary and secondary education in the public schools in Bennettsville, S. C., he attended Biddle University (now Johnson C. Smith), Charlotte, N. C. and Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, GA.

Licensed to preach in 1912, Rev. Taylor spent fifty-two years in ministry before retiring. After retiring he served ten years as a supply Minister. He was minister of churches from the Piedmont area to the Coast of South Carolina. Rev. Taylor was Superintendent of the Bennettsville District for six years and Superintendent of the Charleston District for six years. He attended seventy-six consecutive sessions of the South Carolina Annual United Methodist Conference.

For eight consecutive years Rev. Taylor served on the Charleston District 20 City School Board of Trustees and was Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Claflin College, Orangeburg, S. C., for forty-five years. In recognition of his long years of service to the college and to the United Methodist Church, Claflin College conferred a Doctor of Divinity degree on Rev. Taylor and gave him a plaque commemorating his long service to the Board.

Rev. Taylor was married to Susan G. Jones Taylor for seventy-eight years and was the father of four children: James W. Taylor, Jr. (deceased), Zoel Garland, Wilbur T. and Portia Taylor Bates.

*"The strife is o'er, the battle done;
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun
Alleluia"*

— Zoel G. Taylor

JAMES EPTING VARNADORE
October 23, 1915 — July 16, 1990

Jimmy Varnadore was a man who enjoyed preaching, but enjoyed studying and preparing for the sermon almost as much as preaching it.

He was born on October 23, 1915 in Columbia, S. C. to Jimmy Wofford Varnadore and Laura T. Varnadore.

He was married to Lodie Vamer of Holly Hill S. C. in 1946. They have one daughter, Lodie Ann V. Busbee, three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Jimmy was licensed to preach in 1960 at the age of 45 through the Orangeburg District. He had previously been employed by Piggly Wiggly. He finished the required conference courses of study at Emory University and Union Theological Seminary. He was ordained deacon June 11, 1964 and elder June 16, 1966 by Bishop Paul Hardin and became an associate member June 1, 1970. He served Belton Mills-Mt. Bethel 1961-1962; Lowndesville Charge 1962-1964; Vacluse Charge 1964-1966; Estill 1966-1971; Rowesville 1971-1976

Dorchester 1976-1981.

He received the "Church of the Year Award" in 1971 while serving the Estill Charge.

Jimmy served in the Navy 1942-45 and spent time in the South Pacific, after which he served in the Army Reserve where he received the Good Conduct Medal.

He was a member of the Lions, VFW, Who's Who in South Carolina 1974, Outstanding American in the South 1975.

I have known Jimmy for many years, but it was my privilege to know him much better after my appointment to the HHUMC. Jimmy loved the Lord, the church and the ministry. Even after retirement, he still enjoyed studying and preparing sermons even when he was not scheduled to preach.

He retired in 1981 and was a member of the Holly Hill Charge Conference where he was very faithful to the life and ministry of this church. I personally feel I could not have had any stronger support for my ministry here than I received from Jimmy. To me he was a brother in Christ, a fellow minister and a close and dear friend.

Jimmy had no fear of death and was ready to go anytime the Lord called him. I am sure he has told Peter and Paul and anyone else in heaven who will listen about his joy of studying the Scriptures in preparation for those "good sermons" he was working on while down here with us.

JACK DANIEL WATTS
November 3, 1923 — July 2, 1990

Jack Daniel Watts was a compassionate caring man who met no insignificant person, served no church that was too small, or found any aspect of his ministry boring or unfulfilling. Born in Georgetown County, Jack Watts left a lucrative position with an established industry to follow the call of his God. This call led him to the Berkeley Circuit in the "Hell Hole" section of Berkeley County. With his humility, love, and sense of unselfish service, Jack Watts showed a people the unique love of a caring and forgiving God. Never one to push himself, Jack served with success and distinction not only the Berkeley Circuit but the Beulah Circuit at Bennettsville, the Waccamaw Circuit at Conway, St. Paul in Charleston District, the Hemingway Circuit, and the Belts Circuit. Because of a failing heart condition and a crippling kidney problem, Jack began disability leave in 1982 and was granted the retired relationship in 1989.

*"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."*

— C. Wesley

Jack Watts was preceded in death by a son. He is survived by his beloved Margie, a son, Danny, daughters Joyce and Jane, and a countless number of friends.

NELLIE GARRETT BROOKS
October 30, 1939 — February 28, 1991

Mrs. Nellie Garrett Brooks, wife of the Reverend Boyce F. Brooks, died at home of cancer on February 28, 1991. She was the youngest of four children by the late Fred and Bessie Garrett.

Nell was born and raised in the Easley/Pickens area. She graduated from Easley High School in 1957 and with honors from Central Wesleyan College in 1988. She was received into the Alpha Chi Honorary Society in 1987 and listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities in 1988.

Nell was a devoted wife and mother. In addition, she was active in the church and community, assisted her pastor-husband in selected counseling cases, and worked professionally as an Administrative Assistant/Secretary, Drug & Alcohol Abuse Counselor, SCIP Counselor, and Agricultural Economics Word Processor Specialist.

For Nell, the most important aspect of her life was not linked to any of the things she did or the honors she received but rather it had to do with her relationship to Christ. In a statement of personal history in 1989 she wrote, "At the age of 32 I met the living Jesus Christ. We had been told that our second daughter who was 11 years old at the time had an incurable and possible terminal illness. We reached out to God for her, and in the process I received Christ as my personal Savior, and I was filled with the Holy Spirit. The day after this experience, I found I was a different person. Everything seemed new—I desired to tell everyone about Jesus. I had never been so happy! Our daughter was miraculously healed and the doctors were astonished."

In the years that followed, Nell not only served the living Christ but she became a living witness - a shining light - for Christ. She led prayer groups, taught Church School classes, held Bible studies, worked with youth, provided Christian counseling, and influenced many for Christ. She always "bloomed where she was planted." And, as long as there are telephones, we shall never forget her way of greeting all who dialed her number:

"Jesus loves you!"

Besides her husband of over 33 years, Nell is survived by five children: Mrs. Tonya Sager of Shepherdstown, WV; Mrs. Karen Brooks-Wells of Spartanburg, S.C.; Mr. Steven Brooks of Wilmore, KY; Mrs. Veronica Jones of Knoxville, TN, and Mr. David Brooks of the home.

Her funeral service, celebrating through worship her life and homegoing, was conducted by the Reverends Pete J. Millwood, Enoch S. Finklea, Jr., and W. Sterne Bolte at Zion UMC in Easley, SC on March 3, 1991. Her married children and their spouses participated. "Her children rise up and call her blessed." Interment was in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Easley, SC.

ESTHER MADDOX CLARK
December 21, 1922 — April 8, 1991

When Esther Clark married Roy C. Clark on June 7, 1945, she would never have guessed that one day she would be living in South Carolina and serving as the wife of a United Methodist Bishop. However, when this situation presented itself - and Roy Clark came to South Carolina as Bishop - Esther gladly assumed her role and fulfilled it with grace. As with all her life, while in South Carolina, Esther discovered her own ministries. She made her Christian witness through organizations such as United Methodist Women and Planned Parenthood, where she served as a director. She was sensitive, also, to women's issues. She followed the model of Christ by doing all within her power to lift women to full personhood.

Esther made her life count. While she did it with absolutely no fanfare, she was a marvelous listener. There are a number of persons across South Carolina who shared with her their various crisis... and who knew that they had her absolute confidentiality and support. She allowed God to judge. She gave grace.

Esther possessed a firm faith in God. As she faced cancer and her impending death, her faith stood her in good stead. It was a faith born out of deep Mississippi roots and a long Christian tradition. She simply did not know how to - or care to learn how to - live her life or death any other way than Christian.

Esther was a graduate of Mississippi State College for Women, during which time she served as President of the States' Student Movement. After graduation from college, she taught high school math and chemistry.

Esther is survived by her husband, Bishop Roy C. Clark (retired) of Memphis, Tennessee; her mother, Mrs. George L. Maddox of McComb, Mississippi; her brothers, Dr. George L. Maddox of Durham, North Carolina and Robert M. Maddox of McComb, Mississippi; her daughters, Lynn Blanton Clark of Jackson, Mississippi and Mrs. William S. (Susan) Taylor of Memphis, Tennessee.

God's kingdom is an everlasting kingdom! We celebrate that Esther Maddox Clark is a part of that kingdom.

MARIAN ELIZABETH WRIGHT FOSTER
October 15, 1914 — May 16, 1991

Marian Foster was born October 15, 1914, in Amsterdam, New York. She was married on July 3, 1934, to Donald Albert Foster. When he later became a Local Pastor in the South Carolina Conference, she shared his life as a minister.

While her husband was serving as pastor of Platt Springs, he also became Business Manager-Treasurer of the Conference Credit Union. Marian watched him trying to keep up with all the records, and began to assist him in every way she could. When he took on responsibility for follow-up on a Higher Education Campaign, she began to keep these records, working at first without an office - wherever she could find a place to put the books and papers.

When the Rev. Donald Foster was named Administrator of the Office of Ministerial Affairs, involving the work of the Credit Union, the Conference Insurance and Pension Programs, Marian worked in the Credit Union. Don would approve loan applications, but Marian kept the records, posting payments on loans and contributions to credit union accounts. She and Don worked together as a team for 16 years, until her retirement.

Don and Marian had one child, Donald A., Jr., who died May 23, 1980. She is survived by her husband, two grandsons, and a great-grandchild.

For the last few years, her own health failed. Following her entry into the Meridian Nursing Center, she could be sure of a regular visitor: Don would be there everyday. She did not complain, but impressed those who gave her care by her own concern for others. She had a good mind, a keen wit, a lot of love to give, and a steady faith in God and commitment to the way of Christ.

Her physical death occurred on May 16, 1991. The service celebrating her life was held on May 18, 1991, conducted by William R. Kinnett and C. J. Lupo, Jr.

BETH CALEB KUBACH
March 1, 1936 — June 18, 1990

I knew Beth Kubach for only a year, but she touched me with a closeness of a real presence of truthfulness, that God was real in her everyday life.

*Her last six months of life on this earth were sometimes hard for her to bear, she did it with a smile that took special courage,
as she reached out with her arms of love.*

*Beth went, when no one else could,
and supported her husband, Alan.
Her life was a story of ministry, giving and sharing as only she could.*

*Upon her death where I was there with Alan as he cried out in pain,
"I've lost her! I've lost her," but then a smile crept through tear stained eyes,
"I've only lost her for a little while,"
and then came time for the eulogy:*

*I stand here before God with a special kind of feeling,
as I help to honor Beth,
but I'm only able to dent the surface of one who has touched, and blessed the lives of many here and everywhere.*

I view the cross with a new understanding, for Beth has made her journey and has reached the end, and now she steps with springing feet! A smile of joy lights up her beautiful face, as she views the cross in all its glory.

*She whispers a song so sweet on her lips,
Alan, Alan, you dear and sweet one of mine,
I will be waiting as you too shall enter this place.*

*What a joy there will be, singing and praising and blessings of peace.
Beth has prepared the way,
for you, and for me.*

ELIZABETH LUCILLE ELLISON ANDERSON
November 6, 1904 — November 15, 1990

Elizabeth Ellison Anderson was born on November 6, 1904 at Millageville, Georgia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Ellison. At the age of twenty-three, while serving as a nurse at Grady Hospital in Atlanta, she met and married Paul A. Anderson, a student at Emory. Reverend Paul Anderson died while serving Trinity Methodist Church Charge in Honea Path in the year 1947. At Mrs. Anderson's request, Trinity sold her the parsonage they were then living in so that she could provide a home for herself and her four boys, Paul Jr., Ray Eugene, Thomas and Joseph.

Mrs. Anderson worked for Dr. John Taylor until her retirement in 1972. She remained a resident of Honea Path until ill health forced her to become a resident of Camp Haven Manor in Inman, SC.

Elizabeth Anderson served the church faithfully all her years and supported her husband's ministry throughout their marriage. Those who knew her understand why her children "rise up and call her blessed."

JUANITA NELSON BROWN
February 23, 1897 — March 31, 1991

Mary Juanita Nelson Brown was born February 23, 1897 in Greensboro, N.C., the second of five children of Wilson A. and Anne L. Nelson.

She graduated from Bennett College, and attended Greensboro A & T College, Cheyney State Teachers College and Columbia University in Philadelphia. She studied music with Carl Diton, the noted pianist.

Juanita taught in North Carolina, Morris College, Sumter and Haven Institute and Conservatory of Music in Meridian, MS.

Married to the Rev. Clayton R. Brown, Jr. and served with him throughout his ministry, she held membership in St. Matthew UMC, Greensboro, N.C., and Cumberland UMC, Florence.

She is survived by a son, Clayton Robert Brown, III, a sister, Virginia N. Tresville and her husband Walter; a brother, Rosamond B. Nelson and his wife Natalie; a host of nieces, nephews, grand and great-grand nieces and nephews and friends. Funeral service was held on Friday, April 5, 1991, at Emmanuel Johnson Funeral Home, Philadelphia, PA., conducted by Rev. V. Tresville Gilmore and William Strather.

JESSIE CLEMENT BULLINGTON
July 28, 1898 — December 30, 1990

Mrs. Jessie C. Bullington, widow of the Reverend Horace Earl Bullington and daughter of the late Harvey and Carrie McMillan Clement, joined the church triumphant December 30, 1990. Her earthly body was laid to rest in the Greenlawn Memorial Mausoleum in Spartanburg, S. C. after a worship service celebrating her life was held at the Floyd's North Church Street chapel, December 31, 1990.

On December 20, 1920, Jessie Clement and Reverend Horace Earle Bullington were united in marriage. Together they faithfully served Christ and his church for forty-six years across South Carolina in itinerant ministry. From 1961 until her death she was a faithful member of Bethel United Methodist Church, Spartanburg.

Left to cherish the memories of this good Christian woman are a daughter, Carolyn B. Garner of Greenville; three sons, Earl Lee Bullington of Fort Mill, Horace E. Bullington of Greensboro, N.C. and Eldon D. Bullington of Easley. Three sisters, Catherine Moon of Lyman, Eleanor Cox and Roberta Mabry of Greer, ten grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

"Blessed, are the dead, who die in the Lord!"

WINNIE DAVIS HARBIN
January 4, 1903 — August 1, 1990

My mother, Winnie Harbin, was a wonderfully courageous and independent woman. She did so many things that just weren't done by women in her day. She always had a terrific sense of humor.

She was one of the few from her Mississippi farm family to go to college. Not only did she go to college but she went to graduate school. After receiving her master's from Scarritt College, Mother traveled for Scarritt, recruiting students. Then for six years she ran the Methodist Student House at Florida State College for Women (now Florida State U.) in Tallahassee. She had had a full career by the time she met my father, Van Harbin. They were both going for their second masters, she at Columbia, he at Union. He asked her to marry him and go to Japan. They did both in 1940.

They only stayed in Japan seven months because the war was coming. My father got a church in Hawaii and they were there for the bombing of Pearl Harbor. I was born the following February. During the rest of the war, Daddy had a church off Times Square. My sister, Margaret, was born in New York.

In 1948 Van went back to Japan and Mother moved the family to the warmer climate of Tallahassee. Two years later we all were allowed to go to Japan. We lived on the campus of Kwansei Gakuin University where Mother taught English in the high school and held Bible classes in our home.

My parents retired to Tallahassee in 1972 and moved to Pilgrim Place retirement home in 1981. Daddy died the next year. Mother was very tired the last few years. She was on a lot of medication for many things. My sister and I went to see her in July. I was home one day when they called to say she had died. I think she had been hanging on just long enough to see us once more.

MIRIAM FAIR HOLLER
November 24, 1899 — February 15, 1991

Miriam Fair Holler was born November 24, 1899, in Bowman, S. C., the daughter of Samuel Absalom and Lilly Clyde Fair. She went to secondary school in Bowman and attended Lander College and Greenville Women's College. On April 10, 1924 she married Adlai C. Holler, Sr., who would later be ordained a Methodist minister.

Miriam Holler gave her life as a dedicated servant of the church and always shared and supported Dr. Holler's ministry. For "Miss Miriam", it was never just "Adlai's" work, for she too was very much a part. When Dr. Holler served as District Superintendent of the Spartanburg District, "Miss Miriam" was known to have appeared at the home of a new minister before the boxes were unpacked with a pie in hand and a word of welcome. Through her kind and caring heart she touched the lives of many through the years.

Most significant in "Miss Miriam's" life was her family. Adlai and Miriam had two sons; Dr. Adlai Cornwell Holler, Jr., a minister in this Annual Conference and the late Dr. David Eugene Holler. She is also survived by her daughter-in-law, Jean Stewart Holler, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

In the tradition of the families from which they came both Dr. Holler and "Miss Miriam" placed a high priority on education. They knew a trained mind would enlarge one's world and could offer a positive influence in society. As an expression of that support generous gifts were left to Wofford College, Spartanburg Methodist College, Columbia College and Duke University.

I count it a joy to have known "Miss Miriam" and to have had the honor to share in the celebration of her life with Rev. Jerry Temple on February 18 in Orangeburg.

— R. Wayne Home

SADIE PEEPLES INABINET
August 27, 1909 — September 15, 1990

Sadie Peebles Inabinet was a delightful person. The kind of person you felt good talking with. I came to know her late in her life. Her last years were quality years. Sickness came to her but did not break her beautiful spirit. She was proud to be the wife of a United Methodist preacher. Her conversation turned time and again to her pride in and faithfulness to her preacher husband. It is one thing when children rise up and call a mother blessed but something quite different when stepchildren "rise up and call her blessed". Such was the case for Sadie Inabinet. Lots of people remember her well; her family, a hosts of friends, residents at the Methodist Home in Orangeburg, and the St. Paul's family of Orangeburg. As her pastor for only a few years, I too remember her well. She lived her faith and when death came she faced it with growing faith. Earthly accomplishments were many but none compare with her becoming a part of the Kingdom of God. She goes to join a husband who himself had earlier become a part of that great cloud of witnesses.

MIRIAM MATHENY JONES
June 18, 1900 — January 18, 1991

Miriam Matheny Jones was born June 18, 1900 at Bamberg, S.C. daughter of Jenny Ellen Boyd Pinckney and John Pinckney. She was a graduate of the University of South Carolina and received her masters degree in Psychology from Columbia University. She worked as a Psychologist in Intelligence Testing with the Syracuse, New York Public Schools. Mrs. Jones was a member of Union United Methodist Church in Cope and the United Methodist Women. Survivors include a number of cousins, including Mrs. Eloise Bessinger of Denmark, Mrs. Norman C. Lawrence of Bamberg and Mr. Francis Faulling, a long time friend, of Orangeburg.

On June 14, 1927, Miriam Matheny was married to the late Reverend Alvin Adelbert Jones. They had one son, Alvin A. Jones, Jr., who was killed in an accident in 1956. Mrs. Jones served faithfully as a minister's wife through their many years together.

It gave her great joy to sing in the choirs. Perhaps her greatest satisfaction came from her investment in the career of several college students by giving financial assistance.

Mrs. Jones contributed to many benevolent causes which included the Commission of the Blind, to the infirmary at the Methodist Home as well as a special wheelchair fund for the immobile.

Mrs. Jones shared her real concern in race relations by the giving of the land for Canaan United Methodist Church and to Claflin College.

Once again we hear the familiar words of our Lord, "Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me."

AILEENE LEWIS NESBITT
November 15, 1898 — August 15, 1990

A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Aileene Lewis Nesbitt was a daughter of Richard Franklin and Elleyne McLin Lewis. Her formal education led to service as a social worker, and she was serving in that field when she became the bride of the Reverend Charles Franklin Nesbitt on September 3, 1927. For ten years following her marriage she lived at times in Mississippi, Illinois and North Dakota as her husband advanced in a college teaching career. In 1937 a call to a professorship at Wofford College brought the Nesbitt family to South Carolina, which remained their home for the remaining years of their earthly life.

"Memoirs" are more than the recitation of biographical data; they should reflect the writer's personal recollection of the one remembered. For this writer, the limitation of space will not permit a true record of shared experiences and happy associations that began in the Fall of 1949 at Wofford College. Memory floods with 411 Mills Avenue, the Nesbitt home, meals and refreshments and "home away from home;" a classmate and cherished friend in the person of Burns Nesbitt, Dr. and Mrs. Nesbitt's only child; and eventually, following Dr. Nesbitt's death, Aileene Nesbitt's move to Greenwood Methodist Home in 1979. The 11 years from 1979 until her death in 1990, passed too quickly, but the remembrances are brilliant: new neighbors and friends quickly acquired, tireless Volunteer in the Nursing Center, gracious hostess, the loving embrace of a "new home," even if not painted in the "Wedgewood Blue" hues of 411 Mills! Pioneer, Church leader, strong advocate, friend, devoted mother and grandmother — these recollections abide.

Death came when cancer could no longer be held at bay. So that friends of the last decade could attend the family suggested that the Memorial Service be held in the Chandler Memorial Chapel of the Home's Nursing Center, the setting of so many of Aileen Nesbitt's happy years as a Volunteer. The writer was privileged to lead that Service of "Life and Remembrance." The following day, Friday, August 17, Wofford College's Campus Minister, Talmage Skinner, another graduate of the Nesbitt years and household, led the graveside Service at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens. Aileen Nesbitt had returned to Spartanburg and took her place of eternal rest at the side of her beloved husband, Charles. "Father, in Thy gracious keeping, leave we now Thy servant sleeping."

SYNOLA THOMPSON ROBINSON January 12, 1910 — October 21, 1990

Mrs. Synola T. Robinson was born January 12, 1910, in Anderson County. She departed this life October 21, 1990. Synola was the daughter of the late John and Emma Clinkscates Thompson, and the widow of the late Rev. T. R. Robinson.

Synola was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Greenwood, S. C. She held the following positions: past charge Lay-Leader, chairperson of Church Education, past president of Trinity UMW, a member of the Senior Choir, a member and past Matron of Harmony Chapter Order of the Eastern Star, a member of the Local Organization of Retired Teachers, National Education Association, American Organization of Retired Teachers, President of the Senior Citizens Organization, the Taggart Street Community Club and advisor and bookkeeper of project "Help-A-Child". Synola also served on the executive board of the Greenwood District UMW and was active with the United Methodist Ministers' Wives.

Synola received her early education in the public schools of Anderson County, a B.S. Degree from Benedict College in Columbia and a M.S. Degree from Hampton Institute in Virginia. She served as a teacher and librarian in Anderson County for many years.

Survivors are one foster son, Stevie C. Jones, two sisters, Mrs. Eunice Rice of Anderson, S.C. and Mrs. Della Woods of Atlanta, GA, a step daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Robinson, several grand children, great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild, also nieces and nephews.

Services for Synola were held Thursday, October 25, 1990 at Trinity United Methodist Church in Greenwood conducted by the Rev. Larry Humphrey assisted by Rev. Ricky Harrison. The interment was at the Evening Star Memorial Gardens.

MAMIE VICTORIA SMITH WRIGHT November 30, 1900 — November 18, 1990

Mrs. Wright was born November 30, 1900 in Dorchester County, South Carolina, the daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Smith. She died on November 18, 1990 at Tuomey Regional Medical Center in Sumter, S. C.

She attended Claflin College, Morris College and completed her Bachelor of Science degree and Masters of Science degree at South Carolina State College. She attended Gammon Theological Seminary and received a BRE degree. She did further study at Temple University in Philadelphia, PA and retired as a public school teacher after serving for forty-eight years. She taught on all grade levels and was principal of Goodby's School.

She was a member of Emmanuel United Methodist Church and served as a member of The United Methodist Women. An ardent church worker, she served in many capacities: Sunday School Teacher, Youth Choir Director, Senior Choir Member, Official Board, Women's Society of Christian Service, Class Leader and Organist. She also served as President on the District level of the following organizations: WSCS-Orangeburg and Sumter Districts, and the Minister's Wives Alliance in the Orangeburg District. Many positions on the conference level were held by Mrs. Wright including: Secretary of Missionary projects,

Secretary of Children's Work, Committee on Constitution and By-Laws. She authored several books pertaining to Black History. In 1988, at the age of 88, she completed a book on "Black Churches in Sumter County, Their Origin and Development." Mrs. Wright was the Founder and Organizer of The Sumter Branch of the Association for the Study of Afro American Life and History; Founder and Organizer of the Interdenominational Minister's Wives Alliance in Sumter, S.C. and held membership in the One More Effort Federated Club; the Sumter County Cultural Commission; and was a life member of the S. C. Conference of United Methodist Women.

Her motto was "Work for Others". She accomplished this in so many ways - teaching, traveling, writing, gathering information through research, especially in the area of Black History. She stated in the preface of her book, "Once we have felt the thrill of tradition which history can afford, we are never the same again. There is a feeling of belonging to a great company with a high destiny." Life loses some of its solitariness as we fellowship with those, "Who being dead, yet speaketh." She was an organizer, she saw the need and did something about it. She knew what to do, how to do it and no task was too great for her to undertake. We are the beneficiaries of her great spirit and active mind.

Mrs. Wright was married to the late Reverend A. W. Wright, Sr., a United Methodist Minister. To this union five children were born, one of whom preceded her in death.

She leaves to mourn her passing four children, James Wright of Spartanburg, S.C., Virgil Wright of Durham, N. C., Lydia L. Glover of Columbia, S.C. and Alonzo W. Wright of Jersey City, N.J., eighteen grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

*"I will praise God, My Beloved, for she is altogether lovely.
Her presence satisfies my soul."*

JEREMIAH CHARLES WACHTER June 24, 1990 — July 1, 1990

LET NO ONE QUESTION the beautiful truth that God, who is Al mighty, never permitted a life to be created which had no purpose — HOWEVER SHORT OR LONG the duration of that existence. Hence, the brevity of life for Jeremiah Charles Wachter was resplendent with purpose and meaning. His eight days of earthly life brought questions, tears, sadness—but also love, compassion, strength, and commitment to deeper faith in Jesus Christ to parents, grandparents, and friends alike.

THE MASTER is often depicted in scripture as having a special place in His heart for 'little children'. That Jeremiah is safely nestled in His care, we have no doubt.

I. RULES OF ORGANIZATION Quadrennial Conference Boards

1. The following Annual Conference Boards shall be composed of twenty-four (24) members. It is recommended that sixteen (16) be lay persons with at least one (1) lay person from each district and eight (8) be clergy persons with no more than one (1) clergy from a district at the time of election, nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference for a quadrennial term:
  - a. Board of Church and Society shall relate to the General Board of Church and Society. (See functions in Para. 728.)
  - b. Board of Education shall relate to the General Board of Discipleship, Division of Education. The ex-officio members shall be the chair of The Christian Educators' Fellowship and a representative of the Board of Camps and Retreats.
  - c. Board of Evangelism shall relate to the General Board of Discipleship, Division of Evangelism, Worship, and Stewardship. (See functions in Paras. 729.1 and 729.3 through 729.3.f.)
  - d. Board of Health and Welfare Ministries shall relate to the General Board of Global Ministries. (See functions in Paras. 731.4(24) through 731.4(33).)
  - e. Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries shall relate to the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, Division of Higher Education. (See functions in Paras. 732.2 through 732.5 (a), (b), (c).)
  - f. Board of Missions shall relate to the General of Global Ministries. (See functions in Paras. 731.2 through 731.4 (23).)
2. There shall be a Board of Camps and Retreats consisting of eighteen (18) members. It is recommended that nine (9) be lay persons of whom at least four (4) be women; and nine (9) be clergy of whom at least two (2) be women. Board members shall be nominated by the Conference Council on Ministries, and elected by the Annual Conference for a four (4) year term. No elected member shall serve for more than two consecutive terms.

Initially, nominations shall be selected from three groups with one-third from the former Sewee Board; one-third from the former Asbury Hills Board; and one third new members. Service on the Sewee Retreat Center Board or the Asbury Hills Board shall be considered part of the two (2) term or eight (8) year maximum service. Vacancies in unexpired terms may be filled annually, by the process herein stated.

New Standing Rule 2.a

- a. Ex-Officio members, without vote, shall be the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, the Superintendent of Asbury Hills, the Superintendent of the Sewee Coastal Retreat Center, and a Representative of the Conference Board of Education.

c. The responsibilities of the Board shall be as follows:

1. Property. To provide for care of facilities and secure adequate insurance coverage. All legal matters relative to the property shall be referred to holder of the title.
2. Activities. To implement program through the Conference Council on Ministries program process for adoption by the Annual Conference. Each camp or retreat center shall have a subcommittee for program planning.
3. Finances. To provide for funding of Camps and Retreats through the Conference Council on Ministries in accordance with the policies of the Annual Conference. Responsibilities shall include drawing up a budget, including personnel salaries and expense schedules, setting rates for fees, authorizing and receiving an annual audit.
4. To develop and review job descriptions for a director (s)/manager(s) and other staff positions, and as needed, to arrange for filling the position (s) of director(s)/manager(s). Each director/manager shall fill his/her respective support staff positions.
5. Promotion. To promote the nature, purpose and service of camps and retreats.
- d. The Board of Camps and Retreats shall relate to the Annual Conference by way of the Board of Education reporting through the Conference Council on Ministries.
3. There shall be a Board of Laity composed of eight (8) lay persons to be nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual Conference for each quadrennium. It is recommended that the eight members be composed of two males (2), two (2) females and two (2) young adults, and two (2) youth. These nominations shall be racially inclusive. The Conference Board of Laity also shall include the following ex-officio members: The Conference Lay Leader, twelve (12) District Lay Leaders, the President of the United Methodist Men, two (2) representatives of the United Methodist Men elected by that organization, the President of the United Methodist Women, two (2) representatives of the United Methodist Women elected by that organization, the President of the Council on Youth Ministries, two (2) representatives of the Council on Youth Ministries elected by that organization, one (1) District Superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, all past Conference Lay Leaders and the Bishop. After it is organized, the Board of Laity shall have authority to elect no more than three (3) at large members who may serve as Directors of Program to relate to the section on lay ministry and the section on stewardship of the General Board of Discipleship. (See functions in Paras. 729.5 through 730 of the Book of Discipline.)
5. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall be composed of thirty-six (36) ministers and two lay observers.
6. The Board of Diaconal Ministry shall be composed of fifteen (15) persons. It is recommended that at least five (5) of these persons shall be in Diaconal Ministry careers, preferably, Diaconal Ministers.
7. The Board of Pensions shall be composed of eighteen (18) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay men, six (6) be lay women, and six be (6) clergy persons. (See functions in Para. 736)
8. There shall be a Board of Trustees of the James L. Belin Property composed of twelve (12) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and six (6) be clergy persons. The Marion District Superintendent shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Board.
  - a. Persons serving on this Board shall be nominated by the Board of Missions.
  - b. The Board shall be organized into four (4) classes of three (3) persons.
  - c. One class shall be elected annually to serve for four years.
  - d. The tenure of the Trustees shall be limited to twelve (12) consecutive years and this tenure shall apply to the consecutive years of present Trustees. After such period of service a former trustee shall be ineligible for reelection until a lapse of four (4) years.
  - e. The Board of Trustees shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Missions.
9. There shall be a Board of Trustees of Claflin College composed of not less than seven (7) nor more than twenty-seven (27) members divided into three classes serving three (3) years respectively, elected at the annual meeting of the Board. Successors for each class, as their term expires, shall be nominated by a college related agency and/or the Nominating Committee of the Board of Trustees and elected by the Board of Trustees for a term of three (3) years. After twenty-four (24) years of continuous service, trustees may be placed in a class of "trustee emeritus".
  - a. The trustees shall elect their successors from a list of nominees submitted by the various supporting conferences of the United Methodist Church and the Claflin College General Alumni Association. The composition of the Board shall at all times include three (3) members from the South Carolina

Annual Conference and with one representative of the Conference to be placed in each class and shall be replaced or renominated by the South Carolina Annual Conference upon the expiration of each succeeding class. The remaining membership of the Claflin Board of Trustees shall be elected by the Board from nominations made to and approved by the Nominating Committee of the Board from recommendations received from the general Alumni Association and other college related conferences and agencies.

- b. This institution shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Higher Education.
10. There shall be Boards of Trustees for Columbia College and for Wofford College, each of which shall be composed of twenty-seven (27) members, elected by the Annual Conference in conformity with the respective charters. The term of office for trustees shall be four (4) years. Each board shall be organized into three (3) classes of seven (7) members each and of one (1) class of six (6) members.
  - a. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry annually shall nominate suitable persons to fill vacancies in each class after prior consultation with the respective Boards of Trustees. Those elected shall be eligible for re-election to a maximum tenure of twelve (12) consecutive years except where thirteen (13) consecutive years will allow the completion of tenure with one of the classes. This exception to the tenure of twelve (12) consecutive years shall not apply to trustees elected in 1990 and thereafter. After a full tenure of service a former trustee shall be ineligible for re-election until a lapse of two (2) years.
  - b. These institutions shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
11. There shall be Boards of Trustees of Epworth Children's Home, Greenwood Methodist Home, The Methodist Home, Orangeburg and Pee Dee Methodist Manor. - The Committee shall be responsible for the publication of the pre-conference report(s).
    - All Boards, Councils, Commissions and Committees shall submit their informational reports and recommendations in triplicate to the Conference secretary so that they may be ready for distribution, as the pre-conference report at least twelve weeks prior to Annual Conference. Excluded from this requirement are the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on Nominations, the Board of Diaconal Ministry and the Statistical Report.
    - The Committee shall determine the dates and inform the Boards, Councils, Commissions and Committees when reports shall be due in order to maintain the schedule for the pre-conference report.
    - No report by any Board, Council, Commission or Committee shall be considered by the Annual Conference that is not been distributed at least four weeks prior to the Conference session.
  - The Committee shall cooperate with the Conference secretary in determining the accuracy of the daily minutes. The Committee shall report concerning the accuracy of these minutes to the next Annual Conference session and shall note any discrepancies and/or exceptions and shall cause these to be noted in the Conference Journal next published.
  - The Committee shall publish the South Carolina Conference Journal in one volume and shall have the Journal ready for distribution at least by October 1 following the close of Annual Conference. The Journal shall include the informational reports included in the pre-conference report, the deliberations of the Annual Conference, and the Statistical Report.
    - The chairperson of the Committee, the secretary of the Committee and the secretary of the Annual Conference shall edit the Conference Journal.

- The Committee shall let the contract for the printing of the Conference Journal, and shall provide for the printing at least one year in advance.
  - The Committee shall be responsible for the publication of the volume entitled United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina, which shall be printed every six years, and which shall feature biographical sketches and pictures of all the ministers of the South Carolina Conference.
  - The Committee shall be responsible for the selection of persons to write the memoirs of the ministers and ministers' spouses who have died during the year. These memorials shall be printed in the Conference Journal; those of the minister shall not exceed 600 words and those of spouses shall not exceed 250 words.
62. The Joint Committee on Disability shall be composed of two (2) members of the Board of the Ordained Ministry (to be named by the chairperson of the Board), the chairperson and secretary of the Board of Pensions and a district superintendent appointed by the Bishop.
63. There shall be a Committee on Career Planning and Counseling composed of twelve (12) elected members. It is recommended that eight (8) be lay persons and four (4) be clergy persons. There shall be no more than one (1) clergy or lay person from a district at the time of election. The Committee shall be related to the Office of Personnel of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry.
64. There shall be an Ethnic Minority Concerns Committee composed of twelve (12) members. It is recommended that four (4) be clergy, four (4) lay women, and four (4) lay men nominated by the Conference Council on Ministries and elected by Annual Conference. It is recommended that all ethnic groups be included in this membership.
- Ex-officio members shall include one representative from each of the following groups: The Commission on Status and Role of Women, the Commission on Religion and Race, the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling, and two (2) representatives from the Cabinet.
  - The Committee shall implement the South Carolina Annual Conference Comprehensive Plan for Continuing Emphasis on the Ethnic Minority Local Church while at the same time carrying out mandates from the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
65. There shall be an Executive Committee of Ministerial Affairs to be composed of the chairperson and one (1) other representative of the Board of Pensions, the Commission on Group Insurance, the Board of the South Carolina Methodist Conference Credit Union, and elected annually by these parent boards.
- The administrator of the Office of Ministerial Affairs shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of the Office of Ministerial Affairs.
66. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations of twenty-four (24) members composed of two representatives nominated by each district. It is recommended that these be one clergy and one lay representative from each district. The additional members shall include: the resident bishop, a youth and young adult, nominated by the Conference Council on Ministries; up to six (6) at large members, who may be nominated by the bishop to insure adequate representation; and the following members: the Conference lay leader, an elected representative of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, a retired member of the Annual Conference selected by the retired ministers, and a district superintendent named by the bishop. The following shall be ex-officio members without vote: the chairperson of the Conference Standing Rules Committee, the chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, the director of the Conference Council on Ministries, the chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, the chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, and the chairperson of the Conference Missional Priority Coordinating Committee.
- It is recommended that there be one (1) lay person nominated and elected by each District Board of the Laity of each of the twelve (12) districts. Where there is no District Board of the Laity, the one (1) lay person shall be nominated and elected by the Church lay leaders of that District.
  - It is recommended that there be one (1) clerical person nominated and elected from each District by the ministers of each of the twelve (12) Districts.
  - These nominees, both lay and clerical, shall be elected by secret ballot after at least three (3) persons shall have been nominated from the floor of each of the electing bodies. Election shall be by simple majority.

- d. If a member of the Committee on Nominations, who has been nominated by the District moves beyond the boundaries of the District in which he/she was nominated, his/her membership on the Committee shall be terminated, except for the chairman and secretary, who should continue to serve as members-at-large on the Conference Committee on Nominations until the end of the quadrennium.
  - e. When district vacancies occur on the Committee, replacements shall be nominated as per rule 66 (c) to serve the remainder of the quadrennium. In the event that the elected chair of the Nominating Committee is one of the two elected representatives of a district, that chair shall become an additional member-at-large and the respective district shall elect another representative for that district, both of whom shall serve until the end of the quadrennium.
  - f. Current members of the Committee on Nominations shall not be nominated for membership on any Board, Council, Commission or Committee whose membership arises from nominations from this committee.
  - g. Ex-officio members of the Nominating Committee shall be excluded from rule 66.f.
  - h. The Committee shall make all nominations needed by the Annual Conference except as provided elsewhere by the Discipline or Standing Rules of the Annual Conference. When the Discipline or Standing Rules require nominations be made by other agencies of the Annual Conference, those nominations shall be reported to the Committee no later than March 1 of each year.
  - i. Nominations of chairpersons of all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions, and committees, whose election is not prescribed by the Discipline or other sections of these Standing Rules shall be a nominated member of that board, council, commission, or committee and shall be submitted by the Committee on Nominations to the Annual Conference for election.
  - j. When nominations are made, the persons nominated shall be consulted and their consent to serve received; whether nominated by parent boards, the Committee on Nominations or from the floor of the Annual Conference.
  - k. The Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall make nominations so that approximately one half (1/2) of the membership of all boards, councils, commissions and committee shall be rotated each quadrennium.
  - l. The report of the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations shall include the full name, current address and phone number(s) of each nominee.
  - m. It is recommended that the Nominating Committee nominate at least 25% ethnic minority representation to all Conference Boards and Agencies where such nominees originate with the Conference Committee on Nominations; when vacancies are filled, at least 25% ethnic minority membership be maintained. Nominations from the floor of the session shall comply with the recommended representation. It is further recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority; if five to eight are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons.
67. There shall be a Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling composed of twelve (12) persons. It is recommended that eight (8) be clergy persons and four (4) be lay persons.
  68. There shall be a Committee on Petitions to the General Conference composed of six (6) elected members. It is recommended that four (4) be lay persons and two (2) clergy persons. This committee shall be considered a task force and neither a quadrennial board nor a non-quadrennial board.
  69. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Appeals composed of nine (9) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and three (3) clergy persons.
    - a. Resolutions not initiated by a constituted board, commission or committee may be referred to those agencies. Any resolution not referred to a constituted board, council, commission or committee shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, and shall be reported by this Committee to the Annual Conference with a recommendation of concurrence or nonconcurrence.
    - b. Resolutions shall be presented to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals no later than March 15 of each Conference Year in order that they may be included in the Pre-Conference Journal.
    - c. Additional resolutions should be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals by the end of the afternoon session on the first full business day of the Annual Conference. The group, individual or Cluster presenting a Resolution must be responsible for printing and distributing their resolution to all members of the Annual Conference on the first full business day of the Conference. The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals will be an "Order of the Day" the morning of the third full business day of Annual Conference.

- d. The Committee on Resolutions and Appeals shall on the first full business day of Annual Conference provide time for persons offering amendments to come before the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals to define and talk about their resolutions.
70. There shall be a Committee on Standing Rules composed of nine (9) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and three (3) clergy persons. The following shall be ex-officio members with vote: The president of the Conference United Methodist Women, the president of the Conference United Methodist Men, the president of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, the Conference secretary, the Conference lay leader, the chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, at least one District Superintendent and the Conference parliamentarian.
71. There shall be a Committee on Deaconess and Home Missionary Service composed of nine (9) elected members. It is recommended that this include three (3) lay persons and three (3) clergy. There shall be three (3) ex-officio members, one (1) from the United Methodist Women, one (1) from the Conference Board of Missions and one (1) from the Board of Diaconal Ministry.

II. RULES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

90. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote.
91. Each district superintendent shall transmit the complete list of lay members to the Annual Conference from the district in triplicate to the secretary of the Annual Conference at least five (5) months prior to the opening date of the Annual Conference.
92. The number of additional lay members required to equalize lay and clergy representation in the Annual Conference shall be implemented on the basis of the membership reported to the last annual conference as follows:

Charge	Membership	Number of Lay Members
1	—	675
676	—	1,125
1,126	—	1,575
1,576	—	2,025
2,026	—	2,475
2,476	—	2,925
2,926	—	3,375
		one two three four five six

The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be authorized to adjust this base up or down so as to provide the needed number of additional lay members. The secretary shall notify the pastors of each charge qualifying for additional lay members by August 15th of each year. Local charges shall be responsible for the expenses of such members.

93. At any session of the Annual Conference where there are to be elections of officers or delegates by ballot, there shall be a Board of Managers which shall conduct the election as the Annual Conference may direct. The Board of Managers shall be nominated and organized by the Conference secretary, elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that this include at least one (1) minister and at least one (1) lay person from each district.
94. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll cards signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from these cards.
95. The officers of the Annual Conference, to be elected quadrennially, shall be elected at the Annual Conference preceding the beginning of the quadrennium and shall be as follows:
  - a. The auditor, whom the Council on Finance and Administration shall nominate.
  - b. The chancellor, upon nomination by the bishop.
  - c. The parliamentarian upon nomination by the bishop.
  - d. The secretary, upon nominations which arise from the floor.
  - e. Assistant secretaries as required, upon nomination by the secretary of the Annual Conference.
  - f. The Conference stenographer, who shall be employed by the Conference secretary.

- g. The treasurer-statistician, who shall be elected on nomination of the Council on Finance and Administration.
- h. The Conference Lay Leader shall be nominated by a nominating committee consisting of the two (2) Board of Laity representatives from the United Methodist Women, two Board of Laity representatives from the United Methodist Men, two (2) Board of Laity representatives from the Council on Youth Ministry and three (3) District Lay Leaders to be elected to this nominating committee by the Board of Laity. This nominating committee shall make its report to the Annual Conference as Report No. 2 of the Report of the Board of Laity without endorsement. The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected each quadrennium and the tenure shall be limited to two (2) consecutive quadrennia. Election to a portion of a quadrennium shall be considered a full quadrennium.
96. Compensation for the officers of the Annual Conference shall be determined by the Council on Finance and Administration subject to the approval of the Annual Conference. The Conference Treasurer shall pay those persons from the appropriate fund(s).
97. Lay members of Boards, Councils, Commissions and Committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
98. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.
99. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his/her seat.
100. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
  - a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
  - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
  - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
  - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the Committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference.
101. It shall be an Order of the Day at the morning session of the second day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions, and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.
102. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third full day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 101, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference secretary for use in the election.
103. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in World Service and Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.

III. DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

110. There shall be a Committee on Nominations in each district. This committee shall make nominations to be forwarded by the two district representatives to the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference.

1. The District Committee on Nominations shall be composed of: The district superintendent as chairperson; the District lay leader; one (1) representative from the District Council on Ministries; two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Women (It is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority.); two (2) representatives of the District Youth Council (It is recommended there be one male, one female, of which one be from an ethnic minority.); and the two (2) Conference Nominating Committee members from the district. Where there is no District Youth Council, the district superintendent shall appoint the two (2) youth members.
2. The District Committee on Nominations shall request of each local pastor, lay leader, Council on Ministries chairperson, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Youth Fellowship president possible nominees to serve. Forms designed by the Conference Nominating Committee will be provided each District Committee, which in turn, shall make them available to each local church. These forms shall include biographical data, local church experience, etc., and shall include a space for the possible nominee's signature indicating willingness to serve.
3. The District Committee on Nominations shall review all forms submitted and will forward these recommendations through the two (2) district representatives to the Annual Conference Nominating Committee after signatures indicating willingness to serve have been secured. District Nominating Committees shall be encouraged to be inclusive of the constituency of the district in their nominations.
111. Where there is a District Conference it shall be composed of all ministers, deaconesses, the church lay leader, the lay members of annual conference, the president of the United Methodist Women, the president of the United Methodist Youth Ministries, and the president of the United Methodist Men from each local church in the district, the district lay leader, and associate lay leaders, the district president of the United Methodist Women, the district president of the United Methodist Men, the president of the District Council on Youth Ministry, the chairperson of the District Council on Ministries, the chairperson of the District Trustees, the chairperson of the District Committee on Church Location and Building, the chairperson of the District Committee on Superintendency, and the district superintendent who shall preside over the Conference.
112. The District lay leader and two associate lay leader(s) shall be nominated by the laity on the district nominating committee and elected by the Annual Conference. They shall be nominated and elected quadrennially and may serve no more than two (2) consecutive quadrennia. Election to membership during a quadrennium shall be considered service for a full quadrennium.
113. There shall be in each district a District Council on Ministries. The district superintendent shall consult with the District Committee on Nominations on the make-up and membership of the District Council on Ministries. (See Paragraph 749 of 1988 Book of Discipline.)
114. The eight (8) elected members of the Committee on the District Superintendency shall be nominated by the District Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference or by the District Conference where it exists per Paragraph 754.
115. There shall be in each district a District Board for Congregational Development (DBCD). The DBCD shall be elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference, upon nomination by the District Committee on Nominations. Vacancies shall be filled annually by election by the Annual Conference. The DBCD shall be composed of not fewer than five (5) or more than nine (9) elected members, plus the district representatives appointed by the district superintendent to the Conference Coordinating Committee for Church Development and Congregational Redevelopment. The district superintendent shall preside over the work of the Board.
  - a. The purpose of the DBCD shall be to promote long term planning and provide a coordinating framework for all the efforts of the district related to new church development, church redevelopment, and congregational revitalization.
  - b. The responsibilities shall be:
    1. Update population statistics and informational data of the district.
    2. Review facility conditions and congregational vitality.
    3. Develop district strategies and priorities for new church development, church redevelopment, and congregational revitalization.
    4. Administer all funds raised at the district level, and received from all conference sources for congregational development.

5. Submit proposals to annual conference boards and agencies (Equitable Salaries, New Church Development Congregational Redevelopment, funds administered by the Trustees of the Annual Conference, Council on Finance and Administration, etc.) for funding of congregational development within the district.
6. Locally held accounts held by the DBCD shall be audited annually, with copy filed to the Council on Finance and Administration. Funds received and disbursed through the office of the Conference Treasurer do not require audits but are managed by voucher only.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

120. Membership on all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees shall not exceed eight (8) consecutive years. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for reelection to that same agency until a lapse of two (2) years.
121. Membership resulting from election by the Annual Conference, shall be limited to one quadrennial agency and one non-quadrennial agency, except ex-officio members as provided.
122. All Annual Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees are quadrennial except the following: The Board of Pensions; The Committee on Investigation; Joint Review Committee; and the Boards of Trust of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate; Belin Property; Camps and Retreats; Claflin College; Columbia College; Epworth Children's Home; Greenwood Methodist Home; The Methodist Home, Orangeburg; Spartanburg Methodist College; Trustees of the Annual Conference; Wofford College; the Methodist Center; Pee Dee Methodist Manor.
123. a. The Annual Conference secretary will notify the director of the Conference Council on Ministries within ten days following Annual Conference of the names, addresses, local churches, and districts of those elected. Within ten days of notification, the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries will notify the elected individuals of their election. The secretaries of the Board, Commission, Committee or Agency will also be notified of those elected by the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, except at the beginning of a quadrennium.
- b. All quadrennial boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall be convened within sixty (60) days upon the close of the Annual Conference session for organization of the boards, councils, commissions and committees. The out-going chairpersons, except where the Annual Conference has elected a chairperson, shall convene and preside over the organizational meeting. Thirty (30) days prior to the organizational meetings, the out-going chairpersons, or the newly elected chairpersons, shall send the following to the members:
  1. Notice of meeting date and place.
  2. Copies of General and Annual Conference mandates for the boards, councils, commissions and committees.
  3. Outline of present organizational structures of the boards, councils, commissions and committees.
  4. Roster of present and newly elected members showing names, addresses, telephone numbers.
- c. The term of office of all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions, and committees shall begin with the organization of that board, council, commission, or committee and continue until their successors are elected and organized. Board, council, commission and committee members may continue to serve on program implementing task groups through the program year in which their term of office ends.
124. Youth and young adult members of the Annual Conference, and their reserves, shall be elected by the District Council on Ministries from nominations which arise from the District Council on Youth Ministry, District Coordinators of Adult Ministry and from the local churches within the districts. Their expense shall be borne by the districts electing them.
125. Members of general church agencies, who serve as ex-officio members of the related conference agencies, shall be ineligible to hold office.
126. Members of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries staff, when appointed as representatives to various Conference Agencies, shall be ex-officio members without vote.
127. Ex-officio members (excluding Conference Staff) of all Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees shall have a vote (unless prohibited by the Discipline), but shall be ineligible to hold office.

128. No trustee, member of the faculty, manager of any interest, or staff person shall at the same time be a member of the parent or supervising board, council, commission or committee, unless otherwise required by the Discipline or Standing Rules.
129. Parent boards may not nominate their own members to any board of trust until said member has been off that parent board for at least one (1) year.
130. Where the Discipline requires a district director or secretary for a conference agency, the person or persons named shall be from among the elected members of that agency.
131. Any member of a quadrennial board, council, commission or committee who is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings of the same, without rendering an acceptable excuse to the chairperson, shall forfeit membership on such board, council, commission or committee and the chairperson shall notify the person of this action. The chairperson shall notify the Committee on Nominations of such forfeiture. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate for election replacements at the next session of the Annual Conference.
132. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission or committee shall automatically cease; provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.
133. All lay persons employed by the agencies of the Conference shall conform to the compulsory retirement age set for the ministers of the church. Such retired lay persons may be employed on a part-time basis without executive administrative responsibility.
134. a. All amounts paid to or on the behalf of the minister (including district superintendents and ministers serving special appointments) to provide for payment of all or part of his/her Social Security obligation shall be reported as salary.
- b. Funds provided for continuing education shall not be reported as salary. Such funds shall be made available to the minister by voucher. The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry recommends that each charge provide $500.00 per year for this purpose.
135. All monies to be credited to the accounts of local churches for the fiscal year shall be in the hands of the Conference treasurer not later than fifteen (15) days after the end of the fiscal year.
136. There shall be twelve (12) districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference.
137. "Moving Day" for the ministers shall be the second Wednesday following the close of Annual Conference.
  - a. Where special circumstances dictate any alteration of this moving date, the affected persons and the district superintendent involved shall be permitted to make the necessary adjustments.
  - b. Ministers shall be paid during the month of June proportionately by the charge from which they are moved and the charge to which they are moved on the basis of the percentage of Sundays actually served in each charge.
  - c. The moving expenses of the pastor shall be paid by the charge to which he/she is moved, not to include more than $150.00 packing expenses.
138. Pastors reports to Annual Conference shall cover the calendar year (January 1-December 31) and shall be sent to the Conference treasurer-statistician so as to reach that office not later than January 15 of the year immediately following.
139. All support ministries or agencies which receive funds from the South Carolina Annual Conference, but which are not directly responsible to the Conference shall submit an annual program and an audit including a management letter to the sponsoring Conference agency.

Addition to S/R 140

140. Persons applying for Sabbatical Leave who are requesting funding for pension and insurance benefits shall apply to the Board of the Ordained Ministry for funding consideration prior to February 1st preceding the Annual Conference session. Funding will be granted for no more than two (2) persons on Sabbatical Leave in any conference appointment year.
141. No requests shall be made for services of the Conference chancellor except by the Episcopal Office.

142. The Conference treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds collected unless otherwise specifically designated. He/she shall be custodian of the funds held by the Annual Conference Trustees. (The Trustees shall administer these funds.) He/she shall be the custodian of the Board of Pension funds. He/she shall be the custodian of the Group Insurance Funds. (The Commission on Group Insurance shall administer these funds.) These and all funds allocated to the various boards, councils, commissions and committees by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be credited by the Conference treasurer in separate accounts to the boards, councils, commissions, and committees. Disbursement of funds to conference agencies shall be made by the Conference treasurer upon order by voucher drawn by the secretary and a co-signer designated by the board, council, commission or committee requesting funds. All boards, councils, commissions, or committees drawing money in block amounts shall make itemized statements of these expenditures to the Conference treasurer as supporting evidence for his/her records.
143. In making nominations for Boards of Trustees, it is recommended that parent boards or agencies (CCOM, BHECM, BHW, MISSIONS) within the framework of the institution's charter (if applicable) maintain at least 25% ethnic minority representation; and when vacancies are filled, at least 25% ethnic minority representation be maintained in the total number of members. It is further recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority; if five to eight members are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons. Nominations from the floor of the session shall comply with the recommended representation.
144. When a leave of absence is granted, and upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration shall make a sustentation grant from the Conference contingency funds not to exceed forty percent of the denominational average compensation paid on a monthly basis. All interim sustentation grants shall be reported to the Annual Conference at its next session. Upon the recommendation of the Bishop and Cabinet and the approval of the Annual Conference, the Commission on Equitable Salaries shall continue to fund the sustentation grants in the same monthly percentage for a period not to exceed one additional conference year. No claim may be made on the sustentation fund when disability benefits are granted from the Board of Pensions.

IV. STANDING RESOLUTIONS

200. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences System of Nomination: The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
1. District Nominations:
    - a. Each local Church may submit nominations to the district superintendent. The district superintendent and the District Board of the Laity will be responsible for requesting a list of nominees from each local Church. These nominees shall be selected by the Administrative Board, certified by the Board chairperson and pastor. Only nominations from local churches, prepared on proper forms and received on scheduled time (on or before January 10th), shall be considered for election by the district's lay members of the succeeding annual conference.
    - b. A meeting of the persons from the District elected to serve as Lay Members of the succeeding Annual Conference shall be held no later than January 30 of the year in which the election occurs. The district superintendent shall convene the meeting and preside. The Lay Members shall vote by ballot until a maximum of fifteen persons receive a majority of the votes cast. Fifteen persons shall be the limit for each District and not the prescribed number for each District. These persons shall be certified to the Conference secretary as District nominees by the district superintendent no later than February 10. A biographical sketch on prescribed form (prepared by the Board of Laity) is to be presented on each local Church nominee to the District meeting.
  2. Conference Procedure
    - a. A maximum of 180 names selected by the Districts shall be listed and presented to the Conference United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, and the Conference Board of the Laity, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. Each of these may select up to fifteen (15) additional names.
    - b. The biographical format shall be consistent for all nominees and shall be submitted on a form prepared by the Board of Laity. It shall be submitted to the Conference Secretary by the District Superintendent no later than March 1st. It shall include prior years elected to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference; sex; race; and age level and a summary of qualifications up to twenty (20) words in length submitted by the nominee. If a biographical sketch does not adhere to specifications of this resolution, the name and sketch shall be omitted from publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.

- c. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots.
  - d. The Conference secretary in preparing the balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical ballots.
201. Guidelines for Training Quadrennial Lay Members of Annual Conference
- a. That a training session be held in each district no later than January 30 of the year in which delegates are elected to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The purpose of this session is to prepare local church members of the Annual Conference for this highly important quadrennial process of the United Methodist Church. The training session, which would precede the district nominations for the pool of possible delegates, would include the following:
    1. The important role of Annual Conference lay members.
    2. Connectionalism/Representative system.
    3. Functions of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference.
    4. Commitment and involvement of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
    5. Process for selection of Bishops.
  - b. That this training session be planned by the District Superintendent, the district lay leader, and a committee of no less than five persons; and include all persons in the district who have served as delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
  - c. That a follow-up session be held in each local church for education of local church members.

SECTION XI

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference has been published in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the die for the annual Conference was cast. The practice was brought to the American shore as the Methodist Societies grew in the Colonies.

In colonial times Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic divisions we find today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The South Carolina Conference was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Annual Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, the first Annual Conference at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of the South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are delineated as shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, following disagreement between blacks and whites about simultaneous but segregated worship of the two races.* (Detailed history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey, by John W. Curry, St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger.** The two conferences became one again in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference.*** The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1990 AND 1989

1. Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies:*Nature of Activities:

- 1.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These financial statements report only those transactions maintained by the Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Significant Accounting Policies:1.2 Fund Accounting:

In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, its accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. Resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund. Although transactions and balances of each board, commission, committee and agency are maintained separately, accounts which have similar characteristics are combined in the accompanying financial statements.

1.3 Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of six months or less to be cash equivalents.

1.4 Investments:

Investments are recorded at cost which approximates market value. Earned income received on investments by the Conference Treasurer is allocated on the last business day of the year to the Conference Boards and Agencies and to certain district funds on the basis of month-end average balances held by the Treasurer.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1990 AND 1989

2. Fidelity Bond:

The General Council on Finance and Administration provides $ 100,000 fidelity bond protection for all Annual Conference Treasurers at no charge. Fidelity bonding for trustees and related staff is provided by the Annual Conference.

3. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF):

3.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church. The plan provides pension benefits to retiring members in addition to providing disability income benefits and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

3.2 The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to twelve percent (12%) of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made, and housing allowance). For lay employees, the Conference contributes nine percent (9%) and the lay employee contributes three percent (3%). CPP contributions for eligible full-time ministers is the equivalent of 4.4% of the minister's plan compensation. MPP and CPP contributions are limited by the current denominational average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Each participant's contributions are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $ 3,250,000 in 1990 and $ 3,099,987 in 1989 to the General Board of Pensions. The Conference is not liable for any unfunded liabilities.

3.3 Minister's pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.
